An English peer who died a few weeks ago, in the codicil to his will left to his heirs the following advice which is capable of very general application: "Having had fatal experience of the iniquity of law in certain cases, where decisions have been given against common sense and justice, I entreat the parties interested in my will not to appeal to the law if any difficulty may arise, but to arbitrate. Having been swindled myself by every lawyer that I ever had anything to do with makes me offer this advice to my heirs, executors and assigns."

Although the court of inquiry may find that Schley was somewhat derelict in obeying orders from headquarters previous to the naval battle of Santiago, the fact remains that Schley was on hand when the time for action came, that Schley was in the fight, and that Schley won the fight, and that's what counts with admiring countrymen. "Lost they forget," it might be well for the Sampson-Macley ilk to re-read and ponder well the story of the vicissitudes of that jealous and high-minded personage known as Haman, whose "soul goes marching on" if appearances count for anything.

Statistics show that the mad rush to the city, so much deplored, is gradually being stayed, thanks to inter-urban railroads, rural mail routes, rural telephone lines, etc. The last census shows that 62.7 per cent of the inhabitants of the United States live outside towns of 4000 inhabitants and over. And while between 1880 and 1890 the city population of the country increased 50 per cent, between 1890 and 1900 it has increased but 37 per cent, the population of the United States increasing 21 per cent. It is a highly encouraging omen that the common social and cultural advantages of the city having been secured in the rural districts, the citizenship of the country is manifesting a willingness to stay by the fresh air.

After reading some of the excerpts from E. S. Macley's so-called history of the United States Navy, the public is left to wonder what sort of a man that fellow Macley can be anyway. In the first place if there was foundation for the bitter attack made upon Admiral Schley, a man of his supposed common sense should know enough not to indulge in such abusive personalities and call the result "history." If, on the other hand the charges are groundless, and the attack made from a narrow, personal standpoint, the author poses as a cheap libelous character. The situation resolves itself into this "dilemma," the first horn of which runs to "fool," while the second tapers off at "knave," and it makes little difference which, in the eyes of the public.

Anent the discussion of church hymns and "doggerel," it is recalled that the English Wesleyans some time ago took steps looking to the revision of their hymnal. Finding the task a difficult one, it was suggested, as an aid to the editors, that the Wesleyan constituency be polled after a fashion, members being asked to vote for their favorite hymns. The Methodist Times commented editorially upon the contest, saying that the "rage for hymns of the Moody and Sankey type has evaporated, judging by the returns." The ten hymns gaining the most votes were, first, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," and the following, in the order named: "Jesus, Lover of My Soul"; "Oh, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing"; "Rock of Ages Cleft for Me"; "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty"; "Abide with me"; "Sun of My Soul, Thou Savior Dear"; "Come Ye that Love the Lord," and "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." It is plain from this test that religious fervor still finds expression in old fashioned church hymns, however the opinions of people may differ in regard to their poetic fire and literary value.—Oregonian.

A few days ago the president of the Iowa State Bar Association delivered an address in which he greatly deplored the prevalence of perjury in all judicial proceedings, quoting authority to the effect that one half of all evidence given on behalf of the defense in criminal cases is false, while three fourths of all testimony received in divorce cases is deliberate perjury. Other authority was quoted to show that the crime of perjury is on the increase. This state of affairs is attributed to several causes, such as the careless and flippant manner in which oaths are generally administered, the encouragement which a certain class of lawyers give their clients toward giving false testimony, and the spirit of "free thinking" or possibly no thinking at all, which tends to destroy in people that finer sense of honor and integrity and at the same time removing a wholesome fear of reaping a just reward for deeds of evil. While showing up this disgraceful condition, the president of the Iowa Bar Association at the same time declared some remedies for it. It is significant that the most striking of these remedies was the recommendation that "the oath be abolished altogether and that in its stead the plain affirmation, held to by the Society of Friends be used—an affirmation to tell the whole truth under the pains and penalties of perjury." It was furthermore advised that the presiding judge administer the affirmation with due emphasis and gravity advising the witness that the extreme penalty would be served him were he detected in false testimony. This stand has always been maintained by the Friends church, and it is significant to find it so strongly upheld as above, from a purely secular standpoint. If a man is capable of perjuring himself, he will do so if advantage appears, in defiance of God and the devil, and it savors nothing short of sacrilege thus to make common the name of the Deity, by a flippant or perfunctory use of it in every little case however petty, in which testimony is taken. The idea advanced above is a sound one. Administer to the witness a plain, unvarnished affirmation, with due solemnity. Then if the witness perjures himself, the breaking of the commandment, "Thou shalt not lie," is just as great a sin and as heinous a crime as if the name of the Deity had been directly connected therewith, and let the punishment be meted out accordingly.

Doctors and Editors.

Iowa Medical Journal:—The doctors are all friends of ours. We expect them to stay with us until death. Yet, at the risk of incurring their displeasure, we reproduce the following:

We don't know where it came from, any more than we know whose rain-sput the doctor's medicine comes from. We find it in a paper entitled to "Ex." If we knew the author we would gladly give his name, because the article is really good. Here it is:

The doctor from Algona said that newspapers are run for revenue only. What in thunder do doctors run for, anyway? Do they run for glory? One good, healthy doctor's bill would run this office for six months.

An editor works a half day for $3, with an investment of $3,000; a doctor looks wise and works ten minutes for $200, with an investment of 3 cents for catnip and a pill box that cost $1.27.

A doctor goes to college for two or three years and gets a diploma and a string of words the devil himself cannot pronounce, cultivates a look of gravity that he pawns off for wisdom, gets a box of pills, a Lays and a meat saw, and sticks his shingle out a full-fledged doctor. He will then doctor you till you die at a stipulated price per visit, and puts them in as thick as your pocket-book will permit.

An editor never gets his education finished. He learns as long as he lives and studies all his life. He eats bran mash and liver; he takes his pay in turnips and hay, and keeps the doctor in town by refraining from printing the truth about him.

We would like to live in Algona and run a newspaper six months and see if the doctor would change his mind about running a newspaper for revenue only. If we didn't get some glory out of it we would agree to take one of his pills, and first saying our prayers. If the editor makes a mistake he has to apologize for it, but if the doctor makes a mistake he buries it.

If we make one there is a lawsuit, tall swearing and a smell of sulphur, but if the doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and a smell of varnish. The doctor can use a word a foot long but if the editor uses it he has to spell it.

If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he will charge the man for the visit. If the editor calls on another man's wife he gets a charge of buckshot. Any medical college can make a doctor. You can't make an editor. He has to be born one.

The editor works to keep from starving, while the doctor works to ward off the goat. The editor helps men to live better and the doctor assists them to die easy.

The doctor pulls a sick man's leg, the editor is glad if he can collect his bills at all. Revenue only? We are living for fun and to spite the doctors.

Drink a steeping of Moki Tea at night before retiring, and see how soundly you will sleep, and how joyously you will awake in the morning. It supplies food for the blood while you sleep, produces a clear and beautiful complexion, and cures constipation and sick headache. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co.

Uncle Sam as a Business Man.

The United States is jumping with enormous strides into the world's affairs and has become recognized as a factor which must be reckoned with in all matters concerning the nations. Brother Jonathan has become the business man of the world, and his European cousins no longer laugh at his dollars but realize that his dollars and what they represent are coming to rule the world. The rapidity with which this country has been taking the markets of the world is one of the surprises of the day, and Pierpont Morgan has greater power in his hand than any monarch. Not only in commerce is the United States coming to be a recognized force, but international problems can no longer be settled by ignoring the opinions of this country, and the time has now come when the voice of the United States in influencing a decision which rules the world politics is regarded as second to none. No one is more surprised at this than we ourselves. The republic which, for centuries, has been complacently ignored as a child on the European continent, has suddenly become a grown giant and is respected and feared. Brother Jonathan who has been looked down upon as interested only in the almighty dollar, has come to be feared as the force that is to dominate the history of the twentieth century.—The National Magazine.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy and he said 'no.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by C. F. Moore, druggist.

SUCH A CHANGE.

Not only in feelings but in looks. The skin is clear, the eyes are bright, the cheeks are plump. No more pain and misery, no more sick headache, no more jaundice. What worked the change? Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which cured the disease of the stomach that prevented proper nutrition, and also cleansed the clogged and sluggish liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of lungs, heart, liver, and other organs which seem remote from the stomach because many of these diseases have their cause in a diseased condition of the stomach involving the allied organs of digestion and nutrition. "I sent you a letter about a year ago," writes Mrs. J. Ellis Hamilton, of Farmington, Marion Co., West Va. "I stated my case as plainly as I could, and received a letter from you in a few days, telling me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription'—one bottle of each. I used three of each, and feel like a new woman. I don't suffer any pain or misery any more. Before using your medicines, I suffered all the time—had jaundice, caused from food not digesting properly. I would have sick headache three and four times in a week. Could not do the work myself. I commenced using your medicines as recommended for three weeks, and think I am cured now. I asked our doctor if he couldn't cure me, and he said he could give me medicine to help me but the trouble might return any time. I doctored from food not digesting properly. Haven't had sick headache since I took the first bottle of your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation. Sores on her head and face and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in sores, bruises, skin eruptions. Cuts, burns, scalds and piles. 25c. Cure guaranteed by C. F. Moore, druggist.

Trend of Thought in Kansas.

Hans Jensen, a Dane, recently appeared before the magistrate of the District Court held in Garnett, Kansas, to be naturalized. At the close of the usual examination the judge asked the applicant: "Hans, are you satisfied with the general conditions in this country? Does this government suit you entirely?" "Yes, yes," answered Hans, "only I would like to see more rain." "You may be sworn," said the judge. "I perceive you already have the Kansas idea."

Astonished The Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once intensely surprised. "Through long suffering from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive guaranteed cure. Only 50c at C. F. Moore's.

Solid qualities of integrity, of thoroughness, should outweigh in a girl's estimate of a man mere superficial cleverness and brilliancy.—August Ladies' Home Journal.

Dyspepsia can be cured by using Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. Sold in handsome tin boxes at 25c. C. F. Moore & Co.

For Malaria, Chills and Fever

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION IS
Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.
The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.
