Remember that a vote for Tongue is a vote for Pacific Coast development.

One good term deserves another. Vote for the re-election of Hon. Clarence Butt to the state legislature. His record commends him to every conscientious voter.

The people who are always talking about voting for the man rather than for the party will have a good chance of putting their professions to the test next Monday when they come to the name of J. L. Hoskins for county recorder.

Every vote cast for a republican candidate Monday is a vote for honest money, Pacific Coast development and continued prosperity. Every vote cast otherwise is a vote for the conditions of four years ago. Shake up your memories and consider well.

Does anybody imagine for a moment that if LaGrande farmers were dissatisfied and discouraged with beet raising, that new contracts would be being signed right along? That is just what is taking place. There will be an increase of ten per cent in this years acreage over last, and the growers are going at it again with renewed enthusiasm. If the business is a "failure" at LaGrande, may Newberg have one like it.

The evaporation of sugar beet pulp for shipping purposes as cattle feed is a new industry being started in the sugar beet district of Michigan. It is said this evaporated pulp can be shipped to the old country and sold at twenty dollars per ton, at which price a splendid profit can be realized. In view of this fact, what a possibility for the numerous manufacturers in the vicinity of Newberg—when we get our factory. All these things are worth considering.

Within the next few years, the beet sugar industry will be one of the leading agricultural pursuits of the United States. And where the sugar factories are, there will be found the most progressive and prosperous communities of the whole country. Will Newberg and Yamhill county be one of these? Within five years, Newberg will be one of the leading manufacturing towns of Willamette valley, surrounded by a most productive, profitable and well kept agricultural district—a veritable garden spot. Or—Newberg will be a forsaken, sleepy, struggling little village, surrounded by a farming district, all foul and wheated to death, barely able to furnish a mere living. Which picture will be a reality? The farmers alone can answer.

The Telephone-Register, in its last issue, stoops to a questionable attack upon Amos Nelson, republican candidate for county commissioner. There is no objection to the Register publishing garbled, false, and one-sided records of republican candidates, if it gives time and opportunity for refutation. But when it comes out on the eve of election with a deceptive attack, too cowardly and unprincipled to give the man a chance to set himself right, which he can undoubtedly do, it gains nothing in the estimation of the honorable voters of Yamhill county. If the Register had any mod to throw, why did it wait until such a time that it denied Mr. Nelson a fair opportunity to defend himself? Simply because it recognized the weakness and dishonesty of its attack. Concerning the fusion nominee, we have no word of censure. He is an able and upright man. But we believe the same of Mr. Nelson, and do not wish to see him suffer from any unjust attacks, the source of which is nothing but the excretion of spleen, caused by the certainty of political defeat.

In commenting upon the Cuban frauds, and the national indignation at outraged honor in our new possessions, the New York Tribune says: The temper of Americans is clearly to demand in the conduct of all public business in the dependencies a higher standard of purity and excellence and a sharper criticism of all shortcomings than have ever prevailed in the less capable states of the Union. With honorable city it is felt that these inhabitants of Cuba and other islands have never had any opportunity to learn what self-government requires, how to judge men or how to make public opinion a barrier against crime. These people are in charge of the United States as its wards. Toward the protection of their rights and interests there will be directed a far keener activity of public opinion in the States than has ever been given to the affairs of any territory. It is a point of pride to teach these inhabitants what good government is. It is a point of honor to devote more pains and care to the defence of helpless wards than might be given to home affairs. In that state of mind the people will expect much from everybody who represents them, and will obtain much.

JINGOISM—WITH A DIFFERENCE. The old fable about its making difference whose ox is gored receives a novel interpretation at the hands of those who fondly exploit their hatred of what they are pleased to call imperialism and jingoism and militarism. These latter are, in their eyes, dreadful things. But like the felicity of Yum-Yum's wedding, "it all depends, bless you, it all depends."

For example, for the United States to intervene in behalf of outraged humanity in Cuba was jingoism and militarism. But for it to meddle in the South African embroilment in behalf of the Boers would be only the proper discharge of a solemn duty. For the United States to send forces to suppress a revolt against its lawful authority in Luzon, and to maintain peace and order there, is rank imperialism and a direct invitation to all sorts of complications with the Powers. But to send a fleet into the Mediterranean and to the Dardanelles to bombard Turkish cities and to coerce the Turkish government would be peacefully minding our own business and scrupulously refraining from cause of offence to any other nation. We are so much nearer apparently, to the Transvaal than to Cuba, and the collection of a claim of $100,000 is so much more important than the protection of the national honor and the safety of millions of lives and hundreds of millions of property. Truly, it all depends. It is Quixotism, run madder than any ever seen in La Mancha. It is our duty, apparently, to maintain an army and navy for everybody's use but our own; to go skylarking over the world-tilting wherever an alien windmill waves its arms, but to shrink timorously from guarding our own coasts and from maintaining our own rights. We are to go to war for trifles, and in causes which do not concern us directly; but are to cling to "peace at any price" whenever the honor and welfare of our own land are concerned. It is a fine application of the old fable. Only, in the original, if we remember aright, the man was chiefly concerned when his own ox was gored.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Telephone-Register Answered. The Telephone-Register has undertaken to advise the voters of Yamhill county not to vote for A. Nelson for county commissioner for the reason that an action at law against said Yamhill county, after being five years in court was finally decided against the county. The facts are there was at the March term of court in Yamhill county, 1894, contracts let for the repairing of bridges in the county. That at that term the firm of Dew & Son bid for the delivery of lumber in district near McMinnville for the sum of $7,500 per M. (Stout & Martin made bid in same district for $8 per M.) Dew & Son having the lowest bid were awarded the contract as appears on record. Wm. Galloway was then county judge and T. W. Perry and J. J. Henderson commissioners. In May and June following, said Dew & Son furnished different lots of lumber under aforesaid contract as appears by records. In June the county court decided to repair the approaches to the bridge near McMinnville on the Dayton road and appointed J. J. Henderson to superintend the said job of repairing as records show. Repairs were not commenced until the month of July 1894. At the June election J. E. Magers was elected judge for said county and A. Nelson commissioner, who qualified to their respective offices about the first of July 1894. At the July term of said county court nothing was said about the bridge except that work was to be done. At the August term, Dew & Son presented a bill of $821.59 for lumber delivered for the repairs of aforesaid bridge as per contract. Stout & Martin presented a bill of $1010.80 for lumber delivered at same bridge. Both parties appeared in court Stout & Martin claiming they had a verbal contract with J. J. Henderson and when Dew & Son were questioned about the difference in the claims they admitted that Stout & Martin had delivered lumber which they had procured from some other mill, and they did not claim pay for more than they had sawed and delivered under their contract. They also admitted that they were indebted to Stout & Martin and were willing to have a settlement right there and would pay what they owed the said Stout & Martin. But Mr. Stout claimed the whole bill. The court continued both bills to the September term of court giving the parties a chance to settle their differences, but at the September term both parties came into court with their attorneys, both claiming the full amount of their bills. The court allowed Dew & Son $821.60 and Stout & Martin $189.11.

In September Stout & Martin brought an action in the circuit court held at McMinnville for the full amount of $1010.80, seeking anything for the $189.11. The case was tried before a jury of 12 of Yamhill county's citizens, the jury finding a verdict for defendants. Then Stout & Martin appealed the case to the supreme court. It was reversed back for a new trial in the circuit court, then Stout & Martin asked for a change of venue which was allowed, and the case was next tried in Hillsboro, Washington county. The jury failed to agree and it was again tried at the next term of the same court and the jury, after being out twenty-five hours found for plaintiff, and the Yamhill county court paid the bill and costs, not wishing to appeal. The advice of the district attorney was never given as the Telephone-Register would have people believe, as the attorney mentioned was related to Stout & Martin. We should never have said anything about this if the Telephone-Register had not tried to make campaign matter out of the above, as everybody knows Mr. Nelson as an able and competent man.

ALL ABOUT CALIFORNIA.

A handsome series of new and useful publications. California is the natural paradise of the holiday maker. Its resources are inexhaustable, its invitation universal and its resorts and attractions among the most noted in the world.

The Southern Pacific Company publishes descriptive literature containing valuable information about all of them. It is for free distribution and may be obtained from any Southern Pacific agent, or C. H. Markham, General Passenger Agent at Portland, Oregon. If you apply by mail inclose a stamp for each publication.

"Resorts and attractions along the coast line" is a handsomely illustrated folder, giving a description of the health and pleasure resorts on the coast between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

"Shasta resorts," embellished with beautiful half-tone engravings, describes the scenes and outing attractions of the vast and wonderful Shasta region, the grandest of pleasure grounds.

"California south of Tehachapi" tells all about the charms of that remarkably favored semi-tropic garden spot, Southern California.

A handsome map of California, complete in detail, reliable, skillfully indexed and full of information about the state's resources. It is the only publication of its kind conveniently folded for pocket use.

"Summer outings" is a 32-page folder devoted to the camping retreats in the Shasta region and Santa Cruz Mountains. It appears more directly to that large and growing class of recreation seekers who prefer this popular form of outing.

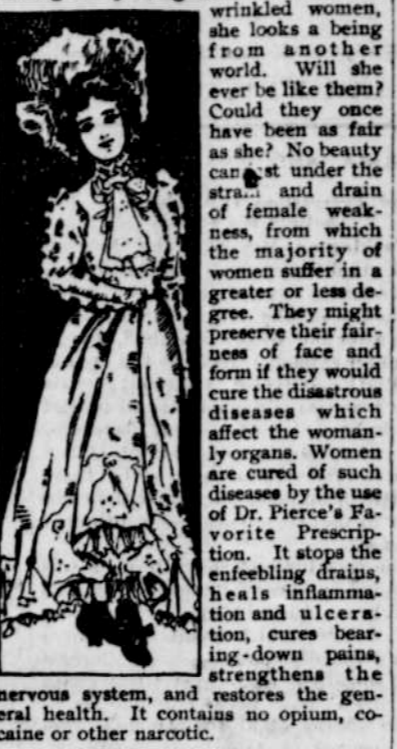

"Pacific Grove" is the Chautauqua of the West, and this folder not only describes the pretty place itself, but gives a program of the religious and educational meetings, conventions, schools, etc., to be held there this summer.

Other publications are "Lake Tahoe," "Geysers and Lake county," "Yosemite," "Hotel del Monte," "Castle Crags," each brimful of information about the places named and printed in the highest style of the art.

Glorious News Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion builds up the strength. Only 50c. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists. Guaranteed.

How Will She End?

Just budding into womanhood, so fresh, so fair and fine that we turn to watch her as she passes, she trips along the street a picture of health and beauty. Among the passing crowd of worn and wrinkled women, she looks a being from another world. Will she ever be like them? Could they once have been as fair as she? No beauty can last under the strain and drain of female weakness, from which the majority of women suffer in a greater or less degree. They might preserve their fairness of face and form if they would cure the disastrous diseases which affect the womanly organs. Women are cured of such diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It stops the enfeebling drains, cures inflammation and ulceration, cures bearing-down pains, strengthens the nervous system, and restores the general health. It contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness," writes Mrs. M. B. Wallace of McMinnville, Oregon, for the week ending June 21, 1900. "I tried four doctors, but none did me any good. I suffered six years, but at last I found relief. I followed your advice and took eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and four of his Golden Medical Discovery. I now feel like a new woman. I have gained eighteen pounds."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.
