F.—SESSIONS HELD ON THURSDAY evenings in bank of Newberg building. K. AND L. O. F.—NEWBERG COUNCIL, NO. 192, meets every Friday evening in Masonic hall.

S. P. RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

Table with columns for destination (Yamhill Division, Astoria, etc.), departure times, and arrival times.

Local Events.

Lunch baskets and school supplies at S. C. & Co. Nice rooms for rent at the Newberg Hotel building. It is surprising how much $1.00 will buy at Hadley's.

New line of Wall Paper, Ingrains and others at Moore's. Foot rule given with each purchase of Tablet at Moore's Drugstore.

Complete line of children's woolen and cotton underwear at S. C. & Co. J. D. Carter has been down from McMinnville two or three days this week.

Newest embroidery materials, choice selection of stamping designs. At telephone office. Will Crater, of Middleton, who was in town Wednesday reported business as being lively at Nelson & Reed's saw-mill.

A. S. Fogg finished picking his yard last Tuesday. He has 12,000 pounds of as nice hops as was ever put up on the market.—Sheridan Sun.

The patriotic young fellows of Newberg desire to organize a company of state militia, and have petitioned the governor for permission to do so.—Reporter.

Dyspepsia can be cured by using Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. Sold in handsome tin boxes at 25 cts. C. E. Smith.

Rev. R. A. Atkins, formerly pastor of the Newberg M. E. church, has been chosen as pastor of the Oregon City church. This is quite a promotion and his Newberg friends will be pleased to learn of his new charge.

Emmor Newby of Salem, who, with his sister, attended college last year, was in town Friday calling on his college friends. He is doubtful about being in school this year but intends to start in as a Junior next year and finish the course.

October was ushered in with the rattly-bang of the bicycles upon the sidewalks of First street. Our bicyclists keep a very accurate calendar about this time of year, and are not at all backward in making use of their privileges.

Round trip excursion tickets to Portland will be put on sale at the depot, Saturday p. m. at $1. These tickets can only be used going, on the 6:55 train, Monday, Oct. 9, but the return ticket is good on or before Oct. 16. The public is requested as far as possible to call for tickets on Sat. p. m. Oct. 7.

Charley Morris arrived home from the North Yakima country last Saturday evening, where he spent the season working on a ranch. On Thursday morning he left North Yakima on his wheel and the next morning he took the early boat at The Dalles one hundred and ten miles away. This is pretty good riding considering that the road traveled over was mountainous a good part of the way.

As announced last week, the organization of the choral classes took place in the college chapel Monday evening under the supervision of Miss Alderson. There was a very good attendance and the prospect is very flattering for some good enthusiastic work in the music department this winter. Twenty eight names were handed in the other evening, and besides the students, several more of the singers from town have declared their intention of taking the course of instruction. Until further notice, the beginning class will meet on Monday evenings at 7 o'clock, and the advanced class on Tuesday evenings at 7:30. Both classes will meet this coming week, and all who have any idea of taking the work should be present.

New stock of dress goods at S. C. & Co. The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

A new stock of stationery at the post-office. W. P. Heacock still wants your wood-sawing. Largest stock of school shoes in Newberg at S. C. & Co.

Clyde Hobson has been up from Portland during the week. Since the shooting season is on Denny pheasants are in hard luck. Fay Sims has gone to Portland where he has a job in a boarding house.

If you want a good chicken for Sunday leave your order at Wilson's Grocery. High grade sewing machine, new. For sale or trade for cows, sheep or goats. C. F. Moore.

The Southern Pacific gained the suit in the Dr. Watts damage case tried last week at circuit court. Marshal Heath desires attention call to the ordinance requiring all bicycles ridden at night to carry lanterns.

Arthur Hodson went to Portland the first of the week with a view of taking a course in the Holmes Business College, probably in drawing. Willard Satchwell has gone to Ashland where he will act as telephone messenger and also take a course in chemistry and pharmacy.

The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock. My farm, two and a quarter miles southeast of Newberg, for sale on easy terms or will rent if not sold.

Just received three second hand sewing machines, Singer, Davis and White. Your choice for $12. Guarantee good work. Votaw Bros. An excellent correspondent has been secured for the college, and it is the intention hereafter to have some live college locals in each issue of the Graphic.

Mrs. R. H. Ellis arrived home from a visit to California recently bringing her sister, Miss Viola Patton, with her. Miss Patton entered college the first of the week. With a clubbing rate of only $2 a year for the Graphic and the Oregonian you get all the news, both local and general, at a very low figure. Now is the time to subscribe.

Experience is the best teacher. Use Acker's English in any case of coughs, colds or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded. 25c. and 50c. C. E. Smith. Shephard Ong, proprietor of the Ong hotel, of Scotts Mills, was in town Thursday. Shep shows no symptoms of early decay on account of despondency, but on the other hand seems as jolly as ever.

C. B. Wilson has been appointed Agt at Newberg for Multnomah box factory. If you are in need of any fruit boxes, strawberry crates or anything of the kind you can get them of him as cheap as you can in Portland. Rev. Levi Barr preached the sermon at the dedication of the Friends church at Roseleaf last Sunday. The church which is reported to be neat and commodious, having a seating capacity of 200, was built at a cost of $750.

C. A. Wallace was down from McMinnville the first of the week having the property occupied by Dr. Davidson repaired and fixed up for winter. Mr. Wallace recently made a trade with Henry Clemmens for the property. Road supervisor Stater says the fellows who talked about doing donation work in the way of hauling gravel on the roads have not shown up in any great numbers yet and he has about concluded that talk comes cheaper than doing road work.

Mr. Coffin, an attaché of the Newberg Graphic force, rode his wheel up to this place Tuesday morning and spent the day in town. He is so used to a print shop, that he came around to the Transcript office and threw in several handfuls of type.—Transcript. For wounds, burns, scalds sores, skin diseases and all irritating eruptions, nothing so soothing and healing as De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Mrs. Emma Bolles, Matron Englewood Nursery, Chicago, says of it: "When all else fails in healing our babies, it will cure." C. F. Moore & Co.

Uncle Alfred Moore's faithful family cow will have larger quarters this winter. He has bought Howard Williams' barn that stood on the home property, and had it moved around on his lots. His property has been enlarged recently by the purchase of two additional lots of the Bank of Newberg. Every hall for public gatherings should have some means of escape, other than the ordinary stairway, in case of fire. It is to be hoped that Mr. Crater in the arrangements for his new hall, will duly consider the safety of Newberg audiences and make the necessary provisions as mentioned above.

Ellis Hadley came down from Dayton Wednesday bringing the news of the death of Mrs. Lydia Ferris which occurred the same morning at the residence of her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Macy, near Dayton. Mrs. Ferris was brought from Eastern Oregon by her husband a month or more ago in poor health, and consumption, of which her mother died, soon cut her life short. The burial will take place at Dayton, this, Friday morning at ten o'clock. The best kid glove on the market for one dollar. S. C. & Co.

Heacock for wood-sawing. Macintosh Capes and Skirts at S. C. & Co. House and barn for rent. Address lock box 31. Finest line of silks and satins ever in Newberg at S. C. & Co.

Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling. Zef Sears has been in town during the week calling on his old friends. Nice rooms for rent in Newberg Hotel building. Furniture and carpets all new.

Passengers "too numerous to mention" took the down train for the city Thursday morning. A number of teams have been hauling gravel for several days. Let the good work be continued. W. H. Huston and D. A. McCurdy, two of Wm. Manning's old neighbors, are in town visiting with him.

Robert McCaskeys will leave here today for Aberdeen, Washington, where they will locate for the present. Mr. and Mrs. Pearly Mitchell's baby which had never been strong, died on Wednesday and was buried the day following. Leave your subscription at the post office for the Evening Telegram, ten cents a week, and read the day's news after supper.

L. D. Estes, and Miss Nettie M. Cook, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, were married on Thursday, at 10 a. m., Rev. Benham, of Portland, officiating. The walls and ceilings of Joseph Wilson's grocery are being treated with a coat of alabastine and when completed it will be one of the neatest groceries in town. There are now in use fifteen of the Economy Gas Lamps in Newberg and the general verdict is that they make the best light of anything yet put on the market.

F. X. McAtee has a good barn for rent. C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce. Have you seen the last photograph sample in Smith's display window? New samples every week.

School supplies of all descriptions, lunch boxes, book straps, pencil boxes, at Moore's drug store. J. B. Mount calls attention to his air tight heaters and a lot of other things in a new advertisement this week.

The sidewalk "scorcher" ought to be taken before the city recorder and fined in order to prevent a spread of the nuisance. Sensible riders should not be made to suffer because some fools don't know how to ride without abusing a privilege. Miss Jessie Britt left for Boston Monday morning where she expects to take a two years course in physical culture.

She was accompanied as far as Portland by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Britt. Jessie is an excellent student and will do good work. She has promised to tell the Graphic, after her arrival, how "the horses switch their tails in Boston." College News. Pacific College is entering on the last year of the century with bright prospects.

Norman Atterbury of Sherwood called on Wednesday and arranged to enter school next week. The newly papered and painted rooms lend great improvement to the college building and will afford an interesting charge for the eyes of the students, when they study the walls and ceilings for inspiration at examination time.

A new system has been inaugurated by which each teacher has a list of pupils whose welfare in particular they are expected to promote in every way. It is quite interesting to hear the students trying to find out who is their "guardian spirit." It is thought that the plan will establish a closer relationship between pupil and teacher, and thus will be of great benefit.

New Students are being enrolled almost every day, and the chapel seats are rapidly being filled. The present number enrolled is eighty four. Those who have enrolled the last week are: Essie Heyland, E. S. Jarret and George Day, Newberg; Ethel Heater, Springfield; Grace Heston, Dundee; Augusta Armstrong, Dayton; Viola Patton, Tomales, California. Sheep, Sheep! Dr. E. P. Dixon has thirty three head of sheep for sale.

Prof. Prentiss and family removed to Jefferson, Oregon, yesterday. He has engaged as principal of the public school of that place. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with him and his.—Telephone-Register. Right—All the Way Through. That is the reason J. B. Lewis Co.'s Wear-Resisters resist the wear. They are all right all the way through. Nothing but honest material, honest workmanship, honest value. Take a look at them at J. C. Porter's.

Glorious News. Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion builds up the strength. Only 50c. Sold by C. E. Smith drug-ist. Guaranteed.

Discovered by a Woman. Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this county. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, she has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. This writes W. C. Hanneck & Co., of Shelby M. C. Trial bottle free at C. E. Smith's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Miss Eva Martin wishes to say to her Newberg friends that she is ready for their fall trade with a fine line of street hats, including a fine line in Golf and Bicycle hats. Opening display of Pattern hats late Sept. 23rd. These Pattern hats cannot be excelled outside the large cities, and will be marked $2.00 to $5.00 below city prices. An Honest Remedy for La Grippe. George W. Waitt of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Thomas Whitefield & Co., 240 Wash-bash av., Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of the la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. Last Sunday while Mrs. Mary Collins and her family were away from home attending Sunday school, some person or persons went into her house and stole $17.95. This money, which the family had earned by picking hops, had been carefully hidden where it was thought no one would think of looking for it. Traces showed that the thief had hunted pretty thoroughly before finding the money. It looks as though the house had been entered by some one who was familiar with the premises.—Herald.

For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. Last Sunday while Mrs. Mary Collins and her family were away from home attending Sunday school, some person or persons went into her house and stole $17.95. This money, which the family had earned by picking hops, had been carefully hidden where it was thought no one would think of looking for it. Traces showed that the thief had hunted pretty thoroughly before finding the money. It looks as though the house had been entered by some one who was familiar with the premises.—Herald.

Wanted—We will pay $12.00 a week salary to either a man or woman to represent the Midland Monthly Magazine as a subscription solicitor. The Midland is the same size as McClures or the Cosmopolitan.
