Four hundred and sixty-one voters have registered in North and South Newberg precincts, which show a gain of seventy-nine over the vote cast in 1898. This gain is about three times as great as is shown by any other town in the county. Follow the crowd and you will see it headed for Newberg every time.

Prof. Rollin Kirk, a graduate of Pacific College in the class of '98 and who has been teaching near Carlton for the past two years has been elected as principal of the Newberg public school. At the earnest request of a number of the citizens of Dayton, J. L. Hoskins attended the picnic and memorial exercises held there on Wednesday. He received a royal welcome and if there is anything in outward demonstrations and a word of cheer J. L. is going to receive a heavy majority for recorder, at Dayton next Monday.
The eclipse of the sun which took place on last Monday morning was visible here for nearly half an hour, though many people failed to see it as it was so much foggy in the morning and falling to see the sun on first looking for it, they gave it up, while those who kept an eye on the eastern horizon were rewarded by getting a fine view of the eclipse. There was just enough fog to render the use of a smoked glass unnecessary.
Newberg's light is not hid under a half bushel. A finely illustrated beet sugar souvenir publication was received at this office the last week from Washington, D. C. It contained a map showing the location and probable location of all the sugar factories in the United States. Oregon had two marked to her credit, at LaGrande and Newberg respectively. In another year we will have advanced from the probability to the real thing.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale at C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

There was a large attendance at the memorial services held in the Friends church Sunday afternoon, and an able sermon was preached by Rev. Barr from the text "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."
A very pleasant union social was held in the basement of the Friends church Saturday evening, participated in by the Christian Endeavorers, and the young people of the Baptist Union and Epworth League.
Prospects look towards a big excursion to Salem to-morrow, and the full passenger limit of the boat will probably be taken. Excursionists may procure breakfast on boat by seeing the steward before hand. The ever present candy stand will be aboard for the accommodation of the people.
We understand that the Woodmen of the World, are going to lend some assistance toward securing the beet sugar factory for Newberg. They are to send out one speaker and three solicitors at the expense of the order, to make an active canvass for acreage. Such co-operation speaks well for the order.
Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one half of a 50c bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

A letter received this week from James Vestal, tells of an old time family reunion held at Whittier, where all the Vestal relatives in that vicinity gathered around a sumptuous Sunday dinner, the kind so dear to Uncle Jimmie's heart, and lived over old times together. In the afternoon the company assembled in the front yard and was "kidded" by Mrs. Emma Hill. The letter states that there seems to be plenty of everything in Southern California except good cold water, and that such as they have doesn't come according to good old nature's way from above, as it does in Oregon.
The attendance at Crater's hall Wednesday night indicated that John G. Woolley's fame has gone abroad throughout the land. The people came from far and near expecting to hear a good prohibition speech—and they heard it. From the standpoint of oratory he was not as good as we have heard him before, but he made a good, clean plain address from the prohibition standpoint. He did wonders with his text "A sower went forth to sow," and his sallies of keen wit and humor were enjoyed by all. The speaker is to be commended in that he did not stoop to abuse, but with little exception was liberal in tone, presenting a pleasing contrast to a number of temperance orators who have spoken in Newberg.
A jolly crowd of Portlanders were entertained at "Wildwood," Mr. Geo. C. Sears' beautiful farm near Newberg, last Saturday evening. The party was met at the evening train and driven out to the farm in wagon loads. Laughter and cheer echoed through miles of valley. Whist, dancing, singing and feasting were indulged in Saturday evening and Sunday was a busy day of sight seeing over the grand old farm, the party returning to Portland Monday morning. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. A. DuBuisson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Sears, The Misses Brach, McGuire, Kate McGuire, Cole, Coleman, Holmes, Stewart, Stroubridge and Sears and Messrs. Cunningham, Mackie, Holmes, Gilliland, Birrel, Little, Jenkins, Gritzmacher and Morse.

Some people say "oh Newberg people want the beet sugar factory just to build up the town." Well if this were true, would not these same farmers be better off if Newberg had several good factories and a population three or four times as great as it now has? To be sure Newberg wants the factory because it is expected that it will greatly enhance the value of property and put new life into business of all kinds, but a very large share of this will come from the increase in profits that will come to the farmers who raise the beets. Any change that benefits the farmer benefits Newberg and vice versa.

BEET SUGAR MEETING.
INTEREST AND DETERMINATION IN CREATING.
List of Contractors Published.
The beet sugar meeting held in Crater's hall last Friday evening was a source of great encouragement to the directors of the Development Company and those most intensely interested in securing the enterprise. Although the weather was such that the farmers did not attend very generally, the attendance from town and immediate vicinity was very good. It indicated that the interest had in no way abated and that no such thought as failure was entertained.
F. A. Morris, secretary of the board of directors, read an interesting and carefully prepared report of the work done up to date, by the directors. They have held eighteen regular and several special meetings, and have sacrificed much time and labor in behalf of the work. Of the $500 capital stock of the company $386 has been subscribed of which $237.50 has been paid up. This leaves stock subscribed but unpaid to the amount of $148.50. It is desired that as soon as possible this will be paid, and the remaining stock be taken up, that the work of the directors may not be hampered financially. The total expenses have been $115.48.
Hon. Clarence Butt gave an extended talk on his trip to LaGrande. From his observations of the enterprise there he is confident that there is no doubt as to the success of the industry if secured for this locality. Several short speeches were made urging renewed and increased diligence in the canvass for acreage. Before the meeting was over several of the business men present subscribed acreage, about 100 acres in all.
We publish below a list of all persons who had subscribed sugar beet acreage up to last Saturday night with the amount contracted opposite the names.

Decoration Day Services.
The exercises held in Crater's hall on Decoration day were appropriate to the occasion and largely attended, the hall being packed to the limit of seating capacity. The public school students made a pleasant feature of the occasion by attending in a body, and greatly aided in the services of the afternoon. John McCleery presided over the exercises, which were opened with prayer by Rev. J. F. Day.
The address was given by Prof. J. C. Hodson, and an appropriate and thoughtful one it was. He recalled the achievements of the nation's honored dead, and reviewed the cost of national greatness in the loss of life suffered. He paid tribute to the loyalty and valor of the old soldiers, and emphasized the debt of the nation to them. In referring to present conditions he uttered strong sentiments in favor of national expansion. At the close of the address Mr. Linville read Lincoln's address at Gettysburg.
A patriotic song was well rendered by a double quartet of public school students, consisting of Nellie Day, Alberta Meats, Cozy Hadley, Jessie Christenson, Chas. Morris, Jas. Duncan, Horace Nelson and John McDonald. Ora Buchanan spoke the recitation "The Blue and the Gray." Other exercises were given by little girls. The services closed with an exercise of the states by forty-five school girls dressed in white. They sang old "America" with a patriotic ring which was truly inspiring.
The march was taken up to the cemetery where the old veterans held the regular decoration services. They were addressed there by Rev. Snyder. The graves throughout the cemetery were fittingly decorated, in due respect and reverence to the honored dead, who still live cherished in the memory of the old comrades.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery which wholly cured me. Hundreds have used it on my advice and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at C. F. Moore & Co.'s drug store.

Why So Many Young Men Fall.
"One trouble with many young men who start out in business is they try to do too many things at once," says Hetty Green, "the richest woman in America," in the June Ladies' Home Journal. "The result is that they don't know as much as they ought to about any one thing, and they naturally fail. The trouble with young men who work on salaries is that they're always afraid of losing more than the're paid for. They don't enter into their work with the right spirit. To get on and be appreciated a young man must do more than he is paid to do. When he does something that his employer has not thought of he shows that he is valuable. Men are always willing to pay good salaries to people who will think of things for them. The man who only carries out the thoughts and ideas of another is nothing more than a mere tool. Men who can be relied upon are always in demand. The scarcest thing in the world to-day is a thoroughly reliable man."

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price.
I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Liverman, Burgetstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.
