C. F. Moore has tents to rent or sell. The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00. C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce. Two young cows for sale. G. W. HOWIE. Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling. Mr. and Mrs. Bird Crabtree of Dayton visited friends in town over Sunday. Try a load of slab wood for $1.50. The Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. Miss Flora Bell of Portland visited in town over Sunday with the home folks. Justin Haworths, L. M. Careys and Axim Newbys started in wagons to the coast Tuesday. C. V. Miles and family joined the Newberg contingent at Newport by the sea the first of week. For sale a yearling Cotswold ram and an Angora Billy. H. C. PAULSEN. "Brick" Rinehart of The Dalles, a former student of the college here, joined the navy at Portland last week. N. E. Britt and son Sarg returned from the mountains Tuesday evening from their summer surveying trip. Little Lois Wilson has been quite sick this week, dysentery being the ailment. She is considerably better now. Milton Hampton and daughter Mrs. E. P. Dixon left Thursday morning to join the army of Rusticators at Newport. Miss Essie Hevland has the promise of the district school out east of town in the German neighborhood to teach this fall. Mr. W. H. Hollingsworth is managing the furniture business while W. H. and the children are out at Yaquina Bay. A. P. Oliver has some very good pieces of real estate for sale which are advertised in the Graphic. Glance over the list. J. C. Kirk is expecting a nephew to arrive here any time now all the way from West Virginia. The young man is a printer by trade. Mr. Eneyr the Portland capitalist who makes a business of loaning money in Yamhill county has been in town a day or two this week. Mr. Wolf, of Perrydale, father of Mark Wolf, has rented the J. L. Hoskins place north of town and will move down in time for the opening of college. W. J. Stater has made a sale of the north half of his farm including the buildings to a brother of C. E. Newhouse who came out from Minnesota recently. Roy Gardner has hoisted a neat sign over his blacksmith shop door which cannot fail to catch the eye of the passer by. The big horseshoe is a silent appeal to the goddess of fortune. Rev. L. D. Barrs, accompanied by Miss Pearl Cummings left for Newport Monday morning. They had already rented a cottage there of a Portland friend, for a month's outing. Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Cash came up from Sherwood last Friday evening and attended the public reception given to Pres. McGrews. They returned the following morning. Frank Kinney of Astoria came up to Newberg Saturday evening and joined his wife who has been visiting here for some time with her mother Mrs. A. Bowman. Mr. and Mrs. Kinney returned Monday morning. A good span of stray horses which has been "on the town" for ten days was sold at public auction Wednesday afternoon. W. J. Stater bid the team off at $75 for the Spaulding Logging Company. Wm. Manning did the auctioneering in approved style. Chas. Carl of Myrtle Point, Coos county, arrived here last Friday evening and is visiting his brother Elder Geo. C. Carl. He will probably remain and assist his brother in building a new house on his property in the south part of town, formerly used as the fair grounds. The Newberg Land Company is pushing right to the front in Newberg in the real estate business. It is doing a great deal toward getting Newberg real estate advertised before the public, and is doing much for the town in that way. They hold out extra inducements to Eastern people who are seeking homes, and work with the best interest of the town in sight, from educational and moral standpoints. They are making sales right along, many of which are noted in this issue. The reception held for Pres. McGrews at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards last Friday evening was well attended, considering the season, and was a very pleasant affair. The fore part of the evening was spent in an informal, social way, everybody being introduced to and getting acquainted with the new president and his estimable wife. In the latter part of the evening short and appropriate addresses of welcome were made by Mayor J. G. Hadley, on behalf of the city, by L. H. Rees for the college board, O. L. Price for the college alumni, Mrs. J. H. Douglas for the faculty, Rev. J. F. Day for the churches of the town, J. C. Hodson for the Sunday school and Miss Gertrude Lamb for the Christian Endeavor society. To these Pres. McGrew very fittingly responded. The company disbanded feeling that Pres. Newlin's mantle had fallen upon very capable shoulders, and that the college would not suffer from the want of an efficient head.

Moore's dandruff cure or no pay. Fresh vegetables at Wilson's grocery. Moore's corn remover or your money back. Strawberry crates for sale by C. B. Wilson. Good straw or hay rack for sale. EDMUND ROBINSON. Leave your orders at the office of the Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. for slab wood. Mrs. H. R. Morris is in the county seat this week taking the teachers examination. C. C. Smith is now ready to make stamp pictures 16 for 25c. Four different positions. Well boring done by D. W. Cummins at 30 cents per foot, board furnished for himself and hand. Nathan and Elizabeth White have purchased the H. G. Miller property beyond the depot, for a home. Miss Villa Brown of McMinnville, with her cousin Georgia Lewis of Portland, is visiting her sister Mrs. J. G. Hadley. Farmers I want your eggs. I will give cash for them. Egg packers furnished free to those wishing them. C. B. WILSON. C. E. Newhouse, of Springbrook, recently sold twenty-six White Plymouth Rock chickens to one breeder for $28. Mr. Newhouse says the White Rocks are the chickens to raise. The Misses Lucy and Myrtle Gause and Bertha and Lillian Nicholson tented on the side of classic Bald Hill last week, supposedly to test the invigorating qualities of the high mountain atmosphere. Mr. and Mrs. Crowe, the former an attorney from Riverside, California, and his wife a cousin of Mrs. Wm. Stratton, who have been on a trip to Alaska, came up from Portland on the train Tuesday evening and remained until Thursday morning. Mrs. Dr. J. B. Moore and children of Coquille City visited over Sunday and until the middle of the week with Charley Moores'. She is spending a good part of the summer across the river at the home of her father J. Q. Hoskins, who is in poor health. Walter Hadley, and sister Libbie of Dayton rode down on their wheels Wednesday afternoon to attend the wedding of their cousin Miss Anna Hoskins. They were unfortunate however, in arriving just fifteen minutes after the ceremony was performed. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Macy of McMinnville leave Portland Sunday evening for Salt Lake, Utah, where Will is a delegate to the national meeting of Modern Woodmen. They will be accompanied by Miss Lou Maloney, daughter of Mayor Maloney, who will visit an uncle in Ogden. Miss Nora Parker arrived home from Newport Monday evening, with about thirteen pounds more avoirdupois than when she left, to say nothing of the moss and water agates which she brought back as trophies of the trip. Cecil Hoskins on the way down from McMinnville, picked her up at St. Joe and gave her a lift the rest of the way home. Miss Mellie Douglas writes from Southern California that they had a very interesting trip down, and of course, weren't seasick. They took in San Francisco and its environs quite thoroughly from China town to Golden Gate park. They are now comfortably located at Long Beach in a cottage owned by a brother of Mrs. Chas. Butler. Surveyor Maloney has purchased one of W. & E. Gurley's "Y" levels, and is now prepared to do either surveying or leveling. In view of the era of street and sewer improvement lately inaugurated, this new instrument will be quite a valuable addition to Mr. Maloney's professional paraphernalia.—Reporter. Mr. Maloney came down to Newberg Wednesday to do some surveying for the city. The proposed graveling and improvement of the streets have opened up several discrepancies in previous surveys which he is correcting. He will probably make an entire new plat. Will Clemenson, postmaster at Clarkston, Washington, sent us a newspaper clipping Wednesday, giving an account of the drowning in the Snake river, near that place of Cragen Haworth, son of Solomon and Lucy Haworth who lived here several years. Cragen, with a companion, had been in swimming, and on attempting to cross the river, was overcome by a swift current and drawn out into the deep water. He became frightened and shouted for help to his companion, who did his best, but to no avail. A search was made for the body but without success. The Newberg Creamery Company receives very encouraging word from time to time from the Portland firm which is handling its butter. It is evident that the product turned out here is the very best, as it is always immediately disposed of at the top price. In answer to a shipment made last month, the firm writes, "This last shipment of butter received from you was full weight and a very fancy article indeed. In fact there is nothing better coming in this market than this last shipment. We also wish you could see your way clear to increase your output, as we would have no trouble in handling ten times as much butter as you are turning out." This is all very encouraging to our home creamery and it would like to comply with the last appeal, and it ought to be able to, but to make more butter requires more milk and more cows. The farmer who raises some stock and patronizes the creamery is coming out ahead just as certain as the wisest farmer is coming out in the other direction.

Go to T. B. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock. The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock. Mrs. L. L. Votaw and boys left town Monday morning for Seaside, where they will rusticate for a while in sound of old Oceans roar. Price & Price, attorneys at law have fitted up an office room up stairs in the Chehalis Valley Bank building, and are now ready to attend to the needs of clients. A. M. Hoskins has very materially improved the accommodations of his brick building by having a new "roomer" flight of stairs added. A fellow can now go up and down freely without compromising his sense of dignity. A watch is a machine, and everybody knows that to give satisfaction a machine must be kept clean and well oiled. We do that work and put them in first class running order. WINSLOW BROS., Jewelers. Will Vestal finally decided not to take the old O. V. Allen property across the canyon which he had bargained for, and the Land Co. has sold it again to L. S. Hancock, sale price $350. D. R. Jackson and wife have sold their property in the west end of town known as the Dabrow property, to Jacob Norken of San Francisco, California who intends to occupy it soon. J. E. Pressnall has sold his house and lots to W. H. Morris' father, lately from Minnesota and in turn has purchased a building lot of the Friends church just north of Mrs. M. C. Rutans. Mr. and Mrs. Du Brown, and Mrs. Brown's mother Mrs. Wheldon, all of McMinnville, visited with Mayor J. G. Hadley's over Sunday. It was rather difficult for Da's old friends here to reconcile his new relationship to their old memories of him but he seemed to fit well in the matrimonial harness. Rev. J. M. Yingling, pastor of the Bedford street Methodist church at Cumberland, Md., says: "It affords me much pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used it and know others who have done so. I have never known it to fail. It is a sure cure when taken in time." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists. Jones-Hoskins Nuptials. On Wednesday evening at five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoskins, Miss Anna Hoskins was wedded to Francis K. Jones, Mrs. Mary E. K. Edwards performing the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet one, only two or three friends of the family being present beside the relatives. Of the latter, only the first cousins of the bride were present, the groom having no kith nor kin here. It was remarked by those present that the wedding was an exceptionally nice one, everything passing off in the most approved manner without a single hitch to mar the pleasure of the occasion. The bride was favored above most young ladies in having her wedding gown made from the one which her mother used on a like occasion about twenty-five years ago. We heard the particulars of the bride's apparel, but will only risk ourselves to give the conclusion, that "she made a very becoming bride." The wedding supper following the ceremony was such a feast as Mrs. Hoskins is noted for. The bride is what might be called one of Newberg's native daughters, and has grown up amongst us, well liked by all for her admirable qualities of womanhood. She is a graduate of Pacific College of the class of '99. The groom is a member of the college faculty here, being professor of Latin and English, and in his three years residence here has made friends of everybody, by his faithfulness and his stability of character. For the present Prof. and Mrs. Jones will occupy the Hoskins home, to be vacated this week by J. L. and family who move to the county seat.

be hauled and delivered and the contract completed on or before the first day of October, A. D. 1900. The expense of graveling the intersection of said streets to be paid by the city and the remainder to be paid by the property owners whose property abut upon the said streets to be gravelled. The party or parties receiving the contract will be required to enter into a contract and to give a bond for the faithful performance of the work. The committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and no bids will be received after the time limited herein. This notice is given and the work to be done under and by virtue of ordinance No. 155, passed by the common council of the city of Newberg, July 30th, A. D. 1900. J. J. WOODS, Street Commissioner. Dated August 1, 1900. CHEHALEM CENTER. The noise and buzz of the thrashing machine is heard in our community. The Misses Mary and Tina Lawrence are at home. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. H. B. Harford. After the usual proceedings Mr. J. C. Lucas and Mrs. Harford made a few encouraging remarks after which tea, coffee, cake and crackers were served. The time was passed very pleasantly by all. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. H. C. Johnson September 6. A young daughter arrived at the home of W. J. Stater and wife for a stay of eighteen years, July 29. All are getting along nicely. X. Y. Z. ANNOUNCEMENTS. FRIENDS CHURCH. GRAPE & KELLER. A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life. I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Bardick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists. Notice to the Public. I hereby notify the public that I will refuse to pay any debts contracted by my wife, Maude Mitchell, after date of August 1st 1900. D. P. MITCHELL. That Throbbing Headache. Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

These tickets will be on sale September 3rd, 4th, 5th, 10th and 13, and limited to three days after date of sale. For further particulars, call on or address Southern Pacific agent at Newberg. Story of a Slave. To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists. Administrator's Notice of Final Settlement. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of Charles Howard, deceased has filed his final account with said estate, in the county court of Yamhill county, Oregon, and that said court has appointed Saturday August 18th, A. D. 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m. the day and hour for the hearing of objections to the said final account and the settlement thereof. Now, therefore, all persons interested in said estate are hereby notified and required to appear at the county court room, at McMinnville, said county and state, at said time, to then and there show cause, if any there be, why said account should not be settled, allowed and approved, and the administrator discharged, and said estate forever and finally settled. A. K. CUMPTON, Administrator of the Estate of Charles Howard, deceased. Dated July 20, 1900. Clarence Butt, Att'y for Estate.
