Miss Stella McDaniel of Portland made a short visit in town the latter part of last week. Milk, 1 quart $1.25 per month; 1 pint, 75c per month; gallon, 15c; special delivery, gallon 20c. G. Everest. Putnam Fadeless Dyes are as easy to use as soap. No muss or failures. 10c per package. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co. While passing Wilson's Grocery, just stop in and take a look at the prize Baking Powder. It is the finest that ever came to town. The best of fresh and salt meats the market affords will be found at the Newberg Meat Market. The highest prices paid for butcher's stock. I have in my hands the books of T. M. Witten and those knowing themselves indebted to him will please call and settle. L. F. Hall. W. O. Bians, who is traveling for the Oregonian Publishing Company as agent for the work "Modern Eloquence," was in Newberg the first of the week. Miss Lucy Gause gave a watch party Tuesday evening, to which a number of her friends were invited. All enjoyed a pleasant evening and greeted 1902 in approved manner. Mr. W. F. Edwards and lady returned to their Portland home Monday morning, having spent several days with their parents here. During their visit Walter attended to some business in other parts of the county. Moki Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, produces a perfect complexion, or money refunded. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. drug gists. W. A. Baird and family of Hood River, who had been visiting relatives in town for a week or ten days, returned home the first of the week. Mr. Baird is a brother of D. W. Baird, and an uncle of Geo. Baird and Mrs. B. F. Hevland. E. Rasmussen, who came over here from Denmark last year, and who has been working over in Eastern Oregon for some months, came down during the holidays and visited with his uncle H. C. Paulson and family, out north of town. Mr. Sam Atkinson has retired from active connection with the creamery and will return to farm work. With building a large barn, caring for their fine cows, looking after the big hogs, and feeding the premium turkeys and ninety-nine other things he will not be idle. The board of directors of the Newberg public school has purchased a Rev. Barr his fine set of Encyclopedia Britannica, which will be placed in the school library for the use of the students. This is a substantial acquisition to the school's equipment which should be greatly appreciated by the pupils. Mrs. A. M. Niles of White Horse, Yukon Territory, was in the city Tuesday, looking after her property on south River street. This is her first visit here in nine years and she notes with much pleasure the many advancements that are being made. Mrs. Niles has left orders with the Newberg Land Co., who have charge of her property, for some decided improvements to her residence and grounds. The published program of the "Oregon Farmer's Congress" to be held at Salem next week, January 6-9, under the different state farmers' associations, gives indication that an interesting and beneficial conference will be held. Questions relating to dairy and fruit and hop interests, and to the raising of livestock will all receive due attention. Newberg is most nearly represented on the program by O. V. Allen who is to talk on "The Future Outlook for Small Fruit." Aunt Amy Edwards of Mooresville, Indiana, remembered her friends and relatives here on Christmas with some of her own handiwork, made up of fancy colored sheet wadding and shaded Saxony yarns, that are certainly unique and very pretty indeed. The favored recipients were Mrs. Jesse, Mrs. C. J., Mrs. W. F., Mrs. O. K. and Miss Mabel Edwards and Aunt Julia Maris and Mrs. F. A. Morris. Aunt Amy is 84 years old and aside from the value as tokens of her love, the dainty presents are beauties, and give evidence of her skill and taste even at this advanced age. Wm. Manning is showing around some interesting souvenirs of our new Asiatic water possessions which his son Will lately brought back from the Philippines. The one he prizes most highly is a fine cane which his son whittled out of ebony wood, which by the way is one of the important factors of wealth of the islands. The head of the cane is set off by a Spanish silver coin, while the other end is tipped with a Remington cartridge. Another memento, the sight of which is inclined to send the cold chills humping up a fellows spine, is a bottle containing a host of preserved bugs, lizards and other crawling things, every one of which with one exception is poisonous. Mr. Manning also shows samples of Filipino money which never fail to produce a smile. He has three pieces, which together equal a cent and a quarter in our money. And in the shape of an almighty dollar he exhibits a piece of bronze metal almost big enough to serve as a lid on a tea pot.

Fresh oysters at the fish market. The Douglas Studio for Photos. Wilson's Grocery is headquarters for Oysters. Mrs. J. W. Barrie is spending a few days visiting in Portland. Frank Taylor of McMinnville made a New Years call on Newberg friends. Air tight heating stoves made and repaired. ALFRED WHEELER, Plumber. W. B. Sims came up from Portland and visited in town with his family over Sunday. Dr. H. J. Littlefield and family, and Hon. J. C. Nelson and wife spent New Years with relatives in LaFayette. Mr. Perkins of Dayton, an expert creamery man, will be in charge of the creamery here from four to six weeks. Miss Edie Pressnell has received a Remington type writer and is hard at work acquiring the art of "printing her writin'." Mr. and Mrs. John Pemberton enjoyed a short visit this week from their married daughter and her husband of Portland. Atkinson Bros. shipped three of their fine Poland China hogs Wednesday, one to Sherwood, one to Halsey, and one up into Washington. The Spaulding Logging Company has received orders from California for some ten car loads of lumber in addition to that mentioned last week. C. F. Butler attended the state poultry show in Portland one day the first of the week. Some of his White Plymouth Rocks are on exhibition there. Back in business again. Look out for new pictures in my display window The latest in style and finish. Prices always right. C. C. SMITH. Miss Maud Willis returns to her school work at the Monmouth State Normal the latter part of this week after having spent the holidays at her home out at Chehalis Center. Charlie Wilson's children, Lois and the baby, have been very sick during the past week, but now we share the joy of the parents at the prospect of the speedy recovery of both. Rev. L. D. Barr preached his farewell sermon in the Friends church last Sunday morning to a large audience. His discourse, able and forcible, gave a fitting close to his faithful service as pastor of the large church at this place. A young man named Harry Terrell arrived from Kansas the latter part of last week and is visiting in the family of Allen Smith. It will behoove young men here who believe in the watchword, "Oregon for Oregonians," to keep an eye on Kansas. Sick headache absolutely and permanently cured by using Moki Tea. Is pleasant herb drink. Cures constipation and indigestion, makes you eat, sleep, work, and happy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. Chas. Rittenhouse has been industriously circulating a paper about town, petitioning the state military board to organize a company of militia at this place. Judging from the large number of signers, there must be grave apprehension of a Quaker uprising at Newberg. Mrs. J. B. Mount received a telegram Wednesday evening announcing the serious illness of her mother, whom she visited in Iowa, a few weeks ago. This was shortly followed by another announcing her death. Mrs. Mount left Thursday morning intending to arrive at her old home in time to attend the funeral services. J. S. Gross, who has been selling dry goods here for some weeks, has decided to remain in Newberg and conduct a general merchandise business, for which purpose he has rented the J. C. Sawyer building for one year. He begins by planting a display ad in the Graphic and will thus keep readers informed on his bargain pointers. From the looks of things we are inclined to think that it will not be long until the Southern Pacific Railroad Co. will extend their road from Sheridan to Tillamook city. There is a natural pass through the Coast mountains from Sheridan to Tillamook city, and no other railroad company can put a road through as easy as the S. P. over this route. It is said, on pretty good authority, the S. P. are to lay heavier rails on their main line from Portland to the California line, and that the rails that are now being used, will be used on the extension from Sheridan to Tillamook city. Keep your eye on Sheridan.—Sheridan Sun. If they have found oil on the Portland Coal Development Co.'s property, doesn't it stand to reason that oil also exists on the Yamhill Coal & Oil Co.'s property? The property is only a short distance from where the Portland Co. struck oil recently. This ought to be evidence enough to sell every share of the Yamhill Coal & Oil Co.'s stock at par. Just ask some stockholder if he will take 50c per share for his stock. We will guarantee that you can't buy many shares at that price from shareholders, but the company will still give you an opportunity of buying a few shares of $1 par value, fully paid up and non-assessable, at 50c per share. On last Friday evening Miss Jessie Britt gave a large number of her friends a very pleasant evening's entertainment at her home in the east part of town. Social games, music and refreshments were factors in the general enjoyment, and the guests made merry until a late hour. Those present were the Misses Maud Dorrance, Edna Allen, Mabel Edwards, Gertrude and May Lamb, Pearl Cummings, Olive Stratton, Maud Soper, Nervia Wright, Onie David and Messrs. Geo. Larkin, Otto Pickett, Roy David, Sarg Britt, H. G. Rosenberger, E. W. Kirk, W. S. Parker, Arthur Holson, W. C. Woodward, R. W. Jones, Prof. and Mrs. F. K. Jones and Prof. and Mrs. E. W. Kelsey.

Turkey feathers for sale at Wilson's grocery. The Graphic and National Magazine for $1.00. T. B. Duncan & Sons will repair your umbrellas cheap. For a turkey dinner get your supplies at Wilson's grocery. Clint Newhouse and sister Miss Bell spent part of the holidays visiting in the Hadley family near Dayton. Mrs. J. W. Bewley of Salem spent part of the holidays in town visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Winslow. Miss Elva Templeman of Sherwood has been visiting in this vicinity with Miss Corie Hadley. She says her folks contemplate moving soon to McMinnville. Acker's English Remedy will stop a cough at any time, and will cure the worst cold in twelve hours, or money refunded. 25c and 50c. C. F. Moore & Co. druggists. Miss Myra Yeager of Hoppner, who is attending the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, spent her vacation in Newberg visiting her friend Miss Lillian McNay. Mrs. F. A. Elliott gave a supper to her Sunday school class of boys Monday evening in honor of Master Byron Barr, who soon takes his departure for California with his parents. Miss Edie Plankington of Falls City, visited friends in town this week. She is teaching school near her home this year, but her Newberg friends hope to see her in college here again next fall. Mrs. Wm. Everest brought in a fine full bloom red rose the other day, which she had just picked from her flower garden. It's a hard proposition to locate the "last rose of summer" in these parts. The New Year was escorted in at Newberg with the ringing of bells, and the blowing of the factory and mill whistles, and a general hullabaloo withal. Undaunted by the noise, it got here just the same. In the trap shooting contest here on Wednesday, the Carter boys from above Dayton got the most ducks. W. E. Mills proved to be the crack shot of the local sports, getting a duck at every one of four shots. Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Allen returned to Salem yesterday after visiting a week with relatives in Newberg. O. V. took great pleasure, and well he might, in introducing his bride to a host of cousins and friends in this vicinity. Pres. H. E. McGrew arrived home on Thursday evening of last week from Philadelphia, where he attended the Peace and Arbitration Conference. He has been laid up with a very severe cold this week and confined at home. Mr. O. Lefler a prominent farmer and onion raiser living near Wopato Lake, was in town Tuesday trading. He has been working in connection with the coal mine and reports that they are in to the mountain about 340 feet, and that the quality of coal is good. Mr. Lewis Hanson who has been connected with the saw mill for two months past has severed his connection there and began Wednesday to learn the creamery business. After about a month he will have charge of the creamery and will be ready to change our dairy product into rich golden butter. The industry will suffer nothing by the change. The debt which has hung over Pacific College so long has been paid and the mortgage which was held by David Seull, of Philadelphia, was surrendered to Pres. McGrew when he was in that city recently. A jubilee for the celebration of the payment of the debt will be held at the college on next Monday evening at 8 o'clock when the mortgage will be burned. A short program will be given which will be of interest to all friends of the college. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend and assist in the celebration. It appears that the officers of the state poultry association stooped to a low trick to shut out Yamhill's prize winning fowls, in order to save the premiums for themselves. According to the McMinnville News eight coops of chickens were sent down to the show from that place, and unavoidably arriving a few hours late, were set outside in the street without any care, the owners not even being notified. There are just a few fellows whose connection with the association prevents such dealing from being very surprising. They are big guns, but are known from away back as fellows, who, not being able to win in open competition, do not hesitate to use shady methods to beat an opponent. DUNDEE ITEMS. My! What weather! Mr. Jay Ryan has bought the Jas. Conlee property here. The sports of Dundee had a shooting match on Monday but not many were out. Mrs. B. S. Hunter is spending the holidays in Portland with her son and old friends. Miss Lel Crosby and Mr. Fred Watson have been spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Crosby. The children of this vicinity were treated to quite a surprise by Santa Claus appearing in his postoffice at the church, having mail for all. The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Ackley Ryan died last Monday night at 6:30. Dr. David Rafferty of Portland pronounced the disease tuberculosis meningitis of the brain. Little Sylvia was 2 years 6 months of age. Last Thursday while the freight train was setting out a car of ties on the spur here, the track just melted out from under it and all went in a heap, badly damaging the car. May we have some more of it and then maybe the S. P. Co. will put in some decent track. N.Y.

THE YAMHILL COAL & OIL COMPANY! Newberg, Oregon. CAPITAL STOCK $50,000 Par Value $1.00 per Share Paid up and NON ASSESSABLE. A. C. Churchill, Pres. Dr. H. J. Littlefield, Vice Pres. A. P. Oliver, Sec'y. J. C. Colcord, Treas. Clarence Butt, Attorney. Bank of Newberg, Depository. DIRECTORS: S. M. Calkins, N. E. Brit, C. A. Hodson, H. J. Littlefield, A. P. Oliver, J. C. Colcord, A. C. Churchill. Most of our work in the past to interest you in the affairs of this company has been on sentimental grounds. We are fully alive to the fact that sentiment and dollars seldom mix, in business or in politics. We had full confidence that a development of coal and oil in this vicinity would appeal to and secure the moral support of every man in the community. We give every man credit for the ability to appreciate the value of such development and we had hopes that your sentiment would lead to your support to the extent of a few dollars. Our plans worked out to date have met with a fair measure of success. We have over 300 stockholders. Not one of these shareholders has any burden to carry and at the same time have exclusive rights to the purchase of this company's stock, should our development pan out. Opinions of course are various as to our work and success, but there are one or two things you can bank and bet on. Our work originated from the fact that we possess on lands of the company, every known indication to the presence of oil. This was not the judgement and opinion of local people, it's the positive knowledge of people who are fully familiar with coal and oil in all countries known to produce the same. The geological conditions with us are the same, without exception, and that's where we think we are well grounded. Without these conditions oil cannot exist; that's the fact, that wipes out distance and makes our property in prospective value just as good as that of any company, who are working on prospects in a known oil country. We are not alone in the exploiting of oil in Oregon. From the California line north to Newberg seven machines will be at work soon. Three are now working. Now you never heard of any country where prospecting for oil became general that a find was not made. All these people are after it because, geologically, Oregon promises a true field. All the knowledge gained by discoveries in Pennsylvania, Texas and California will confirm the efforts of those now engaged in Oregon.

The Oregon State Board of Agriculture will likewise hold special meetings for the purpose of preparing a program for next year's State Fair.
