

OREGONIAN RAILWAY DIVISION
PORTLAND AND YAMHILL RAILWAY.
TRAINS NORTH.
No. 31 Ar. 7:30 a. m. At Portland 9:30 a. m.
No. 34 Ar. 11:50 a. m. At Portland 1:30 p. m.
Runs Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.
TRAINS SOUTH.
No. 32 Ar. 12:25 p. m. At Portland 12:30 p. m.
No. 33 Ar. 6:30 p. m. Leaves Portland 1:30 p. m.
Runs Monday, Wednesday and Friday.
Passenger and Freight Rates to all points can be obtained from
C. B. FISHER, Agent
Newberg, Oregon.

STEAMERS ALTONA AND RAMONA.
Leave Portland for Newberg, Salem and Independence every morning (except Sunday) at 6:45 a. m. arrive Newberg 11:30; going down, leave Independence at 6:20 a. m., Salem 7:45, Newberg 10:50, arrive Portland 4 p. m.

C. B. FISHER, Newspaper Advertising Agent,
21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is the authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

Local Events.

C. B. Wilson wants your Veal—cash.
Calvin Stanley left for California last week.
A stock of clover and timothy seed just received.
CHRISTENSON & SAWYER.
Finest line of calling cards in town at the Graphic office.

Miss Elna Stratton returned to Portland last Tuesday morning.
Mitchell & Moore will ship a car load of tile to Tualatin this week.
Will Wright, of Portland, is visiting with his wife and son this week.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Will Wright, on Monday, March 7, 1893, a son.
Harrison Carter is expected home from his trip to Honolulu at an early day.

James Hammett & Sons shipped two car loads of brick to Dayton last week.
Dr. H. J. Littlefield and family visited with relatives up the valley last Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Shenfeld, of Salem, is visiting in town with the families of the Drs. Rossiter.
For grass seeds, flower seeds, garden seeds and all kinds of seeds, call on E. C. Ward & Co.

A call is out for a meeting of the prohibition club at the W.C.T.U. rooms on Thursday evening of next week.
There is a movement on foot to use the old Band stand, on First street, as headquarters for the fire department.

Samuel Parrett, of Dundee, left on Wednesday morning for a trip east of the mountains. He will be gone a week or more.
Mrs. C. J. Storey, who has been visiting in town for some time with her son, F. H. Storey, returned home the first of the week.

The city council met in regular session last Monday evening and transacted routine business. Bills to the amount of $132 were allowed.
A man named McClure, an invalid who lived on River street for some time a couple of years ago, died near St. Paul the first of the week.

Charley Mitchell, Granville Everest, and the Misses Bond and Mitchell attended the Booth Army Salvation meetings at Portland Saturday and Sunday.
The Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., at Armory hall next Wednesday evening, gives the old style play without the frills usually attached. Street parade at noon.

At the school election held last Monday, J. C. Colcord was elected director for three years and Moses Votaw clerk for one year. The attendance at the meeting was exceedingly slim.
Children and adults tortured by burns, scalds, injuries, eczema or skin diseases may secure instant relief by using De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is the great Pile remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.

For the benefit of those who want to lay by the required number of eggs for a royal feast it may be well to state that Easter Sunday comes on April 10. Small boys should not chase the hens too hard however.
Mrs. Olive M. Skelton, whose home is at St. Paul, Minnesota, visited with the Rossiters in Newberg a few days ago. Mrs. Skelton came here from Aberdeen, Washington, where she had been spending the winter.

Hoskins Bros. are now manufacturing their own candies at the Star Bakery. They make a number of different kinds and as only a limited amount is made at a time their candies are always fresh. In appearance as well as taste their fine candies rank with the best on the market.
Watt Henderson, of McMinnville, was in town last week driving one of his river rigs. There is some talk of Mr. Henderson as a possible candidate for sheriff on the republican ticket again. If Watt should be put up he would make a hot race for anyone the opposition might nominate.

The Oregon City Transportation Co. has sold the steamer Ramona to parties who will take her to Alaska to ply on the waters of the Northwest Territory. It is reported that the company contemplates building another steamer for the Willamette river business to cost $15,000. It is said to say that any steamer this company launches will be a good one.

For some time I have suffered with rheumatism and tried every imaginable remedy, without effect. Mr. F. G. S. Wells advised me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, telling me that it had cured many cases of long standing like mine. I have used four bottles and feel sure that one more bottle will make me cure complete.—A. P. Kontz, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.

Levi Myers has applied for a patent on a hop bin of his own invention which he claims is a great improvement over the old bin in common use among hop growers. A number of bins are used in all yards during the picking season and it is a great inconvenience to move the bins about from place to place. In order to overcome this inconvenience Mr. Myers has invented one that may be folded up and transported from place to place, easily, as well as stored away folded when the season is over.

The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.
E. C. Ward & Co. carries a complete stock of poultry supplies.
Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling.
Charley Wilson is buying eggs and all kinds of poultry and pays cash. See him.
If you want whole corn, cracked corn, wheat, oats, bran or flour, see E. C. Ward & Co.
C. F. Moore spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Portland in the interests of his drug business.
Andrew Christenson left here on Wednesday for Sioux City, Iowa, taking advantage of the low rates.
Colored photograph and transparent pictures on glass at Smith's Photo Gallery. Call and see samples.
Earl Hanson has been down from Salem a day or two this week driving a Singer sewing machine wagon.
Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Leavitt who have been at Baker City for the past two years are in town visiting with relatives.
The harness shop has been removed to Votaw's furniture store on First street. Call if you need any repairing done.
Secure your tickets at once for Uncle Tom's Cabin, for they are selling rapidly. For sale at W. H. Miller's jewelry store.
R. S. Inglis will graduate from the Oakland, California, Theological Seminary in April. He will probably enter the ministry in California.
Lon Presnell, proprietor of the steam laundry drives a new laundry wagon. It makes a very neat and attractive appearance and indicates prosperity. Lon says the laundry is doing a very nice business now.
Farmers who have fat stock to sell will find Stanley & Cooper in the market ready to buy, and families who like juicy steaks and tempting roasts will always find the best the market affords at their meat market.
Dr. H. J. Littlefield has bought the south half of the C. F. Moore block. This is a fine location and no one need be surprised to see a handsome residence going up there one of these days. Dock looks good neighbors.
H. R. Cobb and E. W. Dunbar, besides spraying their own orchards are doing some work for others. Our people ought to get stirred up on this question. There are too few orchards being cleared of moss and insect eggs in this community.
Nick Walls' residence, a small building near the depot at Dundee, caught fire last Tuesday from a defective fuse and burned down. The furniture was about all saved by being hastily removed when the fire was discovered. Some fruit was lost.
Albany is a larger town than Newberg and has three or four print shops. The Graphic is quite willing to compare the posters gotten out at this shop for the state oratorical held here a year ago, with the posters recently printed at an Albany print shop for the oratorical to be held in that city this week.
Ore Price who was down from McMinnville had charge of Moore & Co.'s drug store Tuesday and Wednesday while Charley was in the city. Ore has been engaged by the college board to do some work for the college in the way of settling up and collecting back accounts. He will enter on the work on his return from McMinnville next week.
Dempsey Smith, who has been tied down pretty closely on the farm since coming to Oregon has turned the place over to his brother John for the season and will take a lay off for a while at least. He will go east for the mountains and thinks he will spend some time rustating in the Cascade range. Just how long he will be away he is unable to state at present.
Miss Ella Pickett, of Salem, who has been teaching in a commercial school in Colorado during the past year, visited during the first part of the week with the Osbornes at the college boarding hall and other friends in town. She will return to Colorado in a short time where she will wed the principal of the school where she was teaching.
From all over the country comes words of praise for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Here is a sample letter from Mrs. C. Shep. of Little Rock, Ark: "I was suffering from a severe cold, when I read of the cures that had been effected by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I concluded to give it a trial and accordingly procured a bottle. It gave prompt relief, and I have the best reason for recommending it very highly, which I do with pleasure." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.
These nice spring days about half of the women seen on the streets are carrying rose entanglements, shrubs or flower seeds. One of them when spoken to about it remarked that the women were compelled to do it as the men would not look after such things. Most men had a rather unsatisfactory experience with sprouts when they were boys, the remembrance of which causes them to look with suspicion on a bunch of shrubbery in the hands of a woman.
Horace Cox and family, former residents of Newberg, but who have been living at Oakesdale, Washington, for several years, stopped off here Tuesday evening while on their way to California where they will spend some time visiting with his parents and brothers. He has a brother who is principal of the city schools at Santa Rosa, while another one is a member of the faculty of Stanford University. Mr. Cox was a teacher in this community several years ago and he finds many former friends here to visit with. Since going to Oakesdale he has had a permanent position as book keeper with a grain shipping firm at a good salary, and although his gray hairs indicate that age is creeping on, he looks like he had been well treated. They will return home in April or May.

Wm. Hendershott went to Dayton Tuesday on a hop deal.
The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.
Mrs. Silas Comer went to Salem on Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends in the capital city.
Mrs. Bell Cardinat will visit with her mother Mrs. Disney and her sister Mrs. Hardwick until her husband returns from Klondike.
The members of the M. E. church have under consideration the matter of enlarging and otherwise improving their church building.
To insure a good seat get tickets at once at Miller's jewelry store, for the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Armory hall, Wednesday next.
The frosty mornings have been having this week are an advantage rather than a detriment as the frost and cool weather assists in holding the fruit buds back.
Edgar L. Hampton, a former resident of Newberg is managing editor of the Seattle Spirit, a new paper launched on the sea of journalism recently. Success to Ed in his new venture.
Rev. Joseph Hall is busily engaged in setting an orchard of a thousand or more trees on the land recently purchased of Wm. Everest a half mile east of town. This is fine weather for tree setting.
The performance of Johnson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Wednesday next at Armory hall, promises to be the best show we have ever had in Newberg. Those who miss it will miss the event of the season.
Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.
A. M. Hoskins, the bicycle man, is having a big run in Waverley wheels. His sales have been so heavy that he was compelled to order an invoice of wheels by wire a week ago. A pretty good reckoning for so early in the season.
At the Friends church next Sabbath the subject of the morning service will be "The Power of Christ's Love," and of the evening service, "The Friendship of Christ"—the last two sermons of the "Abiding" series. All cordially invited. CHAS. E. LEWIS, Pastor.
After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa. was cured by using a single box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Graphic is informed that the statement of W. R. Edwards to the effect that Ed Rogers had wronged him out of $400 is only partially true. Parties who claim to know say that money paid to the amount of $250 was lost in the fishing business, leaving only $150 to be accounted for by Rogers.
A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Wesleyan Methodists are holding meetings at the Evangelical church every night this week and they will continue until public notice of their closing is given. On Monday there will be three services, the extra hour being 2:30 p. m. The meetings are being conducted by G. L. Shephardson. Everybody invited.
Attorney Clarence Butt was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday as counsel for A. M. Mauritzen in a suit he has against R. L. Sabin. The suit has grown out of the closing out of Mauritzen last summer by Sabin, as agent for the Portland creditors. Mr. Mauritzen and Oscar Cox were down as witnesses in the case.
Newberg will be represented at the State Oratorical contest by Prof. Edwin Morrison, S. T. Stanley, Roy David, Harry Allen, Horvey Hoskins, Otta Pickett, Chas. Redmond, Walter Parker, M. Townsend, Leon Kenworthy, Oscar Cox, Hugh Nelson and W. C. Woodward, the last named being in the contest and representing Pacific College.
Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., memorial services were held at the Friends church on Wednesday evening in honor of the late Frances E. Willard. Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Portland, delivered the address of the evening in which he paid a fitting tribute in eloquent language to the memory of the deceased. A large audience was in attendance.
Uncle Jimmie Barker, since retiring from business, has taken up quarters on his ranch north of town with his brother and is playing the Wm. E. Gladstone act among the forest trees out that way. He says he is getting to be an expert at falling trees and is also much improved in health. Occasionally he makes a trip to town and carries out the mail for the neighbors like a sure enough country boy.
R. A. Harris, of McMinnville, the traveling representative of the Oregonian was in town last Saturday and Sunday. He remarked that the Oregonian was patronized here much better in proportion to the population than at McMinnville, and expressed surprise at the size of the list of dailies taken. Newberg is no slow town when it comes to a matter of keeping posted with reference to the doings of the world at large. Mr. Harris is getting to the front as a newspaper man and the outlook for him in this field is quite bright. Alf Holman, a newspaper man of no mean ability got his start in Yamhill and Harvey Scott was sheltered in this county for a time during his youthful days, and still old Yamhill has only begun to furnish great men for active work in the Northwest.

Wm. Hendershott went to Dayton Tuesday on a hop deal.
The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.
Mrs. Silas Comer went to Salem on Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends in the capital city.
Mrs. Bell Cardinat will visit with her mother Mrs. Disney and her sister Mrs. Hardwick until her husband returns from Klondike.
The members of the M. E. church have under consideration the matter of enlarging and otherwise improving their church building.
To insure a good seat get tickets at once at Miller's jewelry store, for the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Armory hall, Wednesday next.
The frosty mornings have been having this week are an advantage rather than a detriment as the frost and cool weather assists in holding the fruit buds back.
Edgar L. Hampton, a former resident of Newberg is managing editor of the Seattle Spirit, a new paper launched on the sea of journalism recently. Success to Ed in his new venture.
Rev. Joseph Hall is busily engaged in setting an orchard of a thousand or more trees on the land recently purchased of Wm. Everest a half mile east of town. This is fine weather for tree setting.
The performance of Johnson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Wednesday next at Armory hall, promises to be the best show we have ever had in Newberg. Those who miss it will miss the event of the season.
Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.
A. M. Hoskins, the bicycle man, is having a big run in Waverley wheels. His sales have been so heavy that he was compelled to order an invoice of wheels by wire a week ago. A pretty good reckoning for so early in the season.
At the Friends church next Sabbath the subject of the morning service will be "The Power of Christ's Love," and of the evening service, "The Friendship of Christ"—the last two sermons of the "Abiding" series. All cordially invited. CHAS. E. LEWIS, Pastor.
After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa. was cured by using a single box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Graphic is informed that the statement of W. R. Edwards to the effect that Ed Rogers had wronged him out of $400 is only partially true. Parties who claim to know say that money paid to the amount of $250 was lost in the fishing business, leaving only $150 to be accounted for by Rogers.
A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Wesleyan Methodists are holding meetings at the Evangelical church every night this week and they will continue until public notice of their closing is given. On Monday there will be three services, the extra hour being 2:30 p. m. The meetings are being conducted by G. L. Shephardson. Everybody invited.
Attorney Clarence Butt was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday as counsel for A. M. Mauritzen in a suit he has against R. L. Sabin. The suit has grown out of the closing out of Mauritzen last summer by Sabin, as agent for the Portland creditors. Mr. Mauritzen and Oscar Cox were down as witnesses in the case.
Newberg will be represented at the State Oratorical contest by Prof. Edwin Morrison, S. T. Stanley, Roy David, Harry Allen, Horvey Hoskins, Otta Pickett, Chas. Redmond, Walter Parker, M. Townsend, Leon Kenworthy, Oscar Cox, Hugh Nelson and W. C. Woodward, the last named being in the contest and representing Pacific College.
Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., memorial services were held at the Friends church on Wednesday evening in honor of the late Frances E. Willard. Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Portland, delivered the address of the evening in which he paid a fitting tribute in eloquent language to the memory of the deceased. A large audience was in attendance.
Uncle Jimmie Barker, since retiring from business, has taken up quarters on his ranch north of town with his brother and is playing the Wm. E. Gladstone act among the forest trees out that way. He says he is getting to be an expert at falling trees and is also much improved in health. Occasionally he makes a trip to town and carries out the mail for the neighbors like a sure enough country boy.
R. A. Harris, of McMinnville, the traveling representative of the Oregonian was in town last Saturday and Sunday. He remarked that the Oregonian was patronized here much better in proportion to the population than at McMinnville, and expressed surprise at the size of the list of dailies taken. Newberg is no slow town when it comes to a matter of keeping posted with reference to the doings of the world at large. Mr. Harris is getting to the front as a newspaper man and the outlook for him in this field is quite bright. Alf Holman, a newspaper man of no mean ability got his start in Yamhill and Harvey Scott was sheltered in this county for a time during his youthful days, and still old Yamhill has only begun to furnish great men for active work in the Northwest.

Wm. Hendershott went to Dayton Tuesday on a hop deal.
The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.
Mrs. Silas Comer went to Salem on Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends in the capital city.
Mrs. Bell Cardinat will visit with her mother Mrs. Disney and her sister Mrs. Hardwick until her husband returns from Klondike.
The members of the M. E. church have under consideration the matter of enlarging and otherwise improving their church building.
To insure a good seat get tickets at once at Miller's jewelry store, for the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Armory hall, Wednesday next.
The frosty mornings have been having this week are an advantage rather than a detriment as the frost and cool weather assists in holding the fruit buds back.
Edgar L. Hampton, a former resident of Newberg is managing editor of the Seattle Spirit, a new paper launched on the sea of journalism recently. Success to Ed in his new venture.
Rev. Joseph Hall is busily engaged in setting an orchard of a thousand or more trees on the land recently purchased of Wm. Everest a half mile east of town. This is fine weather for tree setting.
The performance of Johnson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Wednesday next at Armory hall, promises to be the best show we have ever had in Newberg. Those who miss it will miss the event of the season.
Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.
A. M. Hoskins, the bicycle man, is having a big run in Waverley wheels. His sales have been so heavy that he was compelled to order an invoice of wheels by wire a week ago. A pretty good reckoning for so early in the season.
At the Friends church next Sabbath the subject of the morning service will be "The Power of Christ's Love," and of the evening service, "The Friendship of Christ"—the last two sermons of the "Abiding" series. All cordially invited. CHAS. E. LEWIS, Pastor.
After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa. was cured by using a single box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Graphic is informed that the statement of W. R. Edwards to the effect that Ed Rogers had wronged him out of $400 is only partially true. Parties who claim to know say that money paid to the amount of $250 was lost in the fishing business, leaving only $150 to be accounted for by Rogers.
A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Wesleyan Methodists are holding meetings at the Evangelical church every night this week and they will continue until public notice of their closing is given. On Monday there will be three services, the extra hour being 2:30 p. m. The meetings are being conducted by G. L. Shephardson. Everybody invited.
Attorney Clarence Butt was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday as counsel for A. M. Mauritzen in a suit he has against R. L. Sabin. The suit has grown out of the closing out of Mauritzen last summer by Sabin, as agent for the Portland creditors. Mr. Mauritzen and Oscar Cox were down as witnesses in the case.
Newberg will be represented at the State Oratorical contest by Prof. Edwin Morrison, S. T. Stanley, Roy David, Harry Allen, Horvey Hoskins, Otta Pickett, Chas. Redmond, Walter Parker, M. Townsend, Leon Kenworthy, Oscar Cox, Hugh Nelson and W. C. Woodward, the last named being in the contest and representing Pacific College.
Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., memorial services were held at the Friends church on Wednesday evening in honor of the late Frances E. Willard. Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Portland, delivered the address of the evening in which he paid a fitting tribute in eloquent language to the memory of the deceased. A large audience was in attendance.
Uncle Jimmie Barker, since retiring from business, has taken up quarters on his ranch north of town with his brother and is playing the Wm. E. Gladstone act among the forest trees out that way. He says he is getting to be an expert at falling trees and is also much improved in health. Occasionally he makes a trip to town and carries out the mail for the neighbors like a sure enough country boy.
R. A. Harris, of McMinnville, the traveling representative of the Oregonian was in town last Saturday and Sunday. He remarked that the Oregonian was patronized here much better in proportion to the population than at McMinnville, and expressed surprise at the size of the list of dailies taken. Newberg is no slow town when it comes to a matter of keeping posted with reference to the doings of the world at large. Mr. Harris is getting to the front as a newspaper man and the outlook for him in this field is quite bright. Alf Holman, a newspaper man of no mean ability got his start in Yamhill and Harvey Scott was sheltered in this county for a time during his youthful days, and still old Yamhill has only begun to furnish great men for active work in the Northwest.

Wm. Hendershott went to Dayton Tuesday on a hop deal.
The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.
Mrs. Silas Comer went to Salem on Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends in the capital city.
Mrs. Bell Cardinat will visit with her mother Mrs. Disney and her sister Mrs. Hardwick until her husband returns from Klondike.
The members of the M. E. church have under consideration the matter of enlarging and otherwise improving their church building.
To insure a good seat get tickets at once at Miller's jewelry store, for the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Armory hall, Wednesday next.
The frosty mornings have been having this week are an advantage rather than a detriment as the frost and cool weather assists in holding the fruit buds back.
Edgar L. Hampton, a former resident of Newberg is managing editor of the Seattle Spirit, a new paper launched on the sea of journalism recently. Success to Ed in his new venture.
Rev. Joseph Hall is busily engaged in setting an orchard of a thousand or more trees on the land recently purchased of Wm. Everest a half mile east of town. This is fine weather for tree setting.
The performance of Johnson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Wednesday next at Armory hall, promises to be the best show we have ever had in Newberg. Those who miss it will miss the event of the season.
Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.
A. M. Hoskins, the bicycle man, is having a big run in Waverley wheels. His sales have been so heavy that he was compelled to order an invoice of wheels by wire a week ago. A pretty good reckoning for so early in the season.
At the Friends church next Sabbath the subject of the morning service will be "The Power of Christ's Love," and of the evening service, "The Friendship of Christ"—the last two sermons of the "Abiding" series. All cordially invited. CHAS. E. LEWIS, Pastor.
After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa. was cured by using a single box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Graphic is informed that the statement of W. R. Edwards to the effect that Ed Rogers had wronged him out of $400 is only partially true. Parties who claim to know say that money paid to the amount of $250 was lost in the fishing business, leaving only $150 to be accounted for by Rogers.
A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Wesleyan Methodists are holding meetings at the Evangelical church every night this week and they will continue until public notice of their closing is given. On Monday there will be three services, the extra hour being 2:30 p. m. The meetings are being conducted by G. L. Shephardson. Everybody invited.
Attorney Clarence Butt was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday as counsel for A. M. Mauritzen in a suit he has against R. L. Sabin. The suit has grown out of the closing out of Mauritzen last summer by Sabin, as agent for the Portland creditors. Mr. Mauritzen and Oscar Cox were down as witnesses in the case.
Newberg will be represented at the State Oratorical contest by Prof. Edwin Morrison, S. T. Stanley, Roy David, Harry Allen, Horvey Hoskins, Otta Pickett, Chas. Redmond, Walter Parker, M. Townsend, Leon Kenworthy, Oscar Cox, Hugh Nelson and W. C. Woodward, the last named being in the contest and representing Pacific College.
Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., memorial services were held at the Friends church on Wednesday evening in honor of the late Frances E. Willard. Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Portland, delivered the address of the evening in which he paid a fitting tribute in eloquent language to the memory of the deceased. A large audience was in attendance.
Uncle Jimmie Barker, since retiring from business, has taken up quarters on his ranch north of town with his brother and is playing the Wm. E. Gladstone act among the forest trees out that way. He says he is getting to be an expert at falling trees and is also much improved in health. Occasionally he makes a trip to town and carries out the mail for the neighbors like a sure enough country boy.
R. A. Harris, of McMinnville, the traveling representative of the Oregonian was in town last Saturday and Sunday. He remarked that the Oregonian was patronized here much better in proportion to the population than at McMinnville, and expressed surprise at the size of the list of dailies taken. Newberg is no slow town when it comes to a matter of keeping posted with reference to the doings of the world at large. Mr. Harris is getting to the front as a newspaper man and the outlook for him in this field is quite bright. Alf Holman, a newspaper man of no mean ability got his start in Yamhill and Harvey Scott was sheltered in this county for a time during his youthful days, and still old Yamhill has only begun to furnish great men for active work in the Northwest.

Wm. Hendershott went to Dayton Tuesday on a hop deal.
The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.
Mrs. Silas Comer went to Salem on Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends in the capital city.
Mrs. Bell Cardinat will visit with her mother Mrs. Disney and her sister Mrs. Hardwick until her husband returns from Klondike.
The members of the M. E. church have under consideration the matter of enlarging and otherwise improving their church building.
To insure a good seat get tickets at once at Miller's jewelry store, for the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Armory hall, Wednesday next.
The frosty mornings have been having this week are an advantage rather than a detriment as the frost and cool weather assists in holding the fruit buds back.
Edgar L. Hampton, a former resident of Newberg is managing editor of the Seattle Spirit, a new paper launched on the sea of journalism recently. Success to Ed in his new venture.
Rev. Joseph Hall is busily engaged in setting an orchard of a thousand or more trees on the land recently purchased of Wm. Everest a half mile east of town. This is fine weather for tree setting.
The performance of Johnson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Wednesday next at Armory hall, promises to be the best show we have ever had in Newberg. Those who miss it will miss the event of the season.
Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.
A. M. Hoskins, the bicycle man, is having a big run in Waverley wheels. His sales have been so heavy that he was compelled to order an invoice of wheels by wire a week ago. A pretty good reckoning for so early in the season.
At the Friends church next Sabbath the subject of the morning service will be "The Power of Christ's Love," and of the evening service, "The Friendship of Christ"—the last two sermons of the "Abiding" series. All cordially invited. CHAS. E. LEWIS, Pastor.
After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa. was cured by using a single box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Graphic is informed that the statement of W. R. Edwards to the effect that Ed Rogers had wronged him out of $400 is only partially true. Parties who claim to know say that money paid to the amount of $250 was lost in the fishing business, leaving only $150 to be accounted for by Rogers.
A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Wesleyan Methodists are holding meetings at the Evangelical church every night this week and they will continue until public notice of their closing is given. On Monday there will be three services, the extra hour being 2:30 p. m. The meetings are being conducted by G. L. Shephardson. Everybody invited.
Attorney Clarence Butt was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday as counsel for A. M. Mauritzen in a suit he has against R. L. Sabin. The suit has grown out of the closing out of Mauritzen last summer by Sabin, as agent for the Portland creditors. Mr. Mauritzen and Oscar Cox were down as witnesses in the case.
Newberg will be represented at the State Oratorical contest by Prof. Edwin Morrison, S. T. Stanley, Roy David, Harry Allen, Horvey Hoskins, Otta Pickett, Chas. Redmond, Walter Parker, M. Townsend, Leon Kenworthy, Oscar Cox, Hugh Nelson and W. C. Woodward, the last named being in the contest and representing Pacific College.
Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., memorial services were held at the Friends church on Wednesday evening in honor of the late Frances E. Willard. Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Portland, delivered the address of the evening in which he paid a fitting tribute in eloquent language to the memory of the deceased. A large audience was in attendance.
Uncle Jimmie Barker, since retiring from business, has taken up quarters on his ranch north of town with his brother and is playing the Wm. E. Gladstone act among the forest trees out that way. He says he is getting to be an expert at falling trees and is also much improved in health. Occasionally he makes a trip to town and carries out the mail for the neighbors like a sure enough country boy.
R. A. Harris, of McMinnville, the traveling representative of the Oregonian was in town last Saturday and Sunday. He remarked that the Oregonian was patronized here much better in proportion to the population than at McMinnville, and expressed surprise at the size of the list of dailies taken. Newberg is no slow town when it comes to a matter of keeping posted with reference to the doings of the world at large. Mr. Harris is getting to the front as a newspaper man and the outlook for him in this field is quite bright. Alf Holman, a newspaper man of no mean ability got his start in Yamhill and Harvey Scott was sheltered in this county for a time during his youthful days, and still old Yamhill has only begun to furnish great men for active work in the Northwest.

Wm. Hendershott went to Dayton Tuesday on a hop deal.
The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.
Mrs. Silas Comer went to Salem on Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends in the capital city.
Mrs. Bell Cardinat will visit with her mother Mrs. Disney and her sister Mrs. Hardwick until her husband returns from Klondike.
The members of the M. E. church have under consideration the matter of enlarging and otherwise improving their church building.
To insure a good seat get tickets at once at Miller's jewelry store, for the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Armory hall, Wednesday next.
The frosty mornings have been having this week are an advantage rather than a detriment as the frost and cool weather assists in holding the fruit buds back.
Edgar L. Hampton, a former resident of Newberg is managing editor of the Seattle Spirit, a new paper launched on the sea of journalism recently. Success to Ed in his new venture.
Rev. Joseph Hall is busily engaged in setting an orchard of a thousand or more trees on the land recently purchased of Wm. Everest a half mile east of town. This is fine weather for tree setting.
The performance of Johnson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Wednesday next at Armory hall, promises to be the best show we have ever had in Newberg. Those who miss it will miss the event of the season.
Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.
A. M. Hoskins, the bicycle man, is having a big run in Waverley wheels. His sales have been so heavy that he was compelled to order an invoice of wheels by wire a week ago. A pretty good reckoning for so early in the season.
At the Friends church next Sabbath the subject of the morning service will be "The Power of Christ's Love," and of the evening service, "The Friendship of Christ"—the last two sermons of the "Abiding" series. All cordially invited. CHAS. E. LEWIS, Pastor.
After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa. was cured by using a single box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Graphic is informed that the statement of W. R. Edwards to the effect that Ed Rogers had wronged him out of $400 is only partially true. Parties who claim to know say that money paid to the amount of $250 was lost in the fishing business, leaving only $150 to be accounted for by Rogers.
A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Wesleyan Methodists are holding meetings at the Evangelical church every night this week and they will continue until public notice of their closing is given. On Monday there will be three services, the extra hour being 2:30 p. m. The meetings are being conducted by G. L. Shephardson. Everybody invited.
Attorney Clarence Butt was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday as counsel for A. M. Mauritzen in a suit he has against R. L. Sabin. The suit has grown out of the closing out of Mauritzen last summer by Sabin, as agent for the Portland creditors. Mr. Mauritzen and Oscar Cox were down as witnesses in the case.
Newberg will be represented at the State Oratorical contest by Prof. Edwin Morrison, S. T. Stanley, Roy David, Harry Allen, Horvey Hoskins, Otta Pickett, Chas. Redmond, Walter Parker, M. Townsend, Leon Kenworthy, Oscar Cox, Hugh Nelson and W. C. Woodward, the last named being in the contest and representing Pacific College.
Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., memorial services were held at the Friends church on Wednesday evening in honor of the late Frances E. Willard. Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Portland, delivered the address of the evening in which he paid a fitting tribute in eloquent language to the memory of the deceased. A large audience was in attendance.
Uncle Jimmie Barker, since retiring from business, has taken up quarters on his ranch north of town with his brother and is playing the Wm. E. Gladstone act among the forest trees out that way. He says he is getting to be an expert at falling trees and is also much improved in health. Occasionally he makes a trip to town and carries out the mail for the neighbors like a sure enough country boy.
R. A. Harris, of McMinnville, the traveling representative of the Oregonian was in town last Saturday and Sunday. He remarked that the Oregonian was patronized here much better in proportion to the population than at McMinnville, and expressed surprise at the size of the list of dailies taken. Newberg is no slow town when it comes to a matter of keeping posted with reference to the doings of the world at large. Mr. Harris is getting to the front as a newspaper man and the outlook for him in this field is quite bright. Alf Holman, a newspaper man of no mean ability got his start in Yamhill and Harvey Scott was sheltered in this county for a time during his youthful days, and still old Yamhill has only begun to furnish great men for active work in the Northwest.

Wm. Hendershott went to Dayton Tuesday on a hop deal.
The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.
Mrs. Silas Comer went to Salem on Thursday for a visit of a few days with friends in the capital city.
Mrs. Bell Cardinat will visit with her mother Mrs. Disney and her sister Mrs. Hardwick until her husband returns from Klondike.
The members of the M. E. church have under consideration the matter of enlarging and otherwise improving their church building.
To insure a good seat get tickets at once at Miller's jewelry store, for the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Armory hall, Wednesday next.
The frosty mornings have been having this week are an advantage rather than a detriment as the frost and cool weather assists in holding the fruit buds back.
Edgar L. Hampton, a former resident of Newberg is managing editor of the Seattle Spirit, a new paper launched on the sea of journalism recently. Success to Ed in his new venture.
Rev. Joseph Hall is busily engaged in setting an orchard of a thousand or more trees on the land recently purchased of Wm. Everest a half mile east of town. This is fine weather for tree setting.
The performance of Johnson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Wednesday next at Armory hall, promises to be the best show we have ever had in Newberg. Those who miss it will miss the event of the season.
Whooping cough is the most distressing malady; but its duration can be cut short by the use of One Minute Cough Cure, which is also the best known remedy for croup and all lung and bronchial troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.
A. M. Hoskins, the bicycle man, is having a big run in Waverley wheels. His sales have been so heavy that he was compelled to order an invoice of wheels by wire a week ago. A pretty good reckoning for so early in the season.
At the Friends church next Sabbath the subject of the morning service will be "The Power of Christ's Love," and of the evening service, "The Friendship of Christ"—the last two sermons of the "Abiding" series. All cordially invited. CHAS. E. LEWIS, Pastor.
After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa. was cured by using a single box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and obstinate sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Graphic is informed that the statement of W. R. Edwards to the effect that Ed Rogers had wronged him out of $400 is only partially true. Parties who claim to know say that money paid to the amount of $250 was lost in the fishing business, leaving only $150 to be accounted for by Rogers.
A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. C. F. Moore & Co.
The Wesleyan Methodists are holding meetings at the Evangelical church every night this week and they will continue until public notice of their closing is given. On Monday there will be three services, the extra hour being 2:30 p. m. The meetings are being conducted by G. L. Shephardson. Everybody invited.
Attorney Clarence Butt was in Portland Wednesday and Thursday as counsel for A. M. Mauritzen in a suit he has against R. L. Sabin. The suit has grown out of the closing out of Mauritzen last summer by Sabin, as agent for the Portland creditors. Mr. Mauritzen and Oscar Cox were down as witnesses in the case.
Newberg will be represented at the State Oratorical contest by Prof. Edwin Morrison, S. T. Stanley, Roy David, Harry Allen, Horvey Hoskins, Otta Pickett, Chas. Redmond, Walter Parker, M. Townsend, Leon Kenworthy, Oscar Cox, Hugh Nelson and W. C. Woodward, the last named being in the contest and representing Pacific College.
Under the auspices of the W.C.T.U., memorial services were held at the Friends church on Wednesday evening in honor of the late Frances E. Willard. Rev. Ray Palmer, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Portland, delivered the address of the evening in which he paid a fitting tribute in eloquent language to the memory of the deceased. A large audience was in attendance.
Uncle Jimmie Barker, since retiring from business, has taken up quarters on his ranch north of town with his brother and is playing the Wm. E. Gladstone act among the forest trees out that way. He says he is getting to be an expert at falling trees and is also much improved in health. Occasionally he makes a trip to town and carries out the mail for the neighbors like a sure enough country boy.
R. A. Harris, of McMinnville, the traveling representative of the Oregonian was in town last Saturday and Sunday. He remarked that the Oregonian was patronized here much better in proportion to the population than at McMinnville, and expressed surprise at the size of the list of dailies taken. Newberg is no slow town when it comes to a matter of keeping posted with reference to the doings of the world at large. Mr. Harris is getting to the front as a newspaper man and the outlook for him in this field is quite bright. Alf Holman, a newspaper man of no mean ability got his start in Yamhill and Harvey Scott was sheltered in this county for a time during his youthful days, and still old Yamhill has only