

Some Distinction in That.
Don't let my refusal of your proposal embitter you, Mr. Simpkins.
He—Oh, not at all. After all, it is something to have been rejected by a girl who owns a $500 dog.—Detroit Free Press.

Nothing New in That.
"You can't dispute the miracles in the Bible, man. Why just consider the raising of Lazarus!"
"Humph! I've seen people raised that have been dead longer than Lazarus. Why my wife raises Cain every day!"—Denver Times.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 15th.—A Medical authority says: "In many families throughout the world the Thanksgiving feast takes the place of the family physician, for practically everyone suffers from disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels. Certainly from no other medicine can such good results be obtained. This herb remedy makes people well, thus greatly increasing their capacity for enjoying life. It is good for young and old."

The Cheerful Wight.
"Yes, he's always happy when he's hunting for work."
"What a cheerful disposition. And is he never discouraged, never sad?"
"Only when he finds it."—Philadelphia Press.

Brotherly Assistance.
Rodrick—They saw that Beaker was held up by masked men the other night.
Van Albert—Yes; it was at the masquerade ball. If they hadn't held him up he'd never got home.—Chicago Daily News.

Long live the King! The King is Wizard Oil; Pain his enemies, whom he conquers.

Rather Serious.
Wife—I had to get a policeman to put out the cook.
Husband—Gone, is she?
"Oh, no. He proved to be her best fellow, and they're both waiting for you in the back hall."—Life.

The Difference.
Pater—You are very forward, sir. In my day the young man waited until he was asked to call.
Young Man—Yes, and now he waits until he's asked not to call.

Good Reason.
Arthur—Has the widow given you any reason to hope?
Chester—Yes; she told me last night that I reminded her of the only husband she had ever really loved.
