THE POPE WORKS HARD.

How the Supreme Pontiff Passes Each Day at the Vatican. Rome, October 28, 1899. (Special Cable.) Pope Leo is an early riser, and by 7 o'clock he is at his study, and at work at five o'clock in the morning. He takes a light breakfast—a little very weak coffee with plenty of milk, and a piece of bread. He works, reading or writing and receiving some visits, until lunch time. In the afternoon he takes his walk, and when in ordinary health spends some time in the gardens of the vatican; then he returns to his apartment, where he says his rosary. He may then receive a few visitors, after which he takes a nap and dines. At ten P. M. he reads the newspapers and then retires for the night. The Pope thus really works all day long, and latterly he has taken nourishment four or five times a day, but always of a light character—a little meat, soup, bouillon, a glass or two of Mariani wine and a good deal of milk, which forms the larger part of his diet.

REBELLION BROKEN

Filipino Troops are Now Scattered in Various Parts of the Island. Manila, Nov. 28.—The last Filipino council of war was held by the retreating leaders at Bayambang November 13, in the house now occupied by General MacArthur. It was attended by Aguinaldo, Pio del Pilar, Garcia, Alejandro and some members of the so-called cabinet. Information has reached General MacArthur from several sources to the effect that the council recognized the futility of attempting further resistance to the Americans with united forces, and agreed that the Filipino troops should scatter and should thereafter follow guerrilla methods. The disposition of the generals, with their approximate forces, is as follows: General Concepcion, with 340 men, in New Ecija province; General Macabulos, with 325 men, at the town of Binaca, province of Tarlac; General Pio del Pilar, with 800 men, northeast of Malolos; General Aquino, with 800 men, at Arayat; General San Miguel, with 150 men, in Zambales province; General Mascardo, with 1,100 men, in the mountains west of Angeles, and the largest force, probably under General Trias, in Cavite province.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MACRON.

Washington, Nov. 27.—United States Consul Macron, at Pretoria, has been instructed by cable to impress upon President Kruger that it is the view of this government that the usage of all civilized nations sanctions the ministrations of a neutral representative in the interest of citizens and captives of one of the parties to the war, and he must further insist upon performing the sacred duty imposed by all the conditions of humanity. This is practically an announcement of our government upon the execution of the trust which it assumed to look after the interests of British citizens in the South African republic.

MANY SPURIOUS BONDS.

State of Virginia May Have to Pay Com. New York, Nov. 27.—The Herald says: Considerable interest has been created among investors by the announcement that a large number of forged Virginia state 3 per cent bonds are afloat. It is not known how many of these bonds are held in this city, but it is said that a comparatively large number have found purchasers here. It is the opinion of some who are considered authorities that the coupons from these bonds in the hands of innocent third parties will prove valid obligations of the state of Virginia.

The engine was derailed and slid down the embankment, instantly killing Fireman Milor and injuring Engineer Robert Hunter, how seriously is not known. The armored cruisers will be enlarged Brooklyn, improved in many details, and will be the biggest ships in the United States navy, having great speed. The protected cruisers will be of the Olympia type. The gunboats will be about the size of the little Marietta, of light draft.
