Mrs. Vannie Martin, the financial agent for Pacific College will leave here in a few days for the East to engage in work for the college during the winter.
If you want best prices and prompt returns for your fruit and other farm products, ship to the Oregon Poultry & Supply Co., 124 First street, Portland.
Great pleasure would be taken in giving receipts for a number of back subscriptions that are long past due to the Graphic and becoming rusty and "dead" work.
Col and Lee Stanley came up from Portland Sunday on the boat for a short visit with friends and relatives, returning Monday morning to their work at the Portland oil mills.
Rev. A. Parker, of Payallup, Washington has been here this week visiting his brother Lin and other relatives. He attended Friends church last Sunday and took part in the services.
The college athletic association has been at considerable expense and hard work in furnishing amusement for the public, and consequently the boys don't think those who witness the game from the outside are treating them right. If you want the good will of the boys pay your fee at the gate and walk in side.
There is a time for everything; and the time to attend to a cold is when it comes. Don't wait till you have consumption but prevent it by using One Minute Cough Cure, the great remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.
C. F. MOORE & Co.

Colored photograph and transparent pictures on glass at Smith's Photo Gallery. Call and see samples.
Mrs. Mary E. K. Edwards will occupy the pulpit of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at McMinnville Sunday morning.
It might not be out of place for O. K. to arise and inform an anxious public what he intends to do with that new house he is building.
John Bristow says rain fell to the amount of four and five sixteenths of an inch in twenty four hours, from Wednesday noon to Thursday noon.
Since getting his family located in Portland, Dr. McConnell has been spending his time in Newberg settling up his business affairs here and making collections.
G. W. Mitchell had a letter from Dave Lamb in which he says the snow is two feet deep at the Red Rock mines in the Cascades. Dave will winter in Newberg.
Jo Woods arrived home from Wasco last week where he has been engaged in teaming. He was obliged to quit a good job on account of something like a felon on one hand.
The public reading room will be open each evening in the week from six till nine o'clock except Wednesdays and Sundays. On Sundays from two to four in the afternoon.
Mrs. J. T. Smith taught in Miss Cora Comer's place in the public school last week for a few days in the absence of the latter, who was at McMinnville taking the examination.
Farmers who have fat stock to sell will find Stanley & Cooper in the market ready to buy, and families who like juicy steaks and tempting roasts will always find the best market affords at their meat market.
The foot ball game on Saturday will no doubt be a close and interesting one and well worth seeing. The Indians have a new manager and the boys are assured that they will be on hand this time without fail.
"They don't make much fuss about it." We are speaking of De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles. They never gripe.
C. F. MOORE & Co.

George Schneller, who lives out east of town in the gap of the mountain, was in town last Saturday arranging to give a son, who works for the electric light company at Oregon City, a little financial assistance, owing to the fact that the young man is preparing to take unto himself a wife.
A. M. Hoskins returned home from his trip to California last Friday fully persuaded that Oregon is still in the lead. He took his wheel along and used it to good advantage in riding about the country, sight seeing. He spent some time at San Francisco, San Jose, Oakland and Sacramento.
Those who favor fostering home industries ought to do their shipping by the steamer Grey Eagle. This steamer is owned and operated by Newberg people entirely and Newberg will give her hearty support if the right thing is done. The owners inform the Graphic that they are well pleased with the business they are getting from here already but there is always room for more.
The second quarterly meeting for Newberg, White-on and Amity circuit will convene in the Free Methodist church in Newberg, Friday, November 19, at 7 o'clock p. m. and will hold over the Sabbath, and longer if the interest demands it. The elder, Rev. B. F. Smalley and Rev. Cline, evangelist, just from Kansas with his band of workers will be present. All are cordially invited to attend.
The Graphic has a number of delinquent subscribers who get their mail at other offices who will confer a favor on the publisher if they will pay up. Some of them have been notified by letter who seem to be quite forgetful and then there are others who are well aware they are behind who are equally guilty of negligence. It is very distasteful to the Graphic to be obliged to speak out so plainly in its columns but cash is what talks where printers and printers bills are to pay. Please take the hint.
It often happens that the doctor is out of town when most needed. The two year old daughter of J. Y. Schenck, of Caddo Ind. Ter, was threatened with croup, he writes. "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor at once; but as he was out of town, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which relieved the child immediately." A bottle of that remedy in the house will often save the expense of a doctor's bill, besides the anxiety always occasioned by serious sickness. When it is given as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. Thousands of mothers always keep it in their homes. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

A new line of stationery will be opened out at the post office this week.
Miss Pearl Cummings returned Tuesday from a few days' visit with Portland friends.
Harry Reece, of Portland, visited with the Hendershott family at the Newberg Hotel last Monday night.
Calvin Stanley returned last Saturday from a varied experience with boarding houses in Alaska, content to remain in Newberg for the winter.
We are pleased to announce that Mrs. A. B. Cornell who went to the Good Samaritan hospital some ten days ago for treatment, is improving.
The ladies of the Methodist church will give a musical and literary entertainment at the hall next Thursday night. Don't forget the time and place.
Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. Rev. Geo. H. Bennett will preach the sermon. All are invited.
There will be a regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Wednesday, November 24 at 2 p. m. A discussion on scientific temperance will be one of the features of the meeting.
Burning, itching skin diseases instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, unequalled for cuts, bruises, burns. It heals without leaving a scar.
C. F. MOORE & Co.

At the Methodist church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. G. H. Bennett will preach on the theme, "Dead-Beats," and on "The Drawn Sword," at 7:30 p. m. All are invited.
Mayor Littlefield and the city council are in receipt of an invitation to attend the fiftieth anniversary of the Whitman massacre, to be held at Walla Walla, Washington, November 24-30.
The women's foreign missionary society of Friends church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. T. Smith on Saturday at three o'clock in the afternoon. All who are interested in missionary work are invited.
Don't nauseate your stomach with teas and bitter herbs, but regulate your liver and sick headache by using those famous little pills known as De Witt's Little Early Risers.
C. F. MOORE & Co.

President Newlin's lecture for next week will be given in the college chapel on Tuesday evening instead of Thursday evening as heretofore. This change has been made on account of the Thanksgiving vacation. Eight o'clock is the hour.
"I crave but One Minute," said the public speaker in a husky voice; and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure, and proceeded with his oratory. One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled for throat and lung troubles.
C. F. MOORE & Co.

In speaking of the Indians who are to play ball here Saturday with the college boys the Albany Democrat says: "It is an interesting and commendable fact that whenever the Indian boys of Chemawa play foot ball the papers afterwards speak of their gentlemanly ways. That is food for white hoodlums who do not play ball to reflect upon."
Dr. A. J. and E. W. Rossett, the physicians who have recently come to Newberg to take Dr. McConnell's place are now located and ready to answer calls, as will be seen from their card in this issue of the Graphic. They say they are pleased with their new location and judging from their appearance it is safe to predict that the people will be pleased with them.
G. W. Mitchell has had a report from samples of sugar beets of his own raising which he sent to G. W. Shaw of the chemical department of the State Agricultural College which is highly satisfactory. The report shows the average weight of samples tested to be 116 grains, per cent of sugar 15.4, yielded in tons per acre 134, coefficient of purity 89, probable yield of sugar per acre from a crop of tons 4,226 pounds.
A little child of J. R. Hays, living near Colquitt, Ga., overturned a pot of boiling water, scalding itself so severely that the skin came off its breast and limbs. The distressed parents sent to Mr. Bush, a merchant of Colquitt, for a remedy, and he promptly forwarded Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The child was suffering intensely, but was relieved by a single application of the Pain Balm. Another application or two made it sound well. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

The Clow Concert Co.'s entertainments at Armory Hall last Friday and Saturday evenings were fairly well attended and gave good satisfaction. While the music was not strictly first-class and lacked expression, the fact that the performers were children from 8 to 15 years of age, excused many defects. Master Charles in his cornet solo succeeded in putting more wind into his instrument, and keeping it up longer, than many professionals; while 8-year-old Jimmie, as a negro delineator was the one bright spot of the performance. Altogether the entertainment was such that they may be assured as a good house should they return.

Sectional Literature.
Oh, give me a haystack, a glow and a chicken!
A homely old stranger with graces on his vest
The plot—and I'll write you
A tale of the West.
Oh, give me a spinster, sour, nasal and lanky.
A lover gone West, and a house falling down,
A pedigree long, and a school teaching Yankee,
I'll write you
A tale of the South.
Oh, give me a club (not the kind the "cops" carry).
A bottle or two of champagne to uncock,
A dudu, and some slang, and a maiden to marry.
And see! I will make you
A tale of New York.
—Tuck.

COLLEGE NOTES.
Walter Macy was at the college Friday morning. Everybody is very anxious to see him in school again as of yore.
Pacific College lines up against the Indian Braves of Chemawa tomorrow on the college campus.
Hugh Nelson has been greatly bothered the past week with a bad leg. It is greatly feared that he will not be able to play tomorrow.
Charley Wilson and Will Allen, team men of last year who are again playing ball will be a strength to the home team.
The quarterly meeting of the board of directors was held Monday morning in the President's office.
It is rumored that four members of the Senior preps have organized themselves into a warbling society.
The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. will hold a joint missionary meeting at the college Sunday afternoon. Everybody is invited.
The Kirk brothers have moved to town for the winter. They live in the west end of town not far from the depot.
Rev. Joseph Hall and daughter attended class recitations at the college Thursday morning. Rev. Hall spoke briefly to the students in chapel exercises.
The young ladies played their first game of ball in the gymnasium Wednesday evening after school. From what could be heard we would infer that more exercise was being taken in voice culture than in basket ball, although Miss Macy did sprain an ankle so she could not attend to her recitations the following day.
Following the custom which has prevailed in Newberg for several years union thanksgiving services will be held in the Baptist church on Thursday, November 25 at—o'clock a. m. The Baptists, Presbyterians, Free Methodists and Friends will join in holding the services and a general invitation is extended to the public to attend.
In the course of union services it falls to the Friends church to take the lead this year and consequently President Newlin will preach the thanksgiving sermon.

Cupid's Knot.
A merry company witnessed a very happy wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kincaid near Springbrook, at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday where their accomplished daughter, Blanche, united her life and fortunes with those of U. G. Heater. The knot was most simply though tightly tied by Rev. G. H. Bennett. The ceremony was followed by a royal dinner of choice viands such as only Oregon can afford. The contracting parties are among Springbrook's most popular young people and carry with them the congratulations of many friends.
Married.
Wednesday November 17, Mr. Lee Smock and Miss Susie Richard, both of Sherwood, Oregon, at the residence of J. C. Smock, Rev. A. Brady officiating. The bridal couple left on Thursday morning's train for a trip to San Francisco, California.
A certain five-year-old boy who, in his earliest trousers, could only thrust his hand through his belt for want of pockets, had his heart rejoiced at last with a pair of pants which had real pockets in them. His first act was to come down to a male relative with his hands stuck promptly in these pockets and to exclaim: "Look! I've got pockets with floors in 'em!"

"What is an average?" asked the teacher. The class seemed to be posed, but the little girl held out her hand eagerly: "Please, its what a hen lays her egg on." Bewildered followed, but the mite was justified by the lesson book, in which was written: "The hen lays 200 eggs a year on an average."
It was their first quarrel, and Eve had given him a piece of her mind. "I little thought," muttered Adam, as he went and sat on a stump and fanned himself with a big leaf, "I would ever find a rib roast so unpalatable."
"What's the meanin' of responsibility Billy."
"O, well, suppose as yer 'ad two buttons on yer trousers, an' one cum orf; w'y all the responsibility 'ud be on the other!"
