

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

Miss Rose Bloch, the Portland singer, was married on last Tuesday evening to Cecil H. Bauer.

The June bugs, as well as the young things who find pleasure in hanging on the front gate of evenings, will now be able to get in their work.

With a few more days of warm weather the front street merchants in Portland are likely to conclude that water is one of the many things that comes to those who wait.

With the mercury simmering around the 96 mark on the thermometer in the Mississippi valley gauzy night shirts are just now in great demand. Many preparations from the excessive heat are recorded.

Some men are hard to satisfy. During the civil war Gen. Wheeler lost thirty-two of his personal staff killed and wounded, was wounded himself, and had sixteen horses shot under him. Now he wants to go to Manila to keep the Tagals guessing about American cavalry tactics.—Ex.

Salem has an editor who is capable of giving farmers advice on agricultural matters. Of course there is a fly in his cup, an envious newspaper rival, who takes occasion on the announcement of the latest lecture subject, "Tilling the Soil," to remark that "he does his farming from the poop deck of an old second-hand bicycle that he got at a second-hand store."—Guard.

Hon. D. P. Thompson, ex-mayor of Portland and heavy capitalist, who has been identified with Portland's interests almost from its beginning, proposes to erect a public fountain to cost $20,000 between the Plaza blocks in Portland. Mr. Thompson is president of the Oregon Humane Society and he says he prefers to build a fountain where it will be of benefit to humanity and the dumb animals rather than to have a costly monument erected at his grave in Riverview cemetery.

The ways of the government in meting out justice to criminals is something of an enigma as will be seen from the following taken from the Omaha World-Herald: Several years ago a young man named Da France held up a mail carrier in Western Nebraska and secured a copper cent from the mail-bag. Da France was convicted and given a life sentence in the Government prison at Sioux Falls. His sentence has just been commuted to fifteen years by order of President McKinley. Over one year ago Oberlin M. Carrier, a captain in the regular army, was tried and found guilty of swindling the Government out of more than $1,500,000. But nothing has been done to execute the sentence passed upon him by a court of brother officers.

Under the head of Nature vs Nonsense the New York World says: In firm conviction that the human will dominates the forces of nature, a man jumped off the Brooklyn bridge, expecting to descend as slowly and gently as he might "will" to the water below. He didn't kill himself, but for that thanks are not due to "will," but solely to those laws of nature which he sought to defy. His fall was at the precise velocity prescribed by the law of gravitation. Another and a kindlier law of nature which makes water easily penetrable saved his life. In strict accordance with still another law of nature he got himself very wet when he fell into the water. Another law of nature enabled him to come to the surface and enabled a boat to float him to shore. Mark Twain has observed that when the magic of faldorol encounters the magic of science "the magic of faldorol gets left every time." This truth is earnestly commended to all believers that "occult" forces are capable of successful rebellion against the laws of nature.

The country has much to fear from its insects. In Manila the ants are eating all the paper money, and in Massachusetts a new kind of bug is destroying the cranberry crop.

Admiral Dewey professes to be amazed at the preparatory work being made for his reception in New York. The Admiral should remember that he is a much bigger man than he thinks he is.

If the Cuban soldiers will not accept their $3,000,000 allowance for services as non-combatants, the money might be brought back home and used in relieving the pay of men who know how to fight.

It is becoming harder and harder every year to get acquainted in Missouri. Under the new state law barbers are required to pass an examination and take out a license before they can scrape an acquaintance.

In a few days Rhode Island will have but one capital, Newport dropping out. Aguinaldo will then be without a rival in the capital line.

Relations With Spain.

Nothing would seem to stand in the way of the early resumption of very cordial relations between the United States and Spain. The last installment of the $20,000,000 Philippine indemnity has been duly paid over by our Government. Spaniards and Spanish interests in Cuba are looking to the United States for justice and fair play, with a full sense of security and with no ill-feeling whatever. Among the good results of the war and the peace treaty must be mentioned the wiping out of all claims on the part of the citizens and government of one country against the other arising out of the circumstances of the Cuban war of rebellion. Thus Spain is debarred from making any claims against the United States on the score of filibustering and the fitting out of unlawful expeditions analogous to our Alabama claims against England. American citizens who owned property in Cuba will not, on the other hand, bring claims against Spain for losses incurred by them in the period of the insurrection. The war liquidated all old scores, and the United States and Spain begin their new account on a clean slate. As victors, the American people have no possible ground for cherishing any grudges; and Spaniards cannot afford to indulge any permanent ill-will. The Spanish press has for the most part entirely dropped the subject of the war, although Uncle Sam's tribulations in the Philippines form the theme of an occasional sarcastic paragraph or jeering cartoon.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for June.

Summer Fallow.

The extreme dryness of the season in Western Oregon will impel farmers to fallow larger areas of land than usual, says the bulletin from the Oregon experiment station.

Bare summer fallow is both unnecessary and expensive; and the idea that land requires a rest is erroneous, and not in accordance with modern science. One of the basic principles of successful agriculture is to keep the land covered with a growing crop throughout the year. Instead of exposing thousands of fertile acres to a summer's sun, thereby burning out the humus, and unlocking more of the natural fertility than can be possibly utilized before loss from leaching occurs, better by far sow or plant some forage crop, which can be made to supplement the parched pastures in the fall, and not only prevent the flock or herd suffering from the pinch of hunger during those months, but also putting them in prime condition for entering the winter later on. Corn and rape are excellent for this purpose. The former can be planted as late as the first of July, the latter as late as the first of August. Pough the land deep, and work down to a fine soil. For corn, in the absence of a planter, mark the ground in three foot squares, and plant three or four grains three inches deep on the corners of the squares. When the corn is well up, narrow lightly. This will destroy many small weeds. Later cultivate both ways. For rape, prepare the ground the same as for corn; this should be done as early as practicable in the spring. In June sow broadcast three or four pounds of Dwarf Essex rape to the acre, and cover with a cutaway, or disc harrow; work down fine and finish with a roller. Turn the stock in when the corn commences to tassle; and when the rape is six inches high.

Apple Jelly Without Sugar.

A most excellent apple jelly can be made in the following manner: Select well ripened apples, free from rot, and make into cider, removing the small particles of pumice by filtering through muslin. The cider is then placed in a granite kettle and allowed to boil very slowly, without ceasing, until it becomes thick enough to jelly when cold; this may be easily determined by placing a small quantity in a saucer to cool. Pour the syrup into jelly glasses or other suitable receptacles, allow it to set firmly and then pour over the top a small quantity of hot paraffine, spreading it up the sides of the glass which will protect the jelly from moulding, and prevent any contaminating germs from entering.

There is sufficient sugar and gelatinous matter in well ripened apples to make a stiff tart jelly in this manner. No sugar is used. If scum forms while boiling it should be removed. Too strong boiling will prevent jellifying. One gallon of cider will make from eight to ten glasses of jelly.

Showering Our Army.

The same gentlemen who have predicted the continuance of the war for centuries to come have also spread abroad many tales to the effect that our officers and men have conducted the fighting against the Filipinos in a wanton manner, with needless sacrifices of life and with general disregard of the rules and principles of civilized warfare. We shall consider all this to be baseless slander until some evidence can be brought forward to prove the charges. There have been assertions, furthermore, in various quarters that our soldiers in the Philippines have been suffering needlessly and have been ill provided for. The best evidence obtainable goes to show that no troops at a distance from home and engaged in actual warfare were ever so well supplied with food, medicine, clothing, and hospital care and facilities as our army now in the Philippines. The conditions of campaigning in Luzon subject our men to no little hardship in spite of everything that can possibly be done; and the end of the war will be welcomed by all thoughtful and sensible people with a deep sense of relief and gratitude. But while we have business of that kind on our hands it is not well to exaggerate the dark side of the picture. And it is folly that approaches criminality to plot schemes for hampering our government in its efforts to end quickly an unhappy business that nobody enjoys.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for June.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest dangers from la grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed. C. E. Smith's drug store.

Medford, the Amity saloon keeper, is getting deeper into trouble than ever. Last week he was bound over in bonds of $200 for allowing minors in his saloon. Friday he was again arrested for letting Charley Bynum, a minor, have liquor. He was brought before Justice McPhillips and placed under like bonds of $200 on this charge. Transcript does not desire to see any man unjustly punished; but if this charge proves true Medford or any other gally man should meet the severest penalty that the law can impose. After paying a high rental on the Hotel Yamhill property for three years, Joe Du Bois last week purchased the property from Thomas Holman of Salem, paying therefor the sum of $4,000. He also purchased the property adjoining it on the south from Wm. Gilson for $800. This gives Mr. Du Bois an excellent property, and we congratulate him on securing it. It will be a good thing for the city, as the new owner and proprietor will make repairs and additions to his property that will make it one of the very best hotels in the state—just such a one as a first-class town needs, and we hope to see him receive the greatest encouragement.—Transcript.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers act as a

Every woman should know that there is a great home medical book that tells all about the appropriate female physiology of women, and all about the home-treatment of diseases peculiar to the sex. This book contains 200 pages and over 700 illustrations. It is called Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It used to cost $1.50. Over seven hundred thousand people purchased it at that price and over 1,200,000 people now own copies of it. For a limited time copies will be given away free. This great book contains the names, addresses, photographs and experiences of hundreds of women who were once hopeless invalids, but who have been restored to robust womanly health by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This marvelous medicine acts directly on the delicate organs distinctly feminine. It makes them strong, healthy, vigorous, virile and chaste. It fits for widowhood and motherhood. It banishes the usual sufferings of the expectant months, and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It robs motherhood of its perils. It insures the robust health of the little new-comer and a bountiful supply of nature's nourishment. It transforms weak, sickly, nervous invalids into healthy, happy wives and mothers. For a paper-covered copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, send 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. For elegant French cloth binding, 31 stamps. Miss Bessie Cain, of Clinton, Allegheny Co., Pa., writes: "After two years of suffering, I have been cured by your Favorite Prescription, and am now perfectly cured. I had been troubled with female troubles, and also with a troublesome drain on the system, but now I am happy and well." In cases of constipation and torpid liver, no remedy is equal to Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They regulate and invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. They never fail. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic. They never gripe. An honest dealer will not urge a substitute upon you.

Thomas Thurman, deputy sheriff of Troy, Mo., says if everyone in the United States should discover the virtue of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles, rheumatoid trouble and skin diseases, the demand could not be supplied. C. F. Moore & Co.

News reaches us of an ugly altercation at Sheridan last week between Steve Scroggins and Pat Churchman, which resulted in the former being stabbed several times by the latter. No particulars are received than that the trouble began Wednesday evening over some wheat, and resulted in a fight. NEARLY FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS OLD ! ! It's a long life, but devotion to the true interests and prosperity of the American People has won for it new friends as the years rolled by and theoretical members of its family passed to their reward, and these admirers are loyal and steadfast today, with faith in its teachings, and confidence in the information which it brings to their homes and firesides. As a natural consequence it enjoys in its old age all the vitality and vigor of youth, strengthened and ripened by the experiences of over half a century. It is "The New-York Weekly Tribune," acknowledged the country over as the leading National Family Newspaper. Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the State and Nation, the publisher of "The Graphic" (your own favorite home paper) has entered into an alliance with "The New-York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to furnish both papers at the trifling cost of $1.50 per year. Every farmer and every villager owes to himself, to his family, and to the community in which he lives a cordial support of his local newspaper, as it works constantly and untiringly for his interests in every way, brings to his home all the news and happenings of his neighborhood, the doings of his friends, the condition and prospects for different crops, the prices in home markets, and, in fact, is a weekly visitor which should be found in every wide awake, progressive family.
