W. P. Hancock for Machine Oils.
The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

Don't forget to remember the Marsh mallow roast.

If you want a fat hen for Sunday, see C. B. Wilson.

New Columbia bicycles for rent at Johnson's bicycle shop.

E. C. Ward & Co. carries a complete stock of poultry supplies.

Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling.

C. C. Smith is now located in his new photograph gallery on First street.

Buy your harvesting machines and machine oil of Christenson & Sawyer.

J. G. Wiley has taken a job as night clerk in the Overland Hotel, Portland.

Miss Mary Heston who has been at Astoria for some time came home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Douglas has a very good sized class in German, made up mostly of business men.

For grass seeds, flower seeds, garden seeds and all kinds of seeds, call on E.
C. Ward & Co.

Mrs. G. W. Catts, of Ashland, returned home Thursday after a week's visit at Luther Votaw's.

Rev. M. C. Wire, of Albany, has been down this week looking after his prune orchard north of town.

The front of the building occupied by E. C. Ward is being brightened up with a fresh coat of paint. D. M. Ramsey is the artist who is doing the work.

The fourth quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church will occur Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Gabriel Sykes of Portland will preach. All are invited.

Prof. Edwin Morrison drove over to Prano Ridge above Scotts Mills last Saturday to get Mrs. Morrison and the children who had been visiting at Dr.
Minthorns.

John Shilling, although old in years, is a public benefactor. He has always been busy man and as he can't endure idleness he has been waging war on the thistles about town lately.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bade who have been in the mining regions of British Columbia for some time are visiting in town this week with Mrs. Bade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wisdom Millip.

A property owner in town evidently believes in having his building material thoroughly seasoned before using it.
He made a purchase of side walk lumber a year ago and he is just now having it put down.

A Klondike stake is all right if you can reach one, but how much easier and more palatable it is to step into Cooper & Clemmens' meat market and get a nice juicy beef steak or a leg-o'-mutton for a Sunday roast.

W. J. Stater and Clarence Batt made a business trip to Sheridan last Saturday. On the way they had a collision with a cow when near Dundee resulting in a pair of broken buggy shafts.
Levi Hagey helped them on their way and sending them on their way rejoicing.

F. C. Mills is laid up this week with some severe bruises he received last Monday. In attempting to climb on to A. B. Cooper's wagon while it was in motion he slipped and fell in front of the wheel, and as Mr. Cooper did not see him fall, he was bruised pretty badly about the head and down one side before the team was stopped.

A representative of the Earl Fruit Company was in town Thursday interviewing fruit growers respecting the shipment of green fruit east again this season. The experience our growers had last year in shipping fruit east in a green state was so unsatisfactory that it is safe to say that they will be slow to ship this year through any company.

A very quiet wedding occurred at the residence of Mrs. Moses Hollingsworth Tuesday morning when Mr. L. J. Scott and Miss Eva E. Cumpston were united in the bonds of holy wedlock. Rev. G.
H. Bennett officiating. Mr. Scott is prominent in business and social circles in Oregon City. Mrs. Scott is a popular young lady of Newberg and taught in the public school here last year giving excellent satisfaction. They took the morning train for Seaside where they will spend the season, when they will be at home in Oregon City. The congratulations of many friends follow them.

John Anderson, who has been leading a bachelor's life at his farm three miles east of town, was given an examination at McMinville one day last week before Judge Bird who committed him to the asylum for the insane at Salem. For the past year and two Mr. Anderson has been in the habit of making demonstrations at times that caused alarm among his neighbors, and such a course as was taken last week has often been talked of among them. One of his hallucinations was that he saw spirits in the air, and he was inclined to want to use his club or gun on them. It is to be hoped that a short course of treatment at the asylum will give him permanent relief.

Enos Hanson, of Salem, was in town last Tuesday on business.

W. P. Hancock sells as good a screen door as is in the market for 60 cents.

H. E. Edwards, the Portland furniture man, was in town last Monday.

If you want whole corn, cracked corn, wheat, oats, bran or flour, see E. C.
Ward & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cumpston and Mrs. Hollingsworth are off for the seaside this week.

Remember the "Marsh mallow roast" given by the Epworth League July 22 at the Newberg hotel.

Miss Mellie Douglas visited at Jay Heath's near LaFayette last Sunday with Miss Effie Jackson.

Miss Effie Jackson has been visiting with Jay Heath at the Lowsdale farm near LaFayette this week.

Claud Ferguson from up the valley was in town last Saturday and reported a new daughter born to his wife on July the sixth.

Miss Gertrude Craven and the Earhart family of Middleton passed through town Tuesday morning on their way to the coast.

For running facilities, grace, beauty and perfection of workmanship, the Columbia beats them all. Sold by C.
F. Johnson.

Mrs. Mattie Weesner, Mrs. Emma Hill, and the Misses Ione Hill and Edna Allen are in attendance at Chautauqua at Gladstone Park this week.

Miss Eva Wilson in company with her uncle D. B. Putnam started Monday for Oakesdale, Washington, where she will make her home in the future.

James and Will Vestal each of them received a very nice walking cane this week which shows Indian handiwork, as a present from Frank who is at Douglas, Alaska.

The hay crop appears to be pretty good in this vicinity. Some very nice hay has been coming into town this week, which has been sold at $8 to $7 per ton.

Farmers! You are losing money by not seeing C. B. Wilson before selling your produce. I am paying highest market price in cash for poultry of all kinds and eggs and veal.

About the surest sign the Graphic can give that settled summer weather is now here is to mention the fact that Ab-haskins is beginning to talk about the date of his departure for the sea coast.

Gord Worden has gone east of the mountains to run a threshing engine at $3.50 a day during the harvesting season.
Mr. Steigler will assist Mrs. Worden in the bakery during Gord's absence.

Please remember that we furnish Photos on Platino Paper (black and white) as well as any other kind of paper. We give you an opportunity to get good work at close prices.

C. C. SMITH.
"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says W. B.
Cooper of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

Jesse Holston is busy renovating his property on the corner of Second and River streets. He is painting the house inside and out and is also giving the fence a rubbing down with the paint brush. When he gets through everything will be in ship shape and as good as new.

Harry and Oscar Allen have completed arrangements for building a large twelve tunnel Allen fruit evaporator in New-berg, with a capacity of five hundred bushels of prunes a day, and will begin work at once in order to have it completed in time for the first ripening of the crop. The location of it will be at the head of the canyon near the Terrell factory. They will be prepared to buy green prunes and the price will probably be $8 per ton for green fruit, delivered at the evaporator.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr.
W. M. Rush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, K. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel.
About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate.
Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

The Transcript says: The new county officers were installed into their respective positions Wednesday last. Judge Bird and Commissioner Branson took hold of court affairs as if they are old hands at the business; Clerk Nelson and his deputy J. O. Rogers needed but little advice to put them "onto their job"; Sheriff Henderson looks as natural as an old shoe back in his old position and Ernest goes to work with his old time vim; Treasurer Rhude settled right down to business, and himself and daughter will keep everything straight in finances all right; Superintendent Littlefield acts as if he had run that office for years, and needed no instruction to start him all O. K.; Surveyor Branson has been in his position so long that he is perfectly at home; Assessor Yocum is all ready for business, but of course Mr. Wood will finish out this year's work. These are all reputable and the people are proud of them. Mr. Macy of course holds down the recorder's office all right; but he's a kind of "black sheep" at this time and really doesn't count. Everybody says "Good morning, gentlemen; may success attend you; and may the people have no cause to regret that they entrusted you with their affairs."

First Annual Mid-Summer Clearance Sale!

We are more than pleased with the growth of our business since our first Clearance Sale in February. Our customers are beginning to realize that the price is only a part of the consideration. We have tried to make friends by keeping goods that will please the wearer whatever the price paid. Now we have too many goods for the time of year and must get ready for our Fall arrivals.
