Married. On Wednesday, July 21, 1897, at 12 o'clock, noon, Miss Alberta E. Kirk was married to Walter E. Terrell, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kirk, Rev. A. T. Ware, pastor of Friends church, officiating.

A number of the friends and relatives of the young couple were present to witness the ceremony and eat of the rich feast given in honor of the occasion. Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known in this community where they have a large circle of friends among both young and old who have the kindest feelings for their future welfare.

In the evening the happy couple drove to their new home near the tile factory, where their friends will find them cozily housed. The Graphic extends congratulations.

From Whittier Cal. Register. Miss Lida Wilson arrived here Saturday from Newberg, Oregon and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Cyrus Baldwin.

Mr. Herbert Cash was hindered several days from starting on his journey to England and did not get off until Wednesday of this week. He went by the Santa Fe line, getting, by arrangement, a sleeper from which he will not have to change from Los Angeles to Montreal, Canada.

Reasons Why Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the Best.

1. Because it affords almost instant relief in case of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus.
2. Because it is the only remedy that never fails in the most severe cases of dysentery and diarrhoea.
3. Because it is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea.
4. Because it is the only remedy that will prevent bilious colic.
5. Because it is the only remedy that will cure epidemic diarrhoea.
6. Because it is the only remedy that can always be depended upon in cases of cholera infantum.
7. Because it is the most prompt and the most reliable medicine in use for bowel complaints.
8. Because it produces no bad results.
9. Because it is pleasant and safe to take.
10. Because it has saved the lives of more people than any other medicine in the world.

We have it from one of authority who attended the wedding Wednesday, that a certain young man, also in attendance didn't bat an eye while the marriage ceremony was being performed. Coming events cast their shadows before and it will be well to watch for new matrimonial developments.

While at San Francisco in attendance at the Endeavor convention President Newlin and Prof. Lewis put up at the same place with Prof. Jessup, and in order to have more time to talk over the past, present and future, the boys took it night about sleeping with Prof. Jessup. It goes without saying that they had a jolly time together.

While running along the sidewalk Wednesday afternoon, Walter Mills' 11-year old daughter ran a slipper about three inches long into her foot. There was no doctor in town at that time and as the slipper was wedged in very tight, the injured foot was poulticed and left until Dr. Littlefield returned in the evening and attended to it.

The Newberg delegation to the San Francisco convention arrived home Saturday evening minus two of the number that started, as Miss Lida Wilson will remain in California for an indefinite time and Prof. C. E. Lewis went on to League City, Southern Texas, to make a long visit with his parents, brothers and sisters whom he had not seen for six years.

Tristram Coggeshall, a banker of West Branch, Iowa, with his wife and daughter, and Lydia Oliphant, sister of Mrs. Coggeshall, are here from Scotts Mills with Mrs. Esther Miles, who is also Mrs. Coggeshall's sister, visiting with C. J. Edwards and wife. They have been through California, and Southern Oregon looking at our western country, and will remain here for several days.

Clarence Elliott met with quite a severe accident Tuesday afternoon. He was cutting wood down back of John Cook's, and while using a man and an iron wedge, a piece of the wedge broke off and flying up, hit him in the fleshy part of the thigh. The piece of metal, which was quite large, penetrated the flesh for about five inches. Dr. Littlefield was called and after probing the wound thoroughly found that the detached metal would have to be cut out if taken out at all, but Mr. Elliott decided to leave it in, and seems to suffer very little inconvenience as he was about town and worked some the next day. The wound is getting along all right and it seems now that there will be no serious consequences.

After enjoying certain other attractive metropolitan attractions the boys rode home Sunday evening.

Edmund Robinson arrived here a few days ago from Fort Jones, California. He came on business connected with his interests here and will return as soon as he gets his business transacted. He is engaged with others at Fort Jones in gold mining and he thinks he has a very good thing. We all hope that he will make a big raise at an early day and come back here to spend it.

In a game of base ball across the river at St. Paul last Saturday afternoon, our boys did up the St. Paul boys by a score of 26 to 22. Our fellows are with reason highly elated over the victory, as the St. Paul team has mowed down every thing before it this season and has been considered almost unconquerable. A number of our base ball enthusiasts accompanied the home team to take in the game.

Johnnie Johnston the elder of the two boys who hauled slop from about town winter before last was made a happy boy last Wednesday evening. He received a letter from his folks in California sending him money with which to come to them. Johnnie will lose no time in taking advantage of his good fortune.

Taking it all around, Doc. Wright of McMinnville, is a pretty sick man. His invincible base ball team, upon which he staked much, lost to the Siwash at Oregon City last Saturday. More than that, the doughty little steamer Grey Eagle pulled out for home and left him and his men to get home the best way they could, which from all reports wasn't an easy job to be accomplished. Doc is tormented unmercifully by lovers of a good joke in McMinnville, but perhaps the saddest thing for him to bear is the sobriquet of "captain" of the Grey Eagle.

For Sale. A fresh cow for sale. Mrs. Laura Judd.

Fish Market. C. F. Butler, dealer in fish, oysters, and poultry. Fresh fish every day.
