Local Events.

Finest line of calling cards in town at the Graphic office.

C. A. Wallace, of McMinnville was in town Thursday.

The daily Oregonian and the Evening Telegram are kept on sale at the post office.

For flower seeds, flower seeds, garden seeds and all kinds of seeds, call on E. C. Ward & Co.

Mrs. B. C. Miles and children visited during the week in Portland with her sister, Mrs. Gardner.

Luther Votaw's have moved back from Grant's Pass and will occupy the Cutt's property northwest of town.

President Newlin went to Portland last Saturday to meet his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Nicholson.

Balls from five cents up and bats from ten cents up, at the postoffice. Just what you boy wants these fine days.

W. S. Hadley and family spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland taking in the city and the surrounding country.

Miss Mary Williams returned from Silverton on Tuesday evening where she had been acting in the capacity of nurse in the family of Dr. Brooks.

The Sunday school normal class will meet at the college next Sunday afternoon for organization. All the members of the class are requested to be present.

Rev. J. H. Douglas, who has been in Southern California during the winter where he has been engaged in active church work is expected to arrive home this week.

The Woodmen and the Woodmen Circle held a social and entertainment at the Masonic hall on Thursday night, where several basketfuls of refreshments were devoured.

West Chehalis precinct elected the following named delegates to attend the republican convention on Saturday: Will Nelson, A. P. Johnson, George Vinton, Denny Myers, Ellis Flett, Anos Nelson.

A Klondike stake is all right if you can reach one, but how much easier and more palatable, it is to step into Cooper & Clemmens' meat market and get a nice juicy beef stake or a leg-o'-mutton for a Sunday roast.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hatch, of Grinnell, Iowa, who had been visiting for the past few weeks with Mrs. Hatch's brother, J. C. Sawyer, left for California last Tuesday. Mr. Sawyer went with them as far as Portland.

A couple of small boys were seen on Wednesday evening throwing stones through the windows in the Levy dryer on First street. Parents will do well to caution their boys about such things as they are liable to get into trouble.

The house cleaning season is at hand when the women folks about the house bound out of bed at an early hour in the morning and at once begin to make the dust fly—a season when all the men folks would enjoy a vacation at some seaport town.

Will Wright came up home from Portland Tuesday evening, where he had been for several days, with the intention of going to the Copper river country in Alaska, but the entreaties of a wife and baby were too much for him and he has given up the trip for the present at least.

I. E. Holt, one of our well known and highly respected young men of Newberg was nominated by the three-party in McMinnville last Monday for county clerk. Should Ed be so fortunate as to receive the necessary number of votes he would make an efficient and accommodating official.

A drove of cattle made up of all ages, ranging from young calves to aged grandmothers even to the third and fourth generation, and numbering several hundred head passed through town last Monday on the way to Wyoming where they will be put on the range. It looks like Oregon would almost suffer a cattle famine if these big drives out of the country are kept up.

For some time I have suffered with rheumatism and tried every imaginable remedy, without effect. Mr. F. G. S. Wells advised me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, telling me that it had cured many cases of long standing like mine. I have used four bottles and feel sure that one more bottle will make my cure complete.—A. P. Koutz, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.

Several of the college boys and some others from about town went up to McMinnville last Saturday to witness the field day exercises of McMinnville college. After the events were closed some of the McMinnville fellows challenged Oscar Cox for a bicycle race with their man Tom Warren. Cox had made a hard ride from Newberg to McMinnville and was in poor trim for a race but he never was known to back down on such a proposition so of course he accepted. Warren refused to set the pace any of the time, as is customary in bicycle racing, so Cox was forced to take the lead which he held from start to finish, winning easily and coming under the wire with the McMinnville contingent as quiet as a Sunday funeral.

The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

If you want a fat hen for Sunday, see C. B. Wilson.

E. C. Ward & Co. carries a complete stock of poultry supplies.

The boss wheel of the road is the light running Waverley sold by A. M. Hoskins.

If you want the best wheel for your money see C. F. Moore about the Imperial.

Base balls and bats for big boys and little boys at the post office. Prices away down.

If you want whole corn, cracked corn, wheat, oats, bran or flour, see E. C. Ward & Co.

Miss Maud Kinney came up from Astoria Thursday for her visit with her parents up the valley.

Charley Rittenhouse and Frank Colard went to McMinnville Wednesday evening to join the militia.

Colored photograph and transparent pictures on glass at Smith's Photo Gallery. Call and see samples.

The Misses Ella Hutchins and Lizzie Craven and Will Craven rode up to Lafayette last Sunday, on their wheels and visited with friends over Sunday.

Farmers! You are losing money by not seeing C. B. Wilson before selling your produce. I am paying highest market price in cash for poultry of all kinds and eggs and veal.

More copies of the Evening Telegram are taken at Newberg than are taken by any other three towns on this mail route. Newberg people are a reading people and they want the news fresh from the press.

A. T. Hill is making arrangements to move his drug store from McMinnville to La Grande, Union county. Sorry to hear of Ab leaving Yamhill county but we shall look for him back at Newberg at no very distant day.

A number of our business men are showing their patriotism by making a display of the stars and stripes. Whatever else may be said of the horrors of war it has a tendency to increase the love of the people for the old flag.

A. L. Stevens, one of our old veterans, is showing his patriotism by making arrangements to raise a company of light artillery for active service. He says if war is waged in earnest it will be no trouble to get the necessary number of men.

W. T. Maey, a former Newberg boy of good proportions, physically, was re-nominated for county recorder by acclamation on Monday. Will has made an accommodating official and it is generally conceded that he will make a good strong race for re-election.

The college athletic team is now under training by Will Kay of Grass Valley, California, who formerly lived at Woodburn. The expense incurred in the employment of a trainer will be met by the citizens. Mr. Kay says the boys have good metal in them and he thinks they will show up all right with proper training.

A. J. Apperson, a prominent McMinnville merchant, made an assignment on Thursday to Lee Laughlin, president of the McMinnville National bank. Mr. Apperson has been in business in the county seat for a long term of years and has been considered one of the strong firms of that city financially. His misfortune will be a great surprise to the people.

Those wishing good literature for distribution or individual use, will be cheerfully supplied if they apply to the Literature Committee of the C. E. at the Friends church. All having such literature will make it useful by placing it in the hands of the same committee or leaving it on the Endeavor platform at the church. It will be thankfully received and gladly given out.

HATTIE GEORGE, Sec'y. Com.

"I can say one thing for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy; and that is that it excels any proprietary medicine I have ever seen on the market and I have been in the practice of medicine and the drug business for the past forty years," writes J. M. Jackson, M. D., Bronson, Fla. Physicians like Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy because it is a scientific preparation, and because it always gives quick relief. Get a bottle at C. F. Moore & Co.'s drug store.

Superintendent Potter of the Chemawa Indian school, with the principal lady teacher, brought a dozen of the Indian girls down to Newberg last Friday and remained over until the following day when they returned home on the boat. The visitors were entertained by the young ladies of the college and both the visitors and those visited reported having had a very pleasant time. The Indian girls defeated the college team in a game of basket ball on Friday evening, then on Saturday morning by invitation the Indian girls divided their forces and gave an exhibition game which was much enjoyed by those who witnessed it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Churchill arrived home from Chicago the first of the week where Mr. Churchill spent the winter as agent for the Portland company which sent a number of men east to steer prospective Klondikers to Portland to buy their Alaska outfits. On their arrival home they found that during their absence, some one or more persons had pried a window open at their residence north of town, and on gaining entrance, had apparently taken their own time to break open trunks and boxes and scatter things promiscuously about the rooms and commit other little depredations with apparent malicious intent. So far as they can determine some blankets were all that was carried away. It was a very small piece of business on the part of somebody and it looks very much like the housebreaking was done by those who were acquainted with the place.

Ride the Imperial wheel if you want the best.

Alva P. Macy and Charles Hatley were down from Dayton last Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Martin and Mrs. T. H. Gardner visited at Salem last Saturday.

Miss Ben Wiley is at home again after an absence of a few weeks at Corvallis.

Mrs. Lou Hill returned from a visit at A. T. Hill's in McMinnville last Tuesday.

Miss Lulu Lyle, who has been at Portland for some time returned home last week.

Roy Smith who went to Walla Walla, Washington, in search of fame and fortune is at home again.

Miss Alice Bunker, of Iowa, who is out for the benefit of a change of climate is visiting at Paul Macy's.

Mr. Church, of the firm of Abbott & Church, of Portland, came up on the train Wednesday to take a look at J. L. Hoskins' Jersey cows.

Since the Parrott's went out of business at Dundee a new post master is to be appointed and there are two or three active candidates for the office.

Dr. A. Mills, F. T. Keyes, M. M. Edwards, Z. Inus and J. T. Crosbie will represent Dundee precinct at the republican county convention on Saturday.

Pearl W. Geer, a young man who is the business manager of The Torch of Reason, of Silverton visited with his cousin, Mrs. Joe Porter in Newberg last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hash went to Dayton last Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Hash's brother John Hash, who was one of the well known characters among the early settlers of Yamhill county.

Mrs. Cardin left here on Monday in company with Mrs. Hardwick and little sister Grace for Seattle. She will meet her brother and sister there, when on Saturday the party will leave for Alaska where Mrs. Cardin will join her husband.

Dempsey Smith returned from a trip into Josephine county the first of the week where he went to take a look at the country. He came back with a better opinion of Yamhill county than ever before and says he will remain at home during the summer.

Cliff Terrell, who took the civil service examination for the postal service last year left here for Port Townsend, Washington, last Tuesday where he will be given work to begin with. Cliff stood high in the examination and he will no doubt make an efficient clerk in the railway mail service.

The Graphic has been requested to call attention to the fact that vacant lots about town are being cut up by the passing of teams across lots which makes a very bad appearance. There are plenty of streets dedicated and set apart for the use of the public and when so little time is gained by short cuts, teamsters ought to confine themselves to the public highways.

Wm. Davis, our prosperous neighbor who lives on Chehalis mountain, has been improving his residence lately by making additions, trimming and painting, all of which adds much to the convenience as well as the appearance of his home. With a good crop the coming season and fair prices, many farmers will make improvements about their premises that have been neglected during the pressure of hard times.

From all over the country comes words of praise for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Here is a sample letter from Mrs. C. Shep, of Little Rock, Ark: "I was suffering from a severe cold when I read of the cures that had been effected by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I concluded to give it a trial and accordingly procured a bottle. It gave prompt relief, and I have the best reason for recommending it very highly, which I do with pleasure." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Nicholson, of Richmond, Indiana, who have been spending some time in California, arrived here on last Saturday evening and were the guests of President Newlin until Tuesday morning, when they left for their home by way of California. Mr. Nicholson is one of the thorough-going business men of Richmond, as well as one of the principal men connected with the management of Earlham College. On Sunday night he gave a very practical talk at Friends church, which was highly appreciated by those who were present.

At the republican primaries held on Wednesday, North Newberg precinct elected as delegates to attend the county nominating convention to be held in McMinnville on Saturday, Dr. H. J. Littlefield, J. B. David, J. G. Hatley, F. E. Hobson, L. M. Parker, H. R. Morris, J. L. Hoskins, Albert Heater, E. H. Woodward, J. H. Rees, J. L. Myers, J. K. Wright. South Newberg precinct, Clarence Butt, T. B. Cummings, Noah Heater, Jesse Edwards, J. C. Holson, C. B. Wilson, Wm. Thomas, Walter Robertson, W. F. Edwards, N. D. Elliott, J. B. Mount.

The clipping below was handed the Graphic with the suggestion that it pretty well fits a fellow who makes periodical stops about Newberg. "As a sample of how easy it is for any one who will stand on the sidewalk and talk to collect a crowd, it may be said that a boyish looking fellow, apparently half silly, and his head filled with anarchistic notions, who leaned against a bulletin board and discoursed on the war problem, collected a large audience while he discussed the desirability of sending bondholders, politicians and millionaires generally to fight Spain. He was gazed unmercifully, even the kids going for him, and advising him to go back to his own country if the style of this one did not suit him. The crowd generally appeared to look upon war with Spain as a picnic, and the invasion of Cuba as a summer holiday excursion."

The "Cabinet Member's Wife."

The authorship of the much discussed "Inner Experiences of a Cabinet Member's Wife," printed in the Ladies' Home Journal, will be revealed in the June issue of that magazine, when the name of Anna Farquhar will appear as the author. It is surmised that the domestic experiences described in these letters were those of Mrs. W. H. Miller, wife of the Attorney-General in President Harrison's cabinet—since Miss Farquhar is known to be a personal friend of the Miller family, and to have spent considerable time with them in Washington during her official residence there. The author of these letters was born and raised in Indianapolis, in neighboring relations with the Harrison and Miller families, but for the past ten years she has led a studious professional life in New York, London and Boston. She is now connected with the editorial staff of the Boston Transcript. In addition to her "Cabinet Member's Wife" letters she has published one novel—"A Singer's Heart"—and another is about to be issued. She is a young woman, exceedingly clever, and only her closest friends have known her connection with the Washington letters which have attracted such wide attention.

Transcript.
 The Ballston warehouse burned last Friday night. It was owned by Jerry Wester and contained about 10,000 bushels of wheat besides a lot of oats and potatoes.

Mr. M. B. Hendrick and other close observers in the valley, say that fruit has not been injured to speak of; and Mr. Thos. Willis comes in to tell us that if indications do not fall there will be a heavier yield of fruit in the foothills than last year. It is seldom that Oregon goes back on her children.

 The union met Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., at the reading room. Mrs. M. E. Allen president in the chair. The secretary being absent, Mrs. Tallman was appointed to fill the vacancy for the day. A letter was read from the superintendent of lecture bureau stating that the date fixed for the lectures of Mrs. Green and Miss Henderson in Newberg, is May 11. Mrs. Hancock and Mrs. Tallman are appointed to arrange for the lectures. The president read a letter written to the Oregonian by the state president, concerning the raising of funds to pay off the temple debt. The executive committee report that they have chosen Mrs. W. N. Sutton recording secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Hosbon. The report accepted.

A Narrow Escape

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took it all eight bottles. It cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at C. F. Moore & Co.'s drugstore. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.
