

NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER. W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1901.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS. The subscription price of the Graphic is $1.50 a year, but to those who pay strictly in advance the price is $1. Cash talks, and the man who pays in advance is entitled to consideration. Pay up, save fifty cents a year and keep a clear conscience.

Dewey and the people have exonerated Schley, which is a good deal more than Maclay and the naval clique which have persecuted him will ever be able to say.

The ratification of the Hay-Panchofote treaty by the senate insures the building of the great canal and thus crystallizes the dreams of many years relative to the much desired enterprise.

A man that boasts that he hears gossip and idle talk about all his neighbors or fellow church members, makes the sorriest kind of an admission as to his own calibre. As a rule a man has poured into his ears what they itch to hear.

It is now estimated that it will cost about $1,000,000 a mile to construct the Nicaragua canal. If Uncle Sam takes the contract and completes the work, even at that enormous cost, he will doubtless give his neighbors pointers on paying out on such a proposition.

Some of H. W. Corbett's most bitter political opponents are ascribing ulterior political motives to his enthusiastic efforts and liberal support in behalf of the 1905 exposition. Politically, the Graphic has never been a supporter of Mr. Corbett, but thinks such an imputation very little-minded and unfair when cast against a man who has for years done all that he has for the best interests and upbuilding of Oregon.

The American Flag Association of New York and allied societies are making vigorous efforts to have congress pass a law making base and improper use of the national emblem a penalty. For years public sentiment has been cultivated on this subject of flag desecration, but as yet in vain so far as practical results are concerned. The flag defenders are actuated by the highest motives and are pushing a reform worthy of general support.

United States Senator Wellington from Maryland is now passing through the experiences of a man without a party. Having sored on the republicans because of a little personal difference with President McKinley, he turned to the democrats who, however, refuse to recognize such a man who is characterized as "the little end of nothing whittled down." The sifting and shifting of American politics occasionally advances by mistake, a rare freak to positions of great responsibility and honor, and of such mistakes Wellington is one of the worst. However he is a mistake which his state will soon remedy.

A brother editor who evidently sees things in life as they are says of an individual we all know: "There is no excuse for a man to live in a town if he doesn't like it. If you have no word of commendation or say of your town, its institutions or its people, emigrate. You won't stop the clock by going away; the church bells will have the same musical ring, the little dogs will play just as briskly; the fish in the creek will bite just as well, and the pure air, bright sunshine and sparkling water will have the same health-giving properties. Speak a good word for your neighbor if you can; if you can't, don't overestimatingly enlarge on his faults. If you have become thoroughly sour and disgruntled, move away; go somewhere where things suit you."

HOODLUMISM.

Editor Graphic:— It has come to be a matter of common complaint among the respectable people of Newberg that night after night, under the pretext of getting the family mail, young boys and young girls congregate around the postoffice, and that many of the young girls conduct themselves in a manner most reprehensible. Young girls of 14 to 16 years of age have, at times, seemed to lose all sense of modesty, engaging in boisterous and vulgar rejoinders with boy associates. Even strangers have been subjected to their sallies, and have been compelled to rebuke in scathing terms the unchaste speeches in which some of our girls approach them.

If parents cannot be brought to see the evil of allowing their daughters the mistaken liberty every night in the week of drifting into promiscuous intercourse of looks and smiles, and unchaste manners and insinuations, without any other restraint than their own conceit they will have themselves to blame if some of these days spectacles are witnessed that will bring sorrow upon the homes. For, had as this growing libertinage is in itself, it is, in the very nature of things, bound to bring trouble into some home, if steps are not soon taken to put a stop to it.

We presume that there is no law to force parents to keep their children off the streets at night, but there ought to be some means of putting a stop to the dangerous and offensive practices complained of. Perhaps the stigma of public opinion directed against the nuisance may be sufficient to remove it. We hope it may.

AN ANXIOUS OBSERVER.

Class Oratorical Contests. "Is the spirit of oratory passing?" is a common question of discussion nowadays. The scenes presented in the college chapel Monday and Tuesday evenings—the number of orators, the class of work presented, and the large and enthusiastic audiences present, would seem to answer the much mooted question decidedly in the negative.

On Monday evening the Sophomores alone contested for honors, the Seniors not being able to appear for various reasons. Seven orators relieved themselves of pent up streams of "logic on fire" and were all so close together that it made very difficult marking for the judges, Rev. F. C. Stannard, Rev. H. Gould, Prof. R. W. Kirk, O. K. Edwards and W. C. Woodward. The class of 1901 is the banner class of orators up to date. The speakers and their subjects were, Calvin Blair, "Municipal Reform"; Herman Smith, "Daniel O'Connell"; Aubrey Kramien, "Thomas Jefferson"; Viola Patton, "England's Grand Old Man"; Carrie Turner, "Patrick Henry"; Gussie Crawford, "Lynch Law"; Carl Nelson, "Influence of Superior Minds". The decision read, Viola Patton first, Carl Nelson second, and Gussie Crawford third. The oration of Calvin Blair is deserving of special mention, it being marked well ahead of any other paper. Music for the evening was furnished by Miss Mildred Johnson instrumental, and by Miss Stuart and Prof. Rosenberger, vocal.

On Tuesday evening the Junior and Freshmen class contests come off per schedule. For the former appeared Dwight Coulson, on "Anarchy"; Lucy Gause on "John Marshall" and Ethel Heater on "Growth of Religious Freedom". Mr. Coulson received first place with Miss Gause a close second. The Freshman speakers and their subjects were, C. L. Niswonger, "Books"; Edith Fugh, "Wm. McKinley"; Frankie Hollingsworth, "John Adams"; Edna Hobson, "Progress and Poverty". The judges on this evening's exercises, Rev. F. C. Stannard, Mrs. J. T. Smith, Miss Jessie Britt, W. C. Woodward and W. S. Parker gave Miss Hobson first and Mr. Niswonger second place. The musicians of the evening were Miss Britt, piano, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Winslow piano and violin, and Miss Stuart vocal. On both evenings, Prof. F. K. Jones of the faculty presided.

Yamhill December Products.

Ripe berries the middle of December in such liberal quantities as to take them out of the freak class are reported quite frequently. J. A. McCullough and G. W. Olds each brought samples to our table the past few days. The berries are large, plump and of good flavor. The Willamette valley is a good all round country. It is neither tropical nor semi-tropical, but salubrious and equable.—Telephone-Register.

R. A. Porter brought to this office yesterday, five Peerless potatoes that weighed 25 pounds. Yamhill against the world, and don't forget it.

Mrs. Ray presented this office with a beet last week that measures thirty inches around. The beet is of the red table variety and is a fine specimen. The McMinnville News man is all right on measure but he will have to "dig" another beet to beat our beet.—Sheridan Sun.

George Douglas brought to this office Tuesday morning, a few stocks of vegetables grown on the premises of his father adjoining town, which are remarkable for their growth for this season of the year. The samples measure 7 1/2 feet in length, all of which growth has been made since harvest. Mr. Douglas is a heavy producer, and fast friend to this class of fodder, and well might be, as his success with it fully justifies.—North Yamhill Record.

December's record in the line of producing summer fruits has been a phenomenal one this year. Friday of last week the family of H. P. Newton enjoyed ripe raspberries picked from their garden that day, in the vicinity of St. Joe. Mr. Newton picked some the following day and brought to the Reporter's office. The fruit had attained nearly the same degree of perfection as in mid-summer which is unusual, even in the salubrious and equable climate of Yamhill.—Yamhill Reporter.

For Sale on Contract.

Ten acres, one mile west of Newberg depot; eight acres in prunes for $800, on five years time at 6 per cent interest, and one acre in town for $300 on same terms. L. Root, McMinnville, Or.

The Up-To-Date Boy.

"Were you the smartest boy in your school?" asked the very bright boy. "Why-er-no, not exactly," answered his father. "Did you know as much as I do when you were my age?" "I don't believe I did." "Are you even at this late date able to extract the cube root of a number without referring to a text-book?" "No—no, I don't believe I can." "That's all," said the very bright boy, as he turned to his books. Then he heaved a sigh, and with a look of deepest reproach, exclaimed, "Parents often turn out to be a terrible disappointment to their children nowadays."

A Woman Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. C. F. Moore & Co.

"Is God's Good Blessing" "I feel that God has blessed Dr. Acker with special knowledge to prepare that grand medicine called Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. It saves children every time when they are attacked by Croup. Every mother should know about it, and I will tell about my experience. I had a darling boy of four years to die with croup. My doctor did all he could, but the child could not be made to vomit. That was before I knew of Acker's English Remedy. After I did hear of it, I got a bottle. When our little eighteen-months-old girl was stricken with croup, I gave her this medicine, and inside of twenty minutes she vomited and was better right away. During the winter she had croup four times, and it brought her through each time all right. I myself, had bronchitis pretty bad, and Acker's English Remedy cured me completely. Before I close, I want to tell you of my neighbor's boy, named Jobe Nana. He had bronchitis, too. He got worse all the time. My husband went over to his house and told him about my case. Then his mother went to town, got a 50-cent bottle of Acker's English Remedy, and he took it. He came over to our house a few days later and said he was all right, and also said two doses relieved him from the start. You can understand by my letter why I think so much of Acker's English Remedy. I repeat that God's blessing must surely have been bestowed upon Dr. Acker." (Signed) MRS. JOHN YEAGER, Rochester, Pa. Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s, 2s, 3s, 4s, 6d.
