tracts have been larger than a year ago. Wheat rose 1 cent, but soon reacted. Atlantic exports were only 1,466,592 bushels, flour included, for the week. Pacific exports have been 4,209,300 bushels in five weeks, against 3,670,854 bushels last year.

Speculation in cotton has raised the price to 81/4 cents, without improvement in the demand. The receipts from plantations still fall so far behind last year's that low estimates of yield are expected.

Wool is rather weaker in some grades, but stronger in others, so that the average of quotations is steady, notwithstanding some sales at concessions.

The iron and steel industry is so far tied up by contracts reaching through most of the year, that the effect of production exceeding consumption is felt only in some instances. Failures for the week have been 232 in the United States, against 224 last year, and 34 in Canada, against 25 last
