Quite a number of citizens think the council overdid the matter when it amended the ordinance so as to allow saloons to remain open till one a. m. The former hour was ten p. m. The mayor will probably veto the amendment. —Telegraph-Register.

Newberg has the best thing yet in the way of an amendment and that is the prohibitory kind.

T. B. Cummings made an official trip, as county coroner, last Saturday, the like of which he doesn't want repeated exactly. A rancher by the name of Joe Bear, living over ten miles above McMinnville, was suddenly stricken down late Friday afternoon while pitching some hay in his barn. Some children belonging to the family which kept house for Bear were the only witnesses of the death, and the circumstances were such that it was thought best to send for the coroner. Tom started Saturday morning by team. He changed rigs at McMinnville taking with him from there Dr. McBain. They pushed on through perils by mud until they finally reached their destination, where by the hardest work a jury was barely raked up which decided that the deceased met death from organic heart disease to which the family was subject. Tom returned home Sunday, after a ride of over fifty miles through Yamhill's plastic roads.

On Christmas day Mrs. George Howie brought to this office a limb broken from a raspberry bush in their garden on their place north of town, which was well loaded with ripe berries. This is a slight evidence of what our Willamette valley climate can do when it tries.

Elder Geo. C. Carl, of Newberg, and of the Dundee faith, was in Dayton Tuesday distributing one of his church papers, "The Gospel Messenger," a neat well printed and edited church paper. Mr. Carl informed the publisher of the Herald that a large number of Dundees are expected to come to Oregon during the year 1900. He hopes in the near future to hold services at Dayton, Dayton Herald.

Laura Yager the eleven year old daughter of Mr. Yager who runs the ferry near Dundee was the victim of an unfortunate accident which occurred one day last week. Mr. Yager had clipped a tree down and the girl cut a limb of the tree which flew back and struck her on the head crushing the skull. Dr. Littlefield who was called found the skull was not broken but on lifting the scalp found a piece of the skull probably an inch and a quarter in length and of nearly the same width broken in which was easily removed. After the patient recovered from the effects of the medicine she regained consciousness and has been getting along much better than it was expected she could possibly do.

County Clerk Nelson has received his new registration books for voters, which will be opened with the new year and closed on May 15th, previous to the election. The books comprise one large blank book to be kept in the clerk's office and a smaller blank book for use in each precinct on election day. In each of these books the voter registers his name, age, occupation and place of residence. In the last particular if the voter lives in the country it is necessary for him to specify the township, section and range, in which his home is located. If he lives in the town of his block lot, and the name of his street must be given. If he has no home of his own, he must specify the room he occupies in the house at which he lodges. The larger register is kept as a record in the clerk's office at the court house. The precinct register is furnished the judges with for use on election day. If any person proposes to vote whose name cannot be found by the judges in the precinct register, the privilege of suffrage will be denied him.—Reporter.

A good deal of talk has been indulged in about town for several days in regard to recent sales of pianos made here by an agent of The Wiley B. Allen Co. of Portland. Of the true inwardness of the business the Graphic is not advised but it appears that the instruments were sold at figures considerably above the prices asked for the same kind of instruments in Portland.

A member of the Graphic force is in receipt of a recent copy of the Douglas Island, Alaska, News, which has in it several items of interest to Newbergers. It gives an account of a four act drama, "Only a country girl," given by local talent for the benefit of the city fire department, in which Frank Vestal figured as one of the stars. He is also named as in attendance at a rather swell social function, from all of which we infer that Frank steps high among the four hundred of Douglas Island. An extended account is also given of an Indian wedding solemnized at the Friends church, at which the pastor, Charles N. Replough officiated. The names of Charles Baldwin and Everett Weesner were noticed in the local columns.

All kinds of holiday goods at Hadley's Racket.

Republicans' Take Notice.

The republicans will hold a caucus next Thurs. evening, January 4, in Crater's hall for the purpose of nominating a city ticket. Every loyal republican should be on hand and help put up good men for city officers. At the same time there will also be an important meeting of all members of the republican club, irrespective of town limits.

Notice of Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of The Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Company will be held at the office of said corporation in the city of Newberg, Yamhill County, Oregon, on Monday the 8th day of January 1900, at the hour of 7 o'clock p. m., for the election of directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may come before them.

By order of Board of Directors.

Dated December 29, 1899.

Double Wedding.

On last Sunday afternoon an event took place at the residence of J. P. Johnson, two miles north of Newberg, which will necessitate the departure of two of the daughters of Mr. Johnson from the family hearthstone. It was the occasion of the marriage of Miss Clara Johnson to Prof. A. C. Stanbrough, and Miss Lottie Johnson to F. N. Slyter, Rev. W. E. McCutcheon, of Carlton, officiating. All of the parties interested in the above transaction are held in high favor in their respective neighborhoods and have the hearty "Bon Voyage," all same rich and old shoes, of all their friends. The Graphic wishes them a happy new year, with more of the same kind later on.

Twenty-five years' Constant Use without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

The Children's Home.

Mrs. Etta Jones district superintendent of the Oregon Children's Home Society has been visiting our city in the interests of said society. Their mission is to seek homeless, neglected and abused children and place them in good family homes, and through local advisory boards keep a careful supervision over them until they become of legal age. Mrs. Jones appointed the following ladies to act as her advisory board for this locality. Mrs. Mary J. Rosier, Mrs. N. E. Britt, Miss Mary Williams and Mrs. Jane H. Blair. Anyone who would like to contribute to so good a cause can do so through either of these ladies. Or any information would reach the home through the same channel regarding children needing homes, or homes desiring a child for adoption.

Played Out.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. C. E. Smith.

From a Visitor.

Editor Graphic: Would you please allow a stranger space for a few lines in your worthy paper, after a merry Christmas has passed and gone and we are bowing in reverence to the new year, the last one of the nineteenth century. The writer has been spending her Christmas in Newberg visiting at the home of her friends, Wm. M. Manning and family. I being a resident of Oregon three years and having visited many places throughout the different counties, I must say I am the most favorably impressed with the beautiful little city of Newberg, with its broad and well regulated streets and suburban homes and beautiful churches of which there are quite a few. I was especially gratified and impressed with the services we attended Christmas night and the next night following at the Friends church. It is rightly named, for the members are friends indeed. I never had the privilege of attending a Friends church before and my ideas have been somewhat confused as to their ritual but after meeting some of the members of the church and their pastor and listening to his eloquent discourses upon the subjects, "Put your house in order" and "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found," I was fully convinced that there is a reality in true Christianity as preached and practiced by these believers. E. SHEPPARD.
