The city fathers have very wisely had a good sized pile of gravel dumped on a vacant lot in town to draw on during the winter when an occasional chuk hole needs filling up. One of the many advantages of a gravelled street or road is that there is no need of tearing up the old grade in order to make repairs.

The last issue of the Goldenrule, Washington, Agriculturist, gives an account of the sudden death near Goldenrule of the Whitmore, who a few years ago was a resident of Newberg. The death resulted from heart disease, from which the deceased had been a sufferer for some time.

From present prospects, the rooming capacity of our college boarding hall will this year be severely taxed, nearly all the rooms being already engaged, with applications still coming in. This is a good omen for a lively school year.

A well filled college dormitory is always a source of life and enthusiasm to an educational institution.

The great carnival which opens at Portland on September 19, and continues until October 19, 1901, will be well worth a visit to the metropolis. Exhibits of agricultural and horticultural products, mining and manufacturing industries, athletic exercises, a horse show at which feats of horsemanship and the various forms of fancy riding will be seen, and a magnificent military tournament, participated in by picked companies from the Oregon National Guard, are a few of the attractions at the carnival this year. The Southern Pacific Co. will sell tickets at low rates for this occasion, and will also run a special excursion from Ashland to Portland and return, stopping at all intermediate stations, the date and rates for which will be announced hereafter.

Nelson Limpus, from Barnard, Kansas, arrived here last week with his wife and daughter and for the present they are making their home with their son Edwin Limpus. After having spent twenty-one years in Kansas, during the last four years of which he occupied the position of postmaster at Barnard, he has cut all wires and burned the bridges behind him and has come to Oregon to spend the remainder of his days, and to say that he is pleased with the change is putting it mildly. The fine mountain scenery along the Columbia he says exceeds anything he ever before laid his eyes on and the country around Newberg pleases him even beyond his expectations. He resigned his position as postmaster will of course be a stunner to some, but a man can afford to do unusual things in order to pave the way for coming to so glorious a country as this Oregon of ours.

A fifteen year old boy whose last name is Penland and whose home is in Dayton, came down to Newberg the first of the week, saying that he had left home on account of the cruelty of his father, and wanted work of some kind. Telephone communication with Dayton substantiated the boy's story, and A. C. Churchill gave the youth a job out at his big prune orchard.

H. F. Allen was down from Union, Eastern Oregon, the first of the week on a business trip. In speaking of the President's death, he said that when the news was received at Union, some fellow was reported to have expressed satisfaction over the assassination, and that as a result an infuriated populace had been seeking him, ever since to administer a spot of tar and feathers. Similar treatment, though rather heroic might not be altogether out of order in one or two cases in this vicinity.

Although, closely following the death of the President, most fitting memorial exercises were held Sunday, when the general proclamation for Thursday services was issued, arrangements were at once made for other union memorial services, which were held yesterday forenoon in the Friends church, when an appropriate program of music and several short addresses, was rendered. The business houses of Newberg were closed all day yesterday in accordance with the proclamation by the mayor, L. M. Parker.

To bore for oil or not to bore, that is the question before the people, but there is only one answer to it and that is in the affirmative. More properly stated, the question is, "Are you going to bore for oil?" You certainly are if you are the wide-awake, progressive man we take you for. A very little money invested in this way may bring rich returns. Stock may be purchased for 50c per share, par value $1.00. The sooner you act, the better for all concerned.

To the Deaf.

"Have you any reason why sentence should not be pronounced against you?" asked the judge.

"Lots of them," replied the prisoner, nonchalantly, "but I guess my lawyer has worked them for all they're worth."—Puck.

He Owes His Life To The Forethought of a Companion.

While on a hunting trip in Webster county, Mr. S. I. Stamp, of Norman-town, W. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says, "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy."

Moral—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship, and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home without it. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., druggists.

ONE OF THESE DAYS, not far distant, there will be considerable excitement in these parts over the discoveries made by this company. History will repeat itself. Which are you going to do, ride in the band wagon or follow the calliope? There is room in this procession for every person in Yamhill county. Every sensible person should participate. There is room for them, and we need them. We know there are some people who, from lack of interest in our preliminary work and discovery, who, from the very strangeness of the proposition of connecting coal and oil deposits with this immediate section are slow to grasp the true situation. We believe that these people should at least make a little effort to investigate our enterprise. We should certainly have your good will. Whether this or that particular individual puts a dollar or not into this development work, we are going ahead. If we meet with success those people who do not assist will certainly be benefited; we can't help that. If there is any foundation for our efforts, and we believe there is, it's a queer man that would knock it. However, our sales of stock are very encouraging, and we will carry out to a finish our proposed work. The drill will go down and we are confident of the results. Stock at 50c per share, par value $1.00 paid up non-assessable, at office of secretary or Bank of Newberg.

For Nearly Two Years Unable to Lay in Bed

"In my capacity as druggist, in Buffalo, N. Y., I have the best opportunity to judge of the merits of many different remedies. I am in close touch with the sick, who come into my store for medicines, and most of them tell me how they are getting along. Of all the hundreds of preparations which I sell, not a single one begins to give as much satisfaction as Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pleurisy and Consumption. I sell it on a distinct guarantee that it will cure, or the purchaser's money will be returned. This is a perfectly safe guarantee, because the remedy does cure. Nobody wants his money returned. His cures are nothing short of marvelous. Take the case of Mr. A. H. Gilbert, for instance. He lives at No. 5 Carey street, Buffalo, N. Y. For more than three years he had a bad case of asthma, and had been unable to lie down in bed for nearly two years. He came to my store and asked me what to do. I said: 'Take Acker's English Remedy.' He said he had tried other remedies and didn't think this would help him. But he thinks differently now. Three bottles fixed his asthma all right. He could sleep and eat after taking them, as well as when a boy. He was cured several months ago, and is well yet, so I am certain his trouble is gone for good. You can write to Mr. Gilbert himself, if you doubt my word. He will go further than me in praising Acker's English Remedy." (Signed) S. B. THOMAS, druggist, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sold at 25c, 50c and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s, 2s, 3s, 4s, 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
