Mrs. J. T. Osborn of Laspai, Idaho, is visiting in Newberg this week.

Attorney Clarence Butt was in the county seat on business the first of the week.

Go to T. B. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock.

Jesse Hobson has sold his residence property on the corner of Second and River streets to J. J. Fisher of Sumpter.

Otto Pickett is home again after a year's work in the state law school at Portland, and is now at hard labor on the farm.

Edmund Robinson and family left for Hood River last Friday where they are now engaged in picking the luscious Oregon strawberry.

Persons having mohair and wool for sale will find a market for these products by taking them to N. C. Christenson at the grain elevator.

I have another stock of shoes on hand, also a few good bargains in clothing suits. For low prices call at the corner store. W. H. Morris.

Miss Jessie Britt is expected home in about three weeks from Boston, Massachusetts, where she has spent two years in a physical training school.

Prof. R. W. Kelsey will be in Portland over Sunday where he will preach in the Friends' church and also speak for the financial interests of Pacific College.

Prof. J. C. Hodson returned home from Salem last week, the committee which has been investigating the books of the state land office, having completed its work and report.

S. M. Calkins and Ed Robinson represented the local order of Odd Fellows, and Miss Margaret Inglis the order of Rebekahs at the state convention held at Baker City this week.

Some of the enthusiastic boys at the college have organized a Prohibition club, and to give them some work near at home, and incidentally a little "jolly," the other fellows are talking of organizing a "Beveridge" club.

H. J. Winters advertises a public sale of his stock of jewelry for to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. Herman intends locating again in the jewelry business soon at some town in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. A. S. Parker with two children, of Payallup, Washington, visited in Newberg this week with her brother-in-law L. M. Parker and family. They are on the way now to join Mr. Parker at Honolulu.

Dave Lamb, who has had charge of a fruit ranch near Silverton for some time, came down on the boat last Saturday and visited a few days with his sister Mrs. C. B. Cox who is here visiting from Carthage, Indiana.

Alfred Moore came up from Oregon City Wednesday for a visit with his children at Newberg. He has weathered a severe attack of the grip this spring, and is looking much worse than when he left here last fall, but is now improving slowly.

The ladies of Dayton and vicinity have threatened to get in and establish a creamery if their lords don't make a move in that direction soon. The ladies made a bad play this time, for if Dayton ever gets a creamery now, they will have to put it in.

Granville Everett, one of Newberg's diversified farmers, sold some of his fine Plymouth Rock chickens in Portland last week for six dollars and a half a dozen, which was one dollar and a half above the market price. The old adage to the effect that what's worth doing at all is worth doing well, applies very nicely to the chicken business when market day comes around.

Prof. J. M. Garrison of Forest Grove closed his writing school here Tuesday, after a very successful short term's work. Two prizes were given on the last day, one of two dollars and a half to the student who had shown the most improvement, and the other of a copy of Longfellow's Evangeline to the best penman. The first prize was awarded to Miss Ora Buchanan and the second to Miss Anna Dudley.

H. S. Britt arrived home Saturday evening from Berkeley, California, he having completed his course there this year at the State University. Four hundred students graduated in his class, and the commencement address was to have been delivered by President McKinley, had not his wife's illness prevented his presence on the occasion. Secretary of State Hay appeared in the president's place, and gave a short address to the class.

The doll show last Saturday was a successful as well as an interesting affair, sixty-four dolls being on exhibit. The prize for the most handsome doll was awarded to Vera Cooper; for the homeliest doll, Lena Bashaw; for the largest, Ora Miller; the smallest, Ariel Thomas; the funniest, Vera Staudard; to Mamie Marr for the oldest doll which was 70 years old. Clyde Grable received prize for the best drawing of a bicycle, Russell Stanton for the best drawing of a cat. Roy Gardner received prize for the best guess, his being 510. The number was 512. The proceeds for the afternoon were $8.55. The L. T. L. wish to thank all who were so kind as to patronize their "fair" and are grateful to the Presbyterian minister for the use of their organ. The L. T. L. superintendent Mrs. Shaw, is earnestly working to make the Legion a success, and the cooperation of all to this end is desired.

C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce.

Hose that is O. K. and reasonable at Storey's.

Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling.

The Telegram may still be had at the postoffice for one little dime a week.

N. C. Christenson will buy your mohair and wool, at the grain elevator.

George Morris and family left Wednesday for Hamilton, Eastern Oregon.

What you want for Decoration Day is one of those new dress hats at Mrs. Johnson's.

Try a load of good dry slab wood of the Spaulding Logging Co., for $1.50; fir or hard wood.

Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin and daughters visited over Sunday with relatives in the vicinity of Dayton.

Get your bee hives at W. P. Hancock's sash and door factory and thereby encourage a home industry.

Do not experiment on Garden Hose. F. H. Storey is a practical hose man. Call on him before buying.

Mrs. Sarah Elliott has been visiting up on the Red Hills beyond Dundee this week with Dr. Aaron Mills and family.

C. B. Friswell who has been station agent at Mt. Angel for some time has been transferred to the office at Harrisburg.

Mr. J. P. Irvine and Editor C. E. Harbaugh of McMinville were in town last Saturday and made the Graphic a pleasant call.

Arthur Holson, who has been studying newspaper sketching in San Francisco this winter, arrived back in town last Friday evening.

C. N. Carey of Portland was in town the middle of the week, figuring on moving his family back to Newberg for the summer at least.

The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock.

Master John Elliott accompanied S. M. Calkins to Eastern Oregon the first of the week, stopping off at LaGrande and visiting with A. T. Hills.

Farmers I want your eggs. I will give cash for them. Egg packers furnished free to those wishing them.

S. J. Lashier came down from Seattle Wednesday for a short visit with Newberg relatives. Sam is manager of a restaurant in Washington's windy city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Galland have moved temporarily into the building formerly occupied as an office by Dr. McConnell, opposite Porter & Larkin's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Keller went down to Portland last Saturday and spent a couple of days seeing the sights and finding out what kind of a metropolis Oregon has of which to boast.

Dyspepsia can be cured by using Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. Sold in handsome tin boxes at 25c. C. F. Moore & Co.

Several young Newbergers, among whom were Arthur and Oscar Heater, Worth Sims, Arthur Bashaw, and Ed Shaw went down into the Sherwood onion district Wednesday to work at weeding the scented fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Groff received a hundred pound consignment of the pure and unadulterated article in the way of maple sugar the first of the week, all the way from old Vermont where Mrs. Groff once taught school, and from the sugar grove of one of her old scholars.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vinton of West Chehalis were in town the first of the week accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. Huston of Iowa, whom they were showing about. Mr. and Mrs. Huston are on a Western tour and visited the Vintons for a few days, with whom they were good friends back East.

As many have expressed a desire to hear our college orator, Elwood Minchin, give his oration as he will deliver it at the inter-state contest at Walla Walla, next Wednesday evening, he will speak before the Crescent literary society at the college this evening. Everybody is invited to be present and encourage Mr. Minchin for his final effort.

Allen Smith and W. P. Hancock have formed a business partnership as the proprietors of a sash and door factory, and intend to do business with a push in that line of industry hereafter. They have purchased a larger engine which has been used in the Taylor & Heath tile factory at McMinville, which they will put in their factory here, and will further increase the capacity of their plant as increasing business thus demands.

A Portland drayman was in town the other day and passing along the street by the Newberg harness shop, stopped in and examined Mr. Sutherland's work, quoting prices. As a result he left an order for a new set of harness.

To be able to take work from Portland harness makers because of superior workmanship and at corresponding prices, is something to be proud of, and the moral of the circumstance is so obvious that he who runs may read.

The Pacific College boys got it put over their pretty badly at Forest Grove last Saturday by Pacific University, but no doubt learned a few things on the ins and outs of athletic competition which they can use to advantage later. Newhouse and Kramien did the best work for Newberg, the former surprising the university boys by running off and leaving them in the quarter mile dash, while the latter out did himself in the broad jump. Prof. Jones accompanied the boys to the Grove and reports a very pleasant time all around. Our young athletes are now preparing for the state college meet which comes off at McMinville, Friday, May 31.

Garden Hose at Storey's.

All wood ingrain art squares at the Furniture Store.

George Range was up from Oregon City Thursday.

Five Durham cows for sale. All fresh. Inquire of Reuben Everest.

Screen doors and windows on hand at the Newberg sash and door factory.

For sale—One fine colt, two years old. Apply to G. Howie, Upper Chehalis Center.

Whether you spell it Photos or Fotos, you know that the place to get them is at the Douglas Studio.

The Spaulding Logging Co. will deliver the best of slab wood, hard or soft wood, for $1.50 per load.

Mrs. Minnie Leavitt of Baker City has been visiting in town this week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hammett.

Mrs. Jesse Edwards has been very sick for a week with an acute attack of Erysipelas, but is now slowly improving.

Courtney Shafford of Portland, a Newberg lad in days of yore, was in town Thursday, doing general repair work for the Oregon Telephone Company.

Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold on a positive guarantee. Cures heartburn raising of the food, distress after eating or any form of dyspepsia. One little tablet gives immediate relief. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co.

The Yamhill county Sunday school convention will hold its annual session at the Baptist church next Tuesday and Wednesday, May 28 and 29 inclusive. All who are interested in Sunday school work are invited to attend.

An exchange fittingly remarks that you can't swap eggs, butter or produce with Sears, Roebuck & Co., Montgomery Ward or other eastern mail order houses. It takes the hard cash to buy their shoddy goods. Local merchants who buy your produce and extend business favors to you are entitled to your patronage.

From the College.

Since President is back we have two songs in the morning instead of one.

Agnes Hammer is obliged to leave school on account of the sickness of her sister.

The Christian associations are preparing to get out a new hand-book. We are to have more this year than ever before and they will be widely circulated.

The bills are already out for the field meet at McMinville, and it is hoped Newberg will be well represented.

Elwood Minchin will deliver his oration in the college chapel on Friday evening. It will come in as a part of the Crescent program. You are all invited to be present.

Strawberries are in abundance on the campus and it is the general pastime for children to pick them.

Some of Prof. Garrison's writing pupils over here were somewhat taken back to think of public school people coming over and carrying off the coveted prize.

For a stiff neck there is nothing better than a free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It quickly relieves the stiffness and soreness, effecting a complete cure. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

Memorial Day Arrangements.

All the preliminary arrangements have been made for a proper observance of Memorial day. All patriotic people in the vicinity of Newberg are requested to lay aside their ordinary vocations and come together for the purpose of doing honor to the memory of those of our country's defenders who have answered the last roll-call.

We will meet in Craters hall at two p. m., on Thursday May 30, where a suitable program consisting of songs, recitations and orations will be rendered, after which a procession will be formed and will march to the cemetery where the exercises will be concluded.

All ex-soldiers and sailors of the civil war and of the Spanish and Philippine wars and all civic societies, Sunday schools and other organized bodies of patriotic citizens are cordially invited to join in the procession. Let all the people turn out and make a demonstration commensurate of the occasion. Com.

Shoppers At His Post.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of Levanua, O., "my three years of suffering from kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man." They're unrivalled to regulate stomach, liver, kidney and bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Free trial bottles. C. F. Moore & Co. Only 50c.

For Sale—Two cows; choice from seven high grade Jerseys, all giving milk. N. G. King.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bocklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles, it is the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Free trial bottles. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.

"Old Oregon."

The quarterly for the Oregon Historical Society No. 4, for December, 1900, has been received. This completes the first volume, which is of great historical value. The contents of this volume are as follows: "The Oregon Trail," by F. G. Young; illustrated by a map of the immigrant route from Independence and Council Bluffs to Oregon City, and numerous half tones showing different scenes along the route. This is one of the most important articles yet published, and it is the beginning of a movement which it is hoped will result in permanently marking the immigrant route from the Missouri to the Willamette rivers. "A Day with the Cow Column," by the late Jesse Applegate who came in 1843, Col. Geo. B. Curry's Tribute to the Ox Whip, Sam L. Simpson's poem, "The Campfires of the Pioneers," two poems by Joaquin Miller, "Pilgrims of the Plains," and "Pioneers of the Pacific" and a document relating to "The Oregon Emigrants, 1843," make up a table of contents by which this issue is fittingly described as "The Oregon Trail Number." Address all inquiries about this publication to Geo. H. Himes, Assistant Secretary, Oregon Historical Society rooms, City Hall, Portland, Oregon.

Old Soldier's Experience.

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctors' treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at C. F. Moore & Co.'s drug store. Free trial bottles.

Real Estate Transfers.

Fought For His Life.

"My father and sister both died of consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight." Infallible for coughs, colds and all throat and lung trouble. Trial bottles free. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 at C. F. Moore & Co.'s.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, says druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.
