On Monday morning she went down to Portland with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stratton to see their relatives Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Haines before the latter returned to their Iowa home.

F. H. Storey left for Newport Tuesday morning where he has a big job with Dr. H. J. Minthorn on his new building at the mouth of Nye creek. A windmill and pump is to be put in for pumping up salt water, fresh water is to be piped from a distance, and a large heating apparatus and several first class bath tubs are to be installed, all of which means several weeks work and the expenditure of considerable money. Van Leavitt will assist in the plumbing.

Considerable work is being done at the Yamhill locks. Stone is being hauled and placed along the river bank at the locks where indications show danger of the bank washing away. Stone used for filling in and making repairs is being hauled from F. J. Wirf's place. Work is also being done to beautify the grounds around the lock keeper's building which belongs to the government, by grubbing out stumps and brush. In time, no doubt the locks property will be made very attractive and a pleasant resort.—Herald.

The Southern Pacific Company announce the sale of reduced rates on account of the Fourth of July. These figures will be based at one and one-third fare for the round trip, making 4 cents per mile round trip passage to and from stations in Oregon. Tickets will be on sale July 3rd and 4th, and will be good for return up to and including the 6th. Celebrations will be held at the more important points. Local agents will furnish all details on application.

W. E. Conan, Gen. Pass. Agent.

The new feature introduced into the Commencement exercises this year, the athletic exhibition given by the girls of the college, is much to be commended, for two reasons especially. In the first place the exhibition itself is a great addition to the program of the week to which it gives "college tone." But more important still is the athletic training which the girls themselves receive. From both standpoints, much favorable comment was called forth by the exercises on the college campus last Saturday evening.

The best line of teas and coffees in the city at Wilson's grocery.

Grace Ruon of Portland attended a part of the exercises of Commencement week.

A break in the engine at the brick plant at nine o'clock on last Friday night knocked out the power and the electric lights went glimmering. In view of the fact that Mr. Edwards had the work well along at his new power house up town he concentrated his forces on the work there and on Monday night he had everything running in good order again. He finds the change to be very satisfactory.

The people of Dayton are at last to be congratulated upon having secured a city marshal who has the moral courage of his convictions and who sustains his oath of office without fear or favor by enforcing the laws of the town as he finds them. It is indeed gratifying to know that he is backed by every law abiding citizen in the community in his efforts to compel even "hoodlums" to respect the laws and the feelings of all decent people.—Herald.

Last week W. E. Howard brought action against Lon Hadley for twenty-five dollars as commission for a sale of land which he made for Mr. Hadley, the trade afterward falling through. The case was tried in Justice Wright's court last Saturday, Clarence Burt appearing for the plaintiff and L. F. Hall for the defendant. The jury, consisting of J. H. Daley, W. H. Hubbard, K. C. Hollingsworth, George Baird, R. J. Cooper and Henry McGuire gave judgement to Mr. Howard for fifteen dollars.

The crew of eight men aboard was saved.

The vote on the Goddess of liberty for the Fourth of July celebration is growing steadily. However it is generally understood that the heavy voting will be postponed until tomorrow, when some surprises may be sprung. Up to Wednesday evening the leading candidates stood as follows:

Rose Graham 406 Mrs. Wright 140 Mabel Gardner 135 Olive Stratton 75 May Lamb 68 Lucy Gause 56 Minnie Schaner 50 Millie Holt 30 Mrs. McKern 41.

Some one is going to get into trouble for giving liquor to Indians. Last Saturday several Indians were in town and some of them were pretty well intoxicated, in fact one was so drunk that he had to be helped along the street and put into his wagon where he laid down in the wagon box and was taken home.

This thing has been going on for some time and there is going to be a stop put to it. There is suspicion on certain parties and when sufficient proof can be brought they will be turned over to the law and no mercy will be shown them.—Sun. Good words.

Rev. and Mrs. T. Brouillette arrived home late Saturday night from their extended trip in the East, the prime object of which was to attend the General Presbyterian Assembly in New York. After the Assembly they made a tour of sight seeing and visited in Illinois and Kansas. Then a few days were spent in Washington City to very good advantage. Rev. Brouillette met some of the United States senators and other high officials who took pains to show him about. He was greatly interested in a tour of the government buildings and was much impressed with the magnificence of the congressional library building.

Mrs. Jo Morris and family went to Marion Tuesday for a visit with Mr. Morris' parents.

John D. Fain shot at Champoug.

Darius Tallman who returned from Champoug Wednesday where he had been doing a job of plastering brought word of a shooting scrape that occurred in that village at an early hour that morning. J. F. Markley owns the building in which he is running a store, while the ground on which the building stood belonged to John D. Fain. The latter sold the lot to Mr. Jette who owns the principal store of the village and on the transfer of the property Mr. Jette gave Markley notice to move his building off the property. These proceedings incensed Markley and with but little warning he fired a shot at Fain which took effect in the stomach. No one was present to witness the shooting but Fain shouted for help and lived about two hours, then being able to give his version of the shooting. The sheriff at Salem was called by phone and a deputy soon arrived and placed Markley under arrest.

Notice.

Having sold my stock of goods in Newberg, and the good will of the business to Mr. R. B. Linville, I wish to thank the people for the kind treatment and liberal patronage they have given me since I have been in business in Newberg. And I shall be glad to know that my successor has fared as well as your hands as I have.

Respectfully,

J. G. HADLEY.

I wish to say to the readers of the Graphic that I have bought the little store of Mr. J. G. Hadley. I shall continue the business at the same stand, and shall endeavor to maintain the good reputation of the house for low prices and fair dealing, and hope to merit and receive a fair share of the public patronage.

Respectfully,

R. B. LINVILLE.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist C. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, 25c at F. H. Caldwell & Co.
