Only one more week of special sales on wall paper. A few big bargains left at Moores.

Miss Helen Chamberlain, who has been at Portland for several weeks, is at home again.

A news depot has been established at Moore's drug store where the leading periodicals can be had.

The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock.

A few remaining copies of the holiday edition of the Oregonian still on hand at the postoffice. Will close them out at six cents each if taken at once.

Dr. E. W. Rosstter has so far recovered from his recent illness that on Tuesday he went to Salem for a rest and a short visit with his sister, Mrs. Downing.

The revival meetings being held at Dundee by Rev. S. Snyder are well attended and the interest seems good. The meetings will continue another week.

Dyspepsia can be cured by using Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. Sold in handsome tin boxes at 25 cts. C. E. Smith.

Canby Heston and family desire to express, through the columns of the Graphic, their appreciation of the kindly sympathy and assistance given them in their recent bereavement.

Prof. Chas. E. Lewis writes from Denver, Colorado, that he is now in much better health than Newberg people have ever seen him and he has good reason to believe that he will soon be able to report full recovery.

Thomas Turner has been down from Goldendale, Washington, during the week looking after some business matters. He speaks very favorably of the existing conditions among farmers in the upper country.

Size doesn't indicate quality. Beware of counterfeits and worthless salve offered for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. DeWitt's is the only original. An infallible cure for piles and all skin diseases. C. F. Moore & Co.

James Buckley who brought a shipment of hogs down to Portland last week from Gilliam county came up to Newberg for a short visit with relatives. He said they had been having an unusual amount of rain over there during the winter.

The first of the week Mrs. Lon Hill received a box of oranges from Covina, California, sent by her father, Miles Reene, the good qualities of which can be testified by the Graphic family. 'Tis sweet to be remembered when oranges are ripe.

Chester Hall, who has been attending Pacific College for the past two or three years, is out this term, and with a view of getting a good start on the way to where he can have "M. D." attached to his name, he is reading medicine in Dr. Littlefield's office.

H. W. Grabel, who has spent the greater part of the time for the past two years working in a warehouse at Arlington on the upper Columbia, is at home again. The Graphic is not informed whether he will return to Arlington or remain in Newberg.

President Newlin expects Mrs. Newlin's brother Dr. Wm. Wilson, of Richmond, Indiana, who is out seeing the great Northwest country, to arrive here this week with his wife and one child, the two older children having been left in Earlham College.

The entertainment given in Armory Hall last Friday evening, under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Barrie, was well attended, and up to the general expectation. The young ladies in drill and pantomime, were as a rule very good in both maneuver and execution. But it took the little "Injuns" to bring down the house.

Jesse Hobson has gone to Sumpter, the new Eldorado of the Baker county gold fields, to superintend the management of a large general merchandise stock which was recently purchased by Senator W. H. Hobson of Stayton, Marion county. The news items from Sumpter indicate that things are pretty lively up there already and a big rush is expected in the spring.

On Thursday evening of last week, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Allen gave a reception at their home on Meridian street, in honor of their son Will and bride. About twenty-five guests were present, relatives of the newly married couple. An elaborate six course dinner was served up to the queen's taste, after which the company was entertained in the parlor by the amateur musicians present.

Miss Nervia Wright has been confined to her home this week with quite a severe attack of erysipelas.

Parties who wish to buy R. R. tickets East will find it to their advantage to call on L. E. Votaw before purchasing.

The city treasurers report for the past years receipts and disbursements will be found in the Graphic this week, which will no doubt be of interest to tax payers.

The modern and most effective cure for constipation and all liver troubles—the famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. C. F. Moore & Co.

I still have on hand about 40 pair of Misses shoes, numbers 2 1/2 and 3 that formerly sold for $2 and $3 per pair, which I will close out at 40c. per pair. GEO. HARDWICK.

Experience is the best teacher. Use Acker's English in any case of coughs, colds or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded. 25c. and 50c. C. E. Smith.

L. F. Hall, on learning that a member of the city council must own real estate in the city limits, tendered his resignation at the council meeting held on last Monday night, as the property held in his name is all out of town.

G. H. Appleton, Justice of Peace, Clarksburg, N. J., says, "DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills made for constipation. We use no others." Quickly cure all liver and bowel troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

McMinnville advertises for bids for furnishing the city with twelve hundred cords of wood for use at the water works. This is where our neighbors are at a great disadvantage. Here at Newberg the water simply runs down hill and does its own pushing.

F. B. Thirkield, Health Inspector of Chicago, says, "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cannot be recommended too highly. It cured me of severe dyspepsia." It digests what you eat and cures indigestion, heartburn and all forms of dyspepsia. C. F. Moore & Co.

The Graphic is glad to announce that Will Clemenson has been recommended for appointment as postmaster at Concord, Washington, by the congressman of that district. Will has been acting postmaster at Concord for some time and about all the change there will be to make, will be the bonds to fill out.

L. T. Travis, Agent Southern R. R., Selma, Ga., writes, "I cannot say too much in praise of One Minute Cough Cure. In my case it worked like a charm." The only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles. C. F. Moore & Co.

The unusually high wind which prevailed for a short time on last Monday night lifted a portion of the tin roof on the Armory Hall building and the rain poured through the opening in streams sufficient to do considerable damage to the stage scenery. It required a half day's work for F. H. Storey and Van Leavitt to put the roof back in shape.

One of the features which appealed to us most strongly at the entertainment Friday night, was the magic appearance of the display card "Ladies will please remove their hats." Ladies ought to be educated to the point that on such occasions no public reminder should be necessary, but from a few indications the other evening some sterner measures will have to be brought into requisition for the benefit of a long-suffering public.

James Ramsey, who had been in poor health for the past four years, and who had tried a number of changes from place to place without getting any permanent relief, died at the home of John Rader near Newberg last Sunday morning. The burial took place on Monday at the Dundee burying ground. The deceased was a hard working young man and up to the time when his health failed he had laid up considerable money.

The second annual convention of "Oregon Fruit Growers" will be held at Corvallis on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. The names of E. H. Skinner, C. E. Hoskins and J. H. Rees of Springbrook, M. O. Lownsdale and E. C. Armstrong of LaFayette, and W. K. Allen of Newberg, in addition to a large number of other prominent fruit growers of the valley are on the program, which, with the wide range of subjects chosen for papers followed by discussion, insures a three days treat for those who are in any way interested in fruit growing and a large attendance may reasonably be expected.

Last Saturday's freight train when nearing Elk Rock on the way to Portland had a wreck which blocked the track and prevented the evening passenger and mail from passing until well along in the night and it was 2:30 in the morning when it arrived here. A box car jumped the track and careened over against a ledge of rocks in such a position that several fruitless attempts were made and much time was lost before it was gotten out of the way and the track cleared. A few Newberg passengers were aboard along with others who made the best of it during the long hours of waiting.

The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

E. W. Hall spent a few days at Salem on business this week.

Proposition wanted for the laying of from two to four thousand ft. G. B. HENDERSON, Hubbard, Oregon.

On going home last Wednesday Rev. Levi D. Barr found that some one had left a rocker with a high back on the porch during his absence. He seems to understand what it was made for.

Lewis Dennis, Salem, Ind., says, "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, did me more good than anything I ever took." It digests what you eat and can not help but cure dyspepsia and stomach trouble. C. F. Moore & Co.

The lecture course being given by Pres. Newlin at the college has started out very auspiciously. The first lecture was well attended and highly spoken of, and was devoted to the portrayal of general characteristics of both land and sea people.

Sick headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki Tea. A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25 cts. and 50 cts. C. E. Smith.

Let those who are interested fail to see the little two by four written notices put up about town the Graphic calls attention to the fact that a graphic meeting is called for next Monday at four o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose of voting a tax to raise funds for carrying on the public school the ensuing year.

The Freshmen of the college held a spirited primary oratorical contest in the M. E. church after school hours Wednesday evening to determine who should represent them in the college oratorical contest to be held February 11. About ten representatives contested, Miss Sylvia Metcalf coming out first with Callie Blair and Agnes Hammer even seconds. The Senior contest held a few evenings before, resulted in Chas. Burrows getting first and Leon Kenworthy second.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken sick with Typhoid Fever that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even get up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave me great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at C. E. Smith's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Frances L. Heston Deceased.

Mrs. Frances L. Heston, wife of Canby Heston, of Dundee, who was spoken of last week as being in a very critical condition after having gone through the ordeal of a surgical operation, died on Friday morning.

The deceased was born in Little Rock, Arkansas, December 24-1857 and was married to Canby Heston June 24-1879, at Lawrence Kansas. To them were born eight children all of whom are living.

In early life Mrs. Heston experienced religion and at the time of her death she was a respected member of Friends church. The funeral was conducted from the Friends church in Newberg on Sunday morning by Rev. Levi D. Barr, the pastor, where an unusually large congregation of people gathered to pay their last respects to the departed.

Mrs. Heston was held in high esteem by all who knew her and the bereaved family have the sympathy of the whole community.

"A young man came into our store yesterday suffering from a severe attack of cramp colic" writes B. F. Hess, miller and general merchant, Dickey's Mountain Pa. "He had tried various home remedies without relief. As I had used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I gave him a dose and it soon brought him out all right. I never saw a fellow so rejoiced." Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.

Notice.

Everybody knowing themselves indebted to the Newberg Flouring Mills, or holders of contracts may settle their accounts between now and February 1st as at that time the firm will be changed. People who have stored wheat here are invited to show their receipts, to avoid any mistake, and get new receipts. KINYON & FECHS.

J. I. Bevry, Loganton, Pa., writes, "I am willing to take my oath that I was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure after doctors failed. It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it. C. F. Moore & Co.
