Drew and Ore Price have been up from Portland during the week doing a little visiting before entering the law school for the winter.

Now that the public school and the college are both in session the young life of Newberg is pretty well represented on our streets daily.

Elihu Roberts and his mother returned to their home above Carlton on Wednesday. They seem to be very well pleased with their farm.

Spray with McNeil's Carbolic Compound. Death on fruit tree pests, and hoplice. Call for circulars and see sample. W. C. KROGER, Agent.

Up to Wednesday morning there were seventy-three students enrolled at the college. This is considered a very good enrollment for the beginning of the year.

Pres Thomas Newlin will occupy the pulpit at the Friends church next Sunday morning and Rev. A. M. Bray of the Friends church, Portland, in the evening.

Mohi Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, producing a perfect complexion, cost money refunded. 25 cts. and 50 cts. C. E. Smith.

The Christian associations of the college gave their first social and reception of the new school year last Saturday evening in the college chapel, to which the students, faculty and alumni were invited. The affair was a very enjoyable one and went far toward fulfilling its desired object, that of making the new students feel at home, and of helping them to get acquainted with their new associates. After a delightful social hour a short program was given. On behalf of the college Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., Chas. Burrows and Miss Olive Stratton, the respective presidents, extended a warm welcome to all students. Miss Julia S. White also spoke briefly in behalf of the associations. Miss Margaret Alderson, the new musical director, and Miss Sibyl Woodward, each rendered a very pretty vocal solo. If the work of the associations continues in the same spirit in which it has started out, the officers may expect good results from this year's efforts.

With a clubbing rate of only $2 a year for the Graphic and the Oregonian you get all the news, both local and general, at a very low figure. Now is the time to subscribe.

The Dundee school opened last Monday morning with J. G. Hadley and Vannie Martin as teachers. The attendance is not yet up to the average as several of the youngsters are still out at work.

T. S. Gillman, of Vancouver, Washington, who is a prairie grower of considerable note passed through town on Wednesday. He has an Allen evaporator and he thinks it is the best yet invented.

Hon. Calvin Stanley left here for Danville, Indiana last Saturday. The move is supposed to be permanent as he closed out all his property interests in Newberg, both personal and real, before leaving.

Prof. E. W. Moon will deliver his temperance lecture, "The change of the chameleon," at the Presbyterian church on Saturday evening beginning at eight o'clock. An invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Anderson Hodgson returned from Moro the first of the week where he spent a month with a threshing crew. He says the crop in Sherman county is large this season though the quality is not quite up to the average.

C. B. Wilson has been appointed Agt. at Newberg for Multnomah box factory. If you are in need of any fruit boxes, strawberry crates or anything of the kind you can get them of him as cheap as you can in Portland.

The Crescent literary society was re-organized at the college Friday evening, with the following officers: Leon Kerk, worthy president; Carol Kirk, vice-president; Mark Wolf, secretary; Grace Ruan, critic; Stella McDaniel, librarian and Fred Crozier, marshal.

For wounds, burns, scalds sores, skin diseases and all irritating eruptions, nothing so soothing and healing as De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Mrs. Emma Bolles, Matron Englewood Nursery, Chicago, says of it: "When all else fails in healing our babies, it will cure." C. F. Moore & Co.

Gambling is not by any means the least among the many vices and there are a few fellows about town who, it seems can't refrain from engaging in it on the sly. If any of this class take a different view and think it is a legitimate pastime the Graphic will publish their names without charge.

I will pay 50 cents per bushel, cash, for Italian prunes. It will pay you at this price to go over your orchard as perhaps you will find more than you think I will pay 30 cents per bushel, cash, for French prunes. Any one having prunes please see or write me at Dundee, Oregon. Z. T. DAVIS.

Mrs. Caroline Dunlap has returned from her summer's vacation and has taken up her kindergarten work again. She spent the summer with her daughter at Vancouver, B. C., where she says she had a delightful time, though she found the Vancouverites rather too "Hinglish" in some respects to just please one of American birth and breeding.

A resident of Newberg says he is pretty well convinced that when you get a good thing it pays to keep it. Last spring he bought a cow for $30 and recently he priced her to a neighbor at $55 who snapped up the bargain before the owner of the cow had time to consult his wife in the matter. The former owner says if he had the cow back $75 would not buy her. A well behaved cow and a good milker is about half the living away.

Louis Bagger & Co., patent attorneys, Washington D. C., report that on last Tuesday Levi M. Myers, a resident of Newberg, obtained a valuable patent for improvements in hop bins, and to other residents of this state two patents were issued on the same date.

Kodol Dyspepsia cure is a scientific compound having the endorsement of eminent physicians and the medical press. It "digests what you eat" and positively cures dyspepsia. M. A. Keron, Bloomingdale, Tenn., says it cured him of indigestion of ten years standing. C. F. Moore & Co.

For first class tailoring Martin Olsen's work recommends itself, but in order to satisfy a class of customers who want cheaper clothing he has arranged to furnish goods from a San Francisco house, from $10 up for a suit. He will take your measure and guarantee a fit. Call and see his samples.

Rev. W. J. Waltz, who has been pastor of the M. E. church during the past year goes to Sellwood for the coming year. Rev. Waltz has made many friends during his stay in Newberg and since he must take up work in another field it is a satisfaction to know that he gets a good place. The Graphic force will remember him with pleasure.

With the coming of railroads and other "civilizing" influences all the pests that exist seem to keep pace. The time was when a fly net for a horse could scarcely be found in all Oregon because such a thing was not needed, but now with all the nets and other preventatives that can be used the pesky flies make life miserable for horses and cattle. They were late coming this season on account of the cool weather but they are here with a vengeance now.

A very ugly looking runaway was headed off in its early stages on the long bridge across the canyon last Sunday evening before any serious results came of it. Mrs. Walter Mills' two children in company with her sister, Miss Stephens, and a gentleman from Dayton were in a buggy driving toward town and when opposite Noah Heater's residence the buggy tongue dropped down which scared the team and caused it to start to run and kick. The driver jumped out and holding to the lines tried to hold onto the buggy and stop the team. He was dragged a third of the length of the bridge but finally with the assistance of Mr. Farr, of Portland, who met the team, all was brought to a halt without any material damage being done.

School supplies of all descriptions, lunch boxes, book straps, pencil boxes, at Moore's drug store.

The ladies of Newberg and vicinity are invited to attend Mrs. Johnson's millinery opening on Saturday, Sep. 30. The latest styles in fall and winter hats.

Hon. Clarence Butt who who is one of the attorneys in the Barrie & Hobson bankruptcy case has been in attendance at circuit court at McMinnville this week.

Miss Glen, contralto, Miss Alderson, soprano, and Miss Swick, reader, at the college chapel on Thursday evening, October 5. This will be the musical and literary treat of the season.

Preaching at the Baptist church Sunday morning subject, "The Lord's supper" at the close of the morning sermon the Lord's supper will be observed. Preaching at 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all. J. E. Dav, Pastor.

A missionary sewing to which all interested ladies are invited, will be held at the residence of E. H. Woodward, this, Friday afternoon. Donations to the list of supplies for the Alaska work should be brought in at once in order that the boxing may not be delayed.

The thresher has "hummed" for all it is worth since the fine weather set in but its labors are about finished for the season and it will now furnish a "chicken roost" for the poultry in the barnyard until such a time as it is wanted for threshing next year's crop.

Marshal Heath has asked the Graphic to state that complaint has been made to him that chickens running at large are giving annoyance to neighbors and the owners must take care of their fowls. There is an ordinance forbidding chickens running at large and the marshal says it will be enforced.

The Misses Marguerite Alderson of Pacific College and Katherine Glen of Dayton, assisted by Miss Fay Swick, reader, also of Dayton, will give a musical in the college chapel on next Thursday evening. This announcement is advertisement enough to insure a good house. The usual price of admission.

Two brothers named Flint, one a resident of Washington county near Scholls and the other of Ventura, California, were in town Thursday. They are both old-timers on the coast and are just now living their boyhood days over again while enjoying a short visit, after a separation of several years.

In a letter received the other day from I. E. Ho't he stated that they had changed their location from Oakesdale, Washington, to Moscow, Idaho, where he found better opportunities for making money. A big wheat crop is reported from that country though some damage was sustained by unfavorable harvesting weather.

From a dispatch to the Oregonian it appears that burglars got in some work at North Yamhill last Monday night. The stores of O. P. Jones, Austin & Willing, A. E. McKern and Brown Bros. were entered by forcing the locks and breaking windows. In all they secured about $10 in small change, and three watches from Jones' racket store. No clue to the burglars.

The damage suit of Dr. J. W. Watts against the Southern Pacific company which has been in progress at McMinnville during the week, is attracting considerable attention. The suit is for $1000 damages for injuries sustained by the plaintiff a year or more ago, when he was struck by a passing train at a railroad crossing near LaFayette. E. B. Collard is one of the jurymen in the case.

Ministers meeting met at the Friends church Monday morning at 10 a. m. Opening prayer by Rev. F. W. Launer, a constitution and rules of order were then read and adopted. Rev. Launer then gave the association an outline of his Sunday morning sermon. The next meeting of the association will be Monday following the second Sunday in October. A large attendance is desired at that time.

J. F. DAY, Secretary.

A. T. Hill, formerly of Newberg, is a public spirited man and a worthy citizen wherever he is located. In a lengthy article in Tuesday's Oregonian from LaGrande he is put down as a member of the "Commercial Club" of that city which has for its object "the advancement and development of the agricultural interests of Union county, and the advancement of the commercial interests of the city of LaGrande and vicinity." The club has a very large membership.

3 Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general reviving of trade at C. E. Smith's drug store as his giving away to his many customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.
