

As president of the Filipino Republic "Aggie" is simply out of sight.

Candidates who desire to reach the eye and the ear of the dear people will be accommodated by the Graphic at $2.50 each.

Horseback riders and droves of cattle have had a depressing effect on bicycle paths that were constructed last season and a wall is going up all over the country.

John Wanamaker says "to discontinue an advertisement is like taking down your sign. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

The question of woman suffrage will be submitted to a vote of the people at the June election. If a large majority of the women of Oregon were anxious to have the right of suffrage thrust upon them the amendment would probably carry, but as they do not it will most likely fail, as it did several years ago when it was voted on at a regular election.

The Douglas Island News in a write-up of a social gathering, says that the young people danced till midnight, went out to a restaurant and ate an elaborate supper, and then remarks that dancing "filled up the balance of the evening."

If the mining interests at Sumpter loom up the coming season equal to expectations the sale of farm produce in the Willamette valley will be greatly accelerated. Sumpter parties are already in correspondence with business men in Newberg regarding the furnishing of eggs and other products of the farm for that market.

The Reporter is presenting the claims of McMinnville as the place of holding the republican district congressional convention. One of the arguments given in favor of such a claim is that Yamhill has no resident candidate for congressional honors, thus rendering the contest impartial.

With the number of divorce cases on docket and others in sight it is evident that matrimonial infelicity is on the increase, and unless husbands and wives can learn to a greater degree to bear and forbear, the old English epithet might well mark a good many graves in Yamhill county.

"Within this grave doth lie Back to brack my wife and I, When the last trump the air shall fill If she gets up 'I'll just lie still."

The Statesman, in a recent editorial, speaking of the use of "native" material in the construction of public buildings, makes the statement that "in the case of the federal building at Portland, now, and for some time, and for some distance in the future in course of construction, there is no Oregon stone, no Oregon brick or no other product of this state being used."

"The Lord hateth a scold" is a line of Holy Writ which the Oregonian might well profit by. Oregon's big newspaper has been engaged so long in berating and nagging at everything and everybody not strictly in accord with its own views that it has become a professional political scold, and a member of the republican household very disagreeable to dwell with.

can of Oregon and the republican press are not scared at its antics. They will endorse President McKinley's administration, and in the presidential campaign during the autumn of 1900, it will be squarely up to the Oregonian, when it must either turn tail and eat crow, or support Billy Bryan.—Albany Herald.

EDITORIAL AFTERTHOUGHTS. Globe Democrat. Gen. Buller is reported to be holding his own. This is hardly sufficient—in war times a General, to be successful, should hold more than his own.

The British army outnumbered that of the Boers nearly four to one. The trouble is that the majority can't rule in South Africa, any more than it can in Kentucky.

Rev. Dr. Sheldon has presented a music box to the inmates of a Kansas poor house. If this is his plan of abolishing poor houses he should try the accordian.

There would seem to be little need of holding an election in Kentucky when a Governor can be chosen by a steering committee and a physician's certificate.

Senator Pettigrew made a great mistake when he involved his friend Aguinado in a question of veracity with Admiral Dewey. The country can not forget that the Admiral was raised in a Vermont orchard.

Mrs. McKinley's Fondness for Children. Mrs. McKinley always receives her guests standing, whether at a reception or informal call. The pleasant greeting she always gives, however, places her guests at ease. Mrs. McKinley is exceedingly fond of children, and many are the incidents pleasantly related by the small guests at the mansion.

Secretary Hay as a Presidential Possibility. The fact that Secretary Hay may at any time before March 4, 1901, come to act as President of the United States, invests with new interest one of the most interesting men in our public life.

The writing which W. G. Magers was so busy upon a few days before his execution, has been published, and instead of being a confession of the crime, as was expected, it was a hand-to-heaven avowal that he was innocent. He makes the point that "when a man with a previous conviction, and when once the black mark is against his name, you know that he cannot get justice, or really a fair trial. They will convict him on general principles and public sentiment."

Summons. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Yamhill. Newberg Orchard Association, Plaintiff vs. J. T. Osborn, Defendant.

To J. T. Osborn, the above named defendant: In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before the 30th day of March, 1900, and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to said court for the relief demanded in the complaint, viz: For a judgment against you in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, with interest thereon from January 1, 1897, at six per cent per annum, and to the further sum of $125.00 attorneys fees, with interest thereon from date of filing the complaint in this suit, at the rate of six per cent per annum, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit and accruing costs herein.

2nd. That the defendant pay said sums to plaintiff and accept the deed and release tendered with this complaint in this cause, and in the event the same is not paid within thirty days from the date of said judgment, herein, that the interest of defendant in the following described real property, to-wit: Being 15 1/2 acres in the Geo. S. Nelson D. L. C. Sec. 2, Tp. 3, S. R. 3, West Willamette Meridian, off the south end of the 27.20 acre tract purchased by Geo. Christensen from W. S. Ladd and wife and S. Reed and wife, deed of which is recorded on page 216 of Book 1, 1900, of the Records of Yamhill County, Oregon, more particularly described as follows: Beginning at the northwest corner of the Geo. S. Nelson D. L. C. said corner being marked by a quart bottle of kerosene, and extending from said corner to the southeast corner of the said tract, thence south 1/2° 30' 00" west 102.4 feet to the northeast corner of the said tract, thence north 88° 37' 00" west 102.4 feet to the west line of the Geo. S. Nelson D. L. C. thence north along said line 188.97 feet to the place of beginning, and the proceeds realized therefrom be lawfully and justly applied to the satisfaction of the debt and interest herein, and to the amount of the costs and disbursements of this suit, and to the amount of the attorneys fees herein, and to the satisfaction of any deficiency that may exist after the application of said proceeds to the satisfaction of said judgment; that plaintiff have such other and further relief as to the court may seem most equitable in the premises.

3rd. That a judgment be published against you pursuant to an order of R. P. Bird, Judge of the county court of Yamhill County, state of Oregon, made at said Judge's February 12th, 1900, in the absence of the Circuit Judge of the above entitled court, and is published in the Newberg Graphic for six weeks immediately prior to said 30th day of March, 1900, and the date of first publishing of said summons in said paper is February 15, 1900.

HEART-SICK.

There are a great many people who have heart sickness, who have no chronic derangement of the heart. When the stomach is diseased it may affect many other organs, and produce all the evidences of diseased heart, diseased liver or kidneys, or disease in some other organ.

The inexperienced practitioner treats the wrong disease, and hence the constant statement of Dr. Pierce's correspondents: "Doctors could not help me."

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the assimilative powers, and purifies and enriches the blood.

When diseases of organs remote from the stomach are caused by the stomach, the cure of the stomach results in the cure of the other diseases, in heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc.

"Six years ago my stomach and heart troubled me so much I had to do something, as the doctor could not help me," writes Mrs. S. A. Knapp, of San Jose, California, Box 392. "I purchased Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after a few days I felt better, and was better for some time, then it came back. I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Peppets.' These medicines cured my stomach. I do not feel the pain and indigestion as I did. It is very hard for me to tell you what I suffered before I commenced taking your valuable medicine. I recommend it to all the sufferers who I meet."

To cure constipation use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Peppets.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, C. E. Smith's drug store.
