

Local Events.

C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce.
New goods coming by every steamer for the Fair store.
Miss Julia Delaney of Sherwood, started into college again Tuesday morning.

Leave your orders at the office of the Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. for slab wood.
Go to T. H. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock.

A. R. Cumpston of Portland was in town shaking hands with Newberg friends the first of the week.

Charley Hoskins left town Saturday for Laurel, where he began teaching the district school Monday morning.

Air-tight Heating Stoves made and repaired. Stoves exchanged for cord wood.
A. WHEELER, Plumber.

Photographs cheap, but not cheap photographs—twenty-four stamp pictures for twenty five cents at Smith's photo gallery.

Miss Ida Wood returned to her work in Portland Tuesday morning after a several day's visit with the home folks in town.

Mrs. W. N. Sutton, little daughter, and niece Miss Harris, left Tuesday morning for a visit with friends and relatives in The Dalles.

If you have a ring that needs a new set, or if it does not fit, take it to Winslow Bros., the jewelers, and they will fix it up as nice as new.

From now on the campaign will be a fight to the finish and the Evening Telegram tells all about it for ten cents a week. Subscribe at postoffice.

The public school has been steadily filling up since the day of opening until now two hundred and seventy pupils are enrolled, and still there's more to follow.

A. Lyon Watson of Bald Hill has purchased the Acheson place in the suburbs of Springbrook with a view to speculation. Sixteen hundred dollars was the price paid we understand.

Mr. E. H. Skinner of Springbrook, favored us the first of the week with a sample of home grown English walnuts, which were just as perfect as any shipped in from foreign parts.

C. R. Stephens, son of E. M. Stephens, who lives on the hill north of town, was married Sunday, a week ago, to Miss Nora Hutchens of Happy Valley. They will probably move to Walla Walla to live.

John Stanbrough is expecting his brother Thomas Stanbrough of Iowa to arrive here the last of this week for a visit. He is out on quite an extended tour and from here will probably take in Southern California.

Ray Carter of Chehalis Center is preparing to take a course in the Portland Business College this winter. He, Otto Pickett and L. W. Charles will experience the trials of bachelorhood together in the metropolis.

C. A. Hodson is making preparations for an eastern trip in the near future, for the purpose of buying up a car load of fine dairy cattle. He will probably go in company with A. S. Fogg of Mt. Tabor, who goes in quest of Brown Swiss cattle. They are now waiting to get freight rates arranged satisfactorily.

Mr. E. K. Shaw, of the Newberg Land Company, has sold out his hotel and real estate at Brooks, Marion county, and is now ready to locate in Newberg permanently. He has not made the purchase of property here yet, but has two or three pieces in mind, one of which he will probably buy for a home.

To any who feels overcome with political ennui and "general apathy" we would suggest a refreshing talk with Ed Welch. Without regard to political affiliations Ed is undoubtedly the best poetized young politician in town, and wisely devotes his spare time to politics while other boys are devouring ten cent detective stories.

From a football standpoint, the college boys this fall are light and inexperienced, but seem to have no lack of grit and ginger. They have been organizing a team with John Weed as manager, and already have a prospect of meeting the Pacific University team of Forest Grove. A game with the public school boys first night will be without profit.

On last Friday night Mrs. L. L. Votaw very pleasantly entertained at their home on Meridian street, a number of young people in honor of her niece Miss Myrtle Votaw of Tacoma who is visiting in town. The evening was decidedly "spooky" each one present being specter-like arrayed in sheet and pillow case. The traditions of the ghost world were carefully acted out for a good share of the evening, but when refreshments were announced, the cravings of flesh and blood were made manifest, and all partook with a relish anything but spiritual.

The social event of the season out at Springbrook, was the celebration of the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newhouse, at their pleasant home, on last Saturday evening. Invited guests to the number of 40 or 50 assembled there, each evidently having stopped at the tire shop on the way, and a goodly stock of tinware testified to something of the esteem in which the host and hostess are held by the community. Pleasant conversation, easy games for an old folk's party, music and song, and a most toothsome lap supper, made up the evening's program and it was a jubilate hour when the company dispersed, all testifying to a very pleasant evening, and wishing the happy couple many returning anniversaries of their wedding day.

Empty barrels for sale by C. B. Wilson.
We are giving our customers fine prospects at the Fair store.

Try a load of slab wood for $1.50. The Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co.
Miss Nevada Grayson of Tillamook, has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for several days.

Mrs. F. A. Morris attended the state W. C. T. U. convention this week at Moro, Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Ethel Ball of Portland, visited with Miss Joyce Hoskins at Springbrook several days the first of the week.

Mrs. J. W. Vaughan is prepared to do all kinds of sewing at her home on Fifth street between River and Wynooki.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vickrey of La Fayette were down Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Vickrey's sister, Mrs. Burick.

The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock.

Farmers I want your eggs. I will give cash for them. Egg packers furnished free to those wishing them.
C. B. WILSON.

The ladies of the M. E. church intend serving their annual chicken pie dinner on election day, Nov. 6. Also supper and late lunch. Further particulars later.

Ed Hatch enjoyed a visit from his brother Charlie last Friday, who had just returned from the Nome Country of Alaska, where his father is stationed as a government officer.

Arthur Kirk, who has been running a laundry wagon in Seattle for the last year, returned home Wednesday evening. He will spend the winter on the home place north of town with his parents.

Final organization of the anti-saloon league of Newberg will take place in the Baptist church next Tuesday evening. If you don't want to be counted on the wrong side, now is a good time to show your true colors.

In the trial held last week, in which Mrs. Frank Hanson and Mrs. May Disney were the principals, the case was dismissed, Justice Wright deciding that there was no evidence to substantiate the charge.

N. E. Kegg, who was released from the state insane asylum on Sept. 22d, and who returned to his home and grocery business here, was again committed on Wednesday. His trouble is due to excessive drinking. Being refused liquor by all local dealers, he would persist in drinking the lemon extracts from the shelves of his grocery. He was taken over by Sheriff Sitton and Joseph Brower.—Reporter.

The reception given by the Christian associations of the College, on Thursday evening of last week was a very pleasant one to all concerned, and was enjoyed in a social, informal way. Each one present was supposed to represent in some way, by decoration or otherwise, the name of a book, and to our mind, Ralph Rees carried off the palm for the most unique representation. He wore a cleverly constructed miniature ladder, with a toy monkey on the top round, and a "human" looking doll on the bottom one, all of which cleverly suggested "Darwin's Descent of Man".

Mrs. Kate (Holston) Buzick, whom many people in this vicinity knew as a girl when the Holstons lived out east of town, died at her home in Salem Monday of acute heart trouble and Bright's disease, her death occurring just six months after that of her father Jas. Holston. The funeral was conducted in Salem on Tuesday and the body was brought down to Newberg on the boat Wednesday, for burial. The deceased was thirty two years of age and a member of the Presbyterian church. At one time she was a student of Friends Pacific Academy here when it was under the management of Dr. H. J. Minthorn.

The prohibitionists of Portland met Monday evening and organized a John G. Woolley club, of which Oscar Cox was elected president. They then proceeded to nominate a candidate to fill the Multnomah vacancy to the state legislature, and also nominated Mr. Cox for that honor. Oscar seems to be the whole thing in Portland prohibition circles.

Why experiment on yourself with remedies of doubtful utility when you can get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which has stood the test of time? Twenty-five year's sale and use have proven that remedy to be a prompt and certain cure for colds. It will cure a cold in a day if taken as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has settled in the system. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co. Druggists.

On Monday, Miss Lida Wilson and Mrs. Emma Hill took their dinners and rods out to the city reservoir about three miles north of town, to spend the day. In the evening they were returning home around by Justin Haworth's, and not far from that place, Miss Wilson, who was riding ahead, started to ride down a hill which she soon found was steeper than she had anticipated. In back pedaling, she lost the pedals, and all control of the wheel, and fell heavily, striking on her shoulder. When Mrs. Hill came up to her she found her bleeding and unconscious. She finally got her back to Mr. Haworth's who brought her to town. Examination showed that besides the bruises and scrapes about her head, Miss Wilson's collar bone was broken. While she is getting along nicely under the circumstances, it will probably be a month or six weeks before she can be out again. They say that bicycles don't scare, but between a run-away wheel and a run-away horse, there is not much choice.

Fresh vegetables at Wilson's grocery.
Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling.

Five room cottage for rent. Enquire at Spaulding Logging Co.'s office.
Grant Heater is building a neat two story residence on the old home place out by Springbrook.

Will Comer came down from Seattle, Washington last week to see his mother, Mrs. Silas Comer, who has been very sick for several days. Her many friends are glad to know that she is now improving.

The Spaulding Logging Company has been putting in some expensive new machinery at their sawmill this week in the way of a new improved planer, and new boiler and engine. They have now arranged for one engine to run the saw, and the other to run the planer.

I. E. Holt of Oakesdale, Washington, came down on business last week, relative to the sale of his father's place west of town. Ed is organizing in Washington a mutual insurance company similar to the Oregon, located at McMinnville, and has good prospects of a successful organization.

A. C. Churchill is now having rock delivered for the foundation of his large fruit canning plant. The lumber will be delivered as soon as the architect has the plans drawn. The building is to be 40x80 feet, and two stories high, joining his large warehouse on the railroad. This with the steam plant which he has there will give him a large well equipped plant which he expects to have ready for early spring canning.

Married—Some time within the last week we are moral sure that Mrs. M. C. Rutan and W. E. Howard were united in matrimony, though like everybody else we are unable to get particulars. The uncommunicative couple left for Portland Tuesday morning on their supposed wedding tour. We realize that if this forecast is previous we have trouble on our hands, but the signs seem sure enough to justify the risk.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by C. F. Moore & Co. Druggists.

"A couple of months ago," says an exchange, "an old man came into this office and stopped his paper." We have frequently met him on the streets since that time and it is very amusing to us to note the look of surprise on the old fellow's face that we are still in existence regardless of the fact that he "stopped his paper." Some day, and it won't be very long, either, that poor old fellow will turn up his toes. Neighbors and friends will follow his lifeless clay out to the cemetery and lay him to rest among the flowers. An obituary will appear in these columns, telling what a kind father, good neighbor, and benevolent citizen he was—which lie the recording angel will kindly overlook for charity's sake—and in a short time thereafter he will be forgotten. As he lies out there in the cold graveyard, wrapped in the silent slumber of death, he will never know that the last kind words spoken of him were those of the paper which he "stopped."

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE "NECESSARY" MAGAZINE

The best-informed men and women in the world use the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS to keep well informed, and call it the "necessary" and "indispensable" magazine. In the busy rush of to-day ambitious men and women must know about the important questions of the month, and not only this, they want to know about them at the right time. When the whole country is puzzled over the gigantic combination of trusts, a well-informed article is printed in the AMERICAN MONTHLY, giving the facts, and its editor discusses the theory; when the Dreyfus affair is in everyone's mouth, the best story of Dreyfus and the great case comes out in this magazine.

Every month, in "The Progress of the World," Dr. Albert Shaw gives a comprehensive picture of the world's history during the previous thirty days. In the departments, the valuable articles and books that have been published during the past month are reviewed and quoted from, so that the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY can get the gist of them. In every issue nearly a hundred pictures are printed, including the portraits of the men and women who are making the history of the month.

To be thoroughly well informed helps any man or woman in his or her work. A subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS represents an investment for the best kind of profit, as well as entertainment. One subscriber has just written: "Count me a life subscriber, and when you send me a number beyond the limit of my subscription and secure no renewal from me, consider it a notice of my death."

Price 25 cents per number, $2.50 a year.
A sample copy will be sent on receipt of ten cents in stamps.
