

Local Events.

C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce.

Louis Finnegan and family, of Laurel, were in town Wednesday.

Try a load of slab wood for $1.50. The Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co.

Fletcher Cox has entered the State Agricultural College at Corvallis as a student.

Go to T. H. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock.

For sale at a bargain, 130 acres on Chehalis ridge; good soil, and spring water. Enquire of Howard Walton.

Photographs cheap, but not cheap photographs—twenty-four stamp pictures for twenty five cents at Smith's photo gallery.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott and son J. J. returned home Wednesday evening from their month's visit with A. T. Hills at LaGrande.

The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock.

Mrs. Emma Bell of Portland came up last Thursday evening and visited over Sunday and into the middle of the week with friends in town.

If you have a ring that needs a new set, or if it does not fit, take it to Winlow Bros., the jewelers, and they will fix it up as nice as new.

From now on the campaign will be a fight to the finish and the Evening Telegram tells all about it for ten cents a week. Subscribe at postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoskins and son Cecil came down from McMinnville last Saturday and attended the public sale of C. E. Hoskins at Springbrook.

We failed to herald in last issue, the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vestal, on October 12. The young man is reported as a warm supporter of William McKinley.

J. O. Parks went down to Grants Pass last week where he has been looking around with a view to location. His family here will probably follow him soon if prospects there are favorable.

The Village Improvement Club, which met at the home of Mrs. D. H. Turner Saturday afternoon, disbanded as an organization, and turned over the surplus in funds to the College piano fund.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve a chicken pie dinner on Tuesday November 6, in the Lucas building on First street. Will also serve supper and late lunch. Dinner 25c, supper 20c and lunch 10c. Liberal patronage solicited.

This seems to be a pretty good week for robins about town. The occasion of their gathering is not known but they seem to be having a good time. The writer counted sixty on one side of a lawn Tuesday afternoon and this was a rainy day for birds to be out too.

Pres. H. E. McGrew and Prof. R. W. Kelsey went to Salem by boat last Saturday. The former preached in the Friends Church Sunday morning, and in the afternoon preached to a very attentive audience of Indian children at Chemawa. Prof. Kelsey delivered a temperance address in the Friends Church Sunday evening.

N. M. Snodgrass came down from North Yakima, Washington, last week in quest of more dairy cows. We wish Nate all kinds of success in his business, but the fact is Yamhill is badly in need of an immigration rather than an emigration of good dairy stock, and farmers should be very chary of parting with what they already have.

J. S. Larkin has leased his farm near town to E. C. Armstrong for a term of five years and will move into town, he having rented the property west of the depot recently vacated by George Metcalf. It seems almost a pity to have practical men like Mr. Larkin leave the farm, but he has served his time as a tiller of the soil and since his place is to be taken by Mr. Armstrong, who knows so well how to take care of an orchard, we will gladly make a place for him in Newberg, knowing that he will make a good citizen.

Isaac Follett was in town Tuesday wearing a pair of wooden shoes. Being interrogated on the subject of his foot wear, he said that he had lived in a neighborhood of Hollanders in Iowa, and got accustomed to wearing their wood clogs, which he found to be pleasant to wear. On coming here a year ago he decided that they would be just the thing for our wet winter climate, and since trying them he finds that they keep his feet both warm and dry, and while they have rather a clumsy appearance they are not so heavy as an ordinary farm shoe. This particular type of shoe will probably not be worn this season for swell parties, but if a farmer finds that they are suitable for wear in his business let him rip, for his shoes won't.

Henry Mills and wife of Georgetown, Illinois, arrived at Springbrook, at the home of their son Zimri, last Saturday evening, coming on to Newberg Sunday evening. After having made two or three extended visits in Oregon, they have concluded that it is a pretty good place in which to spend their declining years with their children, and have now come to stay. They have purchased the A. J. Palmer property in the south west part of town, as a home and will occupy it directly. The Vermilion, Illinois, Academy publication says in regard to their departure:—Vermilion Quarterly Meeting and especially Vermilion Academy loses two staunch friends. In fact, they are friends to every good cause and few persons enjoy so richly the blessings which come from giving. Our loss is Newberg's gain.

Empty barrels for sale by C. B. Wilson.

New goods coming by every steamer for the Fair store.

Sam Cummings of McMinnville was in town Wednesday.

We are giving our customers fine presents at the Fair store.

Don't forget that Congressman Tongue speaks next Friday night in Craters hall.

Rev. J. F. Day took a business trip to Astoria the first of the week, returning Wednesday.

Leave your orders at the office of the Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. for slab wood.

Shoes, Shoes and Slippers for the next 10 days at 50c. a pair. Come early and get the first pick. W. H. MORRIS.

Air-tight Heating Stoves made and repaired. Stoves exchanged for cord wood. A. WHEELER, Plumber.

D. A. Jones opened up his "Blue Store" in the west part of town, Thursday morning with a stock of groceries and stationery.

A. P. Oliver is fitting up bachelors hall over the harness shop opposite the postoffice, where he will go into winter quarters.

Any patriotic citizen wishing a lithograph of our next president and vice-president, will be given the same by calling at the Graphic office.

Oscar Cox of Portland was in town over Sunday. He was over at the College Monday morning and gave a chapel talk on the army canteen question.

Farmers I want your eggs. I will give cash for them. Egg packers furnished free to those wishing them. C. B. WILSON.

The gravel which was put on the streets during the dry weather is settling down in good shape for winter travel. The city fathers are to be commended for their action on the grand proposition.

Wanted—An apprentice for dress making. Must know something of plain sewing. Call at the residence of Miss Aldrich in the west end of the city. Two blocks west and one south of the Cottage Hotel.

The O. R. & N. Co.'s Steamer Modoc has been placed on the Portland and Salem route again since the recent rise in the river, leaving Portland on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and returning each alternate day.

J. W. Wheeler of Creswell, Lane county, was in town on business the first of the week. He says that farmers in his neighborhood are putting off sowing their fall grain as long as possible, as latest sown grain yielded best in that locality last harvest, seeming to suffer less from the depredations of the Hessian fly.

The members of the executive committee of the anti-saloon league, already elected, met in the Friends church Tuesday evening and completed organization as far as possible. The membership of the committee is now complete with the exception of the two members from the Friends church which will be elected at the next monthly business meeting. The committee now stands as follows: The officers of the league, Prof. Kelsey, Mrs. G. W. Cutts, Frank Heveland, M. Votaw; pastors of affiliating churches, J. F. Day, L. D. Barr, H. Gould; from the M. E. Church, J. W. Forsythe, M. H. Pinney; from the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Nathan White, Mrs. Acha Morris, Mrs. Tallman; principal of the public school R. W. Kirk; president of Pacific College, H. E. McGrew; five members elected at large, Hon. Clarence Butt, N. C. Christenson, Jane B. Votaw, J. G. Hadley, W. C. Woodward.

While east during the summer Prof. Edwin Morrison visited his old home town, Bloomington, Parke county, Indiana, and his friends told him while there that there was but five miles of wagon road in the township that was not well traveled, and that stretch of road would be graveled at an early day. Here is a good example of what can be done in road making when proper effort is put forth. Within the memory of the writer the roads around Bloomington, with the single exception of a very few miles on one road, were worse during the winter season than the average country road about Newberg at its worst. Our people are now beginning to learn that gravel is the real thing when it comes to making roads, and with the beginning we have made, there is much room for encouragement. Let the good work go on until the evolution of our wagon roads is complete.

The republican meeting held in Craters hall last Friday night, was quite well attended, and showed conclusively that we have some good local campaign speakers who can forcibly give a reason for the hope that is within them. As might be expected from an old soldier, Wm. Manning placed the emphasis of his speech on the importance of maintaining the honor of the flag. Clarence Butt dwelt on republican prosperity, paralleled industrial conditions in 1896 and 1900 and showed the democratic party's inconsistency on the trust issue. Ore Price publicly, for the first time, avowed himself a republican, in harmony with republican policies, emphasizing the fact that he allied himself with a party of progress rather than decay. He threw some historical light on the "consent of the governed" doctrine, in a short forcible speech. Prof. J. C. Hodson dealt very carefully with the Philippine question, tracing carefully Aguinaldo's government existing in a Hong Kong soup kitchen and read Emilio's title clear, but not to the title of George Washington II. After the meeting several new members were taken into the club, including one or two prominent Bryanites of four years ago.

Fresh vegetables at Wilson's grocery.

Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling.

Five room cottage for rent. Enquire at Spaulding Logging Co.'s office.

S. W. Evans, the Sheridan dentist, will be in Newberg Tuesday, October 20, prepared to do dental work.

E. S. Craven received a dispatch from Iowa, Monday telling of the serious illness of his aged mother. He contemplates making a trip back to see her.

Increasing work on the farm has led Jo Atkinson to employ a new hand who will probably be foreman soon if he behaves well. The little chap and mother are both doing nicely, while J. M. already looks paternal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Frost arrived from Iowa last week and are visiting with their son C. P. Frost and family. If they are pleased with the country they will probably remain.

W. K. Allen, who has been overseeing his evaporating business in Washington for several months, came down to Portland on a business trip the first of the week, and came up to Newberg Monday evening and stayed over night with his family, returning the following morning.

We, the members of the losing side, in the recent contest for membership in Newberg Lodge, No. 132 A. O. U. W. wish to extend our sincere thanks to the mothers, wives and daughters, for the excellent supper with which they favored us.

Chas. Rittenhouse, Capt., G. M. Bales, Henry Schneider, Lam Linton, H. M. Williams, Thos Smith, W. Kramine.

Of those who have removed from Newberg recently, no one will be missed in times of sickness and death more than Mrs. Sadie Hoskins. For nearly twenty years she has been a member of the funeral committee of Friends church, and in her quiet, unassuming way she has gone where the angel of death has visited the home, doing little acts of kindness in those trying times, which are so much appreciated by the sorrowing ones. With her it has been done as a labor of love and in her absence from Newberg, which it is to be hoped will be only temporary, she will be kindly remembered by what she has done.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, one mile north of town, on Sunday, October 21, Miss Lizzie M. Craven to Alden M. Chamberlain, Rev. E. S. Craven officiating. The ceremony took place in the presence of immediate friends and relatives of the couple, after which a wedding feast was served, which, judging from the quality of the liberal supply of cake the Graphic office received, was all that such a feast could be. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a prosperous and happy journey along the old matrimonial highway. They will occupy as a residence the Wm. McCollum property north of town.

With the removal of J. L. Hoskins to McMinnville since his election as county recorder, and the departure of A. M. and C. E. Hoskins for the southern part of the state this week with the view of remaining away a year or more, we lose three families which were among the first of the many newcomers to Chehalis Valley a little more than twenty years ago. Each of them has had a good deal to do in the make up of the changed condition of affairs that has come to the community in the intervening time and it seems rather remarkable that the Hoskins name is to be almost dropped from the list in the community for the present.

For Sale. A good span of heavy mares. A. P. JOHNSON, Chehalis Valley.

Hats! Hats! Hats! Go to Mrs. G. A. Ramsey's, west of the Cottage Hotel, for your winter hats. Prices low, and hats to suit every body.

Apples Wanted Will pay 20c per 100 lbs for apples suitable for drying, delivered at my dryer one mile west of Newberg. Gloria Munday not wanted. E. W. HALL.

Cashmere Remnants. Just received a new shipment, fine quality, a good assortment of colors and sold cheap. C. E. NEWCOMB, Springbrook, Ore.

Notice. Parties who are owing for graveling streets in front of their property can settle for the same by calling on Joseph Wilson, Recorder. Office hours, 8 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 6 p. m.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by C. F. Moore & Co. Druggists.

To the Deaf. A rich lady cured of her Deafness and Noises in the Head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address No. 10613. The Nicholson Institute, 780, Eighth Avenue New York, U. S. A.

What's Your Face Worth? Sometimes a fortune, but never, if you have a sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin—all signs of Liver Trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills give Clear Skin, Rosy Cheeks, Rich Complexion. Only 25 cents at C. F. Moore & Co.'s drugstore.
