C. F. Moore has tents to rent or sell. The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00. C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce. Eat good ice cream in a good cause Tuesday evening. A horse for sale. Gentle, and a good roadster. M. Votaw. 8-24. Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling. Try a load of slab wood for $1.50. The Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. Miss Gertrude Lamb visited Thursday with Mrs. H. T. Cash in Sherwood. James Hunt has been delivering some very fine Crawford peaches in town this week. C. W. Williams and Miss Hattie Thomas arrived home from Iowa last week. Hinchman Cooper moved to the Mrs. Emma Bell property on Meridian street Wednesday. For sale a yearling Cotswold ram and an Angora Billy. H. C. PAULSEN. Master Jimmie Forsyth says he thinks his little four weeks old brother Warren should have his name in the paper. J. W. Wheeler who has been down from Lane county during the week says the grain yield is very poor throughout the valley. Mrs. Eli Haworth has been dangerously ill with La Grip at their home north of town for several days. At last report she was slightly better. Miss Flora Bell has gone into the millinery business in Portland, and has an ad in the Graphic calling the notice of her Newberg friends to the fact. Mrs. T. B. Taylor of Minnesota who with her daughter, has been visiting some weeks with her father B. B. Cornell and brothers, left Thursday morning. Letters remain in the postoffice for Albert York, Mrs. F. F. Atkinson, Mr. J. H. Dorman. Persons calling for the above will please say "advertised". E. H. WOODWARD, P. M. The C.E. society of the Friends church will serve ice cream Tuesday evening in the Pickett building on First street. The proceeds go for the benefit of the Friends Alaska mission. A former Iowa friend of H. R. Cobb and newspaper man named Culver, who was out on a trip seeing the beauties of the Pacific Coast, was in town a couple of days last week. Mrs. Emma Bell and children moved to Portland Thursday which, with her daughter Flora, they will make their future home. Newberg friends are sorry to lose them. Just take notice of that neat ad, by Ehret Bros., the new merchants. They are business and know how to get their goods before the public. Call and get acquainted with them. The Graphic thinks from all appearances that finally, after weary waiting, it will be able to publish a certain hymenical notice in a no distant issue. This merely is a warning to break the shock to an unsuspecting (?) public. J. L. Hoskins, County Recorder, has moved into his new home, the Mrs. Redmond property. He called at the office looking as well as any man could after wrestling with carpet tacks, an old hammer, window curtains, a screwdriver with a loose handle, and all things else, including stovepipe that got into the wrong place while moving; but Bro. Hoskins is good natured anyway.— Transcript. The new bridge west of town will be finished up this week ready for travel, and will be immediately put to a much appreciated use by teamsters who have been waiting on its completion to begin hauling cord wood from across the canyon. In the first place however a good deal of grading will have to be done, especially at the west approach. The bridge will be a big improvement to the town in many ways. It took one hundred thousand feet of lumber for the structure. R. M. Gilbert of McMinnville, the contractor, took the job for $972, but some additional work has been done in the way of painting and lengthening the span and he says the total cost will be something near $1100. The frequency with which you meet people of a certain name in this county has often been noted. There has just been issued from the Reporter office by W. T. Macy, ex-county recorder, as compiler, at a great cost of painstaking and labor, a valuable book known as the "Financial Statement and Post Office Address of Residents of Yamhill County, Oregon," being virtually an abstract of the county assessor's records in the most important points. Its enumeration reveals the frequency of these names. If you are an Adams it will be interesting to know that there are 7 of you, likewise 9 Aldermans, 10 Ages, 15 Allens, 7 Allison, 12 Aldersons, 11 Bakers, 6 Bennets, 7 Birds, 5 Bogues, 5 Bones, 10 Booths, 8 Bradleys, 10 Bransons, 8 Brooks, 31 Browns, 8 Buells, 6 Caldwell, 11 Campbells, 8 Carters, 14 Christensons, 11 Clarks, 18 Cooks, 17 Coopers, 20 Davises, 13 Edwards, 10 Evans, 11 Everests, 10 Faulconers, 17 Fletchers, 16 Goodriches, 14 Graves, 11 Hadleys, 14 Halls, 16 Harrises, 11 Hembrees, 10 Henrys, 8 Hesses, 9 Hewitts, 9 Hodsons, 10 Hutchens, 9 Jensens, 23 Johnsons, 24 Jones, 14 Laughlins, 25 Martins, 13 Mills, 15 Morrisies, 16 Nelsons, 12 Olds, 10 Perkins, 13 Roberts, 20 Robertsons, 7 Sittons, 32 Smiths, 9 Williams, 15 Wilsons, 12 Woods and 11 Wrights.—Reporter.

Fresh vegetables at Wilson's grocery. Moore's corn remover or your money back. Strawberry crates for sale by C. B. Wilson. Good straw or hay rack for sale. EDMUND ROBINSON. Clifford Terrell of Portland spent Sunday in town with relatives. Born on Saturday, August 11th to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mills, a daughter. Leave your orders at the office of the Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. for slab wood. Herman Smith has been up at Sheridan this week visiting with A. S. Foggs. C. C. Smith is now ready to make stamp pictures 16 for 25c. Four different positions. Well boring done by D. W. Cummins at 30 cents per foot, board furnished for himself and hand. James Lawrence has rented the Charles Hadley farm near Dayton where they will move in the fall. Mrs. Hemans of Portland came up last Friday evening and attended Friends Quarterly Meeting over Sunday. Twenty or thirty first class sheep for sale, or will trade for dairy cows, or let out on shares. J. M. ATKINSON. 8-24. D. P. Price and Walter Macy are up in Walla Walla, Washington, assisting W. K. Allen in the evaporating business there. Farmers I want your eggs. I will give cash for them. Egg packers furnished free to those wishing them. C. B. WILSON. Sarg Britt left Monday morning for Berkeley, California, to enter upon his last year of work in the University of California. Miss Jennie Clark of Corvallis came down the latter part of last week and visited several days with the family of H. H. Winslow. With a clubbing rate of only $2 a year for the Graphic and the Oregonian you get all the news, both local and general, at a very low figure. Now is the time to subscribe. Joe Porter has had great luck on his hunting trip in the Coast Range. He sent word in that he brought down two deer on one excursion last week, which made pretty good sport for one day. At the meeting of hop growers held at Butterville last week it was decided to pay thirty-five cents a box this season for picking. This concerns more or less a major part of the population of Newberg. H. A. Miller and family returned home from Tillamook last week and reported a very pleasant trip. Mr. Miller is preparing to take a trip out south soon, to look for a location for the jewelry business. On account of continued ill health Mrs. Disney has given up the management of the Cottage hotel. E. H. Diabrow, assisted by his daughter Mrs. Frank Hanson, is now in charge as landlord. Miss Katharine A. Glen, who for the last year has been teaching music in Seattle and Snohomish, Washington, passed through on the train Saturday evening on her way home to Dayton for a fortnights visit. Silas Broadwell of Dundee, was chopping on a tree last Sunday when a limb struck him in the neck cutting an ugly wound, reaching dangerously near the jugular vein. Dr. Stott was called and sewed up the wound. C. F. Moore and family left Saturday morning for an outing at Newport. Dr. E. P. Dixon accompanied them to join his family already there. Mrs. Emma Hill, assisted by young Doc Davidson will manage the drug and soda fountain business in C. F.'s absence. From reports received from the wheat raisers it would almost seem this season that the yield decreases in proportion as the labor expended on the crop has increased. Jake Johnson, of West Chealem, we understand, plowed his land twice, summer fallowed it, cultivating it two or three times, and as a reward for his labor received a yield of five to six bushels an acre. From the unusual amount of good wood being hauled into town this season it appears that our people take with a grain of allowance the "first settler's" and Indian predictions that we will have no winter for—well for some years. Between the official weather forecast and the old timers predictions, people have learned to "view with alarm" anything savoring of a weather prophecy and prepare accordingly. Robert Rogers and wife former residents of Newberg, but who are now living on the Columbia on the Washington side were in town the first of the week on their way home from an extended trip by wagon to the Southern part of the state and return. They were out traveling on account of the health of Mrs. Rogers and had been gone for several weeks. They went as far as Ashland and then across the mountains to Crater Lake and Fort Klamath. Mrs. Johnson, wife of A. E. Johnson died on last Monday after a short illness at their home four miles up the valley. The funeral services were held at the residence on Tuesday at 10 o'clock, led by Rev. J. C. Lucas and the remains were laid to rest in the West Chealem burying grounds. Mrs. Johnson was in town on Friday and to all appearances was the picture of health. She was taken sick on Saturday evening and only survived two days. Life is indeed held by a very slender thread that is easily broken.

Moore's dandruff cure or no pay. Go to T. B. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock. H. S. McCutchen of Portland recently admitted to the bar, but now working for R. L. Sabin of Portland was in town on business Tuesday. The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Garretson who had been visiting several days with Matthew Terrell, left last Saturday for Mt. Vernon, Washington, where Mr. Garretson is going into the mercantile business. Prof. J. C. Hodson has rebuilt the big foot bridge across the canyon leading to his property known as "the park" and is making general improvements preparatory to making that place their home soon. A gentleman and lady, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton of Indiana, who are making a tour of the Pacific Coast, stopped off here Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with W. B. Sims, cousins of theirs. The frame is up for the new Friends Church out at Springbrook, being erected by the side of the school house, and Friends in that neighborhood will soon be holding services in their own building. A watch is a machine, and everybody knows that to give satisfaction a machine must be kept clean and well oiled. We do that work and put them in first class running order. WINSLOW BROS., Jewelers. Charles Hadley who was down from Dayton last Saturday said they were preparing to move to the Hood River country in a few weeks where they hope the high altitude with a dry atmosphere will be beneficial to their health. They have rented their farm and will stay a year or more. Mayor Maloney of McMinnville who is doing some surveying for Newberg was in council session with the city fathers Tuesday night relative to his work. He says that Newberg has a very peaceable set of councilmen, among which harmony is thick enough to slice. In comparison with what Mr. Maloney says he has been used to at home, where arguments sometimes become decidedly "forcible," the contrast was striking. Dr. E. E. Goucher, and C. D. Johnson returned home from Cape Nome Saturday evening. Will Johnson arrived home Monday evening, having stopped over in Portland. We would suggest that it is good policy not to josh these gentlemen too hard about seeking gold. Suffice it to say that they found gold up there, but they can make more of the precious metal right here at home in their respective callings. They had tons of experience, and claim to have received their money's worth in this commodity. Of course everybody welcomes them back to plain humdrum life in old Yamhill.—Reporter. On last Friday evening the writer was given a very decided surprise by seeing an old friend, Robert Jones of Illinois, whom he had last seen as a schoolmate in the Earlham dormitory at Richmond, Indiana, get off the evening train. Mr. Jones came out to Washington last April, where he has been working in a creamery until last week when he came on down to Portland. He remained in town visiting over Sunday and was highly pleased with our town and surrounding country; so much so that he intends to return and enter college here in September. He will be a Senior and a valuable member of the student body. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Allen of Kansas City, Missouri, arrived in town Tuesday evening for a short visit with relatives. H. F. is still in the employ of Goodlett & Bowles, and is now working for them on the Pacific Coast. Mrs. Allen will spend a few weeks at Newport, where the Allen family is now rusticated. Harry was in Kansas City at the time of the democratic convention, attended every session, and it's a treat to hear him tell about the ins and outs of the big gathering as he saw them. He says the sentiment of the country as he has been able to discern it, is that McKinley will be re-elected with an overwhelming majority. Chas. Carl, who lately came here from Coos county, has been employed by Jesse Edwards to manage his dairy. Young Mr. Carl has had considerable experience in Coos, where dairying is the great industry and has made that country prosperous. He says that last month his father, who has something over thirty cows, and an eighty acre farm, realized two hundred dollars from his dairy. We need a few practical dairymen up in this part of the country to show some of our farmers what there is to be gained in taking up the industry. With wheat yielding from five to ten bushels, now would be a good time to make the lesson a very plain and easy one. On Thursday evening of last week, the Misses Gertrude and May Lamb, Mabel Cotts, Mabel Edwards, Emma Hill, Lida Wilson, Cora Comer, Nervia Wright, and Messrs Fred and Ernest Jackson, Walter Parker and Walter Woodward, banded together and walked out to J. L. Hoskins, north of town and serenaded Prof. and Mrs. F. K. Jones, newly wedded. After several musical inflections the young people were invited in and extended to the bride and groom best wishes, after which the company was royally treated to ice cream, wedding cake, bananas and other fruits "too numerous to mention." May the remaining single members of the faculty go and do likewise and emulate Prof.'s generous example.
