

THE NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

R. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER. W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1902.

The old Lincoln homestead in Kentucky was recently advertised for sale for taxes, but was saved by a check from a New York philanthropist.

It is claimed by a newspaper man of Washington, D. C., that President Roosevelt has taken a strong liking to Mr. Tongue.

It begins to look as if Oregon would have a new United States senator, Mr. Simon having been so completely overthrown in his home primaries.

Governor Geer is to be congratulated upon the unexpected strength developed in his home county as shown by the result of last Friday's primaries in Marion.

NEWBERG SMALL FRUIT ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED.

At the meeting of the berry growers held at Crater's hall on last Saturday afternoon the attendance from the immediate vicinity of Newberg was quite good.

At the meeting of the berry growers held at Crater's hall on last Saturday afternoon the attendance from the immediate vicinity of Newberg was quite good and several were present from the Springbrook and Dundee neighborhoods.

A general discussion followed, taking quite a wide range, which was participated in by the chairman, W. S. Allan, of Dundee, J. L. Haworth, of Springbrook, C. S. Calkins, Enos Ellis, Wm. and Geo. Allen, J. A. Pike and others, all of which was quite instructive.

In a short talk Jos. Hall encouraged the growing of black cap raspberries, going over very much the same ground covered in his very interesting letter published in the Graphic last week.

The Newberg Small Fruit Association was united on. As a committee on constitution and by-laws the chair appointed G. C. Carl, C. S. Calkins, J. L. Haworth and Mr. Hunter, the latter from Dundee.

STATE ORATORICAL CONTEST.

Judges Spring a Surprise—Pacific University Wins For the First Time.

When the result of the tenth intercollegiate oratorical contest was read in the First M. E. church of Salem last Friday night, the uncertainty of such events was emphasized anew.

Miss Nervia Wright, who represented Pacific College, was at her very best. Those who sat in the very rear of the room apart from the large Newberg delegation, said that she held the attention as did no other speaker.

For one who had attended the first oratorical contest held in the same church nine years before, it was interesting to ruminate on the evolution of the oratorical spirit in the state. The delegations to the first contest were small. Newberg was represented by about ten people, whose "constituency" at home scarcely knew what we had won when O. K. Edwards wheeled it home hot haste in the early morning following, with the news that Amos Stanbrough had captured the first gold medal.

After the contest the visiting delegations were tendered a banquet in the basement of the church. Among those who responded to toasts Prof. Kelsey, who represented Pacific College, was easily the star. He made an eloquent speech, with some body to it, and showed that a good toaster is more than a good joker. He made a plea for the study of oratory, his subject being, "Let no guilty man escape."

At the annual business meeting held in the afternoon the following new officers were elected: H. B. Densmore, Eugene, president; H. H. Hobbs, McMinnville, secretary; Jas. Thompson, Albany, treasurer. These officers were elected by acclamation, the first time such a thing has occurred in the history of the association. Monmouth was in disgrace before the association for violating the constitution in holding her local contest one evening later than the time prescribed. There was some sentiment for barring her from the contest, but the mantle of charity was thrown over her misdeed and the offense forgiven. The Ashland Normal School, Dallas and Mt. Angel colleges were refused entrance into the association.

SPRINGBROOK ITEMS.

Mrs. Lee winters is still very sick. Miss Ida Hall is helping Mrs. Newhouse for a few days.

The meetings that have been in progress here for the past three weeks closed Sunday evening.

Mr. P. N. Skinner who has been keeping books for a company up in Washington, arrived home Monday.

Mr. Coe went back to his work Monday morning after spending a couple of week's vacation at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Mears and children came up on the train Wednesday evening to visit with E. M. Arthur. Mr. Grames, the Newberg liveryman, drove out after them and took them to Mr. Arthurs.

C. E. Newhouse went to Portland Friday to meet A. M. Aspinwall and family and Mrs. Ormsby and daughter from South Dakota, who were old neighbors of the Newhouse boys. Mr. Ormsby and daughter and three of Mr. Aspinwall's children stopped with C. E. Newhouse several days.

Mrs. Albert Heater, Ella Mills, Mabel Rush, Myrtle Newby and J. L. Haworth were elected delegates to attend the county Sunday School convention at LaFayette this week.
