The teachers institute held at the public school last Saturday was very interesting and well attended. About twenty-five or thirty teachers were in attendance.

The debate between Albany and Pacific College, previously announced, has been broken off. After sending the challenge, Albany backs down on account of "lack of time."

Mrs. J. K. Miller, Newton Hamilton, Pa., writes, "I think DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve the grandest salve made." It cures piles and heals everything. All fraudulent imitations are worthless. C. F. Moore & Co.

Mrs. Stella McKern has purchased the Vaughan stock of racket goods, and at the first of the week she announces that in the room adjoining McKern's barber shop, she will open up a racket store. She will also handle ladies' furnishing goods.

John Durr, Poseyville, Ind., says, "I never used anything as good as One Minute Cough Cure. We are never without it." Quickly breaks up colds and coughs. Cures all throat and lung troubles. Its use will prevent consumption. Pleasant to take. C. F. Moore & Co.

Leon Kenworthy and Otto Pickett were in Salem last Saturday, in attendance at a business meeting of the inter-collegiate athletic association. The boys consider that they scooped things as Pickett was elected president of the association, and Kenworthy was elected manager of the next athletic meet at Salem.

Andy Winters was laughed at by some of his friends last fall for shipping his hops to England, but since he has returns from the shipment reporting a sale at ten cents per pound he thinks he has the horse laugh on the fellows that are selling at five and six cents. The hop "combine" will be calling on Andy one of these days to help them out.

Cliff Terrell has been promoted in the postal service and now holds the office of assistant Chief Clerk of the Railway Mail Service. He now has permanent office work in Portland which he finds much more satisfactory than his former run as mail clerk on the road. Cliff's rise from the ranks has been fast and sure and we already see in him another Perry Heath.

Big, honest Will Maey came in smiling the other day and handed us a letter written by a California man to the "manager of the Yamhill County Recorder." It contained the price of a year's subscription, and was probably from a man who seeks information of a community he expects to locate in. Mr. Maey did not realize that he had any manager and only asked credit of two bits in his subscription for bringing us the dollar.—Reporter.

The band boys wish the public to know that their concert comes off dead sure tomorrow night, and no mistake. And it ought to be a good one. For in addition to the fact that the woods out east of town is full of natural musical talent, the boys have been practicing hard and faithfully for months and are fairly loaded with good band music. The boys take their musical reputation on this concert and guarantee to please the audience.

Heating stoves at Storey's.

Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling.

Go to Jack the Cobbler for shoe repairing. Hoskins old stand.

Martin Cook and wife are at Salem this week visiting with relatives.

See in this issue the program to be given Monday night. It speaks for itself.

N. C. Christenson was down from McMinnville on business the first of the week.

Alfred Odell and family left here on Thursday for their former home at Osburn, Idaho.

A news depot has been established at Moore's drug store where the leading periodicals may be had.

Revival meetings being held by the Dunker Brethren are now in progress at the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Geo. H. Rogers and children are over from Jackson, Washington, this week visiting with relatives.

Axin Newby who moved here from Rosedale recently has bought the Lizzie Judd place out north of town.

Jerry O'Brien has bought the small tract of land northwest of Newberg belonging to the Catholic church.

Mrs. I. E. Holt and children, of Oakesdale, Washington, are in town visiting at the home of Mrs. Holt's mother, Mrs. S. A. Deskins.

The Dunbars have closed out their milliner business in Newberg and have moved to Astoria where they will engage in business.

Rob. Bell returned home from San Francisco the first of the week where he went with his aunt Mrs. J. W. Bankerson a short time ago.

Win. Barton has bought the bay charger of E. W. Dunbar and the report is that he is grooming, night and morning for the spring races.

The large stock of new wall paper at Votaw Bros. must be closed out at once. Sweeping reductions in all grades. Now is your chance to buy for spring or summer.

Mrs. Edwards arrived home from Enterprise, Wallawa county, last week where she conducted a very successful revival at the Friends church, lasting two weeks.

Charley Wilson received a letter a few days ago from Irvin Scott at Pasadena, California, saying that he had rented a fruit tract, but if the rain makers failed he would probably wish he was back in Oregon.

Geo. Barbe, Mendota, Va., says, "Nothing did me so much good as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One dose relieved me, a few bottles cured me." It digests what you eat and always cures dyspepsia. C. F. Moore & Co.

Ben S. Shreaves, of Orient, Iowa spent an evening last week in town with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mount. Mr. Shreaves is out seeing this big country of ours and while on the Sound he invested in a thousand acre tract of timber land.

Moki Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, producing a perfect complexion, or money refunded. 25 cts. and 50 cts. C. E. Smith. 1

D. H. Turner has bought a ticket calling for passage in the first steamer leaving for Cape Nome in the spring. He has not fully decided whether he will make the trip or not, but as he has already been offered a bonus of ten dollars for his ticket he feels quite confident that he has a sure thing of it in buying early.

"I had bronchitis every winter for years and no medicine gave me permanent relief till I began to take One Minute Cough Cure. I know it is the best cough medicine made," says J. Koontz, Corry, Pa. It quickly cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, grippe and throat and lung troubles. It is the children's favorite remedy. Cures quickly. C. F. Moore & Co.

Despite the fact that the price of all kinds of cotton goods has advanced about twenty-five per cent, young Snodgrass from up the valley, who stands six feet seven, long measure, appeared on the streets of Newberg a few days ago wearing a new pair of overalls that required turning up at the bottom some four inches. It beats all how this expansion business is taking with the people.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Meakle, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Prof. C. H. Graves will be at the Times office until the middle of next week and will continue to make charts of your head for $1.00. He guarantees satisfaction, and young men who are about to close a life business will never regret a dollar spent for a phenological examination and chart.—Amity Times.

It was rather a surprise to learn that our unassuming Charles was putting on such airs, and we wonder that he never practiced nearer home. There is a certain class of young men about town who are evidently "just waiting" for some such opportunity to find out along what lines lie their royal pathway to success.

The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

A new lot of second hand goods at Votaw Bros.

A big load of cord wood all ready for the stove for $1.50 at the saw mill.

The Wilder harp and string quartette gives a rare musical treat. Hear it.

Mrs. Henry Austin and children of Champeog visited in town the first of the week with her aunt Mrs. J. W. Forsyth.

Mrs. C. G. Christenson of Amity returned home Tuesday after having visited over Sunday with her sister Mrs. W. N. Sutton.

James Vestal preached at Hopewell last Sunday. He was accompanied by Marguerite Elliott who did work there in the interest of the Christian Endeavor society.

With a clubbing rate of only $2 a year for the Graphic and the Oregonian you get all the news, both local and general, at a very low figure. Now is the time to subscribe.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for piles, injuries and skin diseases. It is the original Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of all counterfeits. C. F. Moore & Co.

Wm. Lewis has closed out his stock of second hand goods to Hardwick & Co. and retired from the business. Hardwick is the whole thing when it comes to the second hand business in Newberg.

Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold on a positive guarantee. Cures heart burn, raising of the food, distress after eating or any form of dyspepsia. One little tablet gives immediate relief. 25 cts. and 50 cts. C. E. Smith. 1

The address delivered at the college on the afternoon of Washington's birthday by Hon. C. M. Idleman of Portland was a very thoughtful and inspiring one in harmony with the spirit of the occasion. An appreciative audience greeted the speaker.

W. K. Newell, horticultural commissioner for this district was over from his Dilley orchard home on Wednesday and Thursday calling on many of the fruit men of the community and urging them to clean up and spray their orchards, and wage a general warfare against insect pests.

H. A. Forcht is very well pleased with a "Dewey watch" which he received this week as a premium from the National Tribune publishing company. The case is made from steel taken from the Maine and with gold trimmings shows up in good taste. On the dial is a very good picture of Admiral Dewey.

Of candidates for county offices there seems to be no dearth. In fact they are too numerous to mention without some recompense. Announcements of candidates of all parties who want to reach the voters will be inserted in the Graphic from the present time up to the date of holding conventions at $2.50 each.

W. P. Heacock went to Portland on Thursday to begin work on the Anders sash and door factory. Mr. Heacock has been one of the wide awake business men of Newberg for several years and we are sorry to see him leave, even temporarily. Mrs. Heacock and the boys will carry on the business here for the present.

A letter was received from Chas. J. Clemenson of Creswell, Oregon, formerly of this place, that caused his relatives here some anxiety on his behalf until they made it out to be rejoicings over the arrival of an eight pound son at their home on February 22. Mrs. Clemenson and the future George Washington are getting along nicely, and hopes are entertained of Charley's recovery.

"After doctors failed to cure me of pneumonia I used One Minute Cough Cure and three bottles of it cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for whooping cough. It cured my grand-children of the worst cases," writes Jao. Berry, Loganton, Pa. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. Children all loves like it. Mothers endorse it. C. F. Moore & Co.

Last Saturday evening the E.Y.P.U. and a few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clemenson and tendered Miss Clemenson a surprise farewell party, as she leaves shortly for Clarkston, Washington, to assist her brother Will in the post office at that place. The evening was pleasantly passed in games and music after which refreshments were served when the company dispersed at a late hour, wishing her a God speed and hoping some day to all meet again. Those present beside the relatives were the Misses Kennedy, Nelson, Clark, Coplen, Hollingsworth, Day, Pressnall and Mrs. Newman. Rev. J. F. Day and the Messrs S. Jones, F. H. Buchanan, C. Miller, Geo. Day, Sam Huellette and Carl Nelson.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist Mr. Otto Sholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Sick headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki Tea. A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25 cts. and 50 cts. C. E. Smith.

There are several young blood bicyclists about town who are getting into the habit of fairly scorching up and down the walks of First street as if they had full right of way without respect to other people's rights and privileges. Some of these days, bicycle and pedestrian will have a collision, somebody will get hurt, and all bicyclists will be made to suffer for the criminal carelessness of a few rattle-brained young fellows. An arrest by the marshal now and then might serve as a potent reminder.

S. E. Olsen who lives on a farm over near Gaston was in town Tuesday and renewed his subscription to the Graphic. The house in which he lives, although a large one is very much "on the fence," the living rooms being in Washington county while the kitchen and dining room are in Yamhill. Several years ago the owner of the land, thinking taxes were too high in Yamhill, built a new house over the line in Washington as he thought but failed by a few feet in his calculations, and found later on that he was considerably mixed up.

Mr. G. F. Puzey of Portland visited a few days last week with his aunt Mrs. Disney and cousin Mrs. G. T. Hardwick. Young Puzey served a fifteen months campaign with the Second Oregon in the Philippines. An interesting time was spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. G. T. Hardwick, when some of the soldier boys in this vicinity were present, and heard over again their experiences in the Philippines in relating stories and anecdotes of the war. A lunch was served before the evening's entertainment was brought to a close.

The Charles K. Spaulding Logging Co. closed a deal last week with the Southern Pacific railroad company for 5,000 acres of very valuable timber land on the headwaters of the Luckiamute river in the Coast Range Mountains. Nearly all the timber in Oregon remaining in large bodies has been picked up by different corporations and the company considers itself fortunate in being able to make this deal. It is estimated that there is not less than 150,000,000 feet of timber on the land and considerable of it will be good for agricultural purposes when cleared.

Mrs. Dr. Rinehart of the Dalles, mother of the Rinehart boys in college here, was married at her home on last Saturday. On Friday, Carl was suddenly possessed with a strong desire to witness the event, and about the middle of the forenoon in spite of muddy roads he started for Portland on his bicycle. After part of the journey was accomplished, the chain broke and the plucky boy walked fourteen miles into Portland. He caught the evening train for the Dalles and reached home just a half hour after the ceremony was performed. He was in time for the feast of good things such occasions generally bring however, and he seemed to deem that the most important part of the program.

The C. E. Smith Whiskey Case. The case of C. E. Smith, druggist, arrested for the sale of intoxicants in violation of a city ordinance, was called at ten o'clock Wednesday morning at the city hall. Such a large audience of spectators was present that an adjournment was made to Crater's hall. The specific charge on which the defendant was tried was that on July 3, 1898, said defendant, C. E. Smith, sold to L. E. Charles and S. J. Lashier one bottle of port wine for the sum of seventy-five cents. W. T. Vinton managed the case for the city and Clarence Butt, assisted by Jack Spencer appeared for the defendant. Recorder Joseph Wilson experienced considerable difficulty in securing unbiased jurors, as the case had been so well aired generally that most men had some preconceived opinions as to how the case should be decided. By three o'clock in the afternoon however, the following six jurors had been secured: H. H. Winslow, A. O. Mills, Dr. A. Mills, Sam Jones, C. W. Hevland and S. M. Calkins. The first witness examined was S. J. Lashier. It was evident on the start that the witness had again turned color, as he refused to testify definitely to the charge he had previously sworn to. His memory seemed weak and his mind a blank.

On February 3, the following was entered on the records of the recorder's court: State of Oregon, county of Yamhill, city of Newberg, plaintiff, vs. C. E. Smith, defendant. The said C. E. Smith is hereby accused of selling intoxicating liquors to L. E. Charles and S. J. Lashier on July 3, 1898, thereby violating section No. 1, ordinance No. 70, approved by the city council of Newberg Dec. 4, 1890.—Personally appeared L. E. Charles and S. J. Lashier, who UPON OATH declare that the above complaint is true as they verily believe. 23 1900. Jos. Wilson, Recorder.

No comment is necessary to indicate the merits of a good clean case of perjury, in view of Lashier's testimony on the witness stand.

Charles told a straightforward story in line with the complaint previously sworn to, and the defense failed to break it down.

Smith, when put on the stand, swore that he did not sell the wine. It is significant that his testimony and that of Charles so closely tallied in regard to the events which took place on the date in question, even up to coming up to the drugstore with his little girl in the evening from the river. Considering the little they had to work on the defense put up a strong fight. Attorney Butt made the most of his case, and showed a good deal of natural ability in the art of working on the sympathies of a jury, and was strongly seconded by Spencer. While Lashier's evidence was not definite in regard to the exact day on which he bought the wine, he did testify that he did buy about that time and bought with Charles. This made good corroborative evidence, sufficient to make a strong case, if the prosecution had been followed up with the industry which indicated a desire to win, equal to that manifested by the defense. After deliberating about thirty minutes the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The airing of the whiskey business given by this case has been beneficial for several reasons, one of which is that it has caused the people to line up and show where they stand. Four classes are represented in Newberg viz:

1. Those who are out and out for whiskey, open and above board.

2. Those who are for whiskey on the sly.

3. Those milk and water temperance people who get mighty weak in the spinal column when "he is a purty good citizen and gives to churches and charities."

4. Those who are opposed to the violation of the city ordinance on the whiskey question and who openly insist on the prosecution of violators of it, be they so called saints or sinners.

The war against whiskey selling is on again in Newberg and the Graphic will probably furnish some interesting reading along this line as the weeks go by.

An Astonishing But True Story

"My home is in Sidney, Ohio. I have been nearer death with consumption than any other living person in the world, and I want you to read this, so you can tell others. I took a severe cold and neglected it. I grew worse all the time, and at the end of two years I had run into consumption. I coughed terribly, lost flesh, could not sleep, and became so dreadfully weak that I had to take to bed. In the following eighteen months I gradually reached the last stages of consumption. No less than seven physicians treated me and all gave me up saying I was incurable. I was absolutely helpless. The whole family wore themselves out caring for me. One day mother and sister came to my bedside, and said I had but a day or two more to live. Tears rolled down their cheeks as they sobbed the news. The doctors had declared I was in the last stage, and no human being could save
