*

Advertising Bills Collected Monthly.

NEWBERG, YAMHILL COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1902.

VOL XIV.

"I came as Herr Steinhardt's messen-hand, a few words, which she signed.

When she had written she handed the addressed, I put in my pocket for to Fraulein Haas, the poor, lonely lady, longed I could do something to cheer

Birley's letter, but could find only the

I suppose I had taken it from her table when I meant to take up the letter which I had laid down. The poor lady might have been looking at it before entered her room. This was the form

"Meine Verlobung mit

Fraulein Emilie Haas von Liestal

zeige ich hiemit ergebenst an Basel, November, 1854.

CHAPTER XIII.

(My engagement with Fraulein

"Emmanuel Steinhardt."

evil, before it is too late.'

I read (the words were in German)

"Repent, and turn away from your

BY J. MACLAREN COBBAN.

CHAPTER XII-Continued.

"It is not for me. Fraulein," I weeks ago, when again I was summoned to face him at that same place with the fallen wall. He looked at me shuddering and pressing her hands to very harshly to the dead man's daughter-more than harshly, for he has even at some one whom I did not see, but man again!" hid her away in a strange town, to try every means to make her marry his son, in order that he may not have to give whom I did not see, but "I could not help telling her, my him. This happened three, four times, and then no more. There has of repreach from me. "The old chap have to give him to the whom I did not see, but "I could not help telling her, my had add." said Birley, in answer to a look times, and then no more. There has an account of the dead man's property.

And here is a letter which I have received this moraing from her other guardian, who was Herr Steinhardt's heat friend whan he first serve to Free know what I have had to tell and you cannot denounce him—we must not, we know what I have had to tell and you guardian, who was Herr Steinnardt's best friend when he first came to England, and whom he has almost ruined. will not forget your promise to me- doubt, say anything till we have some He has found the young lady, and taken her to his own house; but he "I shall hold my promise to you, fears he cannot keep her, for Herr Steinhardt may now ruin him outright, Fraulein," said I, "as sacred." Possessed as I was with the exciting I must therefore return; and this, ly hindering Herr Steinhardt from do-know enough to do that. It will thus be seen that I told Fraumy watch; I had half an hour to spare. convince her of its urgency; but she wonder, or of any kind of fitting comguessed something I had not told her. ment upon what I had heard. essed something I had not told her.

"I understand now, Herr Pastor."
"And now," she said, "you must go

Emmanuel Steinhardt's crime; it is quickly, I suppose, to your hotel, and she said, "why you are so interested in Emmanuel Steinhardt's crime; It is then to the station."
more love than vengeance that pushes "Yes," I said. "But there is one you on. And that, too, Herr Pastor, will make you better understand why I thing, Fraulein, I had almost forgotten; hardt," she said, simply, looking not add, for she had reassumed her expresat me, but at her thin clasped hands. sion of close endurance and resignation. "He was many years ago not the Herr Steinhardt he seems to be now; he was ger, and I have no message I can carry good and gentle, though his heart and back to him." suddenly. Her hands tightened their clasp on each other. "If," she said, tell you what I have seen, in order that paper to me, saying, "You may read." rose behind us into the still night. you may be able to deliver the distressed young Fraulein, promise me, Herr Pastor, for the sake of my past, and as you hope to be happy and peaceful in the future-promise me that you will use what I tell you only for the purpose you say, and that you will keep it, so far as ever you can, from becoming public!

I gave the promise at once without her memory of a man who was to me "And," she said, "you will leave Emmanuel Steinhardt's punishment in her life, say even some proper word of he hands of Almighty God?"

I answered I would—though it was the hands of Almighty God?"

She then turned almost away from me to reach. I therefore pade her a answer his brother-in-law, but stared at me, partly, I thought, that she might silent farewell. She held my hand a me. ess conscious of my presence, but moment. more that she might concentrate her attention on her recollections. Her said, "you will send me word?" hands clasped and unclasped several I answered I would; and the next times before they settled, the one in moment she was turned away from me.

"It was, I think, in the March and had seen my last of Fraulein Haas. the other, and she began: month of a year ago. I had slept a back toward England, I unexpectedly long time very soundly, for I had been found that I was bearing away with me very tired, when suddenly I felt as if I were taken up and carried away—far away; and I was made to look at Emmanuel Steinhardt. He looked at me put my hand into my pocket to find feet was a large wooden box, the lid of following lithographed form, instead. which, I was made to understand, would not close. From the opening protruded a human hand, strangely discolored. I awoke all trembling. I put out my own hand to make sure I was in my own bed; my mother was sleeping quietly beside me. I tried to dismiss the vision from my mind-foolish dream, I thought it. But I could sleep no more. In two or three hours it was daylight, and I arose. I went about my duties all the day as usual; Emilie Hass of Liestal I herewith make I was busy, and had the impression of public in Basel) the vision much worn away when I went to bed in the evening-rather early, because I was very tired. I had slept not very long, when again I was as if seized up and whirled away, again three packages of canvas. Again Em- his mutilated remains lay buried, or at

I was taken away again to Emmanuel and with him, as I had hoped, but did not really wake, though I felt con- strative, but there was, I felt, a cordial stone in a person's age. scious I was in my own bed at the same sincerity in it which came from her time as I was held where he had left true heart, and I was fluttered with me, close to a wall. After some time, hope. There were, however, things how long I cannot tell, he came back with a role with was going to do before he had done it then be considered. on the other side of the wall and pull it and was told that they had not yet pull a wall down with a rope, but I did and demanded the surrender of his not. In a little while he pulled, and ward?-would he admit him? the wall fell flat, and, curiously, un- "Admit him?" he exclaimed. "Of broken, covering over the newly dug course. There is no use in shutting spot and all around it. Then I awoke, him out. He can sell me up in this as with the noise, and slept no more. house and then turn me out,—he has a After that night I saw him again for bill of sale on everything, and he has several nights, for a dim moment or been holding it back for some time, to two, at the same place. They were use it now, I expect, but Louise shan't but glimpses, which, as the nights go back to him, unless she likes; I'll passed on, became dimmer and dimmer, find some roof to shelter me and her. Convict — I'm in fer lice mother-in-law, lady.—Judge.

Yea," said he, turning his bright face EVENTS OF THE DAY pon her, "we'll get thro' it all right." "You are both very good to me," said she, going to him, and shedding some tears on his shoulder.

"There now-there," said he, patting her. Then turning to me, "She means you, too, my lad.' "Yes," said she, resuming her seat, and looking down, "Mr. Birley has told me all you have done for me to and then ceased altogether-until some find out about my poor father-and all evidence that he is really the man. I think, I am sure, I soon shall have that evidence, but even then we must be careful what we say.'

This, I was glad to find, was not rethought engendered by her story, I was garded as more than a general, though ly hindering Herr Steinhardt from do-ing what he will—by frigtening him of my mission which I could show or tell not asked awkard questions. Now that will not be court martialed. with my knowledge. But I do not yet to Steinhardt, and the time at my disposal must be very short. I looked at the time allayed, I felt exceedingly tired. I promised to call next day to lein Haas just enough of the case to There was no time for the expression of tell them about my journey, and rose lady, I knew, or her herculean son, would still be sitting up for me.

Birley accompanied me to the door, talking according to his wont. He put on a cap which hung in the hall, and, leaving the door adjar, walked with me to the gate. The air refreshed me, am interested in Emmanuel Stein- not of a painful sort," I made haste to and, full as I was of Fraulein Haas's something of it. Thus, almost unconsciously, we wakled away from the gate down the lane leading to the high road, and I was led into telling him all, the more so that he did not seem sceptical detain you, 'she added, glancing up paper from a drawer, and wrote in the of the value of her visions. We had thus left the house some minutes, how many 1 cannot tell, when several throughout Cape Colony. middle of the page, in a small German sounds like screams in rapid succession

> "By the L-d!" exclaimed Birley 'I left the door open!'

This, enclosed in an envelope, and We were hurried back by a common Steinhardt. There remained now but one thing for me to do-to say farewell apparently as we had left it, but when their lives. we entered and approached the room in which we had been sitting we heard who still with fond regret cherished Steinhart's voice. the greatest villain on earth. How I

'Well, 'Manuel,' said Birley, when we were in the room, "so you've come; expected you wouldn't be long." Steinhardt turned (Louise watched him from the other side of the table auditorium in that city, has been encommonplace words of consolation from with fear in her eyes); he did not tirely destroyed by fire.

"What is the meaning of this?" he asked. "Were do you come from?" "From Basel." I answered. I was not wanted. Fraulein Haas ers at Granite City, Ill. wised to see you, not me; she is well, She sent you a line by me;" handed him the letter.

He impatiently tore the envelope, and read with a frown. I knew the words: I tried to read from his face how they affected him. Their point, I thought, found a joint in his harness; he evidently winced; he looked on the floor, on this side and on that, as if consider. But this was only for a wages they asked, but will receive moment; he looked up at me and then more than before they went out. at Birley, the same insistent, masterul Steinhardt as before.

(To be continued.)

SIGNIFICANT NUMBER SEVEN Woven Into the History of the World in Many Peculiar Ways.

The number seven is not only considered a lucky number by the superstitious, but it was a symbolical number in the Bible, as well as among na-In what a fever of excitement, anx- tions of antiquity. In the Old Testaiety, and hope I made the journey ment we note that the Creator took to see Emmanuel Steinhardt, with home, I need not stay to describe. seven days, and on the seventh was a something at his feet again—not now The story of Lacroix's fate I could now sacred day of rest. Every seventh the wooden box, which was aside, but fill in to its last detail; I knew where year was sacred, and the seven times seventh year ushered in a year of jubi-Steinhardt looked at me, as if least I knew a spot which coincided lee. There are seven principal virtues he wished me to go to him, and again with that described by Fraulein Haas, -faith, hope, charity, prudence, temso what remained for me to do was to perance, chastity and fortitude -and she paused in her story of the vis- bring the fact of my knowledge home there are also seven deadly sins-pride, ions, took her handkerchief and wiped her damp brow with trembling hand. to Steinhardt in a manner so forcible covetousness, lust, anger, gluttony, that he could not refuse to make terms envy and sloth. There were seven I watched her intently, a sensation to me-more than this I could not ac-champions of Christendom-St. George, of creeping excitement and mystery held me bound to her quiet but intense of the standard of t recital. She resumed suddenly, with- the sequel I had my conviction re- St. Denis, France; St. James, Spain, tinues with no signs of an early settleimpressed that I was in this business and St. Anthony, Italy. There were ment. More rioting has occurred. "I slept no more that night fer thinking of what I had seen, and so I I reached Timperley very late on Satsaw Emmanuel Steinhardt no more; I urday night, but in spite of the late- times on the cross. Rome was built saw Emmanuel Steinnardt no more; I mess of the hour and my weariness I on seven hills, and there are innumerbut I could not. A terrible night to went at once to Birley's; I had warned able other traditions which go to prove me it was. But next night I was him of my coming by telegram from that seven was a number to cling to. nal Rampolla, has received Judge Taft the Cottonwood are in as bad a state as sleeping a light, disturbed sleep, when London. I found him waiting for me, In these modern times it is wonderful at the Vatican, Rome. how often the number prevails. For Steinhardt; this time I knew I was not scarcely expected, his ward Louise. I instance, vaccination must take place in a room; there was no light. He fear his cheerful greeting passed for every seven years, in order to escape looked at me across a newly dug spot almost nothing with me in comparison small pox; fashions change every seven of ground, and then turned away. I with hers. Her manner was undemon-

Characteristics of Gold.

Many people suppose that all gold is alike when refined, but this is not so. with a rope. I knew at once what he talked of than matters of love could An experienced man can tell at a glance from what part of the world a gold piece -fasten the rope in an iron something I inquired concerning Steinhardt, comes, and in some cases from what particular gold district the metal has over. I do not know why I did not seen him. What, I asked Birley, did been obtained. Australian gold, for think it impossible for a single man to be propose to do it Steinhardt came instance, is distinctly redder than that States to assist in preventing monopoly from California. The Ural gold is the in wireless telegraphy. reddest found anywhere.

Happy Recollections.

Visitor-Well, my man, what are you in for? Convict-"Oh, I'm in fer a time, lady. Visitor-I don't uderstand you

FROM THE FOUR QUARTERS OF THE WORLD.

in a Condensed Form, Which Is Most Likely to Prove of Interest to Our Many

The forming of the new French cabet has been completed

Mitchell denounced the Panama canal oute in a speech before the senate.

A plot has been discovered at Preings.

imperial council. Coal mipers in West Virginia have zone out. A larger number quit work than was anticipated.

The officers of the cruiser Chicago who caused the disturbance in Venice

An excursion train on a Michigan road was wrecked, killing one person and injuring 33, three fatally.

States to the Martinique sufferers were preliminary work done under the last not properly distributed and did not go appropriation has placed the jetty and where they would do the most good.

Kruger will not be required to acknowledge British sovereignty in South

Fire in Denver destroyed a grocery ousiness concerns. June 8 and 9 have been declared tillery officers was run down by a as plans can be prepared. steamer at Gijon, Spain, and five drowned. Retabulen, a town in Guatemala, Central America, has been destroyed by impulse. We found the door adjar, a volcano. One thousand people lost Governor Geer may call an extra the purpose of fixing flat salaries for the state officials. The pavilion in the horticultural gardens. Toronto., the second largest

The American Federation wants to take farmers into its organization. Three men were shot in a riot be-where tween union and non union iron m Some of the mines in the anthracite > joining the strikers. Lord Kitchener was created a viscount and promoted to be general and given 50,000 pounds for his services in the South African war.

cause of the firemen and pumpmen been settled. It was a compromise, tracted struggle, if not of violence. for once he were made to pause and the strikers not getting the advance in Almost every street car in Rhode Island is tied up. The last general assembly of that state passed a 10-hour law, and when the street car companies started to test it in the courts the street railway employes quit.

The senate has passed the Philippine

The house is considering the anarchy

The entire French cabinet has resigned

The senate is considering the Nicaragua canal bill.

The rebellion in Southern China has been practically suppressed.

The Idaho state Republican convention will be held in Boise August 20. Two villages were destroyed and 75 people killed by a volcano in Bolivia.

The Grand Aerie of the Fraterna Order of Eagles is in session at Minne apolis. The teamsters' strike in Chicago con

Kruger declines to express opinion whatever regarding the conclusion of the war in South Africa.

Mine engineers, firemen and pump men in the anthracite coal district have quit work to the extent of about 80 per

The cable between Manila and Hong Kong is broken. Telegraph communication with the Philippine islands is, therefore, stopped.

Germany has appealed to the United propriation for lighting it.

The refusal of the Manitoba govern can railroads to keep out.

SEA DREDGE FOR BAR.

Washington, June 10 .- As soon as Columbia River Likely to Have One at Once -Funds On Hand to be Used.

the river and harbor bill has been signed by the president, the chief of Comprehensive Review of the Important engineers will appoint a board of en- Official Canvass Will Be Required to Give Happenings of the Past Week, Presented gineers, in accordance with the provisions of the bill agreed to by the conference committee, to visit the Columbia river and make an examination and estimate to determine whether a canal for overcoming the obstructions between The Dalles and Celilo can be built for less than the estimate made by Captain Harts two years ago, approximately $4,000,000. The first toria to blow up the government build- action taken under the new bill will be the appointment of special boards. If Twelve trainloads of Mystic Shriners this board shall report the Harts estiarrived at San Francisco to attend the mate a reasonable and safe one, and that the work cannot be done for any considerably less amount, the chief of mencement of work without further delay. While there is nothing addibase an opinion, engineer officials here incline to the opinion that Captain R. Harts will be sustained by the board. Work at the mouth of the Columbia river will be taken up as soon as the local engineers submit projects, upon approaches in such condition that the work of extension can be carried on without delay. In this connection the chief of engineers is considering the advisability of taking a part of the The president is being urged to send funds on hand for the mouth of the a message to congress on the Cuban river for building or purchasing a sea dredge for maintaining a deep channel across the bar until the jetty is comtore, rooming house and several other pleted. He is of the opinion that he already has authority to make this expenditure, and has informed Mr. Tongue that he is very favorably impressed with the proposition, realizing the necessity for immediate relief A boat containing eight Spanish ar- Other works will be taken up as soon

TIE-UP IN WEST VIRGINIA.

More Miners Obeyed the Strike Order Than was Anticipated.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 10 .- The strike ordered by the United Mineworkession of the Oregon legislature for ers of America, to take effect in West Virginia today, was much more complete in some districts than expected and less effective in others. The incomplete reports are conflicting, but on the whole several thousand more men went out than was anticipated. The strike affects not only the industries of this state, but also the railways and river navigation. All of the local coal railroads suffer. Among the trunk lines, the Norfolk & Western suffered and it is for you she is anxious, not for coal region are filling with water be most today, but very many miners were also idle along the Baltimore & Ohio and the Chesapeake & Ohio.

As a rule the miners quit work without much demonstration, but in som places they were marching with bands It was ascertained that the operators in some places had secured many The Chicago teamsters strike has armed guards in anticipation of a pro a few places the striking miners were served with notices to vacate the houses belonging to the coal companies.

While the strike in this state is gen erally regarded as sympathetic with that of Pennsylvania, there is a genera impression that the bituminous coa interests of other states have had their influence in bringing on a crisis in West Virginia. There is a strong or-ganization of miners in this state independent of the United Mineworkers of Ameria, and the members of the state union have continued when the United Mineworkers have ordered strikes in bordering states and in Indiana, Illinois and other states.

RIVERS ARE SUBSIDING.

Worst of the Flood in Kansas is Over-Los will be a Million or More. Emporia, Kan., June 10 .- Both the Neosho and Cottonwood rivers are subnow believed that it may even go 206 above this. The Neosho has subsided all over the flooded country a sediment was left that will, it is believed. kill all crops, including alfalfa. The Joliet, Ill., is suffering from the Santa Fe today ran trains over the worst flood in its history. All the main lines. The Cottonwood river, lower portion of the city is under water. which was at its height last night, has The papal secretary of state, Cardi- fallen three feet. The farmers along those on the Neosho. The crops are totally lost and many hundred cords of carried away.

King of Saxony Dying.

Mrs Vanderbilt's Gift.

New York, June 10 .- In memory of provement will cost $200,000.

CHAMBERLAIN WON

ELECTED GOVERNOR BY VERY SMALL VOTE.

Exact Figures-Republicans Elect All Other State Officers-Will Also Control the Legislature-Contest Was Closest on

Record-Retuuns for Governor Portland, June 1 .- George E. Chamberlain's plurality for governor over W. question of doubt that when officiand J. Furnish was cut down to 299 by complete returns from 10 more counties tes that the commanding general winks yesterday. The official count has now at them. This was the case with Miles been made in 17 counties. There is but a very small chance now of Furnish to the was in Portor retary of war when he was in Portor cutting down Chamberlain's lead but Rico. This was never brought home to very little more. While it is an Miles, although he no doubt understood assured fact that Chamberlain is elected, perfectly well that the correspondence engineers intends to authorize the com- it will not be known by just how many votes until the official canvass has been and to the president to have a high tional in the department on which to made, which will require several days officer of the army, having access to all Republicans are elected in both conception of governor, was successful by also Republican.

The following are the returns from each county so far as received, showing the vote for governor:

Gilliam - The official vote gives Chamberlain 346, Furnish 445. Marion - The official count gives Chamberlain 2,845, Furnish 2,523.

Tillamook - Official returns give Chamberlain 412, Furnish 617. Umatilla-Official returns give Furnish 1,911, Chamberlain 2,177. Linn-The official count gives Chamberlain 2,061, Furnish 1,746. Baker-The official canvass gives Chamberlain 2,171, Furnish 1,590 Douglas-Official returns give Cham erlain 1,884, Furnish 1,693. Curry-The official count gives Furnish 150 plurality.

Yambill-The official count for Yamhill county gives W. J. furnish 89 plurality. Clatsop-Official returns give Cham perlain 997, Furnish 1,103. Grant—Complete but not official re-turns give Chamberlain 816, Furnish will put you straight."

Lane-Reports from all precincts give Furnish a plurality of 253. Clackamas-The total vote from all Chamberlain 1.685. Coos-The official count gives Chamberlain 789, Furnish 1,060. Crook-Complete official returns give Fearful Slaughter Continues Along the River Furnish 590, Chamberlain 528.

Wallowa - Official returns give Chamberlain 823, Furnish 531. Harney-A message from the county elerk of Harney county says Chambernine precincts to hear from. Malheur-Chamberlain has a plurality of 12 in Malheur county with six small precincts to hear from.

give Furnish 163 majority over Chamberlain.

Furnish 409

Union-Complete unofficial returns give Chamberlain 701 plurality over Furnish. Columbia-The official vote gives Chamberlain 485, Furnish 803. Morrow - The official vote gives Chamberlain 614, Furnish 559. Klamath-The official count gives Furnish 501, Chamberlain 414 from the 33 precincts of this county give Chamberlain 1,626, Furnish 1,523. Benton-The official vote of Benton county gives Chamberlain 842, Furnish Wasco-Complete unofficial returns siding. The former estimated loss of Wheeler 1,370, Chamberlain 1,180. Wheeler-With five precincts to hear $1,000,000 is still adhered to, and it is from, Furnish has 289, Chamberlain Multnomah-The unofficial returns enough to clear some of the fields, but give Furnish 6,611, Chamberlain 7,156. Polk-Chamberlain leads Furnish by 127 votes with only one more precinct yet to hear from.

Washington-Unofficial, but complete, returns give Furnish a plurality over Chamberlain of 270.

Adjournment of Congress.

Washington, June 9. - Chairman totally lost and many hundred cords of washington, June 9. — Chairman selves, and the polls are naturally wood piled in the timber have been Payne, of the ways and means commit-Berlin, June 10.—The king of Saxony's condition is evidently worse than official bulletins indicate. Private dissenate has determined its course on the adjournment of congress, as no clude men who have said nothing, and if such a poll is correct it means that Nicaragua will carry. It is probable that there are about 42 men who, as patches from Sibyllenort represent his the Nicaragua canal and Cuban bills. the senate now stands, will vote for majesty's condition as well nigh hope. At the same time, he believes that the the Fanama route. This is not enough, less. The Saxony ministry assembled business of congress will be shaped so but the advocates of Panama hope to in permanence this morning to await as to permit of adjournment about secure three additional votes before the July 1.

Will Sign Public Buildings Bill.

Washington, June 9 .- At the cabinet her late husband, Mrs. Cornelius Van- meeting the omnibus public buildings The statue of liberty torch in New derbilt has arranged to present to St. bill was discussed, and it was decided that 82,054 immigrants were landed that it should be signed. The cabinet during the month, as aginet 73,667 for York harbor is to be dark hereafter fartholomew's Protestant Episcopal also went at length into certain matters April. church a new front and four bronze g nnected with Cuban reciprocity measdoors. It was the original intention ures, but no decision was reached. Inof Mrs. Vanderbilt to give only the asmuch as it appeared that Judge Taft ment to allow the Northern Pacific doors, but she decided a better effect had presented the instructions of the thoratively announced that Captain railroad to extend its lines across the could be obtained by remodeling the secretary of war to Cardinal Rampolla, Hobson will return to this city and Convict - I'm in fer lickin' me border is taken as notice to all Ameri- entire from the edifice. The im- Secretary Root will send these instruc- run for the Alabama senate from this tions to the Philippine commission.

WILL SEE IF MILES IS THE MAN.

NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Blame for Giving Out Philippine Reports to Be Fixed.

Washington, June 7 .- Following up the intimation which Senator Beveridge made that General Miles was furnishing reports from the war department, an investigation is in progress. It is possible that this will not bring the matter home to Miles. In fact, some subordinate will probably have to shoulder the responsibility if it is traced to the headquarters of the army, although it may be said beyond all was being obtained. It is very annoying to the secretary papers, use his position [to injure the army and the administration. The gressional districts, Tongue in the present unknown but suspected source First and Williamson in the Second. are those which the war department is They received large majorities. The investigating on its own responsibility, The relief supplies sent by the United which contracts are to be invited. The Republican state ticket, with the ex- but which used separately are detrimental to the army. There is no doubt now that if the president could fix this large majorities. The legislature is matter upon Miles beyond question his threatened retirement would follow very speedily.

MITCHELL JOKES WITH HANNA.

Tells Him He Will Puncture His Panama Canal Argument.

Washington, June 7 .- There was a jocular exchange between Senator Mitchell and Senator Hanna yesterday before either of them began to talk. Mitchell told Hanna that he had raised the price of red ink in marking eruptive volcanoes around the canal route, and Hanna retorted that he could not understand why Mitchell should go wrong on an important question like this, adding he was wrong on the Chinese exclusion question.

"Yes," responded Mitchell, "and you people passed a Chinese exclusion law which is so full of holes that the Chinese can come into this country without any difficulty."
"See here, Mitchell," said Hanna.

"before you take a position on the ca-

"I intend to puncture your Panama route," responded Mitchell, "showing it is as bad as your Chinese bill, and I will give 17 valid reasons why the but two precincts gives Furnish 2,052,

UPRISING IN SIAM.

Mekong.

Victoria, B. C., June 9 .- The Siam Free Press, a copy of which has just been received here by steamer, says the lain is in the lead by four votes, with rising along the right bank of the Mekong river has assumed grave proportions and adds:

"Rumor has reached Bangkok that Lake-Complete unofficial returns that the regulars from Bangkok, who fearful slaughter continues there and have been sent to subdue the rebels, are giving no quarter. Upwards of Lincoln-Reports from nine out of 200 persons have been recently shot 14 precincts give Chamberlain 220, and many others wounded, it is said but this slaughter has only excited the people to desperation, who vow ven-geance on the soldiers of the king. The gravity of the situation can be judged from the fact that more troops are to be dispatched. It is fortunate, however, that the rising is confined to the right bank of the Mekong and that the trouble up to now is limited to Siamese territory. But should the op-Jackson-Complete unofficial returns posite bank catch the flame, then the situation might become grave indeed and the result might prove disastrous for Siam, as the French authoritie would be bound in such an event to take active and stringent measures to protect their own interests and insure the safety of their own people."

Excessive taxation and unscrupulous and exacting officials are held responsible for the rising.

POLLS ON CANAL BILL.

Panama Probably Now Has 42 Votes in the Washington, June 7 .- Polls have been made upon the Nicaragua canal by various New York papers, but, of course, of the 88 senators, there are many who have not declared themtee, says that he does not at present 41 for Nicaragua, 35 for Panama and contemplate introducing a resolution 12 in doubt. The doubtful ones infor the adjournment of congress, as no clude men who have said nothing, and vote is taken.

New York, June 7 .- The official immigration figures for the port of New Hobson in Politice

Greensboro, Ala., June 7 .- It is audistrict at the next election.