Local Events.

Just as the Graphic goes to press Jesse Edwards telephones up from Portland that all the preliminaries have been arranged in a satisfactory manner with the attorney for the best sugar company, and that the blank contracts for acreage will be printed at once and put into the hands of the directors of the Newberg Development Company. As soon as this is done solicitors will be appointed and the ball will begin to roll. The best sugar factory is assured if we do our part. Now is the time to strike.

C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce.

Miss Alderson was favored last Saturday and Sunday with a visit from her little thirteen year old sister of Salem. Another sister Miss Pearl of LaFayette was also here Saturday.

Amos Nelson of West Chehalis precinct announces himself as a candidate for county commissioner. He held this responsible position for two terms and during that time he always kept an eye out for the interests of the tax payers.

Three hack loads of Newberg Christian Endeavorers took in the county C. E. convention at Dayton last Friday evening and Saturday. Judging from the fact that it has been a very fruitful theme of conversation since their return, their experiences must have been many and varied.

The young and thriving organization of the college known as the Janta literary society is preparing to give a public entertainment in the near future which promises to be very good. The proceeds are to go towards securing a piano for the college use in general, certainly a very worthy enterprise.

State Y. M. C. A. Secretary Stuart B. Hanna was in town Tuesday. He led the college chapel exercises in the morning and addressed the local association after school. He was here principally to work up interest in the Y. M. C. A. summer school to be held in May at Long Beach, California.

Milt Cady of West Chehalis was in town Tuesday seeking for information as to a means of exterminating the dreaded Canada thistle, which has made its appearance on his farm, having been introduced with some clover seed he had sown. The columns of the Graphic are open to any one who can suggest a remedy for getting rid of the pest.

Prune growers are feeling very anxious about the condition of the prospective crop owing to damage from frost and continued unfavorable weather. It will be some days yet however before the fate of the crop can be accurately figured out.

J. D. Shearer was called to Hillsboro last week to the bedside of a sick brother who is not expected to live long. While there J. D. called on Grandma Woods who is one hundred and eight years of age—yet womanlike she still objects to being called old.

A subscriber from West Chehalis was in town the first of the week, and reported that parties up there were shooting grouse in violation of the game laws. If game warden Quimby gets hold of this information, as he should, somebody is liable to be fifty dollars out of pocket.

Mr. O. O. Rhude of North Yamhill, Oregon is a candidate for re-nomination to the office of county treasurer. He has served as such during the past two years in a very satisfactory manner and as his re-nomination is the only favor asked for by the North Yamhill republicans it is conceded that the request will be granted without opposition. Mr. Rhude is a member of the G. A. R. and will aid strength to the ticket.

The Graphic office is receiving practical co-operation in its plea for diversified farming. Two "neighborly" hens are laying regularly in our woodshed and a hornless cow took advantage the other day of the results of the season's grass crop of our back yard, but made her escape before milking time. The unity of theory and practice makes a strong case, and we now have a right to be heard on this all absorbing question.

Pneumonia is one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases. It always results from a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will quickly cure a cold and perhaps prevent an attack of pneumonia. It is in fact made especially for that ailment and has become famous for its cures over a large part of the civilized world. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Can you afford to neglect your cold when so reliable a remedy can be had for a trifle? For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

At the Easter services at the Friends church last Sunday, the vocal solo by Miss Alderson, "I know that my Redeemer Liveth" from Handel's Messiah, was especially appreciated, both by its being finely rendered and by its appropriateness to the occasion.

It nearly always requires some sacrifice to stand up for one's principles, especially when the crowd of fellow trains with is in a hopeless minority. J. M. Rittenhouse hired a boy to drive his delivery rig last week in order to get away to attend the state prohibition convention at Portland, and then when he returned home he found that a favorite setting hen, eggs, nest and all had been carried away bodily by some sneak thief.

F. S. This is not the hen which has been increasing the profits of the Graphic office.

The people of Newberg and vicinity should give hearty support to the inter-collegiate debate to be held here next Friday evening, between Monmouth and our college. In the first place the debate will be worthy of a large and general attendance. It will be the first inter-collegiate debate ever held here, and the subject, municipal ownership, is of present and universal interest. In the second place the expenses incident to such a contest are quite heavy, and it will take a large audience to defray them. Besides all this, the reputation of our town is always at stake in such events, and we owe it to our visitors to give them an enthusiastic reception and hearing.

Al Cornell and family came up from Grants Pass last Friday for a few days visit with relatives. They brought with them Al's mother, lately from Minnesota, who had been visiting them for some weeks, and she with her grand children Elsie and Guy Young will henceforth make Newberg their home and will live in the Cornell property in the west part of town, recently occupied by H. Bigelow. Cornells returned Tuesday, taking with them Mrs. J. L. Myers and children who were to join Leonard in Grants Pass where he has located at his old trade of barbering. Al has a sleek, hearty appearance which indicates that he is on familiar terms with prosperity.

Spring athletics are opening up with a good deal of enthusiasm over at the college. Our old stand-bys, Heater and Kenworthy are rapidly getting into shape and will soon be where they left off last season. Heater will again make the pole vault his specialty, and will also do good work in the hurdles and broad jump, while Kenworthy will largely centralize his energies in the half mile run. It is very encouraging to note the number of prospective athletes in training who will come in for a share of the medals in another year or so. The athletic association has arranged for a meet with the Portland High school to be held in Portland in the near future. This will be the third contest with that school, our boys having won both the former ones.

On Wednesday afternoon a number of the ladies of the immediate vicinity called at the home of Grandma and Grandmam Livengood southwest of town to commemorate Grandma's eighty-fourth birthday. A pleasant afternoon passed quickly. In the evening an English tea was served under the supervision of Mrs. Comstock of Dundee, Mr. and Mrs. Livengood were married sixty-three years ago. Their ages now, are respectively eighty-six and eighty-four. They enjoy fairly good health and it is a well known fact that while Grandma's flower beds are well kept, that Mr. Livengood's big garden always excels most of the gardens in the neighborhood. Those who remained to 'tea' were Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Hess, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Craven, Mrs. Luman and Mrs. Martin.

Word received from California, says that James Vestals in their trip south had the fortune to be on the same train with Hon. W. J. Bryan. Uncle Jimmie, true to his habit of looking out for the main chance, made free to enter Bryan's coach and introduced himself, at the same time informing Hon. W. J. that "there are two women in another car who want to see thee." So Bryan got naturally followed in Jimmie's wake and was introduced to Mrs. Vestal and Mrs. Emma Hill, and very gallantly divided his bougainvillee of violets with the "Quaker girl," as he said. We did not learn whether he remained long enough for Jimmie to trace "consensus," but Mrs. Hill was afterward taken for Mrs. Bryan and thus addressed by one of the passengers. The moral to the story, if any, is that Mr. Bryan is morally sure of one good Quaker vote, and if women's suffrage comes at the next election, he is good for three.

POSEY. Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va. About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to twice their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked out to breakfast without assistance in any manner and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW & REVIEWS

THE "NECESSARY" MAGAZINE

The best-informed men and women in the world use the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS to keep well informed, and call it the "necessary" and "indispensable" magazine. In the busy rush of to-day ambitious men and women must know about the important questions of the month, and not only this, they want to know about them at the right time. When the whole country is puzzled over the gigantic combination of trusts, a well-informed article is printed in the AMERICAN MONTHLY, giving the facts, and its editor discusses the theory; when the Dreyfus affair is in everyone's mouth, the best story of Dreyfus and the great case comes out in this magazine. Every month, in "The Progress of the World," Dr. Albert Shaw gives a comprehensive picture of the world's history during the previous thirty days. In the departments, the valuable articles and books that have been published during the past month are reviewed and the gist of them. In every issue nearly a hundred pictures are printed, including the portraits of the men and women who are making the history of the month.

To be thoroughly well informed helps any man or woman in his or her work. A subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS represents an investment for the best kind of profit, as well as entertainment. One subscriber has just written: "Count me a life subscriber, and when you send me a number beyond the limit of my subscription and secure a renewal from me, consider it a notice of my death."

Price 25 cents per number, $2.50 a year. A sample copy will be sent on receipt of ten cents in stamps.
