

THE NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER. W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR. Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1902.

The alarming frequency of fatal automobile accidents is a new factor at work against the demonstration of old Malthus' theory. The Graphic admonishes its readers against the senseless and reckless speeding of autos.

The Portland Chronicle says that in the retirement of H. W. Corbett from politics the republican party receives a wound that only time can heal. It is possible that the Chronicle will suffer more from the wound than will the republican party.

By means of editorial discussion the Seattle papers are endeavoring to determine whether their recent Elk's Carnival was a success—the fact that such a question exists being one point against the carnival. It is yet too early for such an attitude of skepticism on the part of the Portland dailies, as the people's hand earned money has barely stopped its flow in Portland's direction.

In refuting the charge that Furnish spent thousands of dollars to secure his election as governor, the Eugene Register says that it has yet to find a single paper that received from him, directly or indirectly a single dollar for supporting his candidacy. Perhaps that is where Mr. Furnish made his mistake. There's a great art in knowing how to place money conducive to largest returns.

Mrs. Waggoner having found it a poor investment to discover a dead Merrill has tried again by discovering and eloping with a live one, the dead outlaw's brother. Decent people who have been led in their complaint because she did not receive the reward, should rejoice that the woman who has thus deserted her family received no money from this state with which to support herself and a worthless renegade in crime.

There is now noticeably less talk as to President Roosevelt's lack of sincerity in his determined attitude against the trusts. The habit of questioning Roosevelt's motives won't go down with the American people. The fact that his anti-trust position aroused the money power in his own state into opposition to his endorsement by the New York convention, indicates conclusively that the trusts themselves believe Teddy to be as good as his word.

Detroit valet keepers have shown a willingness to contribute toward the expenses of the big Christian Endeavor convention, for the reason as stated by a prominent liquor dealer, that they will get their share of the business which the big convention brings. "Camp followers" who take advantage of C. E. excursion rates will doubtless bring some such business but as far as the organization itself is concerned the insinuation is so palpably malicious as to pass without comment.

In speaking of good citizenship President Roosevelt makes a few thoroughly practical bits. In place of soaring grandiloquently in a plea for deeds of glory on gory battlefields, for defense of the flag and the country's honor, which is well enough occasionally, he says that the first test of citizenship is that a man shall behave well in his own family. "A man has got to be a bread winner. He has got to take care of his wife and children. He has got to be a man his neighbors can trust. He has got to get square in his business relations. He has got to do all these ordinary, everyday things or he is not a good citizen."

Those fond of working on political riddles may show their hand on the Oregon senatorial puzzle. Certain wisecracks thought they had it solved some while ago but as time passes they are guessing again. Senator Felton and Governor Geer have been considered rather in the forefront of the situation but it has often been shown that the prominent candidate within a few votes of the goal is of all candidates most miserable. It is in looking from this standpoint that so many hopeful aspirants are willing to bring up the rear at present in the faith that in the fullness of time the first shall be last and the last shall be first.

Additional Local.

Most of the hop pickers are returning home the latter part of this week. A family from Canby named Mandeville, friends of J. J. Cooks, drove over Wednesday.

Boy Heater came home Wednesday evening from Portland where he has been carpentering.

A gentleman named Moyer, a brother-in-law of L. W. Dussinger, arrived here a few days ago from Michigan.

Mrs. Ervin Scott and children returned home the middle of the week from a visit with relatives in Portland.

A. L. Watson who has a slighty place on Chehalis mountain is planning a trip to British Columbia in a few weeks.

A. Amersman and daughter who have been picking hops in this vicinity returned to their home near Salem Tuesday.

A Portland gentleman named W. F. White was in town the middle of the week looking after some fine place brick for a new residence he is erecting.

Ann Morse and Clint Newhouse got back Wednesday from Gilliam county where they have been laboring in the harvest fields during the summer.

K. Spohrer and family were in Portland Thursday. Mr. Spohrer has not sold his hop crop yet and says he is going to hold it for twenty-five cents.

Mrs. W. G. Allen has been visiting relatives in town this week. Will is running an evaporator at Weiser, Idaho, where she contemplates joining him soon.

The long hill at the foot of Wynooki street has been put in shape for winter hauling by being re-graveled. Gravel has also been placed on the bad places of the streets about town.

Postmaster Imus of Dundee who was in town Wednesday said that the Ryan boys had sold their hop crop, the price being twenty cents. Mr. Imus has not yet decided just what he will do since selling his farm.

Alfred Moore has rented his property on Meridian street north of the Bank of Newberg to W. A. Mumaw, the gentleman who bought the Kruger stock of goods. He will probably not take possession before the first of October.

Strayed—From my place in Newberg a large cream colored Jersey cow, with white spot in forehead and white on her breast, 8 years old. Suitable reward will be given for information that leads to recovery. A. N. Pressnall.

Miss Minnie Newby expects to leave within two or three days for the Friends mission field at Kaak Village, Alaska, where she is to assist in the work. She will join Mrs. Moon at Seattle and together they will proceed on their journey.

Charles Baldwin, a brother of Mrs. Ann Lamb from Emporia, Kansas, with his daughter Mrs. Maggie Hiatt and Miss Sarah Hiatt have been in town during the week. On Thursday they drove to Roseburg in company with Mrs. Lamb and Dan Gilbert.

Strayed—Last Friday I took up at the J. C. Kirk farm east of town one black Poland China boar, both ears slit; also, two weeks ago I took up four goats. Owners of above mentioned property can have same by paying all costs. J. C. Beckner.

Charley Hoist had a break down on the Wynooki hill Wednesday evening when on the way home with a lot of hop picker's luggage. It must have been rather interesting, judging from the amount of screaming said to have been done by the women in the crowd.

Master Loyd Votaw who is with his parents at Bonanza, in the Yukon Territory has a light job as hostler for a physician there and is recompensed with twenty-five dollars a month. His former playmates here who are soon to buckle down to book and rule will think of him with envy.

Thomas Hester is taking steps preparatory to attaining a long cherished desire to enter the ranks of the medical profession. He has rented a house in South Portland to which he moved his family this week, and on October 1 he will enter upon the course of study as offered by the State Medical school.

Tom Snodgrass of West Chehalis is something of a hay baron this year, having cut two hundred tons of chest and timothy hay for the market. He had it all baled, has sold and shipped some of it, and is storing the rest in the Ward, Barclay & Jones new warehouse. He is receiving seven to ten dollars a ton which he finds beats wheat raising all to pieces.

N. E. Kegg of Multnomah, formerly of Newberg, who persisted in drinking himself insane, and who has been a patient at the state insane asylum two or three years, has begun habeas corpus proceedings against Superintendent Calbreath. Kegg alleges that his commitment was irregular, and furthermore, that as he has been restored to his health and right mind he is being wrongfully detained and separated from his business interests in this county.

Wednesday morning while Postmaster Saunders was sweeping the postoffice he found a two-thirds grown scorpion on the floor. How it came there is a mystery as there is no such animal in this part of Oregon. There is a fruit stand next door to the post office and it may have come in a box of fruit from California. It is a treacherous looking little bug, and when it was put into a bottle of alcohol it stung itself to death. It is on exhibition in Christman's barber shop.

Prof. O. C. Albertson, professor-elect of Science in Pacific College, and his wife, who is to serve as musical director of the college, arrived Tuesday evening direct from their home at Okaloosa, Iowa. They will make their home in the college dormitory where Prof. Albertson will act as governor. Both young people come well prepared to take up their work here. Prof. Albertson was for four years a practical pharmacist and since his graduation at Penn College has had two years experience in teaching the Sciences. He resigned in teaching the Sciences as professor of Science in the Okaloosa High School to accept the work here and comes highly recommended as a thorough student, a competent instructor and a Christian gentleman. Mrs. Albertson is a cultured lady of rare ability who has had unusual advantages in her musical education. Her instrumental work was under the direct instruction of Prof. Henri Ruffok, formerly of Leipzig, Germany, at present superintendent of The Des Moines College of Music. In vocal study she has been under the instruction of Prof. Louis F. Burnett of Penn College and Mrs. Sheffield of Chicago. It may be expected that the music department of Pacific College will take some advance steps under her efficient management. Prof. and Mrs. Albertson will be with Pres. McGrew a few days until they get settled in their rooms at the dormitory.

Miss Flossie Coffin and brother Herbert, of Newberg, are here picking hops. Mrs. J. B. Riley has leased the Dayton hotel to James Edgar, of Dayton, who took charge of the hotel Wednesday. Harry Starr has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Hazelwood Cream Company of Portland. Although he has been working some for that company since the first of the year, he was not regularly employed until this week.—Herald.

J. J. Hollingsworth and family of Wyoming, Nebraska, Mrs. McLane, of LaGrande and Mrs. Sarah Hollingsworth of Sellwood, visited in town the first of the week with W. W. Hollingsworth. J. J. Hollingsworth has been running on the B. & M. road in the capacity of engineer for sixteen years and says he has never been in a mix up on the line. This is an enviable record for an engineer running over a road where the number of trains daily reach up near the one hundred mark.

G. C. Carl, W. C. Kruger, John Larkin, F. H. Storey, H. A. Grafe and C. J. Edwards attended a public meeting of the citizens of Chehalis Center neighborhood on Tuesday night when the question of extending the local telephone service to that community was considered. Much interest was manifested and as a result of the discussion the first steps toward the inauguration of the service were taken by the appointment of the following named substantial citizens as directors: H. C. Paulson, J. C. Lucas, W. R. Carter, N. G. Kirk and Enos Ellis. The home telephone company seems to be getting to the front with both feet, notwithstanding the opposition offered by the big corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Aldrich and baby arrived here last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Aldrich's parents Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Larson, direct from the fire devastated village of Palmer and Bridal Veil. Mr. Aldrich was one of the foremost employees in the big Bridal Veil sawmill which burned to the ground, at a loss of nearly a hundred thousand dollars, and the company owes him some twenty-five hundred dollars. They themselves made a narrow escape in the night as the wind changed suddenly with the result that they were almost surrounded by the flames before they were aware of their danger. They lost their well furnished home and all it contained, barely getting enough clothing to make themselves presentable. Twenty-seven families at Palmer met with like loss.

Up to yesterday morning the Hoek were house had received 80,000 bushels of wheat. The Star Mill and the Atlas mills, owned and controlled by Daniel & Son, had received 50,000 bushels. Mr. Hoek has bought already more than 27,000 bushels, which is very unusual at this season. The price quoted is 54 cents. A few advance copies of the immigration pamphlet were received by the committee yesterday. The presses are running night and day on the order for 85,000. The pamphlet is the most creditable gotten out by any county in Oregon so far as we have seen. Ten thousand will be retained by the committee for distribution and the balance will be given to the Harriman interests for their immigration agents to handle.—Telephone Register.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford, state president of the W. C. T. U., spent Sunday at home north of town, having just returned from the state convention at Roseburg, where she declares to be the best ever held. The presence of the noted Polish patriot and temperance orator, John Sobieski, added enthusiasm to the convention, and Mrs. Harford says Newberg will in all probability have a chance to hear him in the near future. Some other speakers and their subjects were, Mrs. Ada Wallace Urub, "Snap Shots from an Organizer's Kodak"; Hon. J. H. Shupe, "How Can Women Aid Legislation"; "Helen E. Ferguson, "How to Undermine the Citadel." Many interesting discussions and open parlaments were held. The number, "Mrs. Grundy Revoles," was especially entertaining and unique, society women unacquainted with reform work being impermeated. Officers were elected as follows: Helen D. Harford, president, Newberg; Mary E. Townsend, vice-president, Portland; Mary E. Allen, corresponding secretary, Newberg; Sarah M. Kern, recording secretary; H. S. Kern, J. Shupe, treasurer, Portland; Secretary "Y" branch, Mrs. Marie Oute, Newberg; Secretary of L. T. L. branch, Miss Gertrude Grosbeck, Creswell. Mrs. Harford left Monday for work in Montana.

He Liked It. For some time the little band of dispensers of manifest destiny had labored with the recalcitrant Filipino. Now, at the last, while their efforts were yet unsuccessful, they had exhausted the water supply. "Well," said the chief operator, "get up. I never before saw a man who could absorb water like you do. Who are you, anyway?"

With a end, sweet smile the captive handed him a card inscribed: FELIPE AQUITANO, Chairman Prohibition Central Committee, Province of Luzon.
