

NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1899.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

It appears that the swiftness of this remarkable age has been slightly overestimated, judging by the showing made by those two twentieth century yachts.

All quiet on the Potomac since Dewey has made known his "expansive" sentiments. Now can we reasonably hope for something new in the way of democratic presidential nominee possibilities?

Many of the editors of this great commonwealth who never shot off a pop gun are busily engaged in giving the government advice as to how the war should be conducted.—Junction City Times.

Which do you favor? An increase in the length of the public school year, or the introduction of the kindergarten as a department of our public schools. The question should be freely discussed and the columns of the Graphic are open for that purpose.

There is a report current that Admiral Dewey is engaged to marry Mrs. Hazen, a sister of John McLean, democratic candidate for governor of Ohio.—Roseburg Review.

This is positively the first evidence we have had that Dewey is at all democratically inclined. Don't build up any false hopes on it though brother Fisher, for the "inclination" is probably "for revenue only."

Oregon has a history of which to be proud, and all her citizens should be conversant with it. A thorough knowledge and understanding of the early days of privation and heroic struggle as well as of the romance of the pioneer period, tend to make us proud of our state, and desirous of being worthy of our predecessors. Great care should be taken to preserve the records and sources of information of the early period which is so productive of interesting historic material. Devoted to the above laudable purpose a new publication has been started in Portland, called "The Oregon Native Son." The name speaks for itself and the magazine should receive hearty support.

Over education is a delusive, question begging phrase, which newspapers made much over a little while back when Prof. Norton of Harvard was up before the public gaze. Just because one educated man avowed his rather conservative political views, it was hastily inferred that all educational men were of the same stripe. President Schurman of Cornell University is an example to the contrary. It is true that a year ago he held conservative ideas in regard to our Philippine policy, but subsequent personal observation has changed his sentiments and he is frank to acknowledge it. At the opening of the university the other day, he delivered a thoughtful address on the Philippine question and freely declared himself for expansion. He grew eloquent in speaking of the American mission in the islands, and set forth clearly and patriotically our future responsibilities there as follows:

"In the Philippine Islands our own mission is to educate and elevate the Filipinos and aid them in governing themselves. We shall not adopt the policy of subjugation, nor, although American sovereignty must be established even by force, shall we ever dream of the policy of extermination—not oppression nor yet abandonment and desertion—not these, but honest and fraternal co-operation with the Filipinos for the establishment of a just and stable government of the natives who shall have increasing participation in proportion to the development of their political capacities, the progress of the masses in education and civilization and the evolution of the ideas and sentiment of nationality, a sentiment and idea which will be nourished and developed by the habit of common action, the improvement of the means of communication, the freer intermingling of the tribes and races and hearty native co-operation with the Americans, whose best political traditions are but the realization of the dearest ideals of the Filipino people."

A VITAL QUESTION.

The board of directors of the Newberg public schools are now confronted with financial circumstances as unexpected as they are unusual. In short, they have more money than they know what to do with. A natural sense of economy would suggest that the surplus be put aside to meet some future contingency, when school money is not so plentiful. But the state law on this question forbids any such "rainy day" policy. It states expressly that whatever amount of the school money is not used up during the school year must be turned back into the county fund. Hence the school board has wisely decided to use all to which they are entitled. The question is, how best may it be used. Heretofore, an eight months school, only, has been held, and the directors have about concluded to increase the school year to nine months. We are decidedly of the opinion that this will be an undesirable change and false economy, even to save the school funds. Experience proves and always has proved that eight months grind in the year, particularly with as little vacation between winters as our schools have, is all the strain so young a class of students should be subjected to. School cannot be commenced until after fruit and hop picking, and nine months will run it into the warm summer season, when an added month is liable to bring a reaction which will destroy the good of the preceding nine months. The students simply cannot stand it, in justice either to their physical or mental welfare. And it would hardly seem the logical thing to do, to sacrifice the best interests of the school children to save a little school money.

But we believe there is a plan, which, when once fully understood, would meet with general satisfaction. A new factor in educational work is rapidly coming into due prominence all over the country. And that is the kindergarten in connection with the public schools. Its practicability is well recognized in the East, and is fast becoming a universal department of the regular school system. The time is passed when the kindergarten was looked upon merely as a private institution, and as a luxury for the few who could afford its advantages. The importance of the kindergarten training for all children is being rapidly brought to the front, and is destined to become one of the principal factors in the general school system. It is not worth while to argue its practicability, which, however, some may yet doubt. A single instance is highly significant. The National Cash Register Company, of Dayton, Ohio, a manufacturing industry noted the whole country over for its progressive business methods and which engages eighteen hundred employees, has a conspicuous display notice hanging in front of the main entrance of its mammoth establishment, which reads, "Fifteen years from date—no employee will be admitted into our service who has not had a kindergarten education." The proprietors require above all else, quick mechanical ability and aptitude. They realize the importance of first impressions and early training along any line of technical work, hence their attitude toward the kindergarten as a practical necessity. The industrial world is rapidly changing and necessitates new and improved methods of educational training.

In view of these significant facts, why would it not be a practical proposition, to make use of our district's surplus school money in introducing the kindergarten as a department of the public school? The money which it would take to run the school the ninth month would be ample for supporting the other department and with a most excellent instructor in this line of work, such as Newberg already has. We will venture that half of the scholars already enrolled in the primary department rightly belong in the kindergarten, while many others who have children too young for school, would be glad of the opportunity thus afforded of the superior advantages for the little people in the way of a good foundation for future school work. Such a change might at the present time occasion a little inconvenience, it is true. But it is a foregone conclusion that the change must be made sooner or later, and we believe that in the time, when the money is at hand without any other legitimate use. Even if the arrangements have to be temporary, let them be so. We will at least be started in the right direction, and have the satisfaction of knowing that our money is serving the laudable purpose of making more firm the foundation of our school system, instead of emervating the scholars with an over dose of school-routine, to the lack of necessary outdoor exercise and fresh air.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest dangers from la grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

A Frightful Blunder.

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25 cents a box. Cured guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Smith, druggist.

Eugene Loper was taken to the asylum for the insane last Saturday. Loper is not insane, but is subject to fits, which it is hoped may be cured by the physicians at the asylum. Loper was a bright young man and had excellent prospects in life, but this trouble came upon him as the result of a scare. Heretofore all efforts at a cure have proved unavailing.—Telephone-Register.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by C. E. Smith, druggist.

A 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gates narrowly escaped meeting death one day last week from a gopher gun. The little fellow had gone to H. M. Daniels' with his mother. A gopher gun was set in the garden, and the boy started out to inspect it. He had partially uncovered it when he touched the trigger and it was discharged. The gun was loaded with bird-shot and the charge entered the left shoulder, making quite a painful, though not a serious flesh-wound.—Transcript.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure, "It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at C. E. Smith's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

The Dayton public school opened on Monday. There were 151 pupils enrolled. There are other children who attend school later, and the enrollment will probably run up to 200 or over. Prof. Duncan with his characteristic business methods promptly organized the school and had everything running smoothly in short order. No time was lost and the pupils were soon occupied in their studies without having to go through a routine of unnecessary speech making and other preliminaries before organizing. Prof. S. S. Duncan is principal, assisted by Miss Madge Dunn, Mrs. Ella Harris and Miss Nellie Findlay. There are 18 students in the ninth grade, which is double that of the average attendance.—Herald.

"When our boys were almost dead from whooping cough, our doctor gave One Minute Cough Cure. They recovered rapidly," writes P. B. Belles, Argyle, Pa. It cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

Bernard Fay, a McMinnville young man, who started out a few weeks ago with the intention of visiting the Paris exposition has returned to his home, having concluded that he started too early. However he visited St. Louis, Omaha, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago. He has not given up his determination to see Paris, and will probably start out again in the spring. He travels without money and without price.—Telephone-Register.

Joseph Stockford, Holmden, Me., healed a sore running for seventeen years and cured his piles of long standing by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures all skin diseases. C. F. Moore & Co.

Clifford Watson and Henry Corner are at work building an addition to the building owned by Mrs. R. L. Harris, corner of Third and Ferry streets, occupied on the lower floor by her father's store, and the upper story to be occupied by the Woodmen as a lodge room. An addition 20 feet in length, and two stories high, will be built on the present building.—Herald.

Millions of dollars, is the value placed by Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., on the life of her child, which she saved from croup by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. It cures all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

Miss Edna L. Schofield, a graduate of McMinnville college, was recently married to W. F. Daly, a captain in the Volunteers of America.—Reporter.

Eat plenty, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. It cures all forms of dyspepsia and stomach troubles. E. R. Gamble, Vernon, Texas, says, "It relieved me from the start and cured me. It is now my everlasting friend." C. F. Moore & Co.

McMinnville College boys have organized a football team, which is superior to any team heretofore possessed by this school. It is expected that they will be able to keep up the reputation of old McMinnville. E. E. Latourette has accepted the position of manager.—Telephone-Register.

If you scour the world you will never find a remedy equal to One Minute Cough Cure, says Editor Faekler, of the Micanopy, Fla., "Hustler." It cured his family of LaGrippe and saves thousands from pneumonia, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

J. B. Fuson has rented his farm to his two grandsons, Ellis and Louis Hadley. Grandfather Fuson being over 70 years of age, and his health poor, has concluded to give up farming and "take the world easier." This is a good opportunity for the young men—having the use of one of the best farms in the country—and they will no doubt improve it to good advantage.—Herald.

President King, Farmer's Bank, Brooklyn, Mich., has used DeWitt's Little Early Risers in his family for years. Says they are the best. These famous little pills cure constipation, biliousness and all liver and bowel troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

Played Out. Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. C. E. Smith.

Everything was running along seemingly in good shape last Wednesday evening when all at once the electric lights went out on us and we were in total darkness—and it still continues. The trouble was, the dynamo has been overloading for months past, and on this evening it refused to perform further work,—in other words the armature burned up sleek and clean. Thursday the council decided to have the armature rewound, and for this purpose it was shipped to Portland, where Supt. Sliger informs us it will take eight or ten days to get it ready for returning. That means that we will be without lights about all this week. Thank goodness the waterworks have not slipped a cog.—Transcript.

The "Plow Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle Rive, Ill., says, "After suffering from Bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it and more." It cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

WITH TESTAMENTS. Dated October 6, 1899.

Hopeless and Helpless.

The consequences of a diseased condition of the stomach and digestive and nutritive system are most distressing to the whole body. One by one every organ may become involved. The misery is maddening. The most extreme cases of "stomach trouble" and the evils resulting from it have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood and builds up the body with sound healthy flesh.

"I was taken with severe headache," writes Thomas A. Swartz, Box 103, Sub-Station C, Columbus, Ohio, then cramps in the stomach, and my food would not digest, then kidney and liver trouble, and my back got weak so I could scarcely get around. I just gave money to the doctors whenever they thought they would do me any good, but the more I doctored the worse I got until six years passed. I had become a sorry I could only walk in the house by the aid of a chair, and I got so thin I had given up to die. One of my neighbor boys and he said, "Take my advice and take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and make a new man out of yourself." The first bottle helped me so I thought I would get another, and after I had taken eight bottles in about six weeks I was weighed and found I had gained twenty-seven (27) pounds. I have done more hard work in the past eleven months than I did in two years before, and I am as stout and healthy to-day, I think, as I ever was.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.

After threshing his crop, Mr. T. D. Henderson made preparations last week to burn his straw before the rains fell upon it. Accordingly he and the boys applied the insidious match before they had called all the porkers into the corral. Just at that moment a band of swine of excellent lineage was busy saving the scattered grains of wheat, and did not notice the creeping flames until they were almost surrounded. Even then they were so eager for earthly treasures that they had no time to cast their eyes heavenward. "The flames rolled on, they would not go until they felt incited." Finally the old mamma hog felt the hot breath of the conflagration. Giving a loud "oof" she tried to get the pigs to a place of safety. But they, too badly scared to listen to reason, ran the other way, and the mother, breaking through the wall of fire, reached a cooler atmosphere with her life, but with a badly burned nose, and feet nearly useless. Not so with the seven pigs. When the straw was all burned and the "lurid glare" had ceased to play upon the scene Mr. Henderson found their poor bodies charred beyond recognition. He mourns their fate, and deeply feels their loss.—Reporter.

"It did me more good than anything I ever used. My dyspepsia was of months' standing; after eating it was terrible. Now I am well," writes S. B. Keener, Holsington, Kas., of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. C. F. Moore & Co.
