

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1909.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

There is only one little insignificant question yet involved in the Democratic nominating Dewey for president in 1909. And that is—Is Dewey a Democrat?

The old Buckeye state will fairly bulge out with self assured importance for the next few weeks. For, politically speaking, all eyes are longingly and appealingly turned Ohioward in anticipation of her coming fall election, which, it is generally conceded, will be a sign board telling which way to the White House in 1909.

It is feared by his friends that the serious illness of Vice President Hobart will prevent him from again accepting the nomination for the vice presidency. In that case, there are others, who can doubtless be prevailed upon to sacrifice personal interests for the public weal, in order to become the running mate of President McKinley.

Jerry Simpson took forced leave of a Wichita, Kansas, audience the other day, speechless as well as sockless. He was on the program for an address before a reunion of the local G.A.R. but in his opening remarks began a political harangue in which he declared his sympathy with Aguinaldo, as against our American troops. Such sentiment brought forth such a storm of censure from his patriotic audience that he was forced to discontinue his speech, and as he left the hall the band very appropriately played "The Star Spangled Banner." Jerry will better gauge his audience next time.

The existing political conditions in England have called forth a certain species of patriotism very similar to that in the United States, which flies the banner of anti-imperialism, anti-expansion, and any other old scary, sensational, catch phrases, for the evident purpose only of hindering the success and prosperity of the present administration. The only encouragement such patriotism(?) has received in England, however, has come in the form of brickbats and bad eggs. And still our so-called patriots of this stamp, think they are dreadfully ill-treated and shamefully misused because they are not lauded as moral heroes, in their offensive efforts to put obstacles in the way of our nation's destiny, and all because of party prejudice. If they honestly want their deserts, let them run up against the London cockneys.

Experience generally proves that arbitration is a pretty safe method of procedure even from a practical standpoint. But the surprising amount of human nature yet in the world acts and will continue to act as a hindrance to a general application of this progressive principle. For just as long as a man imagines he has just a little the best of the other fellow he "seems" to compromise his principles in a peaceful mode of settlement, and conscientiously wants to see "the law take its course." And a pretty long and expensive course too, he may find it to be, of which this country has had a brilliant example in the action of the last circuit court. Dr. J. W. Watts, of Lafayette, who sustained serious injuries from being run into by a special on this branch of the Southern Pacific railroad, refused to compromise with the company, but persisted in suing for $20000 damages. The case came up in the circuit court last week, when the decision was given in favor of the S. P. company. On the other hand, he has about five hundred dollar costs to settle for. This comes as a hard blow to the old gentleman, so far along in years, and already in limited circumstances. As it now appears, a peaceable compromise, as offered by the company, would have been very desirable. Such cases come as practical object lessons, but only to be soon forgotten when other men rush forward to prove by their own experience that damage suits are dear investments.

The imperialistic plan is that of the survival of the fittest, that is that the weak in nations must give way to the strong, the same as the weak in nature must give way to the strong. Because it is so in nature doesn't make it right nationally any more than it does in a business way. The policy of nations should rather be "live and let live." No great nation has a right to oppress a weak one because it can. No giant of a man has a right to beat a weak brother because he can. No strong business house backed by millions has a right to break down the business of a smaller dealer because he can. You can't make wrong right by saying so, no more than you can make black white. The great heart beat of humanity should rise above the policy of tearing down some one else in order to build up one's own interests. The closer you get to brute nature the closer you get to the fountain head of the policy of the survival of the fittest. The higher up you go the less selfishness you will find among men and nations, and the more you will find the strong offering to help the weak and oppressed instead of absorbing them for their own strength. There is not an atom of Christian spirit as taught by the humble Nazarene, in this policy that has such a strong hold on the world, particularly the empires of the world, and it is time that more of the spirit was displayed that we are our brother's keepers and not their oppressors.—Albany Democrat.

Taken as a whole, the above doctrine is sound and well expressed. It is hard for nations to get away from the practice of the "survival" idea. And in fact we have not advanced so far that this great scientific principle has not yet a great part to play in our history. It is an unconscious factor of progress which always has been a key to development, and will be until that vague period of long anticipated bliss known as the "Golden Age" shall be ushered in. But the term "imperialistic" as applied to this law is liable to be a misnomer. Though in a sense allied, this principle is not identical with the idea that "Might makes right." The United States is not imperialistic simply because she is fit to survive as a nation while Spain is not. "Live and let live" is all right as a national policy if the weaker is fit to live. Otherwise it is all wrong. But after all the true spirit is the missionary idea. That is—help make your neighbor fit to survive and thus supplement and soften nature's stern law. That is what we are going to do for the Filipinos, and we are not imperialistic either.

Patriot or Traitor?

Such political crises as the nation is now passing through are always very productive of general misunderstanding and bitter animosities. Our present condition, politically, is no new one in the history of the government, as some seem to imagine. There always have been times, when in the heat of political passion the fiercest denunciations have taken place, and when each party has looked upon the other as the most insidious and inveterate enemy of the nation's welfare. Washington himself, during his presidency was most bitterly persecuted by political enemies, which fact is not generally recognized. A republican form of government is a natural source of such partisan warfare and invective. It always will be. But often some special crisis arises when the warmth of political discussion, turns into the fierce heat of passion. Such, to a great extent, is the present one. In the first place there existed only a difference of opinion as to the practicability of expansion, territorially. But as political opinion has become crystallized, what were once mere opinions have become positive and unrelenting convictions. It is not natural that the change should have brought about charges and counter charges of disloyalty. The question is how far are such charges valid. Differences of opinion are natural and necessary for the safety and best interests of the government. So far, so good. But when an adverse sentiment as to the course of the administration develops into declared sympathy with our enemies, and even with an expressed hope for their success to the defeat and humiliation of our own good government, the question takes an altogether different aspect. Anti-expansionists wish to pose as martyrs when the name of "traitor," naked and unvarnished, is applied to them. They do not seem to realize that it is not applied because of their convictions adverse to expansion. Just so far, there can be no fault found with them except from the standpoint of mere political differences. But the line is distinctly drawn when they express their hope that Aguinaldo will defeat our troops and drive them into the sea. Then they certainly cease to be loyal citizens of a grand republic but deserve the stigma of traitor which Murat Halstead unflinchingly applied in the presence of a large body of them. Much criticism has always been found with the famous expression of the naval hero Decatur: "Our country. May she be always right. But, right or wrong—our country." Despite the criticism, the sentiment is far from wholly bad. There is at least no trace of the traitor's sentiment there. The modern version which would doubtless please certain patriots(?), judging from their actions, would be—"Our country. May she be always right—if my party is in power. But right or wrong, if the other party is in, the devil take the country." Of the two versions, Decatur's certainly comes nearer toward fulfilling the ideal of American citizenship.

Real Estate Transfers. Reported by the Yamhill Co. Abstract Co. Minnville, Oregon, for the week ending Sept. 16, 1909. James M. Pugh, manager.

Robert Henry and wife and Dan Parker were baptized here in the Yamhill river last Sunday by Bro. Metzger of the Evangelical church.

Wilfred Unger had the fingers of his right hand cut off close to the thumb on Tuesday evening. His glove caught on a knot in some way and drew his hand on the saw while sawing wood.

Charley Powell has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from the post office to the depot in McMinnville. Guess he took it pretty cheap.

We have a new barber from about Newberg by the name of Terry. The boys say he is a good barber.

The contractors are having trouble with their offer dam at the locks the recent rains have raised the river so that it keeps breaking through the temporary dam which they have built to turn the water through the locks while they build the permanent dam.

Best on the market for coughs and colds and all bronchial troubles; for croup it has no equal," writes Henry R. Whitford, South Canaan, Conn., of One Minute Cough Cure. C. F. Moore & Co.

One evening last week the reporter's attention was called to a team standing on the street, and our informant said they had stood there from early morning, without either food or drink. More than that a hog was in the wagon, and he too had taken the scorching sun all day. That team should have been put in the stable and the owner made to pay the bill. A man should have just a trifle of humanity about him, even if he has to pay for it.—Transcript.

The Appetite of a Goat. Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills the wonderful stomach and liver remedies, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25c. C. E. Smith's drug store.

When one looks at the class of work contracted for by the county, in the matter of public improvements, he reaches the conclusion that the court must think the time is near at hand when bridges will not be needed. There is no idea of permanence put into these improvements. The present cost would be but little more to build permanently of rock and iron, but they would last, and the idea that we are living for today only, would not seem to be true. When will this permanent work begin?—Telephone-Register.

In the county court of the state of Oregon for the county of Yamhill. In the matter of the estate of Gideon F. Heston, deceased. Notice is hereby given that Ruth Heston the administratrix of the estate of Gideon F. Heston, deceased, has rendered and presented for settlement and audit her final account of her administration of said estate and that Tuesday the seventh day of November, A. D. 1909, at ten o'clock in the forenoon at the court room of said court in the Court House in the city of McMinnville in Yamhill county, Oregon has been duly appointed by the said court for the settlement of the said account at which time and place as which time any and all persons interested in said estate may appear and file exceptions in writing to the said account and contest the same.

RUTH HESTON, Administratrix of Estate.

Dr. J. W. Watts, of Lafayette, who sustained serious injuries from being run into by a special on this branch of the Southern Pacific railroad, refused to compromise with the company, but persisted in suing for $20000 damages. The case came up in the circuit court last week, when the decision was given in favor of the S. P. company. On the other hand, he has about five hundred dollar costs to settle for. This comes as a hard blow to the old gentleman, so far along in years, and already in limited circumstances. As it now appears, a peaceable compromise, as offered by the company, would have been very desirable. Such cases come as practical object lessons, but only to be soon forgotten when other men rush forward to prove by their own experience that damage suits are dear investments.

There's always hope while there's One Minute Cough Cure. "An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape and I was near the first stages of consumption. One minute Cough Cure completely cured me," writes Hives McHenry, Bismark, N. D. Gives instant relief. C. F. Moore & Co.

CHEHALEM CENTER.

School began Monday morning. Mr. Chas. Deach, who is well liked by the scholars and patrons of the school, resuming his duties as teacher.

Mr. H. W. Chase came home Thursday from Spaulding's logging camp for a short visit with his family. He returned Monday morning.

Three of the Chehalis Center young ladies are attending Pacific College, the Misses Mildred Wills, Lizzie Kirk and Nellie Burrows.

Rollin Kirk will soon again take up the role of pedagogue in the school near Carlton which he taught so successfully last year.

Mr. E. C. Armstrong moved his family to the Lowsdale farm near LaFayette the first of the week.

Mr. J. W. Wheeler and family are going to make their home near Eugene in the future. We are sorry to lose them, as they are good friendly people to have in a neighborhood. Mr and Mrs. Will Lawrence are moving into the house vacated by them.

Chester H. Brown, Kalamazoo, Mich., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me of a severe case of indigestion; can strongly recommend it to all dyspeptics." Digests what you eat without aid from the stomach, and cures dyspepsia. C. F. Moore & Co.

LAFAYETTE ITEMS.

The directors have added another room and employed another teacher at the public school. The teachers are now Prof. Blough, Miss Sarah Bates, Miss Flora Blough and Miss Mary Bird. The Seminary opened on the morning of Sept. 25th, with a good attendance and favorable outlook. The faculty raised a beautiful flag on the campus, a present to the school from the Alumni society.

Mr. Morris is doing a good job repairing the county bridge across the Yamhill river at this place.

The generator of the acetylene plant at the L. O. O. F. hall exploded on last Thursday evening while the Rebekah lodge was in session. The explosion shook the earth, but fortunately no one was hurt nor but little damage done.

Mr. Martin of Dundee was showing a gasoline lamp in town last evening which makes a fine light.

Robert Henry and wife and Dan Parker were baptized here in the Yamhill river last Sunday by Bro. Metzger of the Evangelical church.

Wilfred Unger had the fingers of his right hand cut off close to the thumb on Tuesday evening. His glove caught on a knot in some way and drew his hand on the saw while sawing wood.

Charley Powell has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from the post office to the depot in McMinnville. Guess he took it pretty cheap.

We have a new barber from about Newberg by the name of Terry. The boys say he is a good barber.

The contractors are having trouble with their offer dam at the locks the recent rains have raised the river so that it keeps breaking through the temporary dam which they have built to turn the water through the locks while they build the permanent dam.

Best on the market for coughs and colds and all bronchial troubles; for croup it has no equal," writes Henry R. Whitford, South Canaan, Conn., of One Minute Cough Cure. C. F. Moore & Co.

One evening last week the reporter's attention was called to a team standing on the street, and our informant said they had stood there from early morning, without either food or drink. More than that a hog was in the wagon, and he too had taken the scorching sun all day. That team should have been put in the stable and the owner made to pay the bill. A man should have just a trifle of humanity about him, even if he has to pay for it.—Transcript.

The Appetite of a Goat. Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills the wonderful stomach and liver remedies, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25c. C. E. Smith's drug store.

When one looks at the class of work contracted for by the county, in the matter of public improvements, he reaches the conclusion that the court must think the time is near at hand when bridges will not be needed. There is no idea of permanence put into these improvements. The present cost would be but little more to build permanently of rock and iron, but they would last, and the idea that we are living for today only, would not seem to be true. When will this permanent work begin?—Telephone-Register.

In the county court of the state of Oregon for the county of Yamhill. In the matter of the estate of Gideon F. Heston, deceased. Notice is hereby given that Ruth Heston the administratrix of the estate of Gideon F. Heston, deceased, has rendered and presented for settlement and audit her final account of her administration of said estate and that Tuesday the seventh day of November, A. D. 1909, at ten o'clock in the forenoon at the court room of said court in the Court House in the city of McMinnville in Yamhill county, Oregon has been duly appointed by the said court for the settlement of the said account at which time and place as which time any and all persons interested in said estate may appear and file exceptions in writing to the said account and contest the same.

RUTH HESTON, Administratrix of Estate.

Dr. J. W. Watts, of Lafayette, who sustained serious injuries from being run into by a special on this branch of the Southern Pacific railroad, refused to compromise with the company, but persisted in suing for $20000 damages. The case came up in the circuit court last week, when the decision was given in favor of the S. P. company. On the other hand, he has about five hundred dollar costs to settle for. This comes as a hard blow to the old gentleman, so far along in years, and already in limited circumstances. As it now appears, a peaceable compromise, as offered by the company, would have been very desirable. Such cases come as practical object lessons, but only to be soon forgotten when other men rush forward to prove by their own experience that damage suits are dear investments.

There's always hope while there's One Minute Cough Cure. "An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape and I was near the first stages of consumption. One minute Cough Cure completely cured me," writes Hives McHenry, Bismark, N. D. Gives instant relief. C. F. Moore & Co.

Springtime

Is the sweetest season in human life, as it is in Nature generally. It is the time of promise. As the young girl draws near to that mysterious line "Where womanhood and girlhood meet," her whole destiny is in a measure being determined. How often the sweet young girl, under the influence of the change, withers and droops like some brightened bud. Nature generally needs some little help at this critical period, and this help in its best form is contained in Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, and gives the vigor of perfect health to the womanly organs. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor other narcotic.

Miss Emma Lee of Williford, Sharp Co., Ark., writes: "I was suffering severely and tried several doctors' remedies but received only very little relief; therefore, I feel it my duty to write and tell other sufferers know what your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' have done for me. I took eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' six vials of the 'Pellets,' also one bottle of your 'Compound Symplicial' and I feel like a new woman. I had disease of internal organs with bronchitis and catarrh. I also used the local treatment you suggested."

The sluggish liver can be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Sheriff Henderson says his bicycle tags have arrived and now those having receipts and no tags can be accommodated.—Transcript.

E. E. Turner, Compton, Mo., was cured of piles by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve after suffering seventeen years and trying over twenty remedies. Physicians and surgeons endorse it. Beware of dangerous counterfeits. C. F. Moore & Co.

Rev. G. W. Grannis resigns the pastorate of the Methodist church at this city to become financial secretary of the Willamette University at Salem. Rev. H. T. Atkinson succeeds him here.—Transcript.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers permanently cure chronic constipation, biliousness nervousness and worn-out feeling; cleanse and regulate the entire system. Small, pleasant, never gripe or sicken—"famous little pills." C. F. Moore & Co.

They tell us that the Hibbs brothers—Newt and Baz—have struck it rich with their mines up in Idaho. Newt has cleaned up $19,000 and Baz $16,000 while a cousin has shared equally well. Of course we are glad to hear of a Yamhiller doing well anywhere.—Transcript.

Tuesday Congressman Tongue and Engineer Langfit came up to inspect the locks. Things did not appear entirely satisfactory; but the contractors will be given every opportunity to complete the work and save themselves. The offerdam that was washed out is being as rapidly replaced as a rising river will permit, and should the weather remain favorable, the work will be finished this fall. Mr. Tongue returned home last evening.—Transcript.

"They are simply perfect," writes Rob't. Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the "famous little pills" for constipation and all liver ailments. Never gripe. C. F. Moore & Co.

One evening last week the reporter's attention was called to a team standing on the street, and our informant said they had stood there from early morning, without either food or drink. More than that a hog was in the wagon, and he too had taken the scorching sun all day. That team should have been put in the stable and the owner made to pay the bill. A man should have just a trifle of humanity about him, even if he has to pay for it.—Transcript.

The Appetite of a Goat. Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose stomach and liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills the wonderful stomach and liver remedies, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25c. C. E. Smith's drug store.

When one looks at the class of work contracted for by the county, in the matter of public improvements, he reaches the conclusion that the court must think the time is near at hand when bridges will not be needed. There is no idea of permanence put into these improvements. The present cost would be but little more to build permanently of rock and iron, but they would last, and the idea that we are living for today only, would not seem to be true. When will this permanent work begin?—Telephone-Register.

In the county court of the state of Oregon for the county of Yamhill. In the matter of the estate of Gideon F. Heston, deceased. Notice is hereby given that Ruth Heston the administratrix of the estate of Gideon F. Heston, deceased, has rendered and presented for settlement and audit her final account of her administration of said estate and that Tuesday the seventh day of November, A. D. 1909, at ten o'clock in the forenoon at the court room of said court in the Court House in the city of McMinnville in Yamhill county, Oregon has been duly appointed by the said court for the settlement of the said account at which time and place as which time any and all persons interested in said estate may appear and file exceptions in writing to the said account and contest the same.

RUTH HESTON, Administratrix of Estate.

Dr. J. W. Watts, of Lafayette, who sustained serious injuries from being run into by a special on this branch of the Southern Pacific railroad, refused to compromise with the company, but persisted in suing for $20000 damages. The case came up in the circuit court last week, when the decision was given in favor of the S. P. company. On the other hand, he has about five hundred dollar costs to settle for. This comes as a hard blow to the old gentleman, so far along in years, and already in limited circumstances. As it now appears, a peaceable compromise, as offered by the company, would have been very desirable. Such cases come as practical object lessons, but only to be soon forgotten when other men rush forward to prove by their own experience that damage suits are dear investments.

There's always hope while there's One Minute Cough Cure. "An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape and I was near the first stages of consumption. One minute Cough Cure completely cured me," writes Hives McHenry, Bismark, N. D. Gives instant relief. C. F. Moore & Co.

AGENTS WANTED—FOR "THE LIFE AND Achievements of Admiral Dewey," the world's greatest naval hero. By Murat Halstead, the lifelong friend and admirer of the nation's idol. Biggest and best book; over 500 pages, 8 x 10 inches, nearly 100 pages handsome illustrations. Only $1.00. Enormous demand. Big commissions. Quick free. Chance of a lifetime. Write quick. The Dominion Company, 3rd floor Coxton Bldg., Chicago.

CLARA M. DAVIDSON, M. D. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Office and Residence one block south of Bank of Newberg.

JOHN A. BECK, WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER, Sollicits the patronage of his old Indiana Friends who need watch repairing done. 270 Morrison St. PORTLAND, OR.

Feed & Seed Store FLOUR, FEED, HAY & GRAIN GARDEN & FLOWER SEEDS. Free Delivery. E. C. Ward & Co. 1st Street, Newberg, Or.

SPRING HILL FARM. JERSEY CATTLE & POLAND CHINA HOGS. From the best strains. Stock for sale at reasonable prices. Address, J. M. & S. W. ATKINSON, Newberg, Or.

Bank of Newberg. CAPITAL STOCK, $30,000. N. E. BRITT, President. J. C. COLCORD, Cashier. B. C. MILES, J. C. COLCORD, E. H. WOODWARD, N. E. BRITT, Directors.

CORRESPONDENTS—Ladd & Tilton, Portland; National Park Bank, New York. Strangers visiting the city are invited to call at the bank for information concerning the city. Correspondence invited.

Nelson & Reed, Middleton, Oregon. MANUFACTURERS OF ALL KINDS OF LUMBER. We have a lot of choice mountain timber and are constantly running our mill. We would ask you if in need of LUMBER to carefully examine the QUALITY & CUT OF OUR LUMBER AND COMPARE PRICES. Before buying elsewhere ask for prices on SAWED CEDAR POSTS, ROUGH OR DRESSED Lumber delivered in Newberg if so desired. Address us as above or call on our agent, A. P. OLIVER, Newberg, Or.

Groceries! Best the Market Affords Sold on a Close Margin Highest Market Price Paid for BUTTER, EGGS & OTHER PRODUCE. G. W. GILBERT.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Digests what you eat. It artificially digests the food and aids Nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. It is the latest discovered digestant and tonic. No other preparation can approach it in efficiency. It instantly relieves and permanently cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heartburn, Flatulence, Sour Stomach, Nausea, Sick Headache, Gastralgia, Cramps, and all other results of imperfect digestion. Prepared by E. C. Dewitt & Co., Chicago. C. F. MOORE & CO.

The Last Test of a shoe is the best test. A shoe rightly modeled is not only more comfortable but more lasting. Every last over which J. B. LEWIS CO'S "Wear-Resisters" are made is constructed upon principles governing the anatomy of the human foot. With nature as model, it is assured, 250 styles for men, women and children. Made only by J. B. Lewis Co., Boston, Mass. Lewis "Wear-Resisters" for sale by J. C. Porter, Newberg.

Pacific College

NEWBERG, ORE.

Fall Term opens September 19th. Full College and Academic Courses of Study.

College trained men and women are more in demand than ever before. Pacific College offers an education under most favorable circumstances.

EXPENSES LOW—Competent and Sympathetic Teachers.

Excellent home for younger boys and girls. Send for Catalogue to the President. THOMAS NEWLIN.

Furniture Store

HARDWICK & CO. CARRY A FULL LINE OF NEW AND SECOND-HAND FURNITURE.

Will sell cheaper than any one in the County. Will exchange New Goods for old. Goods sold on Weekly or Monthly Payments.

Wilson's GROCERY.

Keeps on hand a full and complete line of Staple & Fancy Groceries. When you are needing anything in this line, call and see us and your wants will be fully supplied. Free Delivery. JOS. WILSON.

New Store

In the Fickett Building nearly opposite the Post Office where you will find full stock of all kinds of BRACKETS, SHINGLES, LATH, PICKETS, LIME, CEMENT, PLASTER, GLASS, NAILS, LOCKS, DOORS, MOULDINGS, BUILDERS HARDWARE. Agent for AJAX BICYCLES—only $35.00, and guaranteed for ONE YEAR. W. P. HEACOCK, Proprietor Building Material Depot.

"A great monthly newspaper."—The Bookman. THE magazine for up-to-date people. It gives its own illustrated account of the current history of this country and Europe, and, in addition, selects the best that is in all the other magazines, American, English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, and Russian. It is for people who want to know what is going on in the world. A hundred timely illustrations in every number. Price, $2.50 per year. Sample copy, 10 cents.

Send a postal card to learn how to get Dr. Albert Shaw's "History of the Spanish War" (over 500 illustrations, 1,200 pages) and the "Review of Reviews" together for only two dollars down and monthly payments. THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS CO., 13 ASTOR PLACE, NEW YORK.