It is very warm, springlike weather we have been having during the past week.

Leave your orders at the postoffice for extra copies of the New Year edition of the Oregonian.

Maurice Townsend is teaching a term of school in the German neighborhood out southeast of town.

Harvey White came down from Marion last week and is visiting with his uncle Milt Nicholson and other relatives and friends about town. Harvey's Indiana friends are always glad to see him.

The man without a country is in about the same fix as the fellow who has lost most of his teeth. What the latter wants and must have to exist is nice juicy steaks and roasts, just such as are sold at Cooper & Clemmen's market.

Fred Jackson and Lee Stanley went up to Dallas Wednesday and returned the day following. Fred went at the invitation of the professors of the Academy to give an exhibition of Indian club swinging and Lee visited with his brother S. T. who is teaching in the academy.

Hon. Clarence Butt, during the recess of the legislature, spent Saturday and Sunday at home with his family. He said they got the number of committee clerks cut down about one half, by hard-work, which means a very handsome saving to the state in the big bill of expense.

James Madson who has been a resident of Oregon for more than twenty years says grass for stock has been the best this winter that he has ever seen it here. The early rains started the grass well and as the weather has been very mild it has kept growing all winter. Stock is in fine condition.

No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

From the following item taken from a Heppner paper it will be seen that Miss Maggie Titus, a former student of Pacific College is married. "The marriage of Charles Cohoe and Miss Maggie Titus was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Titus in Fox valley last Friday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. O. Badley. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cohoe are well known in Grant county, where they have resided for years. They will make their future home in Fox valley.

Road supervisor, W. J. Stater says he is disgusted with trying to make permanent improvements on the roads without the use of gravel and he would like to see the county court make an assessment of two or three mills to be set aside for the purpose of furnishing gravel. With a three mill tax he says he could make improvements on the roads in this community that would be lasting and he has asked the Graphic to make mention of it with a view of getting an expression from the taxpayers in the district with reference to the proposition. The question is one in which all are very much interested and it ought to be easy to start the ball to rolling The columns of the Graphic are open for the discussion of the question.

It takes gravel to make good roads.

T. B. Cummings & Co., undertakers, have a new advertisement in the Graphic this week.

A program has been arranged for the Shadow Box supper tonight. No charge for admission.

The new city officers qualified on last Monday night and they now all have the official harness on.

A. P. Oliver sold the north half of lot 12, Hurley & Large's addition, to Emily F. Ruckman this week.

Mrs. E. M. Ruckman has traded a piece of land in Tillamook county to her son-in-law, Mr. Wilson for property in Ballston.

C. G. Christenson, of Amity, who was in town last Saturday called in, as his yearly custom is, and renewed his subscription to the Graphic.

A new stock of stationery just received at the postoffice. Pens, paper pencils, library paste, inks, paper, envelopes, tablets for everbody.

Revival services were begun at the M. E. church on Wednesday evening with a good attendance and seemingly under very favorable circumstances.

If you come after trees Tuesdays and Fridays each week, I will be at home.
JAMES M. LEWELLING,
Newberg, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Clemmens and son Fred returned to their home in Portland Thursday morning after spending a few days in town visiting with Henry Clemmens'.

A daughter was born to the wife of one of the numerous George Christenson's up the valley on Thursday morning but the Graphic is unable to state which George it is.

Prof. C. E. Lewis received a short letter a few days ago written from Rome, by Presisident Newlin, in which he stated that he was having a great time seeing the sights in that far off land.

On last Sabbath at the M. E. church, a large congregation listened, with much interest, to a very excellent sermon by Prof. Lewis of the Friends church, upon the subject "Life's Possibilities." Here is a standing invitation to the professor to come again and a hearty welcome. *

John M. Crawford's big stock barn containing a large amount of grain and feed which was situated on the road leading from the Dayton road to Rays ferry was destroyed by fire on last Sunday night. That the fire was of incendiary origin there seems to be little doubt.

A copy of "The American Soldier," a paper published at Manilla, was received by E. B. Collard a few days ago. Among the advertisements the saloon men seem to hold the sway, which is only another evidence that all the evil influences that are abroad in the land follow up the American army.

The hose company has posters out announcing a shadow box supper at Armory hall for this, Friday evening. The ladies are requested to take a box of lunch to be sold to the highest bidder. As it is not to be supposed that the bidding will at all depend on the size of the shadow, small sized ladies need not feel a hesitancy in attending. Proceeds for the benefit of the company.

J. S. Larkin has had many years experience in farming and fruit growing but he says he is not too old to learn, consequently he is at Corvallis attending the "farmers short course" of lectures by specialists. The attendance is reported to be good and much good will no doubt result from this special effort. It is to be regretted that more of our progressive fruit men are not in attendance.

Our poultry breeders who went to Albany last week to attend the poultry show say that it was the finest exhibit of birds ever shown in the state but the California man who acted as judge cut close and made no high scores which created a good deal of bad feeling among the exhibitors. They accuse him of maliciously holding the scores down in order that California birds may appear to rank higher. J. L. Hoskins got about his usual number of premiums.

In accordance with the announcement made last week, Hon. C. B. Montague, of Lebanon, who, with his wife was in town visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Dr. Davidson, delivered a lecture at the college on last Monday morning on "The Transfer of the Flags." Mr. Montague was an officer in the regular army service in 1867 and was one of the expedition which was sent to Sitka, Alaska, in the fall of that year to take part in the transfer of Russian America, as that territory was then called, from the Russian to the United States government. Quite a number of visitors were present to hear the lecture and all speak of it in the highest terms. It was intensely interesting and highly instructive and those who failed to hear it missed a rare treat.

If you want a good chicken for Sunday leave your order at Wilson's grocery.

A new son born to Mr. and Mrs. George Morris should have been chronicled last week.

At Friends church next Sabbath Prof. Edwin Morrison will have charge of both the morning and evening services. Subject of morning service "Temperance," Titus II, 11-13. Evening service "Finding our life work," Acts IX, 6.

Rev. W. J. Waltz, pastor of the M. E. church occupied the pulpit at Friends church on last Sunday morning. An excellent sermon was preached which received the closest attention by the audience.

Zack Davis the Dundee prune king was in town Wednesday talking prunes and prune evaporators. He had W. K. Allen cornered for a half hour and it is hinted that he is looking for other worlds to conquer and in his efforts he is about to begin the erection of a fruit evaporator that will eclipse anything in this line for size and capacity that has yet been built in the Northwest.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds or la grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

The Safe Cracker Again.

G. W. Cutts, the Southern Pacific station agent, says that owing to the numerous callers he has had lately he deems himself to be a very popular man and he is at something of a loss to decide which would be the proper thing for him to do, don a plug hat or run for congress. On his arrival at the depot last Friday morning he discovered that burglars had entered during the still hours of the night and gone through the old process of tapping the safe. The knob had been knocked from the door, a punch inserted in the hole and the combination knocked out. The burglars had made a careful search for booty but they got a very small pile as the company has learned by experience that it don't pay to keep much money about the depot. Again on Monday night the depot was broken open and the usual search made for booty, this effort having the appearance of adding insult to injury. Cutts says he don't dare to keep anything around more valuable than a second-hand tooth pick and consequently passengers who want to purchase tickets will do well to bring the necessary change as he may not have it on hand.

Letter From Manila.

Ex-sheriff, E. B. Collard is not a very old man and he don't make a practice of using a walking cane but he was in town last Tuesday showing to his friends a fine ebony cane with silver head that anyone might well be proud of, and as this particular cane is a present sent him from far off Manila by his sons who are in the army, he has good cause for taking special pride in showing it to his friends. Mr. Collard also received letters from the boys dated November 28, from which he has kindly allowed the following extracts to be taken:

"You asked me to tell what I thought of the Philippines as a future possession of the United States. My information about the interior is quite vague but from what I can see and hear I think that especially in agricultural and commercial lines there is a great future for the Islands as well as for the United States, although there will be a phase in the development of the country that must not be lost sight of, and that is the hindrances that will be occasioned by the lawless Filipinos and unscrupulous white men.

You will remember that in the early settlement of America the greater amount of trouble with the Indians was brought about by the actions of unscrupulous white men and so it will be here in my opinion. The natives here are intelligent and very docile when properly treated but when aroused they sneak around and even up with their insulters, even to committing murder. They are very industrious when they know that they will share in the profits of their labor. When laboring under other conditions they have little interest of course and they are called indolent and lazy but I think this kind of criticism is unjust.

You asked if the islands were well developed. Well I guess not since it takes a planter fourteen years to get permission to make an improvement on his place. Everything here has been governed by what the Fathers say as to improvements spiritually or industrially. They have been the leaders in everything that has tended to retard the development of the islands but their influence is now broken since they no longer have Spanish bayonets with which to enforce their edicts. It is current talk among the men that they begged the Spanish soldiers to fire on us after they had surrendered but their entreaties were not heeded.

As for gold I have seen some specimens that looked very fine and have heard that it has been found in paying quantities in various places among the mountains.

The timber is very valuable and will some day be an important article of commerce. The cigar factories are the only industries of any magnitude here yet. The raw material is here to form the base of great fortunes. The necessary requirements are capital and lots of push.

The buildings are a combination of concrete and wood. They keep dry and don't fill up with vermin, of which there are myriads in the country—ants, bedbugs and lizards of all sizes and colors.

Fortunes may be made here in cultivating hemp, sugar cane, coffee, tobacco, rice and the manufacture of hardwood furniture and quarrying stone.

As a colonial possession the Philippines will be rich picking for the politician and the office holder. Whatever the outcome may be I shall never settle in this country as I think the advantages are more than counterbalanced by the disadvantages. Fortunes may be made here and health forever lost. Fevers are prevalent but dysentery is the most formidable foe to health. Intemperance in eating and drinking should be avoided. The Spanish eat but two meals a day and drink much wine but as a rule don't get intoxicated. Our soldiers consider the people here as rather slow but I notice they are getting that way themselves, the climate being enervating. Our health is good, yet no one knows how soon he will be sick. There has been several cases of small-pox in our regiment but it has not become epidemic."

QUALITY RIDGE RUMORS.

R. Wenger went to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Allen Mears is on the sick list.

Miss Augusta Wenger arrived home from Portland last Friday where she had been visiting a few days with friends. Miss Tillie Wollgemuth accompanied her and will remain a short time.

A little girl is making her first visit at Grandma Sallees. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Etzwiler, and is nearly two weeks old. There has been very little sunshine in her short life, for it has stormed nearly all the time she came, but we trust she has a long life before her, and many sunny days. We hope her sunny way will brighten all the dark places in which she may chance to be.

Mr. La grippe is in the neighborhood and is stopping at Mr. Myers' and seems to be giving more attention to the daughter of the house than the other members of the family. We shall not feel at all slighted if he confines his visit to that place. though he is liable to give others a call before he leaves. Let us be prepared to treat him to the bottle of quinine and whiskey.

Several people from this place attended a social at Mr. Amos Nelson's last Friday evening. There was music and dancing and cards. A very excellent supper was served and the way the mince pie disappeared, would have made a dyspeptic shudder. Everything was done by Nelson's people for the comfort and enjoyment of their guests, and all stayed until a late hour.

Mr. Fred Clemmens, of Portland, made a visit at the home of J. M. and S. M. Atkinson the past few days.

Miss Mildred Wills was quite sick last week but by careful home nursing she became well enough to attend college Monday.

There was a Christian Endeavor social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paulsen Wednesday evening of last week. The first of the evening was spent in playing games, after which a short and appropriate program was rendered. Everybody went home feeling that they had had a splendid time. O, yes, there were some of the party who did not carry lanterns, who explored some of the ditches and mud holes on the way to the social.
