

Catarrh

Is a constitutional disease. It originates in a scrofulous condition of the blood and depends on that condition. It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, it affects the vocal organs, disturbs the stomach. It is always radically and permanently cured by the blood-purifying, alterative and tonic action of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

This great medicine has wrought the most wonderful cures of all diseases depending on scrofula or the scrofulous habit.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best cathartic.

X-Ray Not in It. "As I understand it, an X-ray will go right through a man's head. There is nothing else quite so penetrating, is there?" "Oh, I don't know. Did you ever hear my daughter sing?"—Tit Bits.

It Cures White You Walk. Allen's Foot-Paste makes tight and new shoes feel easy. It is a certain cure for sweating, callous and corns, itching, redness, and all other ailments of the feet. Trial package mailed FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Often the Case. "They say his wife drove him to drink." "Perhaps she did but from what I know of him I think he would have been awfully disappointed if she hadn't."—Chicago Post.

How to Get a Sample. If you are particular about the spices you use and want to try the brand which is par excellence, send us two 2-cent stamps with the name of your grocer, and we will send you by mail a 10 cent tin of Monopole White Pepper or Cayenne or Ginger or other variety you may select. We only want you to try them, for that will make you know their strength and pungency and purity better than anything else. Address Wadhams & Kerr Bros., Portland, Oregon.

Her Position. Mrs. Parke—What kind of servants do you prefer—white or black, Irish or German? Mrs. Lane—I've gotten beyond that. I'm looking for servants that prefer me.—Puck.

Better than gold—like it in color—Hamlin's Wizard Oil, which cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia and every pain. 50c.

A Hard One. The eminent Boston professor who declares that there can be no more languages invented has probably not heard of the Georgetown man with a hare lip who is teaching a parrot to talk.—Washington Post.

Mothers will find Mrs. Wintrow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

An Unfavorable Symptom. "You have what I call a quinine cough," said the doctor, proceeding to mix a dose of medicine for his caller. "And a quinine cough, I suppose," wheezed the patient, "is a sort of a Peruvian bark."—Youth's Companion.

CASTOR OIL CANNOT BE CURED

With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Castor oil is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must use internal medicine. Hall's Castor Oil is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and the regular circulation. Hall's Castor Oil is not a quick medicine. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and its regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best food purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing castor oil. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHEN, Proprietor, Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, price 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

An Estimate of Art. "Have you ever written anything that you were ashamed of," inquired the severe relative. "No," answered the author. "But I hope to some day. I need the money."—Washington Star.

FITS

Permanently Cured. No fits or convulsions after first use of Dr. Allen's Great Nerve Restorer. Sold by druggists and dealers. Dr. H. H. Russell, Ltd., 501 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Good Guess. "He is a terrible woman hater." "Yes, I suspect that at some time he must have been a floor walker in a department store."—Puck.

The Cabbage Cure. Cabbage is an old cure for drunkenness. The Egyptians ate it boiled before their other food if they intended to drink wine after dinner, and some of the remedies sold as a preventative of intoxication on the continent are said to contain cabbage seed.

The Oldest and Best.

S. S. S. is a combination of roots and herbs of great curative powers, and when taken into the circulation searches out and removes all manner of poisons from the blood, without the least shock or harm to the system. On the contrary, the general health begins to improve from the first dose, for S. S. S. is not only a blood purifier, but an excellent tonic, and strengthens and builds up the constitution while purging the blood of impurities. S. S. S. cures all diseases of a blood poison origin, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Herpes and similar troubles, and is an infallible cure and the only antidote for that most horrible disease, Contagious Blood Poison.

A record of nearly fifty years of successful cures is a record to be proud of. S. S. S. is more popular today than ever. It numbers its friends by the thousands. Our medical correspondence is larger than ever in the history of the medicine. Many write to thank us for the great good S. S. S. has done them, while others are seeking advice about their cases. All letters receive prompt and careful attention. Our physicians have made a life-long study of Blood and Skin Diseases, and better understand such cases than the ordinary practitioner who makes a specialty of no one disease.

We are doing great good to suffering humanity through our consulting department, and invite you to write us if you have any blood or skin trouble. We make no charge whatever for this service.

HOW TO AVOID BALDNESS.

Do Not Wear Your Hat Too Tight Over Your Temples. The writer of this squib has much hair on his head. As a young man it was black as a crow's wing, curly, the envy of rivals and the despair of imitators; as a middle-aged man, iron gray, thick, luxuriant, with no disposition to grow less. How does it happen that this one individual is singled out from all the rest to be the possessor of so much hair? Has it been the result of hair tonics? Is it the result of frequent indulgences in shampoos by the barber? Has he been spending money for some famous hair restorer? Nothing of the sort. None of these things has happened. It has been brought about neither by wise management nor heredity. This is the way it happened: The head upon which this luxuriant hair grows is of long diameter from before backwards, but of short diameter from side to side. That is to say a long, thin head, with rather hollow temples. This makes it impossible for him to buy a hat that fits tightly to his head. His head being so long, he is obliged to buy a 7½, which is always too wide for his thin head. He has probably never worn a hat in his life that fit tightly over the temples.

Well, what has all this to do with luxuriant hair? It has much to do with it. The temporal arteries that supply the scalp with blood run up the side of the temples. The average person wears a hat that fits tightly over the temples. This constriction of the arteries and veins that supply the circulation of the blood and the pressure of the hat upon these blood vessels cut off in part the circulation of the blood to the scalp. This makes the hair unhealthy and inclined to drop out. Bald-headedness comes on prematurely. But in case of the long-headed person we are describing, no hat could be found that would fit tightly across the temples.

It was no wisdom of his that preserved his hair, but merely the accidental shape of his head. He has always been obliged to wear a hat that touched the forehead and back of the head, but did not touch the sides of his head. This left the circulation of the blood free to the scalp. Hence the bristling, rugged, healthy mop of hair on his head. Each hair stays in its place with the tenacity of a pine stump. A pound weight would not be sufficient to pull out a single hair.

Now, if there is any lesson to be learned from all this, it is simply to avoid wearing anything on the head that presses the temples. This is probably the reason that women have a better growth of hair. It is rare indeed to see a bald-headed woman. It is very common to see a bald-headed man. Women's hats are worn as ornaments rather than for protection. They rarely touch the head at all. Men wear hats tightly clasped about the head, interfering with the circulation of the scalp. This is why they are bald. They ought to be bald if they don't know any better. Doubtless they will continue to be bald in spite of this article or anything else that can be written. Round-headed men are bound to become bald-headed, simply because their hats hug tightly to their heads.—Medical Talk.

SUMMER COLDS

Produce Chronic Catarrh.

Strange Misapprehension. Boris—How do you like that last poem of mine? Nagus—First rate. It's so restful, so soothing, don't you know. Boris—Restful! Great Scott, man! It's an epic! Nagus—Good Heavens! I thought it was a lullaby.

His Good Wife. Dr. Price—Your husband's trouble is melancholia. Now, you'll help him materially if you'll only arrange some pleasant surprise for him. Mrs. Sharpe— I know! I know! I'll tell him you said he needn't bother about paying your bill till he feels like it.

A Real Bargain. Mr. Youngthing—How in the world did you come to deposit that money in the bank instead of buying that automobile car you wanted? Mrs. (triumphantly)—Why, I read in this morning's paper that the interest had been reduced from four per cent to three!—Puck.

Gutta Percha Pens. Pens of hardened gutta percha have been repeatedly tried in this country and England, but have not met with success.

Native Pride. "The greatest race across the Atlantic that I ever heard tell of," began the old racing skipper. "Is the Oirish, of course," interrupted Hoolligan.—Catholic Standard Times.

An Experienced Angler. Ethel—Would you consider Percy Monocotek a good catch? Madge—Certainly; if all the others got away!—Puck.

My Friends and I. My little love is five flights high. And some might think that its walls are bare; But sweet communion my friends and I Have often held in the silence there. Noble, exalted, they come to me Fair as they were in the earth's first bloom, Whispering hope for the time to be, These are my friends in the little love room.

Shakespeare of Stratford, Bacon, Carlyle, Emerson dreaming his long, long dream, Dickens with sighs that are lost in a smile, Milton—unblinded the gods for his theme; Goldsmith, weary no more nor lone, Chatterton, safe though the storm rages high; Byron into his heritage grown— Royal companionship here have I.

Homer, singing the song of strife; Virgil, at rest by a sun-kissed shore; Longfellow, chanting the "Psalm of Life," Poe, who will leave me—ah, never more!

Gentle Hawthorne of Salem town; Whitier, thrilling the heart of the free; One and all from my shelves look down, Step to my side and talk to me.

Kings in your palaces, here is more— Here, in faith, in a little love room— Than regal state and golden store, The crowd's mad clamor, the cannon's boom, Shades of the mighty come to me, Sit and chat as the hours go by, Prophecy things that the soul shall see— And so we are happy, my friends and I.—Success.

As His Child Saw Him. A prominent real estate man in Los Angeles had an experience a few evenings ago that kept him guessing for a little bit as to whether he should feel complimented or otherwise. He was at home with one little daughter while his wife and another of the children were downtown. Darkness was coming on and the little girl was anxiously watching for her mother's return. Her nervousness grew apace, in spite of the father's attempts at reassurance. At length the little one burst into tears, saying: "I just can't help it. I need mamma, and I must have her!" "Do you do this way when your mamma is here and I'm away?" asked the father. "No, of course not," replied the little one. "Cause then there's some grown-up person about the house."—Los Angeles Herald.

Knev-Deep in Kansas. Eugene F. Ware, the new commissioner of pensions, who, over the name of "Ironquill," long ago established his reputation as a wit and writer of verse, has been much interested for years in the condition of roads in his adopted State of Kansas.

Recently R. W. Richardson, secretary of the National Good Roads Association, who is preparing to take a good roads construction train across the continent, said to Mr. Ware: "How do you think the farmers in Kansas stand on the road question?" "Up to their knees," was the reply.—Philadelphia Post.

Long Hair

"About a year ago my hair was coming out very fast, so I bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stopped the falling and made my hair grow very rapidly, until now it is 45 inches in length."—Mrs. A. Boydston, Atchison, Kans.

There's another hunger than that of the stomach. Hungry hair needs food, needs hair vigor—Ayer's. This is why we say that Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color, and makes the hair grow long and heavy. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address: J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

A New Version. "Do you think that all the world loves a lover?" "Well, not exactly. But all the tradespeople do."—Lila.

Had "Been There." "I believe her father is well to do, isn't he?" "On the contrary, I've found him very hard to do."—N. Y. Times.
