Rev. Wm. Waltz, the new pastor of the M. E. church, will preach next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Lillie Bales is expected home from Whittier, California in a few days where she has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cumpston and Mrs. Hollingsworth are at home from Seaside where they had a delightful time of several weeks duration.

Clarence Price, who has been at La Grande during the summer, is at home to attend college. He is assisting in Moore's drug store of mornings and evenings.

Abram Morris received word a few days ago of the death of his father Joseph Morris at his home in Cardington, Ohio, September 6 at the advanced age of ninety-four years.

D. H. Dailey went up to Rosedale a few days ago and brought his father down with him. The old gentleman has been in poor health for some time and he will probably remain here during the winter.

C. C. SMITH.

The annual conference of the Wesleyan Methodist church is now in session at the Evangelical church. Business sessions are held through the day and preaching at night. Some ministers are present from California. The meetings will continue over Sunday.

John Rutledge, who has been stopping at the hotel in Newberg for several weeks left on last Monday for his home in Nebraska. Four years ago he left home for the winter seeking a change of climate, and he is just now getting back. He has spent a good deal of time in California and at Honolulu.

Rev. J. H. Douglas arrived home last Saturday evening from his trip east looking well and he says his health is better than it has been for some time before. On Sunday morning at Friends church he preached a sermon that had much of the old time ring to it, such as he put into his sermons when he was younger. He is visiting this week with Frank Taylor at McMinnville.

Sam and Webb Cummins, the Alaska miners arrived home on Wednesday evening both looking well and hearty. Judging from the tone of some of Sam's letters it is safe to say that they have little to show for the hardships endured, save a full and complete stock of experience, including some hairbreadth escapes and a few well matured bear stories. The stories will improve with age of course.

As a result of the action of the M. E. conference, Rev. G. H. Bennett will go to the North Portland M. E. church next year, while a minister named Waltz, recently from northern Indiana will take charge of the Newberg and Lafayette circuit. Rev. Bennett and family have a very warm place in the hearts of many Newberg people regardless of denominational lines. The new minister comes well recommended.

Mrs. M. C. Bristow left here on Tuesday for Norborne, Missouri, for a visit of a few weeks with relatives.

Samuel Hobson has bought a McMinnville photographer out and is now in business at the county seat.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the Free Methodist church in Newberg, beginning on Friday, September 30.

Carl Stanley arrived in town from La Grande last Tuesday evening where he has been working during the summer.

Sheet iron air tight stoves are all the go. Alfred Wheeler is prepared to make new ones or repair your old ones.

W. H. Mears will leave in a few days for Goldendale, Washington to look after his band of horses on his ranch near there.

Mrs. Emma Moore, wife of Dr. J. B. Moore, of Coquille City, is in town with the children visiting with relatives and old friends.

N. D. Elliott will go to Salem this week where he hopes to get work in the state printing office during the extra session of the legislature.

Wm. Hendershott, who is engaged in buying hops for a Portland firm, closed a deal for one large lot last Wednesday for which he paid twelve cents.

Miss Hattie Gamble who had been visiting with L. M. Metcalf's near town for a few weeks, started on the return trip to her home in Minnesota last Monday.

Farmers! You are losing money by not seeing C. B. Wilson before selling your produce. I am paying highest market price in cash for poultry of all kinds and eggs and veal.

Elihu Roberts who has been east of the Cascades all season is at home again. Elihu is a sturdy youth and one who is willing to work and he says he has no trouble in finding plenty of it to do.

Carroll Kirk will take Charley Burrows' place in Seattle as driver of a laundry wagon as the latter is coming home to attend college. Carroll is a steady lad and will without doubt fill the expectations of his employer.

The man without a country is in about the same fix as the fellow who has lost most of his teeth. What the latter wants and must have to exist is nice juicy steaks and roasts, just such as are sold at Cooper & Clemmen's market.

Rev. J. Lewelling the new pastor will preach at the Baptist church next Sabbath both morning and evening. Subject for the morning service will be "The Constituent elements of Man or Has Man a Soul." A cordial invitation is extended to all inquiring minds.

F. E. Hobson has gone to McMinnville where he has secured a position in Jacobson's big store as salesman. F. E. is one of the best dry goods men that ever measured "caliker" and laces in Newberg and he will be missed by his many friends in town. His family will remain here for the present.

A roving band of gypsies have been camped for several days over near the railroad track while the female members have been making a house to house canvass, seeking out those who are foolish enough to part with their hard earned quarters in exchange for "fortune telling." Such vagrants ought to be arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Billy Wood raised some sorghum last season on his place up the valley from the juice of which he made a very good grade of molasses by the use of machinery of his own manufacture. Last spring he distributed seed among his neighbors and others are raising it this season. Milt Cady says he has some that is making a good growth and he thinks it will mature.

James Hannett says he has visited a number of the fruit evaporators and has suggested to those operating that if they would allow a little more draft it would circulate the heat through the pipes better and also save the arches. He says the way to get the draft is to put one or two brick on each side of the fire hole and put the door on top of the brick. Those who have tried Mr. Hannett's plan report satisfactory results.

Alva P. Macy was in town Wednesday and stated that he had made arrangements to move to Coquille City where he will go into a drug store with Mrs. Macy's brother, Dr. J. B. Moore. They will make the move as soon as their prune crop is cared for, but Alva says they will leave things in a shape so that they can return at any time they may desire to do so. He is troubled a good deal with rheumatism and thinks indoor work will be better for him.

The body of a man weighted down by iron weights tied to his feet and hands was found in the river below the steel bridge at Salem last Tuesday. Cuts and bruises about the head indicated that he had been murdered. Later developments indicate that the unfortunate man was Ray Sisk of Wasco county, but who several years ago lived with his parents on the George Sears farm west of Newberg. Mr. Sisk was in Marion county some days ago seeking an investment, and is known to have had considerable money on his person. He is now missing. No arrests have been made, but a Marion county man is being closely watched.

Melvin Wire, who came down from Albany to look after the drying of their prune crop has been sick for the past two weeks.

Canby Heston's aunt, Mrs. Anna Canby, of Indiana, who is out on the coast for her health, visited at the Heston home near Dundee last week.

During the Portland exposition the Southern Pacific will sell round trip tickets from Newberg including two admissions to the exposition for $1.65.

Leon Kenworthy, of Huntsville, Washington, arrived the first of the week in time for classification. He will board with Prof. Douglas during the year.

Dr. Will H. Clark, of Ontario, California visited with the editor of the Graphic last Sunday. In his continued travels over the coast and as far east as Denver he says there are abundant evidences of much better conditions in business since last year.

President Newlin was booked to sail from New York on one of the fast line steamers leaving that city last Saturday and he is probably shaking hands with some of his English cousins by this time. The United States peace commissioners were to sail on the same steamer bound for Paris.

Jesse Hobson who has spent the past two years in canvassing for Scribner's works is now looking after their Portland business with an office in the Oregonian building. With the low rates now in effect on the Southern Pacific he will be able to come home often and spend the night with his family.

Rev. George Round who was in attendance at the M. E. conference at McMinnville last week drove down last Monday and remained in town a couple of days, calling on his friends and in the meantime looking after some business matters. The conference returned him to Gardiner again for next year.

Jim Duncan was in town last Tuesday making a distribution of some fine fish among his friends, a part of a catch of about three hundred pounds that he made down on the Columbia while visiting with relatives near Warren. His brother Henry, a former resident of Yamhill came home with him for a visit with his friends.

We have had several pretty heavy equinoctial rains during the week which have been welcomed by the farmers who want to plow, with gladness, but the prune growers who still have a part of their crops in the orchard have watched the passing of the clouds with great anxiety. Some of the hop men are in the same boat. Little damage has been done so far but if the rains should continue for several days considerable loss would no doubt be the result.

College Opening.

This has been a busy week about town, it being the opening of Pacific College for the year. Last week the college boarding hall began to fill up and by Monday it became apparent that all the rooms in the hall would be needed. Consequently carpets and furniture have been bought and the rooms are being put in order to accommodate students. A number have rented rooms about town and these have been busily engaged fitting up for the winter's work.

Tuesday was classification day and Wednesday morning the first gathering in the chapel occurred. Here a glance over the large body of students showed that a very large number of those in attendance were there for the first time and some of the old students remarked that they felt like they were among strangers, the new students being so numerous.

The teaching force is the same as last year except that Prof. C. E. Lewis who was out of the college last year on a leave of absence, takes the place of Prof. Thomas Newlin during the absence of the latter in England. Edwin Morrison, M. S. is professor of natural science, Miss Julia S. White, B. S. professor of mathematics, Mrs. Mabel Douglas, A. B. professor of German and Greek, Francis K. Jones, B. S. professor of history and assistant in Latin, Miss Ella P. Macy, A. B. instructor in English, Miss Dora C. Altmatt, instructor in vocal and instrumental music.

At the opening on Wednesday morning Prof. Lewis read a portion of scripture and followed by a short but excellent address to the students, giving a word of hearty greeting to the new students as well as the old ones. Jesse Edwards followed with some well timed remarks on behalf of the board of managers, S. T. Stanley spoke for the alumni, and others following were, Mrs. M. E. K. Edwards, Mrs. E. B. Miles, Mrs. A. M. Woodward, Mrs. Anna Miles and Mrs. Mabel Douglas.

In the face of the fact that many of the students are detained in the prune orchards taking care of the crop the attendance is much better than it was last year at the opening and so far as indicated the prospects are very bright for a good attendance and a splendid year's work.

RUN DOWN AND KILLED.

Fatal Accident to Charles Waters on Yamhill Division.

Tuesday's Oregonian says: Charles Waters, watchman at Pennoyer's mill, was run down by a narrow gauge train at the foot of Harrison street about midnight last night. Both his legs were severed near the thigh, and he died from the shock and loss of blood about 20 minutes after the accident.

The man was discovered lying on the east side of the track by persons who were attracted to the scene by his groans. They summoned the police patrol wagon, and he was conveyed to St. Vincent's hospital with all the expedition possible. He died one minute after his arrival, and, by order of City Physician Wheeler, the body was conveyed to the morgue.

Nothing was found on the body except a pipe, a lead pencil, a few keys and a broken watchchain. Dr. Wheeler made an examination and found that the right leg was severed at the hip joint, and the left near the thigh. Both were terribly crushed, and were hanging by shreds. There was a sharp cut in the lip, and the fingers of the right hand were mutilated. An inquest will be held today.

Persons who were on the scene soon after the accident say Waters was apparently lying across the track when struck. He was a heavy drinker, and they believe that while intoxicated he fell across the rails and was stunned and unable to arise when the train moved out.

DURING THE BATTLE OF SANTIAGO.

Sick or Well, A Rush Night and Day.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

DURING THE BATTLE OF SANTIAGO.

Sick or Well, A Rush Night and Day.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. Druggists.

Skin Diseases.

For the speedy and permanent cure of tetter, salt rheum and eczema, Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is without an equal. It relieves the itching and smarting almost instantly and its continued use effects a permanent cure. It also cures itch, barber's itch, scald head, sore nipples, itching piles, chapped hands, chronic sore eyes and granulated lids.

Dr. Cady's Condition Powders for horses are the best tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. Price, 25 cents. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

The world will keep on turning round if you continue to buy trash spices and flavoring extracts. Schilling's Best, however, are pure and money-back. Best or not best—money-back, anyway, if you don't like them.

Schilling's Best.

Schilling's Best extracts have no end of flavor in them.

Schilling's Best are pure and money-back.
