Few are entirely free from it. It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood. It may then present irregularity of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in much more serious eruption or glandular swelling. It is best to be sure that you are quite free from it, and for its complete eradication you can rely on

Nursemaids Behind British Recruits.
General Buller once explained why it was necessary to put such showy clothing on most of the troops: "Because a showy uniform attracts Mary Ann, the nursemaid, who makes Tommy Atkins join the army. In plain uniforms, you would find recruiting a harder job than ever."

The Peruna Almanac.
The druggists have already been supplied with Peruna almanacs. There is sure to be a great demand for these almanacs on account of the articles on astrology which they contain. The subject of astrology is a very attractive one to most people. The articles on astrology in the Peruna almanac have been furnished by a very competent astrologist and the mental characteristics of each sign is given, constituting almost a complete horoscope. A list of lucky and unlucky days for each month is given. There will be a great rush for these books. Ask your druggist for one early before they are all gone.

To Prevent Telegraphist's Paralysis.
Telegraphist's paralysis is to be prevented by a new telegraph key. The key has a handle large enough to be grasped by the entire hand, and can be turned at any angle or set in any position the operator may prefer for ease.

He Renounced the Faith.
The Rochester Post-Express tells of a godfather who, when asked in the course of the service if he believed what all Christians hold as the essentials of the faith, answered with emphasis, "I renounce them all," to the consternation of the parson and all the witnesses.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Bell, of 707 Ninth St., N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "Four months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely paralyzed. The attack was unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the best physicians in Washington, who also is a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his ministrations and I would get well. After having it given twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I decided to continue no longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swiss) I immediately procured a bottle, and in despair resolved to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hold around my feet, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me a second time. All the rheumatic pains have left me, my appetite has returned and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits. We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism for every sufferer from this painful disease should read. Beggars Pursue Carnegie.
While in Pittsburgh the other day Andrew Carnegie was forced to leave the house in which he was staying by a rear door and drive off in a carriage to escape a crowd of people begging money for charitable objects—many of them for libraries. Mr. Carnegie receives over 300 begging letters a day.

A WOMAN'S SUCCESS

AN INTERESTING STORY OF HOW SHE ATTAINED IT.

For a Long Time It Seemed That Good Fortune Would Not Come—An Apparent Trifle Brought It About.

As with many other women, fortune lingered a long while before coming to Mrs. Knowles. But finally a trifling occurrence brought it to her. Mrs. George M. Knowles lives at No. 16 North street, Portland, Me., and when a reporter visited her to learn the facts of the case, she said: "For a year and a half I suffered tortures from rheumatism. When I arose in the morning or when I got up to walk after I had been sitting down for a while, my joints became stiff and I could not move easily as I had before. The rheumatism set in. My feet ached and I could not walk without limping for some minutes after I started out. It was very painful and interfered a great deal with my household duties."

"How did you succeed in becoming cured?" asked the newspaper man.
"It was one of those apparently little things that brought it about," replied Mrs. Knowles, with a smile. "I had been suffering in this way for a year and a half when one day I happened to pick up the paper and to see an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I made up my mind to try them. When I had taken one box I felt better and after I had taken the pills for about two months all the pain was gone. This was a year ago, and the rheumatism has not troubled me since."

The above statement of Mrs. Knowles was sworn to at the reporter's request before Marshall H. Purinton, notary public, at Portland, and published in the Express, a reliable newspaper of that city.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People will not only cure cases similar to that of Mrs. Knowles, but, containing, as they do, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves, they have proved efficacious in a wide range of diseases. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of grip, of fevers and of other acute diseases, palpitation of the heart, pale and swollen complexion and all forms of weakness, either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents a box; six boxes, two dollars and fifty cents, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Be sure and get the genuine; substitutes never cured anybody.

Old Philadelphia.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an impure condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, it has a tendency to close, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. It is a scientific fact, established by Cascares (Candy Cathartic) which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Out at Sea.
Mrs. Gull (angrily)—I heard what you said to that Miss Seaweed. Mr. Gull—Heard what? Mrs. Gull—Heard you say just as plain as day, "Meet me at the pier, dearest." Mr. Gull—Oh, rats! You just ran into one of those wireless messages from that steamer.—Judge.

Press Bringing Universal Peace.
Max O'Rell, who recently joined the staff of the Paris Figaro, thinks that the press now fulfills the duties formerly monopolized by diplomacy and urges his companions of the pen to refrain from writing on any subject with which they have not at least an elementary acquaintance. If this plan were followed everywhere he says that twenty years hence the peace of the world would be assured.

Broke His Circuit.
The shades of the goose and the turkey were discussing the circumstances which had attended their respective takings off.
"Did you offer any objection when I set the cruel farmer laid hands on you?" sympathetically inquired the gobbler.
"Yes," replied his goosehip; "I cried out: 'Hello, what's this?'"
"What did you say next?" inquired the now thoroughly interested fowl.
"Oh," the goose replied, "I did not say anything more; just then I was wrung off."—Michigan Lyre.

Sultan's Pet Lions.
Among the pets of the Sultan of Morocco are seven lions. These he permits to range the courtyards of the palace at night, to act as guards to the royal harem.

What has become of the old-fashioned mother who allowed her children to come to the breakfast table in their night gowns?
Among foolish people it is counted a token of rude breeding if a man spends an hour without making an apology.

Local Option in Mississippi.
Few as the saloons are in Mississippi, they pay nearly one-third of the state's total income from privilege taxes. Mississippi is regarded as one of the most ultra prohibition states, made so by the anti-saloon sentiment in a majority of the counties under the local option system. Fourteen of the counties pay the bulk of the $150,000 received annually from this tax.

A Hero Indeed.
She—I shall marry no man who is not a hero. He—Say that you'll be mine and I'll prove that I am one. She—Oh Adolphus, how? He—'I'll go right in and "ask papa."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

PROMINENT PHYSICIANS USE AND ENDORSE PE-RU-NA.

Kansas has produced the magistrate who decides on a man's condition of sobriety, or the reverse, by making him walk a crack Cape Girardeau, Mo., has done better and produced a flight of stepping stones along which supposedly intoxicated persons must walk to insure their freedom from incarceration. "Coon Hollow" is a bit of low ground lying south of the Court House at Cape Girardeau. Beyond it live the poorer folk and the less useful portions of the local population. The hollow is something of a sink hole, and in times of heavy rains becomes considerable of a morass. To the inhabitants of the trasholow region the stepping stones across have always been a source of trouble. They were so necessary that their removal has never been seriously considered, for without them any man who attempted to walk through the hollow in the mud would probably stick fast till help came. Even with them there enough of the inhabitants fall off in the mud and have only the stones to cling to for safety.

Charlie Armgard is town marshal of Cape Girardeau. He has many a bit of trouble with the settlers beyond the stepping stones, and has often debated with himself whether or not to "run in" some of them who seemed to have had a drink too much. One night he was escorting home one who pretended he was sober. They reached the stepping stones all right, but there the assistant trouble began. He could go a couple of steps and then he would miss, sway off and pitch into the mire. Marshal Armgard's patience was soon exhausted. After the fourth or fifth attempt he hauled his prisoner away to jail. That was how he got the idea. Now when he has a questionable prisoner from beyond Coon Hollow he takes him forthwith to the stepping stones, stands him on the first block, and sits down on the bank to watch him go home.

If the suspect goes steadily across the line he is all right and can stay on the other side. If he wavers a little, and still clings to the stones, he is all right. But if he staggers and plunges off, if he misjudges the distance between his foot and the stones and falls or trips—woe to him, for the marshal comes after him and leads him back to the lock-up.

"GO WAY BACK AND SIT DOWN."

Origin of Slang Phrase that is as Popular as a Popular Song.
The popular phrase, "Go 'way back and sit down," has been credited to many sources, said a New York music publisher, "but the true story has never been printed.
"One night about a year ago several colored sports gathered in a saloon in the Tenderloin owned by a negro and patronized chiefly by men of his race. In the party were Smithy, the tenor, and Bully, the tout. Smithy came from the West and dressed in the height of fashion, while Bully's home was in the South.
"Bully had had quite a turn of ill-luck and his attire suffered in consequence. Smithy began 'kidding' him about it. Finally Bully got angry. He sized Smithy up from head to foot for a few seconds and then said in: "Yo' am er dude, yo' am," he began, contemptuously. "Yo' done come 'round here an' try 't hit he folks know dat yo' am 'in 'em on Easy street."
"Don't yo' let me see dat dem horses am a swingin' 't run fo' yo' in de snow dis winter. Yo' an't no steel rod. Yo' kin git broke."
"Say, nigger, do yo' see dat chair yonder by dat stove? Take my advice an' go 'way back an' sit down, an' w'en yo' git dere stay dere an' don't come back no more t'night. Understand, honey?"
"Smithy did go 'way back and sit down and was not heard of the rest of the night. At Johns, a colored musician, who was present, thought the phrase was unique, and the next day he told Elmer Bowman, a negro song writer, about it.
"Johns thought it would make a good title for a song, so Bowman wrote some verses which Johnson put to music. In the story of the song Bowman struck to the incidents that took place in the saloon that night, and when the song was published it at once became popular.
"The phrase was used a good deal by the opposite political parties in the last campaign."

Dr. Lowell Jordan, Medical Examiner of U. S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia college, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peruna:
"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One short month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering. Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."
DR. L. LEVVELLYN JORDAN.
Geo. C. Havener, M. D., of Annapolis, D. C., writes:
"The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: In my practice I have had occasion to frequently prescribe your valuable medicine, and have found its use beneficial, especially in cases of catarrh."
DR. L. S. SMITH, of Williston, Fla., writes:
"I have found Peruna a most valuable remedy for chronic catarrh of the head, throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, in fact, no matter where located."
"Few people realize that most sicknesses start from colds which develop into different affections and finally become chronic, settling often on the lungs and frequently causing serious trouble in the pelvic organs, while in women it develops into diseases peculiar to the sex.

"From my experience with Peruna I have found it very efficacious to cure these diseases, and I recommend it."
DR. MARY SMITH, Winfield, Ind., writes:
"A weak and sick woman must not expect to bear well children. For over 31 years my efforts have been spent among sick women especially, and among all the remedies I have used none excel Peruna, and I believe that it is the best and safest medicine to give a woman suffering from ovarian trouble, inflammation, and profuse menstruation.
"I would not be doing my duty as a physician did I not advise its use. I know by experience that Peruna cures sick women, and I therefore gladly endorse it."
DR. MARY SMITH.
If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
