

STEAMER EUGENE—TIME CARD.

Makes tri-weekly trips between Dayton and Portland. Leaves Dayton at 7:30 a. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Leaves Portland at 10:30 a. m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

C. & E. CO.—TIME CARD.

Steamer Albany leaves Portland at 6 a. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and arrives at Newberg at 10:30 a. m. Leaves Corvallis at 6 a. m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and arrives at Newberg at 1 p. m.

STEAMERS ALTONA AND RAMONIA.

(Going south, read down; north, up.)

6:45 a. m. LV. Portland ar. p. m. 2:40 8:15 Oregon City. 12:20 11:40 Newberg. 4:30 p. m. Independence. 7:45 7:30 Independence. 6:30

R. & S. CO.—TIME CARD.

Steamer Elmore leaves Portland Sundays and Thursdays at 6 a. m. Retaining leaves Salem Tuesdays and Saturdays at 6 a. m. Leaves Newberg at 10:30 a. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 7 a. m. retaining the following days. Pass Newberg on the down trip at 9:30 a. m. Oliver & Co. agents for railway lines.

OREGONIAN RAILWAY DIVISION

Portland and Yamhill Railway

Trains arrive at Newberg as follows:

North. 7:30 p. m. 12:20 p. m. 12:30 p. m. Every other day. Passenger and Freight Rates at all points. For particulars apply to J. B. FRISSELL, Agent Newberg.

P. FISHER, Newspaper Advertiser Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco. For advertising rates, this paper's kept in his office.

Local Events.

A new lot of picture frames at Hill's drug store.

Eggs taken in exchange for goods at Hodson Bros.

O. K. Edwards spent Sunday in Sheridan visiting "friends."

Recorder Hadley and family are enjoying an outing at Newport on the Yaquina.

Bran, shorts, rolled barley, mill chop, cracked corn, shelled corn, seed corn at Steigleder's.

Cap. Peters and Luke Jones went down to Portland Monday morning where they have a job of brick-laying.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy always affords prompt relief. For sale by A. T. Hill.

Jasper Bales rode up to McMinnville on horseback Friday and got some bicycle fixtures with which to repair his wheel.

George Metcalf left here Monday morning for Brookings, Dakota. He went on a business trip and will be gone but a few weeks.

While J. K. Wright's house is undergoing repairs, the justice with his family are camping in the grove just east of J. M. Wright's residence across the bridge.

If you want best prices and prompt returns for your fruit and other farm products, ship to the Oregon Poultry & Supply Co., 124 First street, Portland.

The Eastern ladies, relatives of the Williams' who have been visiting them for the past few weeks, left for the East Monday morning. Howard Williams accompanied them to Portland.

Mrs. Marietta Lewis of Illinois, who has for the past few weeks been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills and brothers, started with her children for their home Monday morning.

Burning, itching skin diseases instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, unequalled for cuts, bruises, burns. It heals without leaving a scar. A. T. Hill.

What is known as the old gymnasium room in the college building is being finished up and will serve as a recitation room next school year. Noah Hwater and boys have been in command of the work.

Oregon is indeed a great country. Here the average small boy can digest more green apples without the aid of paregoric and the accompanying contortion act than he can in any other known climate.

Farmers who have fat stock to sell will find Stanley & Cooper in the market ready to buy, and families who like juicy steaks and tempting roasts will always find the best market affords at their meat market.

Enos Ellis and family came down on the train from McMinnville Friday morning and visited old friends for a few days. They will make their home down at Scapoose for a few weeks where Enos has a job.

It may be "just for fun," or it may be to close out stock, or it may be for some other reason, but whatever the reason may be we will make you happy when you want anything. Especially shoes, groceries or dry goods. MORRIS & MILES.

Rev. Henry Pemberton and daughter of New Sharon, Iowa, visited last Saturday and Sunday with Rev. A. T. Ware who was an old friend in Iowa. Rev. Pemberton occupied the pulpit of Friends church Sunday in morning and evening services.

A crew of small boys came down from Dundee Saturday afternoon to play a game of base ball with the Newberg youths. After an eight inning battle, the score stood 24 to 53 in favor of Dundee. The Newberg youngsters threaten to retaliate some day in the near future.

A load of Portland men of the old order of Redmen came through town Saturday afternoon on their way to McMinnville to establish a lodge. They stopped and took dinner with proprietor Hendershott. From the clamor of fun and jollity which was wafted from the regions of the Newberg House we would infer that they were as glad to escape the din of the city as the slum street-gamers.

Good shoes for $1.00 at Hodson Bros.

Buy your screen wire of W. P. Hancock.

Call on Steigleder for your flour and feed of all kinds.

Dr. E. P. Dixon and wife were passengers to Portland Tuesday morning.

Newberg is fortunate in having a good plumber. F. H. Story is the best in the county.

Flour, whole wheat flour, graham, wheatlets, buckwheat, corn meal at Steigleder's.

Editor Graves of the Amity Times visited with his parents near Springfield last Friday.

Mrs. Tom Cummings and son Tommy rode up to the county seat Saturday afternoon and called on friends.

Rev. R. A. Atkins occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church in Cornelius, Washington county, last Sunday.

Henry Morris is keeping shop in Hadley's racket establishment while the proprietor is basking at the sea side.

Miss Maud Dickson, daughter of Dr. Dickson, of Portland, has been visiting at G. W. Mitchell's during the week.

Joe Porter and wife who have been spending several weeks out at the coast got back home on Saturday morning's train.

Jesse Edwards, Alex Nichols, and Everett Weesner were passengers to Portland on the down train Friday morning.

Mrs. Dell Powell and little daughter Hazel of Portland visited friends in town the latter part of last week and the first of this.

George Christenson of McMinnville, rode down on his wheel Saturday on business. He has rented out his warehouse for the season.

Hugh Nelson says they will have about 4000 bushels of wheat this season. At the price wheat is likely to be Hugh thinks this will even discount Clondyke.

Joel Wright and wife who have been visiting their daughter Mrs. Irvin Scott for two or three weeks, started back Monday morning for their home near Fairmount, Indiana.

Dr. H. J. Littlefield and E. D. Elwood with their families left for Ocean Park Monday morning where they will rusticate and regale themselves with the salt sea breeze for some weeks.

Mrs. Frank Taylor and daughter, Miss Ethel drove up to McMinnville Friday and visited Frank at the tile factory of Edwards & Taylor. He and their son Douglas returned home with them.

Mr. A. says I paid $12.50 for this worsted suit in Portland, we sell same for $8.50. Our money has same value with Eastern factories, as has Portland money, and sensible ones buy from Barrie & Barrie.

Mrs. Woodward, with Walter, Bernice and Herman, left here Thursday morning for New Whatcom, Washington, where they will spend a week visiting with Judge H. E. Hadley's, who are former Indiana friends.

The new prices being made in our store embraces everything we have. We can offer such bargains as cash buyers are now looking for. Will be pleased to convince you in just one minute when you get ready to buy. MORRIS & MILES.

"I crave but One Minute," said the public speaker in a husky voice; and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure, and proceeded with his oratory. One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled for throat and lung troubles. A. T. Hill.

In the suit brought by Dock Wright on behalf of the McMinnville ball players against C. K. Spaulding, Justice M. Phillips allowed Wright $48.20 and costs. It is quite generally believed that Spaulding will appeal and that the McMinnville boys will understand him when he is through with them.

Last Sunday morning during the sermon by Rev. Pemberton at Friends church, Ollie Hobson took pencil and paper and sketched the speaker with his surroundings in his natural attitude.

The likeness was a very good one and would be recognized by any one. O. J. has an aptitude for such work as this, and could easily hold down a job as cartoonist on a big daily.

On last Sunday morning the reservoir and water pipes were drained and the reservoir washed out. With the water flowing from two fire hydrants it took more than two hours to drain the reservoir after the water was shut off from flowing into it from the spring. With the water flowing into the reservoir constantly a stream of water might play on a fire for several hours without giving out.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey physician and pharmacist, of Olney, Mo; and as he has used the Remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by A. T. Hill.

The town fire company has organized to be ready to assist in time of necessity. It is desired to have about twenty in the company when full. The boys practiced Friday evening and did excellent work for the first trial. It is their intention to practice on Thursday and Friday evenings. The charter members of the company are, captain, Nate Stanley, assistant captain, H. J. Littlefield; Jake Estep, Hans Miller, Sam Terrell, Henry Morris, Sam Lashier, Chas Hodson, Will Bond, Joe Hadley, Ed Holt, Jesse Pressnall, Frank Storey, and Henry Clemmens.

Hodson Bros. for outing blankets.

The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

A fine line of blankets just received at Hodson Bros.

Miss Ethel Taylor has been visiting at Scotts Mills this week.

Screen doors 60c. and up and hinges 15c. at Depot Lumber Yard.

Lia Parker left here Wednesday to join the throng at Newport.

Special sale of Hats, Shoes and Clothing every Saturday at Hodson Bros.

The annual W.C.T.U. picnic was held at the fair grounds on Thursday of last week.

Carl Stanley has gone to Newport with machinery for polishing water agates.

The probabilities are that the Newberg fair will be held the last week in September.

The steamer Grey Eagle is undergoing some necessary repairs at the foot of River street.

Why pay $2.50 and $3.00 for picture frames when Hill will sell you the same frame for $1.50?

The new crop of pumpkin pies is now ripe. Several nice yellow pumpkins appeared in the market a few days ago.

Dr. Littlefield has purchased a wagon suitable to go coasting in and in the future he will neither borrow nor lend.

J. C. Porter has bought the A. M. Mauritzen grocery stock which has been in charge of Oscar Cox for some time.

E. D. Elwood has given up the Oregon Telephone Company's business and the phone is now in Barrie & Barrie's store.

Big, luscious, yellow Crawford peaches are already ready to make their appearance in the market, and a bountiful crop will be harvested.

Mrs. James Clemenson and her mother returned to their home in Portland last Tuesday after a visit of several days at J. C. Clemenson's.

Reuben Everest says his hop crop bids fair to be very good, some reports to the contrary notwithstanding. Picking in his yard will begin early.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding who has been visiting in California for several weeks arrived home Monday. Charley came up with her from Portland.

Ore Price and Harry Hendershott have a job of measuring hops the coming hopping season for a party named Ehlen across the river near Butteville.

The exodus of a number of Newbergers to the different seaside resorts has had the effect of bringing about a very perceptible coolness in Newberg.

Bert Weesner has sold his delivery business to Gord Worden. Gord is a hustler and he says he intends to make a living out of the business. Success to him.

Miss Cora Comer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Comer, arrived here from Seattle, Wednesday noon. Miss Comer will teach in the Newberg public school the coming year.

There are lots of "sure enough" eye openers at the sale now commenced at Morris & Miles store. Bring your cash or anything else they can sell and you can make a trade V. Q.

A covered rig passed through town Tuesday with "Ho for the Clondyke" printed on the rear of the canvas. It was headed in the wrong direction for that land of promise however.

Don't nauseate your stomach with teas and bitter herbs, but regulate your liver and sick headache by using those famous little pills known as De Witt's Little Early Risers. A. T. Hill.

Charlie Spaulding has purchased a typewriter of newest make for his use in the office. An increase in his business has made the purchase necessary in order to keep pace with his correspondence.

The finest line of Oxfords, regular beauties, in Black, Tan and Ox Blood is now being opened. See our window for a few samples. The new price catches every pair. MORRIS & MILES.

Mrs. George Morris and children are over from Tillamook county visiting with Mrs. Morris' mother, Mrs. Sue Holloway. They will remain here, and later in the fall George will come out and spend the winter at Newberg.

"They don't make much fuss about it." We are speaking of De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles. They never gripe. A. T. Hill.

Harvesting is well along now and every report from the country indicates that prune drying and hop picking will come on at least two weeks earlier than usual. The outlook for the honest tillers of Oregon soil is very promising. Crops are good and prices are firm. What more could be asked for?

There will be a missionary meeting held at Chehalis Center next Saturday evening. Miss Harriett Green of London, England is expected to deliver an address, after which a short program will be rendered. Ice cream will be served at the close, and the proceeds to go for the benefit of the missionary work.

The missionary meeting at Friends church on last Saturday was an occasion of interest. The quarterly reports and personal testimony indicate no relaxation of interest. Mrs. Myrtle Hill was received into membership. The address by Harriett Green, of London, England was especially instructive. Her account of the missionary work of English Friends was very interesting and suggestive. She will address the quarterly meeting on missionary work next Saturday at 3 p. m. in Friends church. All are cordially invited to be present. REPORTER.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Wood wanted at Hodson Bros.

Fine tan shoes reduced from $3.25 to $2 at Hodson Bros.

Sliding window screens 35c. and up, at Depot Lumber Yard.

The Rev. Dulin of Portland will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church next Sunday.

Guy Metcalf left here Wednesday morning for Ballston where he has a job through harvest.

Mrs. J. B. Mount was in the city Wednesday on business in connection with their hardware trade.

Mrs. Rebecca Hodson and daughter, of San Francisco, are visiting with L. M. Parker's and Elias Hodson's.

J. H. Patterson, who clerks for J. C. Porter, has gone over to his home on the Nestucca for a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bales drove down to Portland Thursday to see their daughter, Mrs. Laura Judd, off for California.

Mrs. Laura Judd left here Thursday morning with the children for San Jose, California where she will again join Charley.

The big wheat crop and the prospect for good prices for fruit and hops are giving quite an inspiration for the college this fall.

Mahlon Stanley is pumping wind in A. M. Hoskins' bicycle hospital, in Al's absence while catching flounder at Yaquina bay.

Look well to your garden gates. Grass is getting short and the industrious family cow is doing her best to keep up the supply of milk.

Mrs. Mattie McDaniel is visiting at Dayton and assisting Mrs. Ole Hatfield in arranging to get off to California, where Ole has been for several months.

The George W. Mitchell farm of forty acres, near town, was sold last week to Columbus Mackey for $3200. This is a nice place and is certainly a bargain at the price.

Wheat was selling at seventy-four cents at Christensen & Miller's warehouse on Thursday. This is almost double the price wheat started out at last season.

Harley Dixon went down to Sherwood Wednesday morning on the train. During the day he yanked out obstreperous "toofies" which were brought to him by suffering citizens.

G. R. Gallant, of Ashland, a plumber by trade, who is seeing the Willamette valley astride a wheel arrived here Wednesday and is visiting with his wife's uncle, J. K. Blair.

Fred Jackson drove up to McMinnville Wednesday with a load of teachers who are going through the ordeal of striving to answer the county superintendent's questions.

Letters were received here on Thursday from the Newberg Clondykers mailed at Mary Island on last Saturday. The contents were unknown when the Graphic went to press.

Jo Heston drove down to Portland Thursday for a load of freight for J. B. Mount. Neither the railroad nor the steamboats carry powder any more, so it must be hauled by wagon.

Vim, vigor and victory—these are the characteristics of De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness and all stomach and liver troubles. A. T. Hill.

J. S. Baker received word from Portland by telephone that the house of his son-in-law Dr. Davis was burned to the ground early Saturday morning. This was a very heavy loss as the house cost $12,000, and was the finest in Albina.

The Reporter appeared in an enlarged form last week and the publishers promise a whole lot of good reading for the money. The Reporter has seen an excellent paper all along and its friends will be glad to note such signs of prosperity.

The prospects for a full attendance at Pacific College this fall was never better. Pres. Newlin informs us that he hears of new students who have a prospect of attending this year almost every day. The athletic team bids fair to be the strongest the college has ever had.

Superintendents of departments for the fair have been appointed as follows: Horses, A. P. Johnson; Cattle, J. M. Atkinson; sheep, goats and hogs, A. P. Oliver; farm and garden, N. L. Wiley; fruit, J. H. Rees and A. C. Churehill; Machinery, N. C. Christensen. Mrs. A. M. Woodward, Mrs. E. D. Elwood, Mrs. Enna Bell and Mrs. Sade Hoskins have been appointed as a committee to select superintendents for the departments in the pavilion and have charge of the same.

A Half Fare Rate.

During the week of the Oregon State Fair the Southern Pacific railroad will sell tickets at all points on its lines at one fare for the round trip. This is done to increase the attendance at the fair and stimulate travel on the road.

Notice.

The council of the city of Newberg, Oregon, will receive sealed bids for furnishing material and repairing the bridge in the eastern part of the city. Also bids for material and construction of new bridge entire at same place. Bids to be opened at the next regular meeting of the council to be held September 6, 1897. Specifications on file at Stanley & Cooper's meat market, Newberg, Oregon. The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the city council.

DO You Want To Save Your Money?

Our prices draw customers from 15 MILES away. Must be something in them.

Table listing various goods and prices: Coffee-Arbuckle or Lion 15c, Red Seal Lye-Best made 5c, Tea dust-Makes a good drink 9c, Jelly-A wooden bucket full 50c, Matches-The good old fashioned kind-7 Boxes 10c, A Splendid Syrup 65c, A good syrup from the barrel, per gallon 20c, Rolled Oats-Very best-Lower than ever. 20c, Corn Starch 4 for 25c, Crackers per box 20c, Arm & Hammer Brand 4 lb 25c, Vinegar pure cider strong and good, per gallon 15c, Grandpa's Wonder Soap 5c, Royal Savon Soap-2 bars for 5c, Squirrel Poison 30c, Tomatoes-best brand one can 7c.

SHOES—Everybody surprised—everybody pleased. We do just as we say—Lower than ever before and lower than anybody.

This week a brand new line of prices again on goods that you have not seen—embracing the best of everything—Mens, Women and Childrens all go—Everything goes.

A NEW LOT OF DRY GOODS — IN TODAY.

A new and nobby line of Straw Hats, just in from Eastern Market at lowest prices you ever heard quoted.

Yours, for your best interests, MORRIS & MILES.

CASH DEALING

Buying direct from Atlantic Coast Manufacturers is the secret of our selling so Cheaply.

Fine Worsted Suits $8.50.

Cheviott Wool Suits $5.00

Full line of Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Furnishings, Stationery, etc., in proportion. Barrie & Barrie Frank Hobson Combine.

Groceries FRESH & CLEAN. JOSEPH WILSON. PACIFIC COLLEGE. Newberg, Ore. College Classes, Normal Course, Book-keeping, All the Grammar School Studies, Music and Art.

BANK OF NEWBERG. CAPITAL STOCK, $30,000. DIRECTORS: JESSE EDWARDS, E. H. WOODWARD, B. C. MILES, N. E. BRITT, J. C. COLCORD.

Oregon Poultry & Supply Co. COMMISSION MERCHANTS. 124 FIRST STREET - PORTLAND ORE.

Notice. The council of the city of Newberg, Oregon, will receive sealed bids for furnishing material and repairing the bridge in the eastern part of the city. Also bids for material and construction of new bridge entire at same place. Bids to be opened at the next regular meeting of the council to be held September 6, 1897. Specifications on file at Stanley & Cooper's meat market, Newberg, Oregon. The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the city council.

Notice. The council of the city of Newberg, Oregon, will receive sealed bids for furnishing material and repairing the bridge in the eastern part of the city. Also bids for material and construction of new bridge entire at same place. Bids to be opened at the next regular meeting of the council to be held September 6, 1897. Specifications on file at Stanley & Cooper's meat market, Newberg, Oregon. The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the city council.

Notice. The council of the city of Newberg, Oregon, will receive sealed bids for furnishing material and repairing the bridge in the eastern part of the city. Also bids for material and construction of new bridge entire at same place. Bids to be opened at the next regular meeting of the council to be held September 6, 1897. Specifications on file at Stanley & Cooper's meat market, Newberg, Oregon. The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the city council.