J. D. Pittman, of Dundee, left for Sunnyside, Washington, the first of the week where he has bought some land of the Sunnyside irrigation company.

The entertainment given in Craters hall Friday evening by the Menckley prohibition singers was highly attended, and is spoken of in very high terms both from the standpoint of the music rendered and the work in impersonation by Mr. Knox.

The Newberg Land Company made a sale of the Fred Croft farm last week to J. C. Beckner, son-in-law of L. M. Metcalf, who came here from Iowa with his family some time ago. Mr. Beckner comes well recommended and the Graphic is glad to note that he is to be a fixture in the community.

If anybody in this vicinity knows of an impersonator on the Pacific Slope who has not "impersonated" before a Newberg audience this past winter, send for him at once. Assure him that the apparent slight was wholly unintentional, and that Newberg intends that he shall have fair play.

Ore Price having been offered a good position with the prominent law firm, Calk & Calk of Portland, left Wednesday morning to take up his new duties. It is expected that Drew will return from his work in the city in the course of two or three weeks and continue the work in his law office here.

Walter Kirk, agent for the Omega Cream Separator, is making a hustling canvass in behalf of his machine, and is having very encouraging success in getting it introduced among the dairymen. He says he thinks he will be able to increase the business of the Newberg creamery at least one third, by getting his separators distributed in this and surrounding localities. This is a practical way of acting the part of a public benefactor.

R. B. Linnville, who is taking the county assessment in the Newberg precincts, thinks he has found the man old Diogenes was looking for. He assessed a certain citizen the other evening, and after leaving, the property owner brought himself a little itea or so which he had overlooked, and trusted about a mile after night to Mr. Linnville's to set the matter right, but not finding the deputy assessor at home returned the first thing next morning to correct the mistake. We're too modest to cite this instance as a fair sample of Newberg's integrity—when sparring with the ubiquitous assessor.

C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce.

Drop into the new office and examine the company's list of property.

Ore Price, the handsome young lawyer of Newberg, tried his first case in circuit court for Yamhill county on Monday, and won it. He was formerly a drug clerk in Ab Hill's store in this city and is a shining example of a young man who has made his way by dint of hard study and untiring industry. We understand he has a brother who is very much like him.—Reporter.

Yes, and both are graduates of Pacific College.

Ervin Scott, who has been living at Pasadena, California, for the past two years arrived here on Wednesday evening and will take charge of his fruit ranch north of town again. His family are with Mrs. Scott's parents at Long Beach but they will join him here in about a month. Mr. Scott says he got good wages in California but when the cost of living is taken into consideration a dollar here is almost as good as two dollars there.

Married—On Wednesday, April 3, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Palen Clark, on east Chehalis mountain, Miss Edith M. Clark to Mr. Chas. Bailou, of Everett, Washington. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Launer of the Evangelical church in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The parlor was beautifully decorated with flowers, fragrant cedars and other greens. The bridal couple stood in a bower of green under a wedding bell of cedar and jonquils. After the ceremony, twenty guests sat down to a sumptuously spread table beautifully decorated with fruit, vines and flowers. Among those present were Mrs. Gladys Soper and Miss Cora Schmeltzer of Portland, and Mr. Percy Clark, brother of the bride, from Goble, Mr. and Mrs. Minchin and family, and Mr. Sweetnam and sisters from Dundee. The happy couple left the next morning for Everett, Washington, where they will make their future home.

The Graphic had expected to give something definite in regard to best sugar developments this week, but these late, cold rains have a tendency to check all budding processes and we must wait for more sunshine before the blossoming and pollenizing stage can be reached. It won't do to crowd these things anyway.

The county Sunday school convention held at Sheridan last week is reported to have been an unusually enthusiastic one. Mrs. Jesse Edwards who attended from here was re-elected president for the fourth term. As further proof of the appreciation of her services in this work, a resolution reading as follows was adopted: Resolved, That we the members of this convention hereby express our appreciation for the kind words, cheerful manner and untiring energy of our president, Sister M. The city poll tax was placed at $2 or two days work.

Public School Notes.
The measles and the usual sore throat have reduced the members quite noticeably.

The directors have placed a water faucet in the play-grounds in front of the school building. This is a great advantage where there are so many playing children.

Miss Helen Chamberlain of Portland, Mrs. Lizzie Chamberlain and Mrs. Laura Morris visited in our school last Friday. The Misses Ethel Smith and Dora Parish visited the principal's room Wednesday.

April Fool's Day was of course celebrated with great enthusiasm. The following is from extracts of compositions on the subject by upper grade pupils.

"The professor's presence was 'desired' in one of the lower rooms, and you can imagine his surprise on returning to find his room vacated and 'April fool' on the black-board. We stayed in the play room 'till he told us to come back to our room. But he got the joke back on us by having a fire drill and sending word to the other rooms to remain in their seats. The pupils in Mrs. Martin's room did not write their spelling lessons although they went through the motions. The reason for the bell not ringing at noon was that the clapper was missing."

We are pleased to hear that the prospect is still good for the location of the best sugar factory at Newberg. It would be a great benefit to the county in general and Newberg in particular.

We are all glad that Minchin and his friends stood up for their rights in the oratorical contest, for the jealousy of McMinnville knows no bounds.

Whenever they get beaten (which they generally do) in baseball, football or anything else, they always 'holer foul, fraud or steal! They want the earth with a wire fence around it.

WINK & BLINK...
Will you wink and blink your life and nervous energy away, rather than wear glasses? Will you lose your eyes to overwork, neglect them when they cry for help, abuse them year after year, until at middle life you are compelled to seek aid, perhaps to find your vision impaired beyond entire repair?

A LITTLE GLASS AID at the present time will save you a world of trouble and preserve your vision for old age, when you begin to rely more and more on your eyes and not on your eyesight for companionship. Consultation and Eyes Tested Free.

It Has Never Failed
Mr. C. S. Peaslee, the well-known druggist of Morgan City, La., is highly thought of in his neighborhood because of his skill and care in filling prescriptions. The best physicians in the place send their patients to his store whenever they can. Anything which Mr. Peaslee may say can be depended upon absolutely. In a letter to W. H. Hooker & Co., New York City, proprietors of Acker's English Remedy, he says: "In all my many years' experience as a druggist, I have never handled a medicine of any nature that gave such complete satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I have sold hundreds of bottles, and have yet to learn of a single case where it failed to cure. In a group it acts with a certainty that is really marvelous. My wife does not take much stock in medicine, but she has absolute faith in Acker's English Remedy, always having it at her elbow in case the children are attacked by croup at night. It is a positively harmless remedy, as I can personally testify. I know of a little girl who accidentally drank a whole bottle. She was, of course, sick at her stomach for a short time, but the sickness passed away, and then the child was in better health than ever before. I can understand why Acker's English Remedy is so efficacious because I am a druggist. It is not a mere expectorant, but a strengthening, invigorating tonic as well. While it heals the irritations of the mucous membrane, it also builds up the constitution and purifies the blood. I endorse it absolutely."
Sold at 50c, 10c, and 5c a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s, 2d, 3d, 4d, 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.
To purchase the above guarantee, W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
