TROUBLE IN HAYTI.

Arrest of a German Brings Down the Port au Prince, Hayti, Nov. 2.-Serious trouble has arisen between Hayti and Germany. The German minister to this republic, Count Schwerein, has hauled down his flag and, according to BRIEF AND INTERESTING ITEMS current report, three German warships are expected here to back up the ultiindemnity for the alleged illegal arrest Comprehensive Review of the Import- and imprisonment of a German citizen. The affair has caused considerable excitement among the native population, and some of the people have threatened to kill the German minister and all the Germans in the place and vicinity.

The affair grew out of the arrest a few weeks ago of a German named Linders. The Germans say that a dozen policemen entered Linder's house and arrested one of his servants. Mr. Linders went to the central police headquarters to complain against this action of the police, but was himself arrested, charged with assaulting and attempting to murder police officers in the execution of their duty. Linders was condemned to pay a fine of $400 and to undergo one month's imprisonment, and was taken to jail. Claiming he was innocent, Linders demanded sourt to be unconstitutional, and in and obtained a second trial, and was condemned to pay a fine of $500, and Since the cruiser Baltimore has been was sentenced to one year's imprisonanchored at San Francisco preparing to ment. The German minister telereported to the police almost daily the giving details of the case. On October 17, the German minister went to the president of Hayti and demanded, in the name of the German emperor, that have to be sent from the East to fi.l manded for every day he spent in prison, 23 in all, an indemnity of $1,000 in gold, adding that for every solidate the wire manufactories of the day Linders was kept a prisoner after that notification he (the German minister) would demand an indemnity of

MARIE VAN ZANDT'S INSULT.

An Explanation of the Memorable Event of 1885. Paris, Nov. 1 .- A remarkable story going the rounds as to the real animus of the tremendous demonstration in March, 1805, against Marie Van Zandt, the American singer.

M. Goron, formerly a high official at the prefecture of police, declares that he memorable and offensive attacks upon the singer was engendered by the intended demonstration against him by radicals and socialists after the disastrous defeat of the French at Langson, Annam. M. Camercarz, the prefect of police of the day, was consulted as to how to prevent the intended demonstration against the unpopular M. Ferry, and according to M. Goron, he suggested a monster demonstration against Miss Van Zandt. All the available detectives and theatrical claques were sent to the opera comique to howl and hiss the American singer. Whenever there was a lull in the uproar the cry was raised that Miss Van Zandt was going out by another door, and so skilfull was the trick that the excitement was continued until midnight and the intended M. Ferry demonstration was delayed until too late to go to the foreign office.

INDIANS ON THE RAMPAGE.

The Trouble in Colorado Is Becoming More Serious. Denver, Nov. 1 .- The Times received the following at noon today: Steamboat Springs, Oct. 31 .- A coureir has just arrived here bringing a message from Game Warden Wilcox to Sheriff Nieman for help. The Indians have burned Thompson's ranch, near Cross mountain, and have killed one Gable, a messenger sent out by Wilcox.

The latter tried to arrest the Indians for violating the game laws. They resisted and began to fight. Five Indians were killed, and Sub-Chief Star mortally wounded. The Indians had stacks of green deer hides in their possession, and were slaughtering on all sides. The fight occurred 90 miles west of Steamboat Springs. One hundred determined men are now on their way to aid the sheriff.

Settlers are gathering on Vaughn's ranch at Lay, Colo. The Indians have threatened to pillage and murder. Squaws have been sent back to the reservation, and reinforcements are coming. State troops may be called for, if the sheriff finds matters as serious as reported.
