Kodol Dyspepsia Cure thoroughly digests food without aid from the stomach, and at the same time heals and restores the diseased digestive organs. It is the only remedy that does both of these things and can be relied upon to permanently cure dyspepsia. C. F. Moore & Co.

E. H. Woodward has been attending the annual meeting of the state editorial association at Astoria this week and has also been taking in the regatta there. On his way down, in Portland, he met his old friend Dr. Will Clark of Ontario, California, who accompanied him to Astoria.

Maurice L. Townsend, who for the past three or four months has been teaching school at Oretown, in Tillamook county, came in on the train Friday morning. After visiting over Sunday with his sister Mrs. J. C. Hodson, he left here Monday morning for his home near Richmond, Indiana, after an absence of two years. He expects to attend medical college next year, probably at Indianapolis.

J. J. Barndollar an old Pennsylvania friend of Howard Williams' arrived here last week with his family from Coffeyville, Kansas. They have been away from home for a considerable length of time, taking in the many sights along the coast from Southern California north. Mr. Barndollar was in Coffeyville when the Dalton gang made the attempt to rob two banks and was a witness to the battle which ensued, resulting in the death of eight men, four of the gang and four citizens.

As was predicted by his admiring friends Roy Heater won the pole vault at Astoria Saturday and now holds the Northwest record. He also won second place in the running broad jump and third place in the 120 yd. hurdles. The Sunday Oregonian says: "The pole vault was the most closely fought of all the events, the interest of the grandstand not lessening one whit throughout the entire two hours, and when Don Palmer, with his new Eastern hollow pole, all the same Columbia's hollow mast, equaled his record of ten feet and eight inches, and Heater with his Oregon fir stick, went him one better and broke the record, the enthusiasm was at its height. This was the only contest in which there was a record smashed, the record for the vault in the Northwest now standing at ten feet and ten inches."

A. Atkins, the popular pastor of the M. E. church here three years ago, will give a lecture in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening on "Jeremiah's Visit to Ireland." Rev. Atkins' many friends will be glad of the opportunity to hear him again.

The regular services at the Friends church Sunday morning will be conducted by the pastor. In the evening, at 8 p. m., Pres. Thomas Newlin has kindly consented to relieve the pastor. Come out and hear him. LEVI BARR, Pastor.

Lon Hill received an interesting letter through the mail Tuesday. It was one Mrs. Hill had written him when he was in the Klondike, and was over a year old, the date being July 24, 1898. It would probably have been more appreciated had it been received a year ago.

W. P. Heacock wishes his friends to know and don't you forget it, regardless of what they may have heard to the contrary, that he has a wood-saw engine and asks you kindly to give him your orders for wood-sawing. He will treat you square and do the work as cheap as anyone.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it can't help doing so. "The public can rely upon it as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion." James M. Thomas, M. D., in American Journal of Health, N. Y., C. F. Moore & Co.

E. C. Armstrong and family have just arrived from southern California, where they have been for the past five or six years, and intend to make this their future home. It is the same old story—once in Oregon never satisfied till back again, for there is no place like unto it. Their many friends here are glad to welcome them back again.

Charlie Moore's under lip has gradually come up again and assumed its natural position, the cure having been effected when his wife and children arrived home Wednesday morning from Willamina, where they had been visiting for a few weeks. Charlie had only been to the train to meet them five times, and had about concluded that the joys of this life are rather uncertain.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Speer of Garfield, Ohio, who have been making a tour of the coast beginning with Southern California, stopped off here Tuesday and visited over night with Emmor Hall's with whom they used to be very well acquainted. They are also old friends of the Kirks and the Douglas family. Mr. Speer is a large fruit dealer, and was greatly interested in our orchards.

C. C. Elliott received word from his old Indiana home the other day that his younger brother, who is only in his teens, had taken French leave of the old folks and joined the regular army, and that he had been stationed at the army post at Vancouver, Washington. On account of his youth, however, a discharge had been obtained for him, and the folks at home wished Clarence to go down after him. He was rather of the opinion however, that if the young man was determined to soldier it was useless to interfere.

Carl Stanley is up from Portland this week visiting with his father.

The Indian says we will have no summer. The white man knows we hav'nt got it. Any fool, can predict a long winter; the wise man prepares for it and purchases his underwear at Hodson Bros.

Word received from Nate Snodgrass at North Yakima, Washington, states that crops are fine, though fruit is rather light in that section. It seems also that we have no monopoly on the unexpected August rain, for they also have experienced a little of the "unusual."

George Tolson writes that he had a very pleasant ocean trip down to San Francisco, and did not miss a meal—he failed to specify as to the loss of any. He is now studying in the Pacific Theological Seminary at Oakland, and recites two classes in the university at Berkeley where Sarg Britt is attending.

T. B. Duncans' returned home from Meadow Lake Monday where they had been fishing and picking huckleberries. While out there a party from North Yamhill shot a deer back of the lake and divided up with them very liberally, so they feasted on venison steak. Tom seems to have fallen in love with the place out there and wishes to buy a small tract for a summer resort. He expects to return again next week.

Glorious News Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, L. F. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion builds up the strength. Only 50c. Sold by C. E. Smith druggist. Guaranteed.

Grain Display at Exposition. In order to get a good display of grain and grasses for the Portland Exposition the management has decided to offer three premiums; first premium $100, second $70, and third $50 to be given to the county making the best exhibit of grain and grasses from the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The Southern Pacific railroad company has been authorized to receive at the various stations on its lines wheat, oats and grasses. From each station will be taken 50 bundles of wheat, 25 of oats and 25 of grasses and five cents a bundle will be paid. The bundles should be about six inches in diameter, cut full length and closely tied together.

All exhibits must reach Portland by September 1. Yamhill county ought to make a display that will take first premium. Rules For Storing Wheat. Following are the rules for storing wheat at the Newberg Flouring Mills. Wheat is stored in bulk as we loan the grain sacks to our customers. Anyone selling their wheat between the present date and July 15, 1900, will get two cents more per bushel than the local market price as compared with value of wheat in bulk at Portland. Customers who carry their wheat over to another year will get no more for it than the real market price at time of selling. Should we sometimes pay more than two cents above the market price for stored wheat or wheat brought to mill, we reserve the privilege of only paying such a price for stored wheat until we have supplied our needs. On stored wheat taken out in small quantities for chicken feed no storage will be charged. Wheat exchanged for any kind of millstuff or grain. KISTON & FOCUS.
