Shepherd Ong of Scotts Mills has been in town this week attending the Seth Rees revival meetings.

Miss Lizzie Rittenhouse, of Nebalem, who has been attending school at Mouth is visiting in town with her uncle J. M. Rittenhouse.

Miss Grace Greenwood left Wednesday morning for her home at Victoria, British Columbia, after spending the school year in college here. Miss Ella Macy accompanied her to Portland.

The faculty of Pacific College and several of the students descended unannounced upon Prof. Edwin Morrison at his home last Friday evening, and all spent a very pleasant social hour together.

Luther G. Newlin is building a five hundred dollar cottage on River street just south of the Jonathan Votaw property and will move in from Springbrook when it is finished. Mr. Ramey and Alpheus Mills are doing the work.

The Children's Day exercises at the Friends church Sunday morning were largely attended. They were all very good, from charming little three year old Berta Kirk's vocal solo, to Pres. McGrew's sermon to the children. The exercises took the place of the Sunday school and regular church service.

Tickets will be on sale July 3rd and 4th, good for return up to July 9th, inclusive, between all points on Oregon lines, at one fare for the round trip. Don't fail to take advantage of this opportunity to visit your friends. Grand celebrations will be held at different points on our lines. C. H. MARKHAM.

Emory Hodson who is down from Seattle says he has full faith in the future of Newberg and proposes to show his faith by his works. Before returning to Seattle he will let a contract for building a seven room cottage on a quarter block he owns on Meridian street at the southwest corner of the college grounds.

W. H. Galland has bought the old J. D. Carter building across the street from the Armory hall building and is fitting it up for a restaurant. After selling out here Mr. Galland spent considerable time looking about for a new location but finally decided to set up in Newberg again. Mr. and Mrs. Galland's many friends will be glad to know that they have decided to remain in Newberg.

Justin Haworth was exhibiting a crate of strawberries the other day which he had picked from his patch of which the real estate men should have had a photograph. The berries were picked for their size qualification and had the appearance of a box of June apples. They furnished an excellent opportunity for a test of the writer's descriptive ability, but as the people hereabouts know all about Oregon strawberries, and as readers in foreign parts wouldn't believe it anyway, what's the use?

The carpenter work on the Christenson & Seelye flour mill was finished Wednesday and is a credit to the builders, the owners being more than pleased. The paint brush has already made a tour of the new mill, and in big letters on the front of the building three stories high are the words, "Chehalis Valley Mills" by which name the new enterprise will be known. Four stories in height, the new structure makes an imposing appearance, showing up prominently from almost every direction from town. The mill machinery is now on the way from Columbus, Ohio, and the owners expect to begin operations about September 1. The engine house, yet to be built, will be constructed of brick and located between the mill and Main street.

The residence of J. H. Rees a mile and a half northeast of town was destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Rees had gone to McMinnville on business and the boys and Mrs. Rees had come to town. Mrs. Rees returned home about noon leaving the boys at the grist mill. When she got to the front gate she saw smoke in the roof and gave the alarm. The neighbors responded quickly and thought at first they could put the fire out but as it gained on them they turned their attention toward saving the furniture and succeeded in getting everything out on the lower floors, but all in the upper rooms including most of their bedding and considerable of their clothing was lost. The fire evidently caught from a defective flue in the garret. The building was insured for a small amount in the McMinnville Company. In his loss Mr. Rees has the sympathy of the community and especially of those who know of the liberal spirit he has always shown when calls have been made for money for building churches and for educational work in this new country where so much is to be done in this way.

Get your ice at Star Bakery. C. B. Wilson is still paying cash for produce. Hose that is O. K. and reasonable at Storey's. Hadley's Racket is headquarters for 4th of July goods. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. The Spaulding Logging Co. will deliver the best of slab wood, hard or soft wood, for $1.50 per load. Rollin W. Kirk left for Seattle, Washington, Monday morning where he expects to work during the summer vacation. Eli Evans and Lee Grames, with their families, drove up to McMinnville Wednesday and attended the big A.O.U.W. picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Woodard Charles moved down from the hill to town Wednesday, and are occupying the Paul Macy house. John Cook who recently returned from Spokane, Washington, came up from Portland and remained over Sunday visiting with relatives. I have another stock of shoes on hand, also a few good bargains in clothing suits. For low prices call at the corner store. W. H. MOORE. 5-3 Mrs. F. A. Hayes and family left Tuesday morning to join Mr. Hayes at Vancouver, Washington, where he is clerking in his brother's store. John Green has rented his farm west of town to a Dundee party and will move to Dayton where he expects to go into some kind of business. Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Harrison of Portland came up Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with the former's brother, M. E. Harrison and wife. Farmers I want your eggs. I will give cash for them. Moki Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, produces a perfect complexion, or money refunded. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. druggists. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hodson, of Seattle, returned from the southern part of the state a few days ago in company with the mother of the Hodson boys with whom they went to visit, and are in town visiting with the families of C. A. and J. C. Hodson. Mrs. Hodson, the mother, will leave this week for an extended visit in Indiana and farther east. "Why not spend the vacation at Yaquina Bay, where can be had excellent food, good fishing, good boating, safe bathing, alluring rides and rambles? The course and exercises at the Summer School, of 1901, at Newport, will afford great variety of instruction, diversion and entertainment. No other resort offers equal attractions and advantages." N. C. Maris of Heppner, accompanied by J. O. Williams of the same place, came in on the evening train Saturday and visited over Sunday with his sister Mrs. E. H. Woodward and family. On Monday he and Mr. Williams drove over to North Yamhill to size up the Ladd herd of Short Horns, which is the rival herd of W. O. Minor's of Heppner, of which N. C. has charge. The visitors left for home again Tuesday morning. The J. D. Carter building on Main street, which M. H. Pinney had been using as a lumber room, having been sold, Mr. Pinney is putting up a building on his yard across the street from the new flour mill, which he will use as lumber room and office. Jas. Holt, who also had his carpenter shop in the Carter building has moved a few doors south into the building once used as a grocery by the Lastiers. Dr. H. J. Littlefield received a letter the other day from the executive officer of the U. S. revenue cutter Perry, upon which he made his extended Alaskan tour as surgeon last summer, informing him that they were soon to take another delightful cruise in southeastern Alaskan waters, and asking him to accompany them. United States Senator Jones of Nevada and other persons more or less distinguished will be members of the party, and a trip in such company might well be termed a "question of personal privilege." The invitation comes very opportunely to Dr. Littlefield, who was already preparing for a short vacation, and as the cruise will probably not last more than six weeks, he will accept and make the most of it. The Perry will sail about July 1. The question has often been asked within the last few days, "How can I keep the birds out of my cherry trees?" One man in the west end of town has found a very practical remedy and as there is no patent on it, his neighbors should have the benefit of his ingenuity. The cherry tree in question being not far from the house, he has hung a cow bell up in said tree, and attached to it a rope, the loose end of which is connected with his dwelling. He then takes his seat at the window, and when Mr. Robin makes his appearance, gives the rope a yank and the little marauder takes leave. "Easy," isn't it? Cherry trees in this vicinity will doubtless be filled with cow bells hereafter by those looking for a steady job, these hot days the chief qualification for which is "staying with it."

Ammerman and Little daughter have given up their house in Newberg and have gone to Lebanon for the present. The meetings being held by Rev. Seth Rees in the Friends church are fairly well attended, good interest being manifested. The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. McGregor and children moved to Salem last Saturday to remain at least during the season's run of the Allen Packing & Canning Co.'s evaporator. J. W. Hobbs rode down from McMinnville yesterday with Deputy Prosecuting Attorney R. L. Conner, who was here looking after the prosecution in the Meers case. R. W. Jones and Carroll Kirk expect to start out soon for the summer canvassing for stereoscopic views. Their territory will probably be some part of the state of Washington. Moore drove down to Oregon City last Sunday on hearing of the severe illness of the little four year old son of their brother Dr. J. B. Moore. Charles remained over and assisted in his brother's drugstore on Monday. A dispatch came on Thursday morning announcing the death of the child. Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson brought to the office one day this week a copy of the local newspaper published in her old home town Ireland, and pointed out a business advertisement that had appeared regularly at the same position for twenty-six years. What's the matter with Yamhill editors pooling their interests and importing a few such business men from the old country? Last Saturday L. M. Parker, Ervin Scott and Al Blair drove up to McMinnville, and from there in company with J. L. Hoskins, went on over to Meadow Lake on a fishing excursion. Mr. Parker returned Monday with a half dozen fish which he confessed to having paid a half dollar for, while the other boys remained a few days in the hope of eating trout by the sweat of their own brows. At a meeting of the trustees of the Oregon Fire Relief Association held in this city last Friday, Prof. E. Northrup was chosen president to succeed the late president, O. H. Irvine. The vacancy thus caused on the board of trustees was filled by the election of F. W. Fenelon. The provision regarding the president's salary was modified to the effect that the same should not exceed the sum of $500 a year. It is based on a percentage of the receipts from applications, and last year gave a salary to the president of about $300. The choice of Prof. Northrup seems to us as good as could have been made.—Reporter. As a result of the city council meeting held last Friday night it looks as though we are going to have electric lights after all. The councilmen and Mr. Jesse Edwards have about come together on the proposition to the effect that the city take lights to the amount of five hundred dollars annually for eight years, and furnish the necessary water power for running the light plant. On the strength of the prospect, Mayor C. J. Edwards tendered his resignation, as a provision in the charter forbids one of his official position having a financial interest in any corporation doing regular contract work for the city. The resignation has not yet been acted upon.

W. H. Meers was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Wright Thursday, on a grave charge of having attempted improper relations with little ten year old Frieda Dietrich, the complaint being sworn to by R. L. Goughnour the little girl's guardian. R. L. Conner of McMinnville, deputy prosecuting attorney appeared for the prosecution and Clarence Butt for the defense. Testimony in the case is still being taken as the Graphic goes to press. Military Notice. Mrs. Addie Cornell has bought Mrs. Ramsey's millinery stock and will close this season's stock out at a big discount to make room for a large stock of notions and millinery goods for the fall and winter season. All persons knowing themselves indebted to Mrs. Ramsey will please call and settle at once. Mrs. Addie Cornell, Successor to Mrs. Ramsey. A Terrible Explosion. "Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. E. Palmer, of Kirkmar, Ia. An Indianapolis woman called up her grocer by telephone the other morning, and after she had sufficiently scolded the man who responded, she said: "And what's more, the next order you get from me will be the last I'll ever give you." "It probably will, madam," said the voice at the other end of the wire; "you are talking to an undertaker."
