Garden Hose at Storey's. Treepass notices at this office. Stores! Stores! At Brunson's. Some good bargains at Brunson's. You find cigars and soft drinks at Star Bakery. T. B. Duncan & Sons will repair your umbrellas cheap. No hunting allowed on the college grounds this season. Mrs. B. C. Miles and children have been visiting relatives in Portland this week. Go to T. B. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock. The hunting season opens October 1. Get a new gun of T. B. Duncan & Sons. They handle the Ithaca, L. C. Smith and Winchester. Fred Mitchell who works in the mines at Wardner, Idaho, came down last week and visited relatives in this vicinity for a few days. The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock. Fay Sims has begun a business course at the Holmes Business College of Portland. He lives at home and makes daily trips back and forth. The news is waited in from Astoria-by-the-sea that on Monday, October 14, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Willis Townsend, formerly of Newberg. Mrs. Frank Wheeler of Cottage Grove returned home the middle of the week after visiting a few days with her uncle Rev. E. S. Craven and family out north of town. Acker's English Remedy will stop a cough at any time, and will cure the worst cold in twelve hours, or money refunded. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. druggists. A. M. Aspinwall, a recent arrival from Manchester, South Dakota, is out at S. W. Newhouse's, and is looking around in this vicinity with a view to purchasing property. Dr. Woods Hutchinson of Portland came up Friday evening and remained over Sunday visiting his mother, Mrs. E. C. Hutchinson, and sister Mrs. J. H. Douglas and family. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Edwards of Iowa, who have been here for some time visiting with the former's brother M. M. Edwards, left the first of the week for their eastern home. Harry Gardner seems fated with hard luck lately. When riding horseback down the street Friday morning his horse stumbled and fell on him, dislocating the rider's shoulder. Woodard Charles has concluded to turn granger, having rented the Hinman Cooper place on the side of the hill north of town. He will probably take possession in about a month. Mr. Levi Keys, of Ridgefarm, Illinois, who has been out seeing something of the West, stopped off here the latter part of last week and visited over Sunday with J. M. Wright and family, he having bought out Mr. Wright when the latter left Illinois for Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Turner, and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ramsdell came up from Portland Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with the former's brother D. H. Turner and family. Mr. Turner has the position of printing and binding clerk in the United States Senate. Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Haines and the latter's mother, who are out here visiting from Iowa, went down to Portland Saturday morning for a visit with D. P. Stratton's. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stratton and all enjoyed a family reunion, the first in fifteen years. A late issue of the Evening Herald, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, gives an interesting account of a grand reunion near that place, of the Terrell family, Matthew Terrell of this place being in attendance. The Herald speaks of the reunion as being one of the most notable family groups ever gathered together in the county. Rev. L. D. Barr, though always of the opinion that it pays to advertise, has had his convictions in this line greatly strengthened lately. A few weeks ago he had a notice in these columns to the effect that he wished to rent his residence property and as a result he has received letters of inquiry from strangers in Kansas, California and from different places in this state. Talk in a newspaper and your words are multiplied. In an extended editorial on "The Local Fair," last Saturday's Oregonian, along with other successful fairs makes favorable mention of the Newberg fair. Now as there has been no such enterprising institution held here for several years, it is presumed that the Oregonian used this means of designating and giving prominence to the McMinnville street fair which was not otherwise mentioned. It is well known, the prominence which our berg is acquiring, but it wasn't really suspected before that Newberg is becoming the whole thing in Yamhill in the eyes of the world. C. F. Moore was in Portland last week attending the meeting of the State Pharmaceutical Association, at the close of which he went on to Tacoma where he met the representative of an eastern house with which he does business and ordered his annual stock of Christmas goods. From there he went on to Seattle, where he visited a married sister whom he had not seen for twelve or fifteen years, and took in the sights. On Saturday they took a boat ride across to the navy yard at Bremerton, and were shown all through the warship Oregon which had just gone into dry-dock there. C. F. arrived home Monday evening greatly pleased over his short trip.

No. 1 bread at Star Bakery. If you want cheap furniture, go to Brunson. Lemons and best of candies at Star Bakery. The family of W. H. Bigelow moved to Portland Thursday. Call on J. M. Rittenhouse at Star Bakery. He will treat you squarely. Two lumber wagons for sale or trade. E. P. Utter. Air tight heating stoves made and repaired. ALFRED WHEELER, Plumber. Miss Lida Wilson is visiting in the capital city with Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Elliott. Clad Cummings has painted the photograph gallery adjoining the post-office this week. Do not experiment on Garden Hose. F. H. Storey is a practical hose man. Call on him before buying. Mrs. H. D. Harford, president of the state W. C. T. U. left here Wednesday morning to attend the national convention at Fort Worth, Texas. For sprains, swelling and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. druggists. STEREOPTIC ENTERTAINMENT—BURBS and His Highland Mary, 8 o'clock, October 22, at the M. E. church, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society. Admission 20 and 10 cents. At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, several speakers will take part in the service. All are cordially invited to attend. T. BROUILLETTE, Pastor. Experience is the best teacher. Use Acker's English Remedy in any case of coughs, colds or croup. Should it fail to give immediate relief money refunded. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. druggists. If you do not wish to miss a chance of a life time do not neglect to invest in the Yamhill Coal & Oil Co. Stock. A few $$$ invested in that way may bring you greater returns than several years hard labor on the farm or behind the counter. Henry Schneider Sr. who has been working in a dairy at North Powder, Union County, came home for a few days last week, returning again the middle of this, accompanied by Mrs. Schneider who will remain with him there for a time. Sick headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki Tea. A pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work, and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. E. W. Hall and family are arranging to start for their former home in Ohio in about two weeks, where they will remain for the greater part of the winter with Mr. Hall's parents who are quite old and in feeble health. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Miles, of Richmond, Indiana, who have been out here two years for the benefit of the latter's health, started back on their homeward journey Wednesday morning, Mrs. Miles being very low with consumption. Mr. and Mrs. Al Clark, the former being a brother of the stricken woman, accompanied them to Portland. For better football practice, the boys at the college have been divided into two teams, and on Tuesday evening lined up for their first practice game as the "never sweets" and "scrubs," captained by Maris and Jones respectively. For young fellows, and mostly new at the game, the playing was satisfactory, the "never sweets" winning the laurels. The young ladies of the college were present in full force and being divided in allegiance, cheered on their respective champions. In the Oregonian handbook just issued, Newberg receives favorable recognition in a way that makes for her the best kind of an advertisement. Under the head of "Horticulture" one paragraph reads, "Professor L. H. Bailey, of Cornell University, one of the greatest living authorities on horticulture, said during a visit to Oregon in August last that the 200 acre prune orchard of A. C. Churchill, near Newberg, in the Willamette Valley, was the finest orchard of prunes he ever saw anywhere." Another paragraph starts with, "Tons of the superb Royal Ann cherries of Oregon are now bought annually for export. These cherries are used in the confectionery trade. The Newberg district, near Portland, alone marketed 150 tons of cherries this year." Now if the complete returns were in from the evaporated prune crop of this vicinity, the good people at large would begin to open their eyes. At the state W. C. T. U. convention held at Astoria last week, some half dozen of the state officers elected for the ensuing year are from Newberg. Naturally feeling a little proud over this recognition, the local union wishing to "celebrate" in a dignified way, issued invitations to a reception held at the Baptist church Tuesday evening in honor of the resident state officers, who are as follows: President, Mrs. H. D. Harford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. K. Allen; evangelist, Mrs. Jane B. Votaw; superintendents of the department of literature, Mrs. Jennie Groff; parity, Mrs. Jane Blair; evangelistic work, Mrs. Nathan White; of the "Y" department, Mrs. G. W. Cutts. The attendance was good, and after those present had greeted the new officers, a program was rendered, consisting of short addresses by N. C. Christenson, Elder G. C. Carl, Rev. L. D. Barr, Professors Kelsey and Kirk, a vocal solo by Mrs. Chrisman and a reading by Mrs. R. W. Kelsey. The officers responded briefly after which all guests were served with light refreshments. Mrs. L. L. Votaw, the new president of the local union presided graciously over the exercises of the evening.

Hose that is O. K. and reasonable at Storey's. Roy Heater has departed for Eugene to pursue his course in athletics. Orchard boxes for sale by C. B. Wilson. Leave your order before the rush is on. Men's, women's and girls' shoes may be had at from 50c to $1.50 at W. H. Morsis' store. 10 25. Adrian Bowman who has been working at Noor, Alaska, for nearly two years, arrived home the first of the week. Grapes are rather slow ripening this season, but Mrs. Marr brought to this office a very nice sample of Concord's a few days ago. B. C. Miles finished picking the apples in his orchard below town a few days ago, the crop amounting to five hundred boxes. New students continue to enroll at the college and the question of adequate seating capacity in the chapel is confronting the management. Back in business again. Look out for new pictures in my display window. The latest in style and finish. Prices always right. C. C. SMITH. The axle hand factory building is already completed, on the railroad near Churchill's warehouse, and is ready for the reception of the expected machinery. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Barrows of Seattle, who had been visiting here for a couple of weeks with the former's father and sisters, returned home Thursday. Electric lights have been put into the Friends church this week and the old oil lamps will be relegated to the past along with their predecessor the tallow candle. J. H. Wood and wife arrived here from Redlands, California, on Tuesday, and will occupy the home of the latter on Fourth street, known as the Mrs. Ruckman property. On Thursday of last week Jas. Madison was stricken suddenly with apoplexy and has since been very low, despite an occasional indication of rallying. It is feared that he cannot recover. J. C. Duncan made a visit with relatives in Columbia county in company with his mother last week. Mrs. Lucinda Blanchard returned with them and will remain for some time. If you want an interesting and instructive souvenir of this great state of ours to send to Eastern friends, secure one of the Oregonian handbooks. They are on sale at the postoffice for seven cents apiece. Moki Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, produces a perfect complexion, or money refunded. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. drug gists. The prune industry is becoming an important feature industrially in this end of the county. One family in this neighborhood is in receipt of three hundred and fifty dollars as a result of its work during the short evaporating season, while many others have been doing the money in like proportion lately. Foot Ball Game—Tomorrow afternoon on the college campus the college boys will play a practice game of football with the town boys who have been picking prunes in Churchill's orchard and who are familiarly known as "the chain gang." No admission fee will be charged and all are invited to be on hand and see the fun. The noted evangelists Nathan and Esther Frame, are expected to arrive here from the East the latter part of the week and on Sunday will begin a series of revival meetings in the Friends church. The presence of such able evangelists is rare here and it is expected that the people will be quick to take advantage of it. Attention of readers is called to the two column display ad of R. Jacobson & Co. of McMinnville on the opposite page. It is a comfort to know that there are at least a few enterprising mercantile firms in Yamhill county, though the most so is fifteen miles from Newberg. By their up to date and progressive methods of advertising, R. Jacobson & Co. have reached out and built up by far the largest trade in this part of the country. For some time John Green and W. D. Lewis have been having trouble, the outcome of which is a trial in Justice Wright's court, which is in progress as the Graphic goes to press. The indictment is sworn out against Lewis by Green, who claims that the former has threatened to shoot him on sight. The attorneys for the prosecutor are Clarence Butt and R. L. Conner, while L. F. Hall and Jack Spencer are looking after the interests of the defendant. When Jesse Edwards was in Portland Monday, Mr. B. B. Miller, general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, presented to him for the college here a neatly framed motto which has been in the Portland Southern Pacific office for some time in a prominent position. Mr. Edwards took it over to the college Tuesday morning and at chapel exercises, with a few appropriate remarks, presented it to the students and hung it up before them, where it will remain. The motto is a good one for all to keep in mind, and reads as follows: Finck wins! It always wins. Though days be slow And nights be dark twixt days that come and go, Still pluck will win. Its average is sure. He gains the prize who can the most endure. Who faces losses, he who never shrinks. Who waits and watches and who always WORKS. Notice to Debtors. The firm of Sutton, Calkins & Co. will change hands the first of November. All persons indebted to them will please take notice, as all accounts are due on that date. SUTTON, CALKINS & Co.

It takes all kinds of people to make up the world, but if we ever make a demonstration on this oil business in Yamhill county it will require a larger number of people of one kind, and one mind, than we to date have been able to shake out of the box. We challenge any man in Yamhill county or any other county, to come to the front and produce any evidence, proof or otherwise, that this company's lands do not contain every true indication, every evidence known as to the existence of oil. It is not on record in this county, or any other county in the world, that the people in any particular section where the true indications of oil were found produced so few to respond to a legitimate effort to make a development. There are all kinds of reasons advanced to explain this situation, but we have heard none that could apply to any man of horse sense. We propose to have your assistance if a drill goes down. Remember that we mean business. Remember that we are going to keep right at it and if we cannot interest you in one way we will find another. We are working for no individual in particular. What we are trying to do will benefit you the same as the other fellow. You can save us considerable time, expense and trouble by responding promptly to the dictates of your best judgement. We are confident you could, by a little effort, work yourself up to the idea of believing that this company has inaugurated an important work in the development of our resources, and we are confident that you can figure out that directly or indirectly you, and every other man in Yamhill county will receive substantial gains should our development prove true. All we ask is for you to act, to do your part, to purchase $10 or $20 worth of stock, assist in the accumulation of a fund sufficient to secure proper equipment and open up our development.

A Mother's Plain Words

"I suppose you will be astonished when I tell you that six years ago I was in a most dangerous condition with bronchitis and lung trouble, because you can see how well and strong I am now. The attack at that time caused terrible pain in my chest and lungs. I could hardly move, and to sleep caused intense suffering. Someone advised Acker's English Remedy, and I thought I would try it, although I confess that down in my heart I had little faith in it. The first bottle gave great relief, and the second bottle made me the healthy woman I am today. My husband's lungs are weak also, and he cured himself with the same grand old remedy. Our boy and girl have both been saved by it from death by croup. I know this is so, for when they were attacked in the night I had a bottle in the closet, and by acting quickly that fatal malady was easily overcome. We always give it to the children when they have a cough or cold, and we would not be without it for anything. My sister will tell you also, if you ask her, that it is a medicine that can always be depended upon for all the troubles of the breathing organs. I tell all our neighbors about Acker's English Remedy whenever I get a chance, and there are plenty of people around Mechanicsville, N. Y., where I live, who would no more think of going to bed at night without a bottle of it in the house than they would of leaving their doors wide open. As I look at it, parents are criminally responsible when they allow their children to die under their very eyes with croup, because here is a certain remedy that will conquer the terrible monster every time."

(Signed) Mrs. FLOYD FOWLER.
