Fresh oysters always on hand at the fish market. Mrs. J. B. Mount arrived home from Stuart, Iowa, Monday evening. The largest supply in town of candies, dates and all kinds of nuts, at Star Bakery. Smoke Beau Brummell 5c cigar. F. H. Caldwell & Co., prescription druggists. The college basketball team goes to Monmouth today and this evening will engage in a game with the State Normal team. Master Phil Rinehart arrived last Saturday evening from the Dalles and has entered the preparatory department of the college. Jas. Wren and family arrived Tuesday evening from Heppner, with a view to locating here. Mrs. Wren is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Heyland. Miss Bessie Avery of Centralia, Washington, niece of Howard Williams, is visiting relatives in Newberg. Miss Avery is a former student of Pacific College. The old mercantile firm of Morris & Miles has sold the brick building occupied by Parker & Pool to H. E. Foltz of West Chalem. S. M. Calkins, engineer of the trade. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dunn of Portland were in Newberg from Monday until Wednesday morning, visiting Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Stanard, Mrs. Stanard being their daughter. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McAndrew and Geo. Burrows, from Ridgefield, Washington, visited with their friends, J. H. Thomas and family a few days ago, and returned home Monday. A citizen of Newberg reports that he visited the stores of Newberg in vain the other day in search of a mess of dried prunes. And yet we hear that the prune market is hopelessly glutted! Plans of yesterday may not succeed today. At Smith's Studio you will always get a perfect likeness and up-to-date photographs. We enlarge small pictures and guarantee them perfect. Samples at the gallery. The citizens of McMinnville are industriously discussing the desirability of a cannery. If Newberg had the capital which some of the "shin warmers" of the county seat have tucked away in their stockings for safe keeping, she would have had such an institution long ago. Mr. W. H. S. Pemberthy of Clear Lake, South Dakota, arrived here Friday last. He is an uncle of John Dunstan and will visit here a few days with relatives and then go to Salem for a short time. On his return he intends seeing our country with a view to locating. The reception given by Pres. and Mrs. McGrew at the college last Friday night to the students, faculty and board of managers, was well attended and greatly enjoyed by the guests. Those present report that the decorations surpassed anything in that line ever seen at the college. The prohibitionists of the First Congressional district meet in Newberg next Friday to nominate a candidate for congressman. The slate makers have been very quiet in their work, and as the writer is not on the inside, no forecasts are ventured as to the winner. It may be in this case that the office is out hunting the man. J. F. Haines of Laurel, who was in town the first of the week, left some Irish potatoes at the Newberg Land Company's office which will bear inspection. There are a half dozen of them, all taken from the same hill, and placed end to end they measure a length of four feet and eight inches. They are smooth and symmetrical and there's not a freakish spot in the lot. It wouldn't take many hills of this variety to raise a good sized mortgage this year. Miss Bergitta Nelson entertained a few of her friends Monday evening, in honor of her friend Miss Mabel Edwards of Newberg. Those present were Mrs. C. P. Nelson, Misses Mabel Edwards, Louise Maloney, Nellie Frazier, Clara Walker, Josie Gortner, Jessie Ross, Bergitta Nelson, Messrs. Lambright, Harry Hoskins, Louis Nelson, Merle Nelson. Refreshments were served, and charades was the entertainment of the evening. At a late hour they ascended Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fensler. It was an evening much enjoyed by all present.—McMinnville News. A plan to advance the best interests of education in the east end of the county will be crowned with success next Saturday. On that day at 2 p. m., the people will meet at N. L. Wiley's to organize a new school district and elect three directors and one clerk. This district will be made from three other districts, by slicing off a portion of each and will start with thirty-six pupils, which will entitle them to a very respectable sum of public funds for their share. Thus, one more of Uncle Sam's "district schools" will be born, where under the protection of the stars and stripes the young idea may be developed into men and women. Harrison Crater continues to make improvements to his store building on west First street. Realizing that the safety of the crowds of people that so often assemble in his hall is paramount to everything else, he is now adding practical fire escapes to his already comfortable and commodious assembly room. He has placed a ladder from one window to the roof of the small building that joins on the west and a broad easy ladder from this roof to the ground. He has also connected the awning in front that is just below the windows, with the lower awning with another strong ladder, thus affording excellent facilities for escape in case of danger. Such precautions are commendable.

Fresh oysters at the fish market. Buy your clothing of Hodson Bros. in the next ten days. Cash paid for chickens at the fish market. Highest market price. Try the Dewey Washing Machine. E. J. Haworn. Born—on Tuesday, January 21, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kruger, a daughter. Go to T. E. Cummings for paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock. Herman Smith went down to Portland Wednesday morning for a few days visit with friends. Born, on Sunday, January 19, to Mr. and Mrs. B. P. C. C. a ten-pound son. All parties doing nicely. Red Albumen, the great egg producing food, now in stock. F. H. Caldwell & Co., prescription druggists. A. C. Churchill was in McMinnville the first of the week in the interests of the Yamhill Coal and Oil Company. Granville Everest reports thirty-seven customers now on his milk route and all well pleased with the service and quality of milk. Rev. Marion George of Salem, ably occupied the pulpit of the Friends church here Sunday, in both morning and evening services. O. V. Allen came down from Salem Saturday and was joined by Mrs. Allen who came from McMinnville Sunday. They visited here with friends until Tuesday morning, returning by boat to Salem. Luther Charles went down to Portland last week and purchased a machine and full outfit of cobblers' tools and supplies. He is preparing to do general shoe repair work for the dwellers on the hill north of town. The Oregon Handle Manufacturing Company shipped sixty-five sacks of sawdust to Portland the first of the week which will be used for smoking purposes in curing meats. Mr. Oliver states that if the company can thus dispose of all its sawdust, the proceeds therefrom will furnish the fuel for the factory. Arthur Range who as a mere boy left home a few years ago to try his fortune in the metropolis, came up from Portland Saturday evening, bringing a good looking wife and child, and visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Range over Sunday. Arthur has quickly developed into a man, whom his old acquaintances scarcely recognized. Henry Morris has assumed charge of Crater's Hall for one year, from February 1. He says that with the improved exits and new fire escapes that the hall can be emptied safely, of any ordinary crowd, in less than five minutes. Mr. Morris stands ready to extend the courtesies of the hall with best of attention, to all worthy applicants. After having had it announced, the young people over at the college, for vague reasons probably unknown even to themselves, have decided not to give the cantata at Springbrook this evening. Hereafter, when they want anything advertised, the Graphic contemplates requiring them to give bond to fill their engagements as announced. During the months of March and April reduced rates for settlers will be made from the East as follows: From Kansas City and Omaha, $25; Sioux City, $27.90; St. Louis, $30; Chicago, $33. These rates are second class, but tickets will carry passengers to any point on the Southern Pacific lines as far south as Ashland. Any one having friends who are looking toward coming to Oregon, will do well to notify them of this opportunity for securing low rates. So far as known the awards to local poultry fanciers exhibiting at Seattle recently are as follows: J. L. Hoskins, 1st on pen, hen and pullet, 3rd on cockerel, 3rd on pullet, 2nd on hen, 2nd and 3rd on cockerel, 3rd on hen, 1st special in Langshan class and best six birds in Asiatic class. C. P. Nelson 1st on cockerel, 1st and 2nd on pullet in Buff Cochins, in Bantams. What would the boys have done in Portland if they hadn't been shut out, judged by a record like this? Same judges at both shows.—Reporter. The Chesham Valley Poultry Association met on Monday for organization and chose temporary officers, appointed committees etc. The association will meet again next Saturday in the council rooms at 7:30, p. m., for permanent organization at which time the committees will make reports and permanent officers will be chosen. Subjects of deep interest will be brought up and it is of vital importance that all directly or indirectly interested in the poultry industry be present. Whether your own chickens or not, come out and lend the inspiration of your presence. The first poultry show will be held in the Pickett building February 5-7, which will be judged by a competent man from Portland. The literary club lately organized among some of the ladies of Newberg, contrary to the rule of most such literary organizations, has very considerably decided to give Shakespeare and Browning a much deserved rest. The ladies, desiring to know something more of their own state, have taken up an exhaustive study of Oregon's history and traditions. While the study of local history is always profitable and laudable, the approaching one hundredth anniversary of the Lewis and Clark expedition, together with the arrangements for holding the exposition which is to celebrate it, gives added zest and interest to such study and research at the present time. If such work is followed up as zealously as it has been begun, the ladies of Newberg will be able in 1905 to enthuse the most conservative of Eastern visitors on Oregon—her honored past and her glorious future.

The Douglas Studio for Photos. Sausages of all kinds at the fish market. Prices are cut in two at the Newberg Clothing House. Elder G. C. Carl will preach Sunday evening in the Baptist church at 7:30 o'clock. Pres. McGrew will occupy the pulpit of the Friends church next Sunday morning. Box stationary, 10c to 50c; good values. F. H. Caldwell & Co., prescription druggists. Born—on Tuesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fawcett, at the home of Steve Davis, a daughter. Mr. Claude Calkins has been confined to his home with a severe attack of la-grippe for the past two weeks, but is now recovering. Eli Haworth has moved into town and are occupying the house in the south part of town vacated the first of the year by Seth Mills and family. Dyspepsia can be cured by using Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. One little tablet will give immediate relief or money refunded. Sold in handsome tin boxes at 25c. C. F. Moore & Co. The Juniors and Freshmen of the college treated themselves to a general good time at the college Tuesday evening, and the Seniors and Sophomores, not to be outdone, did likewise at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Allen. It is to be hoped that the appointment of a humane officer will not become necessary in Newberg, but one or two overloaded teams that have been hauling lumber through town this week would no doubt welcome the appearance of such an officer. The Graphic is in receipt of a copy of the Los Angeles, California, daily Herald, in which appear pictures of Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Barr, a biographical sketch of the former, and a short history of the Friends church at that place of which Rev. Barr is the new pastor. Prof. and Mrs. Kelsey went down to Portland Saturday morning and in the evening the former addressed a temperance meeting at the town of Lents, a few miles southeast of Portland. On Sunday evening he addressed a union meeting of Friends, Congregationalists and Methodists at the Sunnyside M. E. church. J. C. Lucas is fitting up his store room on first street in sumptuous style, for the new occupant, J. S. Gross, who will move his stock of merchandise into it the first of next month. With new paper, shelving and counters and paint, the place will compare very favorably with the best rooms in town. Claud Cummings has charge of the work. McMinnville is the scene of a deep sensation this week, caused by the suicide of Miss Nannie Ungerman and Mrs. Sam Gaunt. Both took arsenic late Tuesday evening. Miss Ungerman dying at 2 p. m. Wednesday and Mrs. Gaunt about 5:30. They gave no motive for their deed except that they had nothing to live for and were tired of life. W. T. Maey, or better known among the sporting fraternity as Steamboat Bill, is surely looking after the interests of the boat company. A few days ago a gentleman called at the boat landing to see Mr. Maey and found him herding the cows away from the river for fear the amount of water they would displace would cause the still further raise in the river which kept the boat from coming all last week.—News. Call at Newberg Furniture Store where you will find an up-to-date line of house-furnishing goods. To satisfy the customer is my motto. Linoleum, 2 and 4 yards wide; Oil Cloth, 1 and 2 yards wide; Portiers and Lace Curtains, Window Shades, fancy and plain, Couches, Baby Carriages, up-to-date, Wall Paper direct from factory. Pictures framed to order. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock. Yours for business, W. W. Hollingsworth. The candidates for the postmaster-ship of this town have been circulating their petitions the last few days. So far there are three candidates in the field, Jas. McCain, the present incumbent, J. G. Eckman, associate editor of the Reporter and E. C. Walker of the firm of Wallace & Walker, grocers. Mr. McCain's term will expire the first of May. Possibly there are other candidates for the place, but these are all we have heard of at this writing.—Register. Practical evidences are multiplying to prove that the Yamhill Coal & Oil Company has good grounds for its optimistic hopes and assertions. Two or three weeks ago a first class quality of oil was struck up at Whatcom, Washington. That proved that we are bounded by oil immediately on the north. But now intelligence comes from Roseburg that a seepage of petroleum has been struck near that place, and that as the drill goes down, conditions are found to be just as the company's expert prophesied. This indicates that we are bounded immediately on the south, in our own state, by oil. In short, there is oil all around us, and why not "acres of diamonds" right here at home? The handle factory is doing business right along, and up to date has made about fifteen different kinds of handles. Some orders have already been filled, and the company will begin regular shipment about the first of the month when the stock already manufactured will have had time to become thoroughly seasoned. Neils Christenson, who has been out several times in the interests of the new flooring mills, has taken samples of the handles with him and has thus been aiding the company in introducing its manufactures. He reports that the outlook for markets is good, and if the expectations of the company in this respect are verified the manufacturer contemplates putting in another lathe and doubling the capacity of the plant, which will mean more work for more laborers.

THE YAMHILL COAL & OIL COMPANY! Newberg, Oregon. CAPITAL STOCK $50,000 Par Value $1.00 per Share Paid up and NON ASSESSABLE. A. C. Churchill, Pres. Dr. H. J. Littlefield, Vice Pres. A. P. Oliver, Sec'y. J. C. Colcord, Treas. Clarence Butt, Attorney. Bank of Newberg, Depository. DIRECTORS: B. C. Miles, S. M. Calkins, N. E. Britt, C. A. Hodson, H. J. Littlefield, A. P. Oliver, Clarence Butt, J. C. Colcord, A. C. Churchill. We have received word that our machine and outfit was shipped on the 13. The delay was caused by rush of business with manufacturers. The O. R. & N and S. P. R. R. people have promised to make a rush job in bringing stuff out. There are two cars, including boiler, engine, machine casing etc. The total cost including freight is about $4500, f. o. b. Newberg. Up in Whatcom, Washington, a few days ago they struck oil. From Whatcom, south through Washington and Oregon to the California line, there are now drilling and preparing to drill at least twelve companies. On the map of Oregon and Washington you can trace the numerous companies from Whatcom south in a direct line. There is no connection whatever between these companies; each has been promoted and work inaugurated independent of the other, but the prospect, the incentive for action, and the probability of success are in each case laid on the same foundation; based on theory it you like, but a theory that has the support of the best geological knowledge. Geologists have always contended that the oil belt was continuous through California, Oregon and Washington. Until this strike at Whatcom, no oil was ever found north of California. This find at Whatcom makes our work a practical enterprise. Theory is knocked into a cocked hat; it is certainly practical and not theoretical at Whatcom. While we have had perfect confidence that development work would prove the existence of oil, we think and believe that the discovery of oil at Whatcom clinches the matter. It endorses our claim and wipes out that old question of distance. We now have oil north and south of us; we are betwixt and between, as it were, and if the court knows herself, and we think she does, we will strike oil. Every dollar you put into the stock of this company will go to direct work of development. It will never cost more than you willingly subscribe; there is no liability beyond the amount you purchase and pay for. We need your help now and respectfully solicit same.

Epitaphs Not Wanted. "I was well, but wanted to be better. I took medicine and here I am." "This is an epitaph on a grave stone I once saw, and the moral it points should be weighed carefully by the Republicans who are talking about revising the tariff," said General Charles H. Grosvenor. "This country is well, and needs no medicine now. Such doctoring as has been proposed by certain public men and advocated by some newspapers, would have a serious, if not fatal, effect upon the prosperous condition of the United States. The new introduction in congress of a tariff bill would tend to suspend our remarkable prosperity, and demoralize politicians and newspapers know this; hence they are shouting for tariff reform, for then they could exclaim with derision and scorn, where is that boasted prosperity of yours?"—Cleveland (O.) Leader. Pay Up. During the present month our books may be found at the meat shop. Those owing us on account will please call and settle up. Stanley & Bond. Real Estate Transfers.
