

NEWBERG GRAPHIC SUPPLEMENT.

VOL. XIII.

NEWBERG, OREGON, MAY 10, 1901.

NO. 25.

From The College.

Prof. Garrison of Forest Grove has arranged a class in writing for any of the students who may desire such a course. The course consists of twelve lessons, which will be given at his regular two dollar rate. Prof. Garrison comes to us well recommended and it is hoped by the faculty that every student will avail himself of this special opportunity which is within reach of all.

The time has come for the long talked of debate with Monmouth and the question of England's right in South Africa will soon be forever settled.

Clarence Coc and Clement Niswonger have dropped out of school. Canyon Hall is looking for a small market boy to take Clem's place.

Both the Senior and Senior academy students have started to drill on their oratorical work for commencement. In this they are certainly having an advantage over any of the former graduating classes, and with this special training we will expect something quite unusual from them.

Public School Notes.

Our closing exercises will begin today at half past one.

As our school has been affected much by sickness, and many did not get in at the early opening of school last fall, there are but two pupils who have been present every day and not been tardy. These were Edna Forsythe and Anna Bashaw.

Mrs. E. B. Miles, Mrs. Rittenhouse and Mrs. C. F. Morris were callers this week.

Several who have been out of school with measles have returned to take the examination. Some are not yet able to return.

Prof. Kirk favored the pupils of Mrs. Martin's room with a fine description of a trip to Multnomah Falls.

Friday 2 p. m., meeting of Ministry and Oversight.
Saturday 10:30 a. m., Meeting for Worship.

Saturday 1:30 p. m., Business meeting.

Sunday morning and evening we are to have with us a colored minister of the Friends church. The public is cordially invited to come out and hear the Reverend gentleman, Daniel Drew.

Evangelistic Superintendent.

See The President.

President McKinley will stop at Portland, May 22.

The Southern Pacific will make rate of one fare for the round trip to Portland from Dallas, Sheridan, McMinnville, and stations north thereof. Tickets will be for trains arriving at Portland on the morning of May 22, and leaving the same evening or the following morning.

Reception exercises have been so planned as to give as many as possible an opportunity to see and hear the President.

The committee on arrangements will spare no effort to make the occasion a memorable one.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The L. T. L. of Newberg will have a doll show Saturday, May 18. A prize will be awarded to the oldest, prettiest, ugliest, funniest, smallest, largest doll on exhibition. There will be a prize given on drawing, also a prize to the best guesser.

The W. C. T. U. will have a gold medal contest some time in June. We will be pleased to have anyone holding a silver medal to contest. Please give name to the committee.

In spite of the mud and rain the regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at home of Mrs. Dailey was well attended.

The L. T. L. met at the M. E. church last Wednesday afternoon, and elected their officers. Amy Heater was elected president, Guy Heater, recording sec., Cozy Hadley, treasurer, Mabel Gardner, organist and Blanch Cooper chorister.

LA FAYETTE ITEMS.

Milo Blough and Myrtle Shirer were married last Sunday. No cards.

Some of our people are going to Portland to see President McKinley when he comes there on the 22.

Mr. Woodworth has moved to the old Dunn place in order to give Rev. Hurd the use of the parsonage.

The S. P. Co. has changed agents again here, Mr. Lemaster going to Creswell and a young fellow by the name of Burt coming here.

Only one more week of Public school. Prof. Blough expects to teach another summer school over on the Coast where he taught last summer.

Mr. Lindsey of McMinnville organized a lodge of Maccabees here on Monday night. We think he will have a poor field to draw membership from as the town is lodge poor already.

The Masons are making arrangements for a grand blow out on Thursday night,

May 9, the 50th anniversary of the order here. They will give a big banquet in the evening.

Harry Depuy is home from school at Corvallis. He was taken with spring fever.

One Editor There.

It is being told for the purpose of laughter, perhaps, that the question of the relative merits of lawyers and editors as to their veracity arose recently at a social affair where both professions were about equally represented. Each of course claimed the honors, but the final settlement of the question was left to a representative of each side. These representatives were to prepare essays and submit them to a committee. The best essay would decide the question. And this was the prize essay: "There is one editor in heaven, though how he got there the Lord only knows, but it is supposed he rode in on the blind baggage or got a pass. When they found him there they tried to turn him out, but he refused to go. Then they hunted all over heaven for a lawyer to serve him with ejectment papers, but they could not find one. So the editor held the fort and he is there to this day."—Ex.
