DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remediation. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a "raw" or "stuffed" feeling in the ear, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result. The tube is restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored, and the ear cured. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine that can be cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. See circulars, free.

A New Invention—Flying Top.
The latest invention of considerable merit is the "Flying Top," invented by a Western boy. It is so easy to operate, that a boy six years of age can manage it without any difficulty. The top is constructed on the principle of a flying machine and by simply pulling a cord, ascends from 50 to 300 feet, or until its momentum ceases, when it gradually descends like a parachute, still spinning when it strikes the ground.

Venice Will Be Drained.
Venice without its waters would be a far less picturesque place than it actually is, says the London Chronicle. And such a state of affairs, were it to believe, may eventually come about. The regular increase in the delta of the Po has been studied by Prof. Marinelli. Comparison of the Austrian map of about 1823 with the records of surveys made in 1893 shows that the mean annual increase during those years has been about three-tenths of a square mile; and from all known data it appears that the total increase during six centuries has been about 198 square miles. The increase is continuing and the Gulf of Venice is doomed in time to disappear. No immediate alarm need, however, be excited, for Prof. Marinelli calculates that between 100 and 120 centuries will elapse before the entire Northern Adriatic will have become dry land.

Effect of Coffee Drinking on Eyes.
Skaithin, according to the Medical Review, says that the Moors are inveterate coffee drinkers, especially the merchants, who sit at their bazars and drink continually during the day. It has been noticed that almost invariably when these coffee drinkers reach the age of 40 or 45 their eyesight begins to fail them, and by the time they get to be 50 years old they become blind. One is forcibly impressed by the number of blind men seen on the streets of Fez, the capital of Morocco. It is invariably attributed to the excessive use of coffee.—N. Y. Medical Times.

A Colonia Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, correspondent of the New York World thus describes the model town in which he lives: "Ours is a town of about 1,000 inhabitants. Eleven years have passed since the first street was pitched by the first settler. Now we have hundreds of dwellings owned by the dwellers—no millionaires, no beggars. We are in a chamber of the mountains 5,000 feet high. Fifteen miles of hills and hollows part us from the nearest railroad station. We have no saloons, no gambling, no smoking, no profanity, no round dancing at our socials. We have one police officer. Nearly every man owns a gun. Our academy building has 5,000 square feet of floors and 250 students. If you can beat this, please put in 'waste basket.'"

A SWORN STATEMENT.
I, C. R. Rollins, M. D., of Grand Valley, Or., voluntarily make the following statement: "After having my teeth extracted I have had five sets made at intervals of about nine months, three in Portland, one in San Francisco and one in Spokane. With neither of these have I been able to eat a meal's victuals or even an apple or slice of peach. On October 10, 1898, I had my teeth set made by Dr. Strecker, A. O. F. Temple, First and Alder, Portland, Or., and within twenty minutes after the time they were put into my mouth I was able to eat a common hard winter apple and a piece of dried venison, and at this time, December 13th, have eaten every meal since with the greatest comfort and with no trouble at all. They are a perfect fit and satisfactory in every respect.

REGAINED HEALTH.
Gratifying Letters to Mrs. Pinkham From Happy Women.

"I Owe You My Life."
Mrs. E. WOOLHISER, Mills, Neb., writes:
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I owe my life to your Vegetable Compound. The doctors said I had consumption and nothing could be done for me. My menstruation had stopped and they said my blood was turning to water. I had several doctors. They all said I could not live. I began the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it helped me right away; menses returned and I have gained in weight. I have better health than I have had for years. It is wonderful what your Compound has done for me."

"I Feel Like a New Person."
Mrs. GEO. LEACH, 1609 Belle St., Alton, Ill., writes:
"Before I began to take your Vegetable Compound I was a great sufferer from womb trouble. Menses would appear two and three times in a month, causing me to be so weak I could not stand. I could neither sleep nor eat, and looked so badly my friends hardly knew me."
"I took doctor's medicine but did not derive much benefit from it. My druggist gave me one of your little books, and after reading it I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel like a new person. I would not give your Compound for all the doctors' medicine in the world. I can not praise it enough."

THE FATHER'S SHOT.
How England's Postmaster General, Henry Fawcett, Lost His Eyes.

"Never mind, father, blindness shall not interfere with my success in life," said the young law student, Henry Fawcett, when his father reproached himself for carelessly destroying all his son's prospects of advancement.

"One pleasant day in 1858 the two had gone hunting together. A flock of partridges flew over a fence where the father had no right to shoot; but as he was moving forward, they flew back toward his son. The father, so eager to bring down a bird that he did not think of his son's danger, fired. Several shots entered Henry's breast, and one went through each eye of a pair of spectacles he wore. In an instant he was stone blind for life.

"But within ten minutes from the time of the accident which deprived him of eyesight forever this boy of ten had determined that even blindness should not swerve him from his purpose.

"Will you read the newspaper to me?" were his first words to his sister when they carried him home.

"He was obliged to abandon law, but he began the study of political economy with a zeal rarely equalled, meanwhile having friends read to him in his moments of leisure the works of Milton, Burke, Wordsworth, all of George Eliot's novels, and a wide course of general literature, for he was determined that his blindness should not limit the breadth of his culture."—From "Success," by Orison Marden.

Advantages of Worrying a Little.
Don't join a Don't Worry Club. Don't try not to worry a little. While contentment is a pleasing virtue, the people you know who are contented would be better off if they worried more. Absolute contentment and indifference to the possible troubles of to-morrow will lead any one to the poor house. The cow doesn't worry, neither does the clam; but people are built to worry, and it was intended that they should. On the other hand, if you worry much it will land you in the insane asylum. It is the insane asylum on the one hand and the poor farm on the other. The point is to worry just enough to keep out of both of them.—Atchison Globe.

The World's Wheat King.
The wheat king of the world resides in Argentina, according to the Boston Traveler. He is an Italian emigrant, named Guazone, and his broad acres are situated in the south of the province of Buenos Ayres. His crop occupies an area of 95,270 acres. He numbers his workmen by the thousand, and every one receives a certain share of the profits. When his season's crop is harvested he fills over 3,000 railway trucks with the grain.

FARMER WASHINGTON.
Employments in Which Our First President Passed His Declining Years.

"Grandpapa is very well, and much pleased with being once more Farmer Washington," wrote Nelly Castle, March 19, 1797, four days after Washington and his family had arrived at Mount Vernon. John Adams had been inaugurated President and Thomas Jefferson Vice-President, and Washington had been present at the scene. After President Adams had delivered his speech and taken the oath of office, he retired. Then there was a little scene which illustrated Washington's appreciation of good food. Vice-President Jefferson, instead of retiring from the hall immediately after President Adams, waited for the ex-President to follow his successor; but Washington, a master of courtesy, insisted on the Vice-President's preceding him. Reluctantly Jefferson yielded.

John Adams wrote to his wife that Washington seemed to enjoy a triumph over him. "Methought I heard him say, 'Ay! I am fairly out and you fairly in! See which of us will be happiest in the chamber was a multitude—and I believe scarcely a dry eye but Washington's." Farmer Washington began at once repairing the Mount Vernon mansion, surrounding himself with masons, joiners and painters. He wrote to his old friend, Oliver Wolcott:

"To make and sell a little flour annually, to repair houses (going fast to ruin), to build one for the security of my papers of a public nature, and to see myself in agriculture and rural pursuits, will constitute employment for the few years I have to remain on this terrestrial globe."

"I begin my diurnal course with the sun," he writes to his former Secretary of War, James McHenry; "if my hirelings are not in their places at that time I send them messages of sorrow for their indolence. Having put these wheels in motion, I examine the state of things further; the more they are probed the deeper I find the wounds which my buildings have sustained by an absence and neglect of eight years.

"By the time I have accomplished these matters breakfast (a little after seven o'clock) is ready; this being over, I mount my horse and ride round my farms, which employ me until it is time to dress for dinner, at which I rarely miss seeing strange faces, come as they say out of respect for me. Pray would not the word curiosity answer as well? And how different this from having a few social friends at a cheerful board!

"The usual time of sitting at table, a walk and ten, bring me within the dawn of candlelight; previous to which, if not prevented by company, I resolve that, as soon as the glimmering taper supplies the place of the great luminary, I will retire to my writing table and acknowledge the letters I have received; but when the lights are brought I feel tired and disinclined to engage in this work, concluding that the next night will do as well. The next night comes, and with it the same causes for postponement, and so on. Having given you the history of a day, it will serve for a year."

"At no period of my life," he writes again, "have I been more engaged than in the last six or eight months."

Housekeepers will appreciate this lament: "The running of my cook (a slave) has been most inconvenient; thing to this family, and what rendered it more disagreeable is that I had resolved never to become the master of another slave by purchase, but this resolution I fear I must break. I have endeavored to hire, black or white, but am not yet supplied."

Telephone Extension.
The Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company will soon connect Halley, Idaho, with all prominent places by long distance telephone. A line will be constructed from Boise to Canaan Prairie, thence to Halley by the Gold Belt, and then to Blackfoot. Halley will be the headquarters of the 300-mile line between the Utah & Northern and Boise. Telephone lines are being extended over the principal parts of Burns, Or., and the Prineville Telephone Company is making extensive improvements.

Hops.
A contract to sell 12,000 pounds of the 1899 hops at 10 cents per pound has been made by Daniel Cavanaugh to Faber & Neis, of Albany. Prospects for fair prices for this year's crop are very flattering. Hop men in Oregon who held their crops and thus obtained better prices are now out of debt for the first time in several years. Horst Bros. bought several lots at North Yakima within 10 days at 12 1/2 and 13 cents.

Advance in Eggs.
Eggs are worth 50 cents a dozen at Colfax, Whitman county. It would seem policy for the Whitman farmers to raise a million or two bushels less wheat and put in a few acres of hops. It is much cheaper to raise a dozen eggs than a bushel of wheat, yet Whitman and other Eastern Washington counties, which produced nearly 15,000,000 bushels of wheat last year, import thousands of dollars' worth of dairy and hog products and eggs every year.

Canyonville Industries.
The growing and shipping of fruit in the vicinity of Canyonville is now so far advanced as to bring in considerable amount of a revenue. Prunes to the amount of 1,500,000 pounds have been sold at the average rate of over three cents per pound, bringing in over $45,000. Shippers are now getting ready to make large consignments of winter apples, and the prevailing price for turkeys is from 9 to 10 cents gross. Lime, sulphur and salt for spraying purposes are now in demand.

Bromine-Chlorine Plant.
An innovation in mining that will be of the greatest value to the people of Eastern Oregon is the establishment at Baker City of a bromine-chlorine plant, for the working of refractory ores, which have hitherto been considered as worthless. The Golconda plant being erected by J. G. English and others, and which is expected to be in operation very soon, will increase to a great extent the business of the Baker City merchants.

Line Shipments.
The Tacoma & Roche Harbor Line Company, which is the chief line works in the Northwest, shipped 100,000 barrels last year, against 90,000 in 1897. The increase was both foreign and local, and the president, J. S. McMillin, says he expects an increase this year of at least 50 per cent, basing his estimates on trade conditions and orders now on hand. This business is a fair indicator of the demand for building material.

Big Cargo to the Orient.
The N. Y. K. steamship Rijnun Maru sailed from Seattle last week for the Orient, with one of the heaviest cargoes ever taken from that port. The freight included 4,000 bales of cotton, 13 carloads of pig lead, 14 cars of wood pulp, besides a great quantity of flour and miscellaneous goods. Another cargo soon to be shipped to the same port will contain 700 tons of salted salmon, brought over from the Fraser river.

Bids for County Bonds.
The county commissioners of Galatin county, Mont., received bids last Monday for the purchase of funding bonds to the amount of $137,000. These bonds are made payable in 20 years, and are to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually in the city of Bozeman. The county reserves the right to redeem any now on hand after 10 years, by giving 60 days' notice.

Flax Industry Growing.
A result of recent agitation throughout Oregon for the cultivation of flax, as a commercial commodity, is the sowing of a considerable acreage this fall to flaxseed. The Portland Linnseed Oil works is furnishing seed to farmers on application, agreeing to take their pay from proceeds of crops raised, for which crop they will contract at prices that mean handsome returns.

New Bank Proposed.
A new bank, the second in the town, is a new project now being planned for Lewiston, Mont. The capital is expected to be $100,000, of which amount Fergus county people have already subscribed for $60,000 worth. George Bach, formerly of Utica, will be cashier, and the principal promoters are H. Hodgson, David Hilger, Herman Otten and Louis Landt. The bank will open its doors in perhaps a week or two.

During the season the Northern Pacific has shipped from the ranges to Eastern terminals for Northwestern and Chicago markets 10,000 head of cattle, an increase of 5,000 over the previous season; 515,000 head of sheep, an increase of 15,000, and 3,000 hogs, an increase of over 50 per cent. The present season has not yet closed.

According to the correspondent in the Spokane Review, the mining town of Republic in Eastern Washington, offers exceptionally fine opportunities to capital to erect waterworks. It appears water is now selling at 50 cents a barrel.

Water Power Abandoned.
The famous incline railway at Prospect Park, Niagara Falls, is to be operated electrically according to a recent decision of the New York State Park Commissioners. Heretofore this railway has always been operated by water power, but in view of the fact that during the great ice bridges, when tourists flock to see this marvelous sight, from all over the state, the railway is usually inoperative. This has been due to the chocking of the intake with ice and very often too low water. As there is no other means of access without a tedious descent and ascent, the tourists have been greatly inconvenienced, and the management have lost considerable money. With abundant electric power available from the Niagara Falls Power Company the electric operation of the road appears to be most apropos.

It is inevitable that Asia Minor shall eventually pass from the possession of Mohammedanism, and whether Germany accomplishes the task or not, the Sultan must yield to a Christian nation, and what is just as inevitable the diseases of the digestive organs must yield to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The disorders of this kind are usually called dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness. The Bitters are equally good for all such complaints, regardless of the name.
