

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1899.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

"And thou too, Kentucky!" wails Bryan.

All is not gold that glitters. Poor Devey can't even go on a peaceful little shopping tour with his fair intended without a crowd collecting to annoy the happy couple by its persistent and curious gaze.

Goebel, of Kentucky, dies hard. He is yet unable to understand what struck him on Tuesday. He will now have time to consider a few things—first, that the right of free suffrage is still the basis of American government.

Experience in the South African war has proven very conclusively to the Britons that it doesn't pay to be very far "up from the ranks." The Boers aim high and the great number of British officers killed is proof of their reputed skill as marksmen.

The latest is that Aguinaldo has offered his hirelings five dollars apiece for every right ear brought in, hacked off an American soldier. Hadn't we better end this wicked war by giving such noble martyrs to the cause of divine liberty, the right to govern themselves?

It is a significant fact that in Tuesday's election, the respective home states of the standard bearers of the last presidential campaign stood loyally by their "favorite sons," Ohio rolling up an overwhelming republican victory, and Nebraska giving the handsome thing for fusion. This indicates that history will repeat itself next year.

The man who marries the girl he wants and is cut off with $1,500,000 should keep a stiff upper lip. He has no occasion to abuse his luck without giving it another chance.—Globe-Democrat.

It seems that this thing of being rich depends entirely upon the point of view. There are several of us who wouldn't feel a bit insulted at having a paltry million and a half thrown at us.

The Telephone-Register unconsciously cast a significant reflection upon the so-called temperance enthusiasts, when it said that the resolution passed by the national W.C.T.U. at Seattle, indicates that the Union indorses the policy of William J. Bryan in regard to the Philippine question, and that it is almost the exact wording of the anti-expansion plank in the Ohio state democratic platform.

All the educational institutions in this section are in a flourishing condition. Taking in Monmouth and Mt. Angel, and including the Indian Training school, this is unquestionably the educational center of Oregon.—Salem Statesman.

Just so. All the same as "taking in" Portland, and "including" Seattle, Newberg is "unquestionably" the mercantile center of the Pacific Northwest. We are just the people, if we "include" enough and make a sufficiently large "take in."

A surprise is looked for in President McKinley's message to the next congress. It is stoutly maintained that he has evidence furnished by Gen. Otis and the Philippine commission, which will show that Aguinaldo had no thought of resisting American authority until he received the assurance from this side of the water that in an insurrection he could count on individual support in the United States. If such can be shown, Bryan's presidential boom will be punctured before it is ever inflated. And Aguinaldo's expression of assurance of democratic aid, makes the grave charge seem very plausible to say the least.

In its last issue, the Central, Washington, News devotes an editorial to eulogizing the democratic party. It says, "The democratic party is the same old thing, and needs no handle to its name. It has no fear for a 'reform' title, from the fact that it has done nothing from which to reform. It is just the plain old democratic party, which must meet the republicans next year and defeat them." This is all very patriotic and sounds "nice." But it is not explicit enough. Which democratic party is referred to? The republicans would like to know which "it" is going to meet and defeat them next year. The editor must remember that there are all sorts of democratic parties in these latter days.

One of our regular exchanges closes an editorial on the Philippine question with the words: "We had better adopt a less expensive method of annihilating the Tagals, or abandon the undertaking altogether." What a logical conclusion! Perhaps the editor from his vast military skill and experience could suggest the "less expensive method." Or in case he fails to do this, he might point out a justification for the striking of our duty and the abandonment of the Filipinos to a chaos of anarchy. War of necessity involves great expense and destruction of human life. At least it is not the usual thing for it to "pay as it goes," nor to mean a Sunday school picnic for the participants. But when in the cause of humanity and civilization, we find more justification for its continuance, than for a cowardly withdrawal and betrayal of our responsibility, from sordid mercenary interests. The lane of the country to-day is a horde of men who can't see anything worth the effort that does not line their own pocket books.

The "Oregon style" has not disappeared altogether from newspapers in the Pacific Northwest. Occasionally an exchange yields specimens of English that recall the breezy days of forty years ago. In an Eastern Oregon paper, for example, we read about "a descendant of a long eared animal," "a poor little insignificant idiot," "as brainless as a louse, as illiterate as a Navajoe siwash," who is thus catalogued because he has had the temerity to charge the editor with "a feeble attempt to be satirical about the Methodist circuit-rider." The expressions quoted indicate that the adjective feeble is undeserved, but it is improbable that satire could be commanded by an editor who dismisses a subject with the remark that his critic is well known to be but an "offshoot from the feculent mother of the hindleg of misfortune," and "has had no more raising than a sour dough biscuit." Early pioneers, who read these picturesque phrases and allow their minds to wander back to the newspapers of Oregon territory, may be excused if they take kindly to the doctrine of reincarnation.—Oregonian.

ELECTION RESULTS.

Ohio elects Nash, republican, governor by about 60,000 plurality.

Iowa re-elects Governor Shaw, republican, by 60,000.

Kentucky gives Taylor, republican nominee for governor, about 8000 majority.

Nebraska goes for fusion by 15,000.

Maryland elects Smith, democrat, governor by about 10,000.

New York gives heavy gains to the republicans.

New Jersey goes republican by 20,000.

Massachusetts gives a republican majority of 65,000.

Kansas gives a republican gain of ten per cent.

Virginia gives the usual democratic majority.

South Dakota gives a republican majority of 5,000.

Pennsylvania goes republican by 125,000.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Uncle Paul ought not to keep the ball in John Bull's territory too long before kicking goal.—Globe-Democrat.

Roberts of Utah may well tremble for his chances. Miss Helen Miller Gould is after him, and she is a foe who is not to be despised, if she is a woman.—Telegram.

Mr. Bryan calls on the Nebraska farmers to burst their "bonds of slavery," but out that way, the only things near the bursting point are the barns.—Dayton Journal.

The Anti's claim that the natives of Luzon should be given a free hand in managing their own internal affairs, yet they denounce the President for following that very policy in the Sulu group. And if the other thing had been done, they would have denounced that with equal vehemence.—Yaguina Bay News.

We would rise to remark what a howl would go up if the newspapers were to criticize individuals as freely as individuals criticize the newspapers. Every issue of a paper is a mantle of clarity, and the matter left out—truth, not gossip of dames would often more than equal in volume the matter published. If any editor could get out a cold-fact edition some day, and get up a tall tree and watch the result—what! What a panic there would be.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

"No man," recently said President Wheeler of Berkeley, "has yet been able to fetter the limits of his country by geography. No man has been able to say where his country should stop and where it should be bounded." The foregoing would seem to justify the inference that the new president of California University does not belong to the class of "Little Americans."—Ashland Tidings.

Our Duty in the Philippines.

We will hold the Philippines in trust for the Filipinos. Our mission is to educate and elevate the Filipinos and aid them in governing themselves. We shall not adopt the policy of seclusion, nor, although American sovereignty must be established even by force, shall we ever dream of the policy of extermination. Not oppression, nor yet abandonment and desertion; no, not these, but honest and fraternal co-operation with the Filipinos for the establishment of a just and stable government in which the natives shall have ever-increasing participation in proportion to the development of their political capacities, the growth of their political experience, the progress of the masses in education and civilization, and the evolution of the idea and sentiment of nationality—a sentiment and idea which will be nourished and developed by the habit of common action, the improvement of the means of communication, the freer intermingling of the tribes and races, and hearty native co-operation with the Americans, whose best political traditions are but the realization of the dearest ideals of the Filipino peoples.—From "The Problem of Territorial Expansion," by President Jacob Gould Schur-man, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for November.

In Memoriam.

The following was adopted by the Chautauque Center W. C. T. U. at the regular meeting, November 2, 1899.

"In the providence of God our dear sister, Mrs. Betsy Burrows, has been called from this life beyond. She had been a member of our union from its beginning. Ever loyal to all that was true, ready to do all she could to make the world better, she was fearless whenever there was a testing time. Her wise, earnest words will long be remembered. Her cheerful face will be one of the pictures in memory's gallery. We are glad to have been counted her friends.

Our sympathies go out to her husband, her sons and daughters, and we pray the comforting grace of our Heavenly Father may abide with them."

A copy of this memorial shall be sent to the bereaved ones, and to the Newberg Graphic and Northwest White Ribboner.

Brave Men Fall.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney trouble as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache and nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life. Only 50c. at C. E. Smith's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed."

Measure for Measure.

If you want your boots to give satisfaction you must be perfectly fitted. Not about right, but just right. J. B. Lewis Co.'s Wear-Resisters fit every conceivable foot, 250 styles. Get a pair at J. C. Porter's.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general reviving of trade at C. E. Smith's drug store as his giving away to his many customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable remedy, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle warranted.

"A Bit Shaky."

A man looks at his trembling hands and says: "I feel a bit shaky this morning, and shall need a brace." His real need is not nerve stimulant, but nerve strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives strength to the nervous system. It does not brace up, but builds up. It is entirely free from alcohol and from opium, cocaine, and other narcotics usually found in so-called nerve medicines. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." It cures. David Duggins, Esq., of Jones, Ohio Co., Ky., writes: "When I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I had nervous or general debility of three years' duration. I took three bottles of the 'Discovery.' During the time I was taking it my sleep became more refreshing and I gained fifteen pounds weight, and also gained strength every day." Free. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book bound in paper, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

J. D. Bridges, editor "Democrat," Lancaster, N. H. says, "One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for croup I ever used." Immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. C. F. Moore & Co.

The city should not for one moment consider any proposition of selling that light and water plant, unless some man of company desires to pay a good, fat lump for it; and even then, by the time the city had paid regular monthly bills for a service which it is now getting free, it would be found to be expensive.—Transcript.

"I had dyspepsia fifty-seven years and never found permanent relief till I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Now I am well and feel like a new man," writes S. J. Fleming, Murray, Neb. It is the best digestant known. Cures all forms of indigestion. Physicians everywhere prescribe it. C. F. Moore & Co.

Mrs. Dr. Wright was granted a diploma by the state dental board last week, the lady being one of the five out of a class of fourteen who successfully passed the examination.—Reporter.

You never know what form of blood poison will follow constipation. Keep the liver clean by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers and you will avoid trouble. They are famous little pills for constipation and liver and bowel troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

Dr. J. F. Calbreath went to Salem Tuesday, and from now till the first of the year will spend a good deal of time familiarizing himself with the duties of the office of superintendent of the state hospital.—Reporter.

Geo. Noland, Rockland, O., says, "My wife had piles forty years. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her. It is the best salve in America." It heals everything and cures all skin diseases. C. F. Moore & Co.

The costly memorial windows in the Christian church are to be protected by wire netting on the outside. This is a wise precaution against accident, as the wire will not in any way mar the beauty of the design, and the windows are too expensive to be allowed to stand exposed to danger as they have been. The material and workmanship is furnished by the McMinnville fence works, which makes a specialty of ornamental wirework.—Reporter.

LaGrippe, with its after effects, annually destroys thousands of people. It may be quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, the only remedy that produces immediate results in coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia and throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. C. F. Moore & Co.

With fresh eggs selling at 22 to 25c. a dozen in this market, it looks as if "the woman with the hen" will supersede "the man with the hoe." Oregon has made great strides in the poultry business in the past few years, but the demand is outgrowing the supply. Farmers should not overlook this branch of agriculture any longer, but enter into it as a part of the farm work, systematically; for there is no doubt of the demand for poultry products for years to come in this market. There are other parts of farm work that require more labor than a little attention to the poultry yards, with much less profit.—Transcript.

Working Night and Day. The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. The're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box.
