FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1899.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

McKinley comes out flat footed for the gold standard, for which fact the Oregonian will want sole credit.

Roberts will now have time to ponder on what he has lost by parsing matrimony in the plural number. However, he still posseses those "three Graces."

"If my loyalty to silver is to be sandwiched between disloyalty to our nation and national dishonor, then I am for my country without silver."—Ex-Attorney General Parsons, silver republican leader, of Idaho.

That was a happy stroke for Aguinaldo when he used his authority to prevent the execution of his American prisoners, Lieutenant Gilmore and party. Several such credits to his account will not be at all amiss when he is called into reckoning with Uncle Sam, one of these days.

In a recent issue, the Albany Democrat, in speaking of the determination of Kentucky republicans to forcibly resist the criminal machinations of assasin Goebel against the use of the free ballot, righteously exclaims that "This kind of conduct won't do in this age." We suppose the Democrat would find no fault with Goebel's conduct as being out of harmony with "this age."

Now that the two presidential nominees for next year are practically decided upon, some attention is being turned toward the respective running mates. The republicans seem favorable toward Root while the democrats have started a boom for Hogg of Texas What a pity these latter two couldn't run together on the same ticket, if there is really anything in a name. "Root Hogg or die." What a rallying war cry this would make!

It seems to be a settled fact that President McKinley will again head the republican national ticket, and it is almost as certain that Gov. Roosevelt will be his running mate.—Brownsville Times.

We are of the opinion that the Times failed to interview the governor before making the second statement. Teddy has not been accustomed to playing second fiddle for any man, and besides, he intends to set the pace himself one of these times.

"While there is no commercial fright which withdraws gold from the government, but, on the contrary, such widespread confidence that gold seeks the treasury, demanding paper money in exchange, yet the very situation points to the present as the most fitting time to make adequate provision to insure the continuance of the gold standard and of public confidence in the ability and purpose of the government to meet all its obligations in the money which the civilized world recognizes as the best." —From the president's message.

General Churchill, former democratic governor of Arkansas is far from being possessed with any optimistic illusions in regard to democratic success next year. In a signed statement recently made, he says: "The outlook for democracy in the next presidential election is gloomy, to say the least. The recent elections have settled two things, free silver, and expansion. We can not win on either of these issues, we have already expanded, and have been expanding ever since we gained our independence; in fact it is democratic doctrine, and we have allowed the republicans to steal our thunder. The country is now in a prosperous condition, and for the present does not want any change in its finances. It looks now as if Mr. Bryan will be the nominee of our party, and McKinley that of the republicans, with the same result."

No one questions for a moment the wide influence and ability of the Oregonian, and as a rule Oregonians are proud of such a paper. But it is a sorry acknowledgement that must be made by all, that it shows a lamentable weakness in that a little babyish prejudice, held by the editor over some little federal appointment or whatnot, is allowed to fester, break and fill the editorial columns with its vile stench. Scott shows a surprising "littleness" in so able a man by imposing his personal grudges on the whole country. To say that everybody is disgusted by his continual tirade upon the president is expressing it lightly. His spleen has so overleaped itself that it is offensive even to fair minded democrats, as the following, from the Centralia, Wash. News, shows:

"No democratic paper has ever said the unkind words about the president that the Oregonian has. The News does not believe in abusing the president, no matter how much opposed it may be to his policy. His station, his Americanship, his honesty in private and public life should command respect. The Oregonian has abused Mr. McKinley unjustly, and the News, as a democratic paper, denounces such methods. The Oregonian might engage in better business than to belabor the chief executive in such an unwarranted manner."

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Ex-Speaker Reed will have the satisfaction of knowing that his rules are to continue long after his rule is ended.—Globe Democrat.

Populism is a political science that teaches a government how to pull itself out of adversity by its bootstraps.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

One trouble with the Democratic party is the total absence of logic in its logical candidate and logical platform.—Globe Democrat.

Aguinaldo should ask "Auntie" Atkinson and some of his other friends to come over to Luzon and "spell" him while he catches his breath.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Were arguments necessary, every puff of smoke from a factory chimney would furnish an argument against the Chicago platform.—Oregon City Enterprise.

With Hanna out of the management of the campaign of next year, the democrats will be deprived of an important campaign issue.—Statesman.

"Are you a legal voter?" said the officer of election. "I am," responded the Kentuckian, pulling his gun. "Your credentials are all right. Voted!" said the officer promptly.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

There has been some reference in the dispatches of late to the doings of the silver republicans. This faction of a party is so small that it cuts but little figure in political calculations. It had better get in somewhere out of the wet, or it might get lost entirely.—Forest Grove Times.

The party of the Bryanites and Atkinsonians in Luzon, numbering eight hundred, was taken by a party of fifty representing this expansive and gold standard country. A Salem man wants to know if this is not sixteen to one, and if this don't about settle the vexed question?—Statesman.

The Wasco News runs a laundry in connection with the paper and admonishes its subscribers to call and get their wash. Such enterprise on the part of the News is commendable and indicates a disposition for cleanliness that might be emulated with profit by more pretentious papers.—Milton Eagle.

We desire to place in nomination for vice-president Hon. Helen Gould. Miss Gould has endeared herself to every patriotic citizen of the land by her devotion to the soldier boys of the late war in camp and hospital, and now her name has become a household word, because of her determined fight against the admission of Polygamist Roberts to a seat in congress. She is using the great wealth left her by her father for the betterment of mankind, and is entitled to the gratitude of the nation for her benevolence and good works.—Plaindealer.

A LARGE BEET SUGAR MEETING.

Farmers are present from this vicinity and many adjoining towns to discuss the question.

In answer to the circular letter sent out from here announcing a beet sugar meeting, Crater's hall was filled on Friday afternoon with business men and farmers. Not only was this vicinity represented, but interested parties were present from Champoeg, Middleton, West Chehalem and other places. In all, there was somewhere between two hundred and two hundred and fifty men present.

Jesse Edwards was made presiding officer, and Hon. Clarence Butt, secretary. Mr. Edwards made a general statement as to the purpose of the meeting and introduced Mr. Zeifuchs of Portland, who represents the capital to be invested. Mr. Butt read an article taken from a Chicago beet sugar journal, which gave some general conditions necessary for the location of a sugar factory. As a suitable location, Newberg tallied up very well with the conditions named. G. W. Mitchell read the report of tests made by the Oregon Experiment Station at Corvallis, which showed that beets raised in this vicinity give a percentage of sugar considerably above the average. A few farmers present gave the meeting the benefit of their experience in beet raising chief among these being H. O. Hanson, who lives out in the Chehalem Center neighborhood. He has made a careful trial with sugar beets and says the industry can be made a great success here. He and Andy Winters had some samples of their own raising at the meeting.

At a call made by the president, the majority of the farmers arose to signify their willingness to give acreage to the raising of beets. About five hundred acres were subscribed at the meeting. Mr. Zeifuchs stated that he was waiting on a friend from the East who had a good share of the capital to invest, and that when he arrived, a definite proposition would be made for consideration.

From Scotts Mills.

John S. Richie writes from Scotts Mills as follows:

We have just closed a very successful series of meetings here, conducted by Rev. Levi D. Barr, pastor of Friends church at Newberg, and I thought your readers would be interested in hearing of the results. Bro. Barr acceptably attended our Salem Quarterly Meeting held on November 17, 18 & 19, after which he came to our village and commenced the meeting on the evening of the 20th and continued them until last evening, Dec. 3rd holding two meetings every day, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, in all twenty-nine sessions. The good old story of Jesus and his love was proclaimed in the demonstration of the Spirit and with power, and it is no flattery to say that this steward of our Heavenly father faithfully delivered the message given to him by the Great Head of the church to the strengthening and building up of believers in the faith and hope of the gospel, and the converting of sinners and reclaiming of backsliders. There were twenty-five conversions and renewals and among the number converted was the principal of our high school for which we praise the Lord.

Your Face

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, pimples and skin eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out and do not have a healthy appearance you should try Acker's Blood Elixir. It cures all blood diseases where cheap Sarsaparillas and so called purifiers fail; knowing this we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. C. E. Smith.

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequaled for whooping cough. Children all like it," writes H. N. Williams, Gentryville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. C. F. Moore & Co.

What Is It?

A man who has been running a race with steam and electricity for years, finds himself suddenly stopped. It seems as if a cold hand clutched his heart. His brain whirls; he can hardly see. "What is it?" he asks himself as the attack passes.

If his question meets a right answer, he'll be told that his seizure is a warning to pay more attention to his stomach, which is already deranged by irregular meals and rich foods.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates from the blood disease breeding poisons. It makes the blood rich and pure, and furnishes a foundation for sound, physical health.

"About ten years ago I began to have trouble with my stomach," writes Mr. Wm. Connolly, of 535 Walnut Street, Lorain, Ohio. "It got so bad that I had to lay off quite often—two and three days in a week. I have been treated by the best doctors in this city, but got no help. Some said I had cancer of the stomach, others catarrh, others dyspepsia. Then I wrote to you for advice. You advised the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' Three m[illegible] I have taken as directed. I commen[illegible] better from the start, and have not lo[illegible] this summer on account of my stomach. I feel tip-top, and better than I have for ten years."

Keep the bowels healthy by using Dr. Pierce's Pellets. They don't gripe.

About 9:30 p. m. Saturday, Otis E. Lemasters, who lives in Happy Valley, was returning to his home from Dayton by way of McMinnville. As he reached the first bridge this side of W. B. Sharp's place, two men stepped before his horse and ordered him to throw up his hands, each man being armed. Lemasters obeyed, and the men went through his pockets, securing $43.25. They then told him to drive on. He did so and the incident was closed. Lemasters was unarmed, and could offer no resistance. All the conditions of the robbery point to the conclusion that it was the work of men who are not strangers to the country or to the man robbed, and who knew that Lemasters would be along about that time, and that he had money. He deals in stock, and generally has some ready cash in his pockets. They may never be discovered, but if the game is tried again, something is more than likely to pop before they get his money. —Reporter.

Eugene Leoper returned from Salem last week and after adjusting his personal affairs here took his departure for his former home in Nebraska. Leoper has spent some time at the asylum in hopes that the treatment there would be beneficial for the fits to which he has been subject for years. However he became discouraged and left.—Telephone-Register.

It takes but one minute to overcome tickling in the throat and to stop a cough by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. This remedy quickly cures all forms of throat and lung troubles. Harmless and pleasant to take. It prevents consumption. A famous specific for grippe and its after effects. C. F. Moore & Co.

Mrs. E. M. Law, who went to Salem last week to visit her daughter, had the misfortune to slip and fall, breaking both bones of her right arm just above the wrist. Mrs. Law has the sympathy of her large circle of friends. It will be three or four weeks before she can come home.—Telephone-Register.

Miss Annie E. Gunning, Tyre, Mich., says, "I suffered a long time from dyspepsia; lost flesh and became very weak. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure completely cured me." It digests what you eat and cures all forms of stomach trouble. It never fails to give immediate relief in the worst cases. C. F. Moore & Co.

Those who feel an interest in the dairy business, and have any thought of going into that business, would profit by uniting and holding meetings and organizing. The present is a good time to discuss the question. There are those here who have had experience in that line and would impart knowledge regarding it to those interested.—Herald.

An Enterprising Firm.

There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than C. E. Smith who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his many customers. He now has the Agency for Dr. King's New Discovery, which surely cures Consumption, Coughs and Colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is now producing so much excitement all over the country, by its many startling cures. It absolutely cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Nausea, and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. You can test it before buying, by calling at the above Drug Store and get a trial Bottle Free, or regular size for 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed to

NEARLY

FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS OLD ! !

It's a long life, but devotion to the true interests and prosperity of the American People has won for it new friends as the years rolled by and the original members of its family passed to their reward, and these admirers are loyal and steadfast today, with faith in its teachings, and confidence in the information which it brings to their homes and firesides.

As a natural consequence it enjoys in its old age all the vitality and vigor of youth, strengthened and ripened by the experiences of over half a century.

It is "The New-York Weekly Tribune," acknowledged the country over as the leading National Family Newspaper.

Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the State and Nation, the publisher of "The Graphic" (your own favorite home paper) has entered into an alliance with "The New-York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to furnish both papers at the trifling cost of $1.50 per year.

Every farmer and every villager owes to himself, to his family, and to the community in which he lives a cordial support of his local newspaper, as it works constantly and untiringly for his interests in every way, brings to his home all the news and happenings of his neighborhood, the doings of his friends, the condition and prospects for different crops, the prices in hom markets, and, in fact, is a weekly visitor which should be found in every wide awake, progressive family.

Just think of it! Both these papers for $1.50 a year.
