Empty barrels for sale by C. B. Wilson.

Wall paper at reduced prices at Newberg Furniture Store.

Hon. E. C. Hatch of McCoy visited here with his son Ed a day or two of this week.

Go to T. B. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock.

Mrs. C. H. Eggers and daughter returned home by boat Wednesday from a several days visit in Portland.

H. L. Christenson is over beyond Carlton this week doing some carpentering for George Christenson.

Dr. H. J. Littlefield reports a daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hanson of West Chehalum on Tuesday, May 28.

Claude Calkins has been shipping some fine looking strawberries to Portland, grown on his mountain ranch north of town.

Persons having mohair and wool for sale will find a market for these products by taking them to N. C. Christenson at the grain elevator.

I have another stock of shoes on hand, also a few good bargains in the clothing suits. For low prices call at the corner store. W. H. Monans.

Miss Gertrude Lamb has been spending the latter part of the week visiting relatives in Portland, and in viewing the work of the city schools.

Ye monies accrued at ye concert will be used to assist in paying for ye newly purchased piano for ye school of advanced learning of ye town.

Work has progressed rapidly on the new flour mill the past week. The structure will be an imposing one and a credit to Newberg and Yamhill county.

C. N. Ehret of Portland, formerly of Newberg, is down with appendicitis in one of the city hospitals. He sustained an operation Sunday and is now improving nicely.

Acker's English Remedy will stop a cough at any time, and will cure the worst cold in twelve hours, or more refunded. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. druggists.

Mrs. H. L. Christenson returned to town Wednesday after having spent several days in the country caring for a new-born girl baby in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Cowgill.

A really particular man knows better than to buy anything but good, reliable, stylish looking harness, and that's just what you will get if H. L. Sutherland makes it for you. Try him and see for yourself.

The election of officers held by the Woodmen Monday evening resulted in the following selections: Nat Stanley, council commander; C. F. Butler, advisor; lieutenant; Nelson Sykes, escort; Ralph Winslow, watchman; Sam Jones, sentry; S. M. Calkins, manager.

Fred Weed, of Whittier, California, who is now playing baseball as a member of the Multnomah ball nine, and who has the reputation of being its star at the bat, came up to Newberg Monday evening and visited until Wednesday morning with his brother John Weed.

A goodly number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Vestal gathered at their home on last Saturday evening in honor of the sixty-third anniversary of the birth of Aunt Martha. Ice cream and cake were served and a very pleasant evening's entertainment was the result of the gathering.

C. H. Eggers has just completed for Cody & Conrad on Fifth street, near Olds & King's, Portland, one of the prettiest fronts on that street. The outside is corrugated cedar, the inside being panel work, and is a beauty which Mr. Eggers says he would like to have his Newberg friends inspect when in the city.

Hon. C. B. Montague, of Lebanon, a member of the last legislature, was in town the first of the week visiting with his daughter Dr. Clara M. Davidson and her son Charlie. He has been traveling around a good deal of late, and says there is more improvement going on in Newberg than any other town he has been in.

Henry Austin and Nate Stanley made a trip to Stella Falls on the Little Ne-tucca a few days ago but the festive troupe refused all invitations to take the hook and the boys came away sorrowful. Enough little speckled beauties were taken in a small side stream to grease the frying pan but the larger fellows whose home is in the river were not hungry.

One of the events of the season was an entertainment given in Craters hall Tuesday evening by one McHenry, "impersonator." Notwithstanding the good sized audience present, no one could be found next day who was present, hence a writup which would do justice to the subject is impossible. The "impersonating" season may probably now be considered closed in Newberg.

Prof. Charles E. Cox of Santa Clara, California, is in town visiting at the home of B. C. Miles, Mrs. Cox and Mr. Miles being cousins. Prof. Cox was at one time a professor in the University of California and later he occupied a chair in Stanford University but he has been out of college work during the past year on account of poor health on the part of Mrs. Cox.

It should be of interest to all readers of the Evening Telegram, and to all others who may become so, that to each person who will pay three months subscription in advance, $1.25, an elegant map of the world on one side and one of Oregon on the other, will be forwarded free of charge. The map is a new one, containing some very beneficial educational features. Leave your subscription at the postoffice, and you will receive the map without further trouble.

C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce.

Hose that is O. K. and reasonable at Storey's.

B. C. Miles and family visited relatives in Portland over Sunday.

The Telegram may still be had at the postoffice for one little dime a week.

N. C. Christenson will buy your mohair and wool, at the grain elevator.

Miss Grace Ryan's father of Salem visited her at the college the first of the week.

Emil Steigleder has opened up ice cream headquarters at Dancau's bicycle shop.

Try a load of good dry slab wood of the Spaulding Logging Co., for $1.50; fir or hard wood.

Do not experiment on Garden Hose. F. H. Storey is a practical hose man. Call on him before buying.

A crowd of Newberg Maccabees drove up to LaFayette Wednesday evening to assist in instituting a lodge.

A family by the name of Riley has lately arrived from Kansas and is occupying the rooms above E. C. Ward & Co.'s feed store.

F. H. Storey and wife have been enjoying a visit the past week from Mr. Storey's mother, who has been spending the winter in Sumpter.

The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will serve ice cream on Friday afternoon and evening, June 7, in the Pickett building on First street.

Farmers I want your eggs. I will give cash for them. Egg packers furnished free to those wishing them.

C. B. WILSON.

Hervey Hoskins wheeled down from the county seat last Friday evening to hear Elwood Minchin deliver his oration, returning to his work the following forenoon.

Mrs. Mary Husted, of Williams, California, came to Newberg Thursday evening of last week and visited until Monday morning with her cousin Mrs. Allen Smith and family.

Dr. H. J. Littlefield has received word from his brother Dr. Harry to the effect that after a pleasant and quick voyage across the Pacific he arrived at Manila on the twentieth of last month.

John Bristow has been out engaging Royal Anne cherries for Mark Levy & Co., Portland, and says he has engaged more than one hundred tons at four cents per pound, the company to furnish boxes.

During the week of June 17 to 24 Rev. Seth Rees, holiness evangelist, will hold meetings in Newberg to which all are invited. Any one wishing special information relative to his work will enquire of Dr. E. P. Dixon.

On Sunday, a social event came off in Dundee circles when Miss Hannah Nelson was united in marriage to Albert Livengood. It is hinted that Cupid is getting reckless in that vicinity and as a result another "happy consummation" is expected soon.

McMinnville has about concluded to celebrate the fourth by closing up the stores and visiting the other little towns in the county on that day but look out a little later. We will ask you all to let us entertain you at our fall carnival.—McMinnville News.

Some of ye young folks of ye olden times will give a concert in ye town hall on ye 7th day of ye 6th month. Ye good people will have to pay ye sum of 15 cents to hear ye same, and if they would rather sit near ye stage, they must pay ye sum of 25 cents.

The Newberg Land Company has sold the E. Steigleder property on north Meridian street to Jno. Nevitt of Beatrice, Nebraska, for the sum of $1000. The new owner will take possession of his property June 10, and is said to be a valuable addition as a citizen.

A. T. McNay of Heppner, Eastern Oregon, father of Miss Lillian McNay who was in college here last year, was in town the first of the week. He likes the town very much and is thinking of moving here where his children may have the benefit of our educational advantages.

Dr. Lowe, the well known oculo-optician will be in Dr. Wright's office in McMinnville three days of next week: Monday to Wednesday night, June 3-5. If you want the best glasses obtainable at a reasonable price see him. He invites difficult cases. 14 years experience.

Charlie Wilson, though never before musically inclined, since Wednesday has been tuned up to concert pitch, for on that day an eight pound boy made his appearance in the family. He is thriving nicely and Charlie is thinking of putting him on the delivery wagon next week.

On next Monday afternoon Mr. C. L. Smith of Minnesota will address the farmers of this vicinity upon "Dairying and Diversified Farming," while in the evening at eight o'clock he will deliver his address upon "Home-Making." A good audience should hear him on each of these occasions.

Thomas Smith, who lives north of town, received a telegram Tuesday evening informing him of the sudden death of his mother who lived at Rockford, Illinois. Mr. Smith had received a letter from her only last week when she was apparently in better health than usual. The deceased was 77 years old.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the Baptist county Sunday school convention and meeting of the B. Y. P. U. were held in Newberg, delegates being in attendance from other parts of the county. Very interesting sessions are reported throughout, the address on Tuesday evening by Rev. Ray Palmer of Portland being well spoken of.

Garden Hose at Storey's.

All wool ingrain art squares at the Furniture Store.

Drs. E. P. and H. C. Dixon spent Sunday in the capital city.

Leave orders at Wilson's Grocery for expressing or light hauling.

For sale—One fine colt, two years old, Apply to G. Howie, Upper Chehalum Center.

C. J. Edwards made a business trip over to Hillsboro, Washington county, last Saturday.

Whether you spell it Photos or Fotos, you know that the place to get them is at the Douglas Studio.

Mrs. G. W. Cutts left Tuesday morning for an extended visit with the rest of the family at Shedd's.

The Spaulding Logging Co. will deliver the best of slab wood, hard or soft wood, for $1.50 per load.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cook of Canby, formerly of Marion, were in Newberg last week looking for residence property to rent. They intend to move here soon and send their daughters to Pacific College next year.

Mrs. Alfred McCullom of Grants Pass, who was on her way up to British Columbia to visit relatives, stopped off at Newberg and visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. S. Davis, the latter being a relative of hers.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Haworth, aged about two years, died on Thursday of last week of spinal meningitis. The funeral services were conducted at the home north of town on Friday afternoon.

Mill Mills of Springbrook is the early bird in the strawberry market this year, in these parts at least. For over two weeks now he has been handling fine berries, and has had enough of them to supply the early Newberg market at top prices.

Drink a steaming of Moki Tea at night before retiring, and see how soundly you will awake in the morning. It supplies food for the blood while you sleep, produces a clear and beautiful complexion, and cures constipation and sick headache. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co.

Yamhill "agin the world" has another reiteration. This time it is a white rose—a rose without thorns, growing upon an apple tree. Last Saturday Miss Mattie Fink picked the unusual flower. Of course it is an apple blossom, but were it not for the foliage one could not distinguish it from a fine specimen of a white rose.—Reporter.

Some complaint comes from the west of the rural mail route up in West Chehalum, that their mail is being tampered with. It will be well for the guilty parties to bear in mind that such action is robbing the United States mail just the same as holding up a mail train, and the penalty will be dealt accordingly should the culprits be detected.

J. H. Miller intends leaving Newberg soon and has posters out announcing a public sale of his household goods to take place to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. In company with his nephew, Cyril Miller, who has been working in a printing office in Eugene the past winter, he will go down into Southern Oregon and prospect for the precious metal there.

Noah Heaster and son Guy went down to Portland last Saturday to see Roy win new laurels in the athletic meet between Multnomah and Eugene. Portland papers said that as usual the phenomenal young Newberg athlete was the hero of the day, and had everything his own way, winning five first places, or every event in which he entered. As a result the university boys defeated the club men for the first time.

C. L. Smith, the veteran dairyman from Minnesota who is now touring Oregon in the interests of the dairy industry says, "The farmer in some localities is looked upon as a crank, but the difference between the earnings of this man and the other is not the result of any more labor, sometimes not so much, but represents the value of 'brains' used in connection with labor." Come out next Monday afternoon and hear what the gentleman means, specifically, by the above remark.

County Treasurer Rhude has sent to the state treasurer the sum of $3,500 general and $1,586.47 bounty tax, and will remit next week $2,000 more, to be applied on Yamhill county's state tax for 1900. We are struck for $31,961.71 this year, for which we must thank a gay legislature which was too liberal in appropriating money raised by taxation. Of this sum $4,770.11 is to pay for the state bounty on wild animals, sea lions, etc.—Reporter.

One of Newberg's successful young business men has very cleverly executed a coup on his friends here, as will be seen in the following from the Corvallis Gazette. "One of the prettiest weddings seen in Corvallis in a long time occurred at the home of Mrs. Ruth N. Clark at 10:30 Tuesday. The bride was Miss Jennie Clark, one of Corvallis' loveliest girls, respected and esteemed by all, and the groom, Glenn Winslow, of Newberg a graduate of O. A. C. and a young man of sterling worth. The parlor was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and snowballs, the predominating colors being pink and white, and under a large arch of ivy, from which was suspended a bell of Calla lilies, the ceremony was performed by Rev. P. S. Knight"—after which follows an account of the wedding feast, and the festive salute of the right hands on the departure of the young couple. Though relatively a new comer here Mr. Winslow of the firm of Winslow Bros. Jewelers, has quickly won the respect of all, and he and his comely bride will be welcomed among us with best wishes for future happiness. After June 15, they will be at home to their friends in the Hollingsworth house on Meridian street.

Five Durham cows for sale. All fresh. Inquire of Reuben Everest.

Cephas Maris and family arrived here Saturday from North Yakima, Washington, and are residing with S. M. Calkins'. They are rather unsettled as to where they will make their home in the future, but will probably locate some place in the valley.

Mrs. G. B. Day, aged sixty years, died Thursday forenoon of pneumonia at her home northwest of town. She had been sick for several weeks, as a result of an attack of the measles, but had not been considered dangerously ill. Short funeral services will be held at the home this morning at 9:30 o'clock, after which the remains will be taken to Eugene, the former home of the Days, for interment.

In the inter-state oratorical contest held at Walla Walla, Washington, Wednesday evening, one orator Elwood Minchin, who represented Oregon, and Hauerbach who represented Eastern Washington and Idaho had a hard, close fight for supremacy, while Laube, Washington's representative seemed defeat, and let the contest go by default. By some mistake, one judge on thought and composition did not send in his decision, and up to the afternoon of the next day could not be heard from. From the decisions of the other judges the contest is practically a tie between Minchin and Hauerbach, and the sixth judge will have to be heard from before the result will be known. At the time of going to press the returns from the "back county" are anxiously awaited.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles, it is the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Free trial bottles. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.

For Sale—Two cows; choice from seven high grade Jerseys, all giving milk.

Beware of a Cough.

A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

Shedders At His Post.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of Levanna, O. "my three years of suffering from kidney troubles. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man." They're unrivalled to regulate stomach, liver, kidney and bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Free trial bottles. C. F. Moore & Co. Only 50c.

A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed. This remedy has also been used in my family for frost bitten feet with the best results. I cheerfully recommend its use to all who may need a first-class liniment." Sold by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

Bled Quarts at a Time
"I am a knife maker and worked for a number of years in the New York Knife Co.'s factory at Waiden, N. Y. First thing I knew I commenced to bleed from the mouth. Sometimes as much as a quart of blood would come up from my lungs at a time. Every time I coughed the blood spurted out. It was in the fall I got so bad, and the church people told me I had better make my peace with the Lord and prepare to die, for I would not live till spring. My home doctor couldn't do me any good, but advised me to get to New York City for examination. They finally took me to a medical college, and a whole lot of physicians made what they called a diagnosis. There were several students looking on. One professor had a little ivory hammer, and with this he pounded my chest and held his ear close to listen. After a while the professor looked at me solemnly and declared: 'One of your lungs is about gone and the other is affected. There may be a slim chance for life if you quit working in that knife factory.' I went back home, but didn't improve. One day I saw an advertisement of free samples of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, being given away by our home druggists, Walker & Eaton. I got one of these bottles, and it relieved me. Then I bought more of the regular size, and my improvement was continuous, although slow. My doctors were astonished and so was I. After dark I hated to spit, because I was afraid it might be blood, and I wanted to know for sure. I have no fear now, for at last I am a solid man again. Although one lung is gone, the other is as sound as a dollar, and answers as well as two lungs, so far as I can see. I want everyone to know the facts and that is why I tell them here." (Signed) A. H. SIMPSON.
Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure, etc., and is a bottle in United States and Canada. In England, 1s. 6d., 2s. 6d., and 4s. 6d. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. BROWER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
