ORDERED DEPORTED

American Editor at Manila Must Leave the Islands.

A SERIOUS MENACE TO THE SITUATION

George T. Rice Made Serious Charges Against Captain of the Port, Which Were Investigated and Disproved

Manila, Jan. 26.—General MacArthur has ordered the deportation to the United States of George T. Rice, editor of the Daily Bulletin, a marine journal. Rice will sail on the Pennsylvania Monday. The order characterizes him as a "dangerous incendiary and a menace to the military situation." Rice's offense was publishing a statement that Lieutenant Kraussreuther, captain of the port, had charged excessive pilotage fees, a percentage of which he had kept for himself.

The report of Major Hills, inspector-general, who investigated the allegations, completely exonerated the captain of the port, and contradicted the editor and the merchants who had given him information, who had been misled by figuring the rates upon the net instead of the gross tonnage, the latter being specified under the Spanish law. Rice was summoned to the office of the governor-general's military secretary, and was called upon to promise that he would publish no more such articles. He declined to give such a pledge, but insisted that the article was truthful, and took up a defiant attitude when threatened with deportation. The deportation order was then issued, and Rice is now awaiting the departure of the Pennsylvania.

When seen in jail today he reiterated his statement that the charges were true, and declared that in any event the severity of the sentence was unmerited. Rice came originally from Red Wing, Minn., was formerly a member of the Minnesota volunteers.

The hearing of the municipal government bill today developed an attempt on the part of prominent Filipinos to secure a delay of two years before taxing land where the owners are unable to cultivate on account of the dangerous situation in the fighting territory. CREEKS AND CHOCTAWS.

The Indian Uprising Is Becoming Serious—The Town of Bristow Is Threatened.

Muskogee, I. T., Jan. 26.—The Creek uprising is growing to dangerous proportions. Marshal Bennett has just received a telegram from Bristow, I. T., announcing that 600 armed Creeks, stationed two miles from there, are preparing to attack the town, and pleading for protection from the marshal. Marshal Bennett and Agent Schoenfeld are swearing in large numbers of deputies, whom they are forwarding to the scene of the trouble. It is now feared that they will reach the town too late, and the mayor of Bristow has been instructed to swear in all the men necessary to protect the town.

Soldiers are being hurried from Fort Reno to the seat of trouble, but they will not reach Bristow before tomorrow night, as they will arrive at Henrietta first and go overland. Indian Agent Schoenfeld will ask for more help, as it is found that one company of cavalry cannot handle the situation, for the Indians are dividing up into bands of 100. Marshal Bennett, with six deputies, are about to leave for Eufaula, where Crazy Snake was seen today, and will attempt his capture. The Snake band is within three miles of Bristow, and is reported to have whipped two white men.

The Dawes commission is fearful for the city where the party is, headed by Representative Hackbusch, of Leavenworth, Kan. Nothing has been heard from the party for two days.

Condemned Fellow-Servant Law.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—In passing on the case of Dennis Maher against the Union Pacific railroad for loss of his leg in a collision near Trinidad, Colo., Judge Caldwell today vigorously condemned the fellow-servant law. Maher was on a passenger train that collided with a freight, the crew of which had misread their orders. Had the orders from the train dispatcher been faulty, the fellow-servant law could not have been pleaded.

BIG FIRE IN MONTREAL

Nearly Three Million Dollars' Worth of Property Lost.

Montreal, Jan. 25.—One of the most destructive fires from which this city has ever suffered began at 8 o'clock last night, and, notwithstanding the efforts of the entire fire department, the progress of the flames was not checked until 1 o'clock this morning. By that time it had destroyed property estimated at between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000, and was still burning, though the appearance was that the firemen had at last got it under control. Included in the property burned is the splendid board of trade's building, which cost $600,000, and housed over 100 tenants, half a dozen large business houses and two score of smaller buildings. The weather was cold and the firemen were greatly hampered in this respect. Outside of the board of trade building there was not a modern structure among those burned. Crowds of people jammed the narrow streets, and the police could not control them. Women fainted and their clothes were torn and a few slightly injured in rushes for safety.

The fire started in the premises of M. Saxe & Co., wholesale clothiers, at Lemerle and St. Peter streets. The streets in the locality were deserted at the time and the fire apparently had good headway before the first alarm was sent in. The firemen found the building a three-story stone structure, a mass of flames.

FATAL HOTEL FIRE.

Three Men Were Burned to Death and Several Injured at Kewanee, Ill.

John C. Gruber, of Fort Wayne, Ind., a contractor, and Martin Jacobs, of Chicago, an expert mechanic, jumped from the third story windows and were badly hurt.

An explosion in the kitchen sent the flames into every corner of the house and cut off escape by means of the stairs. The frantic guests rushed to the windows, where some hurled themselves to the ground. Others had to be carried out by the firemen. The loss is $4,000.

ROCK ON THE TRACK.

Train Robbers Tried to Hold Up the Overland Express Near Kearney.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 25.—Information was received here today that a desperate attempt was made last night by a gang of train robbers to hold up the overland express near Kearney, Neb. The bandits placed a large pile of rocks on the track in order to wreck the train, which is reported to have had a large amount of money. The robbers secreted themselves behind a hill near the railroad. A pedestrian traveling along the track came upon the obstruction, was knocked upon, severely beaten and robbed of all his money, amounting to $150. He got away from them and ran to Kearney, where he gave the alarm, and a posse was at once organized and orders given to hold the train. The posse came upon the bandits and captured one, the others escaping. The officers are still in pursuit.

Zimmer's naturalization was immediately postponed until the naturalization bureau is officially informed of the queen's death and the successor to the throne of England formally announced. SOUTH SEA TORNADO

Great Devastation in New Hebrides and New Britain.

NUMBER OF NATIVES WERE DROWNED

French Traders Reported Trying to Stir Up Anti-British Feeling in Former Islands.—Innumerable Craft Wrecked.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 28.—Great devastation was wrought and a number of natives were drowned by the hurricane in the New Hebrides and New Britain, December 7, 8 and 9, according to news brought by the Anangi. At Herbertsbohe, while the settlement was asleep, a tremendous sea carried lighters, boats, ketches and wreckage of all descriptions ashore. Innumerable craft were wrecked. The steamer Stettin, the steam yacht Elberhard and the government steamer Stephen were saved by running to Matupi for shelter. A native native steamer was totally wrecked and the government wharf washed away. December 8 the stone breakwater surrounding the New Guinea wharves gave way and vessels inside were all wrecked, with losses amounting to 100,000 marks. A number of natives were drowned and many injured.

The Anangi brings news of a fire at Greta mines, N. S. W., in which five lives were lost. Rescue parties worked all night, but were driven back after every effort. Finally the mine was ordered sealed down in an effort to fight the fire, and the men were abandoned to their fate.

On arrival at Sydney from Victoria the bark Defiance reported passing a derelict vessel of from 200 to 300 tons, 100 feet long, keel outward, evidently wrecked a month ago, in 34 south, 168 east.

The Sydney Mail publishes a statement of its New Hebrides correspondent stating that French traders and sailors have been to those islands endeavoring to stir up anti-British feeling among the natives of the New Hebrides. The allegations is made that the French traders have represented to the natives that England's power is waning, and have promised them various privileges for allegiance to French interests. It is said that the natives are being encouraged in various acts of lawlessness against British traders, and a native native of an English skipper named Captain Nesmith was shielded from punishment by the captain of a French ship. Serious trouble is predicted in the New Hebrides.

While the steamer Titus was at the Gilber group, at Butaritari island, November 16, some excitement was caused by a terrific report. The natives had heard it and were terribly frightened, but they could offer no explanation. The opinion was expressed that it was due to a severe volcanic disturbance on some neighboring island.

Extraordinary results have been obtained in New South Wales by the government engineers who have been boring for oil wells, and a number of tanks have been completed.

Spanish Drydock Not Wanted.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The naval board, headed by Judge Advocate General Lemley, appointed to decide on the advisability of purchasing the large floating drydock in Havana harbor from the government of Spain, reports that to place the dock in thorough shape and to prepare it for a voyage would involve an expenditure of over $500,000, and that a dock could be built new at a figure not greater. Admiral Endicott, chief of the bureau of docks and yards, has recommended that, as there is no present necessity for the acquisition by this government of such a dock, the tender of the Spanish government for its removal to the United States shall not be accepted. Secretary Long has approved this recommendation.

GUISSEPPE VERDI DEAD.

Composer of Some of the World's Finest Operas Passes to the Great Beyond.

Rome, Jan. 28.—A special dispatch to the Patria says that Verdi, the composer, is dead. He was born in 1813 near Parma, at the foot of the Apennines. At 11 he was the organist of Roncole, his native village. He first married the daughter of the conductor of the theater of La Scala. For 50 years he has made the villa of St. Agatha, near Busseto, his favorite residence. After the death of his first wife he married Mrs. Strepponi, who played in the first performance of his "Nabucco," at Milan, over 55 years ago. Verdi's father was the keeper of an inn, a fact which would seem to prove the theory of some men of science that all human beings are born equal in possibility. What Verdi has done for mankind cannot be measured. "Ernani," "Rigoletto," "Il Trovatore," "La Traviata," "Aida"—these names tell the story of what joy and peace and pleasure the genius of the Italian of humble origin has brought to his kind. His compositions have been very numerous. As early as 1847 he wrote the "Mazzanieri." It was composed for Jenny Lind, and was sung at Her Majesty's theater in London with the great soprano in the principal part. "Ernani" is his most popular opera. "Aida" is his greatest work, but opinions vary on this point, as they vary about the greatest of Shakespeare's plays. Signor Verdi did other things than write music. He was a member of the Italian parliament, and served his country in the capacity of minister of public instruction. France gave him the legion of honor, Russia gave him the order of St. Stanislaus, Italy the order of the crown, and Egypt the order of Osmanieh. Australia presented him with a cross of commandment of the order of Franz Joseph. Of late years Verdi wrote works that are almost as well known as his earlier efforts. They are "Otello" and "Falstaff." The latter was written when the author was 79 years of age.

HANGING OF STICKEL.

Washington Man Who Murdered Three People—Confessed His Crimes.

Kalamazoo, Wash., Jan. 28.—Martin Stickel was hanged in the jail yard at 9:37 o'clock Friday morning, for the murder of W. B. Shanklin, near Kelso in November, 1899. Stickel was taken from the cell at 9:45 by Sheriff Huntington and four attendants. He walked to the scaffold unassisted, and ascended the steps with steady tread, showing that he was determined to die like a man. He stepped to the center of the trap door, stood erect and said: "Gentlemen, I bid you good-by. God help you; God forgive me. This is the last time I will see you on this shore. Jesus help you all; Jesus take me; take me now."

By the time the last words were spoken, the sheriff and his attendants had strapped Stickel's legs together, his hands to his sides, placed the black cap over his face, and the noose around his neck.

At 9:57 Sheriff Huntington grasped the lever and suddenly sprung the trap. The condemned man fell seven feet, and his neck was almost instantly broken. At 10 o'clock doctors pronounced life extinct. The body was cut down and placed in a coffin, to be turned over to the murderer's mother and brother. It will be taken to Catlin for burial.

The hanging was private. Everything worked like clockwork. There was no trouble in any respect. The spectators were very quiet. There was no talking or demonstration.

Stickel was born in Adams county, Iowa, February 9, 1870. He had resided in this section about 12 years. The condemned man slept well last night and ate a hearty breakfast.

Death of a Hero of San Juan.

New York, Jan. 28.—After suffering for more than two years with Cuban fever, Alfred Rostetzky, who is said to have been the first American soldier to ford San Juan creek, where the fiercest of the Spanish fire was directed, in the battle of San Juan hill, has just died in a Newark hospital. He contracted the fever in Santiago, and was a mere skeleton when he got home. At San Juan Rostetzky fought in Troop C, Sixth cavalry. His clothes were cut by bullets, and while he was ascending the hill with a number of other soldiers, a shell exploded close by them. A lump of earth struck the young soldier in the side, knocking him senseless. After the battle he was personally complimented for his courage by General Wheeler.
